This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Rev. A. M. Lorrain.

3. Resolved, That should his health be restored, we will welcome him again to active service in the Cincinnati Conference.

4. Resolved, That we hope brother Lorrain will be able and will be disposed to use his facile pen to enrich the columns of our periodical literature, and we most heartily commend him to our editors as eminently worthy of being employed as a regular contributor with a liberal compensation.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

THE Committee on Education would respectfully report as follows:

Ohio Wesleyan University.

The University is in a prosperous condition, and has passed through the recent changes without any revulsion. Although decimated in the number of students by the recruiting service, and suffering in common with all other similar institutions from the state of the country, yet its interests are beyond jeopardy, from its well-known reputation and reliable financial basis. The financial condition of the University was subjected to a rigid examination, and new guarantees furnished of fidelity and safety in the investment of its funds. The new Professors are in their places, and seem in every way qualified for their responsibilities.

We herewith submit a statement of the financial condition of the University:

W. G. WILLIAMS,
Sec. of Board of Trustees.

We also offer these resolutions:

Resolved, That the presiding Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. L. D. M'Cabe Professor in the Ohio Wesleyan University.

Resolved, That Rev. J. M. Leavitt and Rev. J. Kendall be appointed a Visiting and Examining Committee to the Ohio Wesleyan University for the ensuing year.

Wilberforce University.

The past year has been the most successful one of its history, in regard to the number and deportment of the pupils, and their proficiency in study. The character of the institution has been yearly improving, and now offers to the colored youth of our land the best of advantages for intellectual and moral culture.

Rev. U. Heath has labored the past year with untiring zeal, but the pressure of the times has crippled his energies and seriously embarrassed him in the collection of his subscriptions.

The Trustees appeal to the Conference and the Church for aid and sympathy in sustaining this institution during the present crisis, anticipating a brighter era at no distant day, when the University shall become a still more honored instrumentality in the elevation of an injured race, and the evangelization of a benighted world.

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. R. S. Rust President of Wilberforce University for the ensuing year.

Resolved, That Rev. C. W. Sears and Rev. Wm. H. Sutherland be a Visiting and Examining Committee to the University.

Resolved, That we tender our sincere thanks to the Rev. U. Heath, for his untiring zeal and successful efforts in behalf of this Christian enterprise.

Resolved, That in view of the embarrassed condition of the Wilberforce University, resulting from the distracted state of the country, we cordially invite President Rust to visit us in our charges, as he is authorized by the Board of Trustees, there being no special agent employed this year, and we promise to co-operate with him in raising funds for its support.

Hillsboro Female College.

Resolved, That the following-named persons be elected as Trustees of the Hillsboro Female College, on the part of the Conference; namely: Jas. H. Thompson, Jacob Saylor, Wm. M. Meek, Enos Holmes, John L. Hughes, James Reed, Geo. March, H. S. Scarborough.

Resolved, That the presiding elder of the Hillsboro district, the pastor of Hillsboro station, and Rev. M. G. Purkhiser, be a Committee of Visitors and Examiners for the Hillsboro Female College for the ensuing year.

Springfield Female College, and High School.

The debt reported last year is yet unpaid, and has been increased by one year's interest, about three hundred dollars. It will be necessary to provide for the speedy payment of, perhaps, two thousand dollars, to prevent the sale of the College grounds and buildings. The Board are unable to meet this demand, and appeal to the Conference for counsel.

The importance of the School to Methodism, in a community so numerous and so intelligent, is too obvious to require remark. The institution is gradually regaining its former position, and will eventually secure the entire confidence of its patrons and of the public. Prof. Dial will manage its interests with zeal, fidelity, and skill, and his teachers are fully qualified to assist him in the noble work. The only difficulty in the way of its progress is pecuniary embarrassment. It was supposed that the bequest of Mr. M'Fadden, of Montgomery county, could aid in the liquidation of the debts of the institution, but this is forbidden by the intention of the donor, and by the terms of the will. The hopes of creditors based on this impression must therefore be disappointed. It remains with the Conference to determine how its claims shall be met, and its credit retrieved. The institution is cordially commended by the Committee to the confidence of the Conference, the Church, and the public, and sincerely is it hoped that measures will be devised to relieve its pressing embarrassments.

Resolved, That the presiding elder of Urbana district, and the pastors in Springfield, be appointed a Committee of Visitors and Examiners for the ensuing year.

Linden Hill Academy.

This institution, which came under our care one year ago, is reported to us this year as in fair condition, suffering, like other similar institutions, from the financial pressure of these times, but yet doing as well as could be expected. The grounds consist of a lot of five and five-eighth acres, on which is a substantial brick building, 44 by 66 feet, two stories high, containing school and other rooms sufficient for all purposes of teaching and boarding. The property has been deeded, in accordance with the action of this body at its last session, to the following Trustees: John Johnston, Isaac Meranda, Wm. A. Lamme, Jacob Hull, Samuel Brown, David Reed, Samuel S. Sterrett, John Gawes, and Jas. D. Leffer.

FINANCIAL EXHIBIT.

ASSETS: Grounds, Buildings, Furniture, Apparatus, etc.....$4,000 INDEBTEDNESS.....

We submit the following:

Resolved, That the Bishop is hereby requested to reappoint the Rev. John Braden Principal of this institution for the ensuing year.

Resolved, That the pastor of Troy station, and the preacher in charge of New Carlisle circuit, be appointed a Committee of Visitors and Examiners for the ensuing year.

Xenia Female College.

We are pleased to be able to report that this school has done well during the past year. The Catalogue last published shows an increase of pupils, and the financial exhibit shows that the institution is in a good condition in that respect. It is as follows:

Financial Condition of the Xenia Female College, Sept. 1, 1861.

Liabilities	$1,100 00
Available Subscriptions and Bills Receivable	800 00

CHAS. R. MERRICK, Secretary of Board of Trustees.

We submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Rev. Geo. W. Harris and the pastor of Xenia station be a Committee of Visitors and Examiners to the institution for the ensuing year.

The German Department of the Baldwin University,

At Berea, Ohio, had, during the last year, thirty-nine students. The endowment of $10,000 for the German Professorship is not yet full. But Rev. Jacob Rothweiler, satisfied with the small salary which the interests of the paying scholarships paid, continued, with self-sacrificing zeal and with his characteristic energy and perseverance, his efforts to carry on this important educational enterprise, and succeeded in advancing somewhat the financial prospects of the institution, so far as the financial pressure of the country would permit. The annual examinations, also, were an honor to the German Department and its professor.

We would therefore beg leave to report the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we recommend the German Department of the Baldwin University to the cordial support of the German members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in this and the adjoining Conferences.

2. Resolved, That we earnestly call upon the members of this Conference, and the membership in their fields of labor, who have given notes in favor of this institution, to pay the installment due thereon; and that the preachers actively co-operate in the collection thereof, and of the remainder of the endowment fund.

3. Resolved, That Rev. E. Wunderlich be appointed a Visitor and Examiner to the German Department of the Baldwin University, during the ensuing year.

Plan of Ministerial Education.

1. Resolved, That we cordially approve the plan of ministerial education adopted almost unanimously by the Conference of 1859 and 1860, at Dayton and Oxford.

2. Resolved, That while we should be careful in pushing forward new enterprises before the present difficulties of our nation are adjusted by the universal triumphs of law, yet, till that auspicious day arrives, we recommend that the Rev. John M. Leavitt be requested to effect what is possible, in connection with his pastoral office, toward securing the future success of the aforesaid plan.

Funds for Education.

1. That a committee be appointed to draw up a circular on Education, immediately, to go forth with, not in, the forthcoming Minutes, enough to supply all our people with a copy, setting forth all the facts connected with the object in view.

2. That our ministers be required at all their appointments, some time on or before the 1st of January, 1862, to preach a sermon upon Education—a duty required by the Discipline, but very much neglected—and open a subscription for an annual donation to the cause of education, or take up a collection, as they may deem best, either at the time the sermon is preached, or on Christmas or New-Year's day.

3. This sum shall be forwarded to, and placed in the hands of, a disbursing committee, appointed by this Conference, to be applied for the immediate relief of the most needy institutions under our patronage.

4. That we instruct this disbursing committee to apply the first thousand dollars that may come into their hands for the relief of the Hillsboro Female College, and any additional money, if any, upon the accruing interest upon the balance of $5,000, which we purpose as a Conference to endeavor, in good faith, to liquidate; provided that no money be paid on interest or principal till unmistakable guarantees be furnished by the Trustees of said College that the balance of the indebtedness of the institution will be met; that no interest is to be paid from year to year unless there is a corresponding payment of interest by the Trustees on the balance of their obligations.

5. Should there be any more money collected the present year than may be required to discharge the above obligations, the balance shall be applied to pay the interest or principal of any debts pressing upon any other institutions, as the Committee may judge most needy; provided, in every case, that nothing shall be paid either on interest or principal, if the Trustees, without the consent of this Conference, allow the obligations they have assumed to be increased, by accruing interest on the College, burdened with new debts for incidental or other expenses.

Resolved, That a committee, consisting of brothers Sears, Dustin, Ninde, Chalfant, and Lowrey, be appointed to prepare and distribute the circular, under the plan reported by the Committee on Education, and to receive and disburse the funds.

REPORT ON PARSONAGES.

THE Committee on Parsonages respectfully report, they have given attention to the subject.

They learn from our published Minutes, that for the accommodation of 117 charges and 9 districts we have but 79 parsonages reported, leaving 47 charges without any regular provision for the families of ministers which may be sent to them. Thus it appears much remains to be done in this important department.

But we may be told this is not the time to extend our work. In some cases it may not be; in others it may be the very best time to extend. But if not, then let all concerned husband well the ground already gained. Let all seek to preserve and improve those we have. Proper care and fidelity on the part of pastors and trustees would make many of those now dilapidated parsonages comfortable and attractive homes.

It is expected, and should be required of us all, as stewards in trust, that we be found faithful. We owe it to the cause of God and to ourselves not to neglect or injure the property confided to our care. Let all unite to make these homes of the itinerant convenient, attractive, and comfortable.

In behalf of Committee. N. CALLENDER.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

RESOLVED, That, as a Conference, we believe that the editorial course pursued by Dr. Kingsley, touching the unhappy and convulsed state of the country, growing out of treason and rebellion, is every way worthy of highest commendation, and that the Advocate, heretofore always a welcome visitor in the family circle, is now rendered thrice welcome, because of its high-toned patriotic spirit, and that we do most heartily indorse Dr. Kingsley in his able editorials to uphold the laws and suppress rebellion.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to do every thing in our power to sustain the Western Christian Advocate during the depression of our commercial affairs, growing out of our present political troubles, and to secure a more extensive circulation of it within our circuits and stations.

Resolved, That the Ladies' Repository, which from its commencement has been conducted with singular ability and success, under the supervision of its present accomplished and scholarly editor, Rev. D. W. Clark, D. D., it has attained a much higher degree of excellence than at any former period, and that we not only heartily approve this queen of monthlies, and will recommend it to the ladies, but welcome its editor to our Conference, and assure him a warm place in our affections and prayers for his future success.

Resolved, That we most heartily indorse the editorial course of Dr. Nast, and that we will consider it a part of our duty to introduce the Christian Apologist into every German family; and as our German preachers do not travel within the bounds of all our circuits and stations, we will do our utmost to extend its circulation among the German population, and try to persuade our brethren that employ Germans to work for them to place a copy of our excellent paper in their hands for perusal, confidently believing that it is a powerful auxiliary in saving souls and overthrowing error and the superstitions of Popery.

Resolved, That as a Conference we are not insensible of the long-continued, arduous, and valuable services of Rev. Erwin House, who, for many years past, has acted in the character of assistant editor of the Western Christian Advocate, and that he is beloved as a fellow-laborer, and highly esteemed by us for his work's sake.

Respectfully submitted.

MAXWELL P. GADDIS, Chairman.
EHRHARDT WUNDERLICH,
T. S. COWDEN.

REPORT ON THE BETHEL CAUSE.

FROM the information which we have been able to gather, it seems that the Western Seamen's Friends' Society has prospered in general, and especially within the bounds of our Conference. It has lately felt the pressure of the times, like other benevolent enterprises. The Society makes no request for any ministerial appointments. We, however, recommend it to the Christian sympathies of both our ministers and people.

A. M. LORRAIN,
S. D. CLAYTON.

REPORT ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

IN addition to the amounts collected for the American Bible Society, reported in the statistics of the Conference, the Committee report a bequest from Rev. J. B. Finley of $50, and a donation from the Preble County Bible Society of $28.

The following resolutions are submitted to the Conference for adoption:

1. Resolved, That we regard the American Bible Society, in its noble and successful efforts to give universal circulation to the Holy Scriptures, as worthy our earnest support, and that we will heartily co-operate with its accredited agent within our bounds in promoting the interests of the cause.

2. Resolved, That the large appropriations of Bibles and Testaments recently and now being made by the Society for the benefit of our army, call for an increase of liberality on the part of its friends.

3. Resolved, That the members of our Conference be requested to have the claims of the cause presented in their respective charges during the year, and to have the amounts raised for the Society duly reported to the Committee on the Bible Cause, either in cash or receipt of agent, so as to appear in the Minutes to the credit of the Conference.

4. Resolved, That we respectfully request the Bishop to appoint the Rev. W. Herr as Agent of the American Bible Society in Southern Ohio.

Very respectfully submitted.

W. H. LAWDER, Chairman.

T. COLLETT, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

THE Committee on the Tract Cause beg leave to report that we are yet without an organized branch of the Tract Society in our Conference, except among our German brethren. The following sums have been reported:

Piqua, Green-Street, by Rev. W. Herr, for soldiers in the army	$5 00
Williamsburg circuit, by Rev. M. P. Zink	5 00
From the German brethren, and paid over to Treas. of their Soc'ty	77 40
Lynchburg circuit, by Rev. J. Manning, per receipt	7 37
Winchester circuit, by Rev. W. N. Maxey	1 00
In hand of Treasurer of German brethren	8 84
From Davisson Chapel, expended for Good News	4 00
From Middletown, for Good News, by Rev. A. Meharry	8 00
" " expended for tracts, " "	3 50
From Concord circuit " "	2 00
Money now on hand to be remitted	11 00

Having undiminished confidence in this department of our work we commend its interest to the brethren of the Conference, and recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That each preacher in charge be requested to take a collection for the Tract Cause in all his congregations, between the first and second quarterly meetings, and that the funds be placed in the hand of the presiding elder of his district, to be remitted by him to the Treasurer of the Parent Society.

2. Resolved, That each preacher is advised to avail himself of the resolution of the Parent Society, "to send ten copies of the Good News gratuitously to each appointment in the connection that will take a collection for the Treasury during the year."

ON THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

THE Committee on the State of the Country, having duly considered the grave subject referred to them, would respectfully present the following report and resolutions for adoption by the Cincinnati Conference:

The Word of God teaches that "the powers that be are ordained of God," and requires us to "render unto Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's." Under the auspices of the special providence of Almighty God, our fathers established the National Government of these United States with the following declaration: "We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America." For more than three-quarters of a century, under this Constitution, our country has prospered beyond all precedent, exciting the admiration or envy of the nations, leading the march of Christian civilization, and dispensing its blessings so richly as to invite the oppressed thousands of the Old World to our shores.

But in the midst of our prosperity the stability of this matchless fabric of Government and freedom is put to a fearful test. A terrible rebellion of a large section of the Union threatens, by open, flagrant, deadly war, the very existence of the nation. In this crisis the Government has no alternative but to submit to dismemberment and death, or to defend its life and maintain its authority by force of arms.

On this question the enlightened, loyal, Christian citizen can not hesitate. And we are fully persuaded that not only is the welfare of our own country, but the world's hope of civil and religious liberty, involved in the solution of the question, Shall the integrity and authority of our National Government be maintained over all these States?

With these views and convictions be it

1. Resolved, That civil government is of God, and the obligation to obey just human laws refers directly to Divine authority and sanction, as revealed in the Holy Scriptures.

2. That the Constitution of the United States, and the laws of Congress in conformity therewith, are the supreme law of this whole land, binding on the inhabitants of every State and territory.

3. That armed resistance to this law is a most wicked and unwarrantable rebellion; and that it is the sacred duty of those charged with the administration of our National Government to put down this rebellion by every proper means required to that end.

4. That it is the religious duty of every citizen to lend all practicable support to the National Government in the maintenance of its authority over the whole land.

5. That the Union of the States is as pressing a necessity now as when it was originally formed by our fathers; and it is our bounden duty to sympathize and co-operate with the thousands of loyal Union men in the South, claiming their rights under the Constitution, and anxiously awaiting the opportunity successfully to assert them.

6. That we can but look on the calamities which so grievously afflict our country as the chastening of God for our national sins, by which he is teaching us our duty by "terrible things in righteousness;" and that it becomes us all to humble ourselves under his hand, to confess and forsake our personal and national offenses, and to implore the Divine mercy in their forgiveness, that "the work of righteousness may be peace."

7. That we recommend to all our preachers and people the sincere and devout observance of the National Fast, appointed by the President of the United States for the 26th of the present month, and that public religious services be held in all our churches, in town and country.

8. That we regard with deep interest the provision made by the Government for the religious instruction and comfort of our citizen soldiery by the appointment of a chaplain to each regiment; and that we assure our brethren of the several Churches who are appointed to that responsible and difficult position of our heart-felt sympathy, and of our earnest prayers for the success of their labors.

9. That we hail with unmingled satisfaction and gratitude to God the General Order of Major-General M'Clellan, commanding the Department of the Potomac, on the proper observance of the holy Sabbath by the army of the United States under his command; and assure him that this Order has thrilled the hearts of Christians throughout the land, and especially of those who have husbands, sons, or brothers in the field of conflict.

REPORT ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF DISCIPLINE.

THE Committee on the Administration of Discipline would submit the following as their report:

Believing that the members of this Conference know and love the Methodist Discipline, and sincerely endeavor to administer it according to its true intent and meaning, your Committee find it difficult to determine the object contemplated in its appointment, unless it be to direct attention to certain violations of Discipline which are said to have become common, and which are chargeable not so much to the ministry as to the action of official boards and committees, and sometimes to individual Church members.

The rule in relation to class meetings, that which relates to the raising of missionary money, and that which forbids the taking of such diversions as can not be used in the name of the Lord Jesus, may be mentioned among those that are difficult to be executed in view of the obstacles that are often thrown in the way. The class-leader may object to the execution of the rule on class meetings from fear of offending personal friends or influential Church members. The quarterly conference may object to the Disciplinary plan of raising missionary money from the fear of diminishing the funds that may be deemed necessary for home interests. And so of other rules. And the consequence is that, though the pastor may put forth sincere and earnest efforts to administer the Discipline of the Church in every particular, he may find his way to some extent hedged up. If he perseveres, doing his whole duty in the fear of God, his opponents, and especially those upon whose character and conduct the Discipline has been brought to bear, will persevere also in their opposition. Complaints will be trumped up against him of every imaginable form and shape. These complaints, groundless as they may be, will be spread far and wide—sometimes secretly sent to the presiding elder or bishop at Conference—greatly to the injury of the ministerial character and reputation of a faithful man of God. All this, however, may be borne with patience, and even with cheerfulness, by any true minister of Christ, provided his brethren of the Conference, his fellow-laborers in the kingdom and patience of Jesus, will stand by him and co-operate with him in the maintenance and defense of the old landmarks.

The following resolutions are submitted:

1. Resolved, That every pastor should defend and vindicate the administration of his predecessor, unless that administration should be clearly contrary to the Discipline.

2. Resolved, That, in order to a successful administration of Discipline, it is important that the officiary of every Church should faithfully co-operate with their pastor.

MEMOIR OF REV. ISAAC I. BEALL.

REV. ISAAC I. BEALL was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, September 18, 1823, and departed this life at the parsonage in Fairfield, Green county, Ohio, October 27, 1860, aged thirty-seven years, one month, and nine days.

His grandparents came from England, and were among the early settlers of Maryland. In 1801 his parents emigrated to Ohio, and settled in Fairfield county—and in their house was organized the first class in the neighborhood, if not in the county; and it was also the preaching-place for ten years. Young Beall, having thus the advantage of a religious education, became hopeful to his parents even in early life. His mother was impressed with the conviction that God designed her son for the work of the ministry. She had dedicated him to God by holy baptism in his infancy, and sent up to God many a faithful prayer that he would direct her son. He, however, had chosen to devote himself to the legal profession, and in his studies he had made most rapid proficiency. On the day on which he was to be admitted to the bar in due form, he was called aside by the deep affliction of a much-loved sister. In a short time this sister died, and the event became the means of his conviction of the necessity of salvation. He accordingly sought salvation, and in 1848 united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Soon afterward he obtained license to preach, by order of the Rushville quarterly conference, written by the Rev. J. M. Jamison. In 1849 he was recommended to the Ohio Annual Conference, and by the same was admitted the same year on trial. His first circuit was Concord, on which he traveled four months, and was then removed to New Carlisle, in the place of a preacher who had been transferred to fill a vacancy at another point. His second field, by appointment of the Bishop, was in Kentucky; his third, Middletown and Red Lion, where he remained for two years. Here he was united in marriage with Miss Martha Zeuring, who is now left to mourn the loss of her dear husband and two children. His fourth was Yellow Springs; his fifth, Fairfield; his sixth, Waynesville, where he labored for two years; his seventh was Hillsboro, where he also spent two years; his eighth was Fairfield station. Here he labored one year, and commenced the second, when that malignant disease, diptheria, visited his family, and in one week carried away his two children—lovely boys—and in another laid our brother cold in death.

On the Thursday previous to his decease, the writer called on him and found him suffering under a heavy cloud of disease. He expressed much pleasure at seeing one of his ministerial brethren, saying, "I am lonely here, yet not alone, for Jesus is with me, and I shall soon be with him forever. Tell my brethren at Conference, death to me has lost its sting and the grave its gloom. I shall fall in the arms of Jesus." He then called on me to sing

"Jesus, lover of my soul, Let me to thy bosom fly."

While we were engaged singing this hymn, and in prayer, he was exulting in hope of heaven. When I expressed the desire to meet him at Conference, he said, "I have been to the last Conference, but I shall meet you all in heaven." To brother Owen he said, "I am glad to see you; we have been long acquainted, and I wanted to see some of my ministerial brethren, that they might tell the Conference that all is well with me. I am glad I gave myself to the work of the ministry, and am associated with those who love with a peculiar love. I mean the itinerant Methodist ministers. But I shall soon take a transfer to the Conference above."

On the morning on which he died, brothers Brown and Braden called on him, and after an interval he called on brother Brown to kneel at the head of his bed "and pray that God may give me grace to sustain me to the last." During the prayer and the hymns which were sung, he was very happy.

Having told his wife on the previous evening that he should depart from this world about noon of the next day, he now called his wife and asked for his watch. Every few moments he would look at it as though time moved off too slowly. At about fifteen minutes before the time he had specified, he returned the watch to his wife, and gave to her and to those present his parting blessing. After the lapse of a few moments he turned in his bed as though going to sleep, and then without a struggle breathed his spirit into the hands of Christ.

Such was the peaceful end of this man of God. He looked not on death with fear. When others would weep in view of his approaching dissolution, he would say, "I am not dying, but beginning to live."

Brother Beall was truly a man of God. He was a high-toned Christian gentleman, one of God's noblemen. He possessed the essential qualifications for usefulness in the Church of God; he was decidedly popular, possessing a good mind, a liberal education, a warm heart; and he was ever faithful to his trust. But he has gone. No longer shall we behold his manly form in our midst, nor hear his words of wisdom in our councils; but we will love him still, and by the grace of God we shall meet him in heaven.

W. FITZGERALD.

MEMOIR OF REV. DANIEL GRIFFIS.

BROTHER GRIFFIS was born near Princeton, Butler county, O., March 29, 1827, and departed this life at the residence of his father, near Princeton, August 28, 1861, aged thirty-four years, four months, and twenty-nine days.

His early training was moral, though not strictly religious, his parents not having been members of any branch of the Christian Church. He was awakened to feel the necessity of salvation under a sermon preached by the Rev. L. F. Van Cleve, in January, 1850, from the words, "The wages of sin is death." On the first of the following month he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, under the administration of Rev. Charles Warrington, of Monroe circuit, and was connected with the class at Princeton. In a few days afterward he obtained the direct witness of the Spirit to his adoption, which filled his heart with joy and his mouth with praise. It was not long till he became impressed with the conviction that he must call sinners to repentance. For two years did he struggle hard against this conviction, while God was foiling him in all his temporal business, and darkness, as a thick cloud, was settling down upon his soul, and he began to feel "woe is me if I preach not the Gospel." He at last submitted to the indications of Providence, and in 1853 received license to exhort. In the Fall of the same year, and by order of the quarterly meeting conference of Monroe circuit, he received license to preach, written by the Rev. Augustus Eddy, presiding elder; was recommended to the Cincinnati Annual Conference, and was admitted by the same on trial into the traveling connection. His first circuit was Cumminsville; his second, Harrison; his third, North Bend—here he remained for two years; his fourth, Venice; his fifth, Port Union, where he remained also two years; his sixth and last, West Winchester, on which he labored to almost the close of the Conference year. It will be seen by this glance, that he traveled for the term of eight years, pointing sinners to "the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world." For several months his constitution gave evidence of the presence and potency of a disease which should finally terminate his earthly career. Yet he was faithful to his post, meeting his appointments often against the remonstrance of his friends. But so strong was his love for Christ and the salvation of souls, that "he counted not his life dear unto him."

The sermon before the last that he ever preached, was the last sermon preached at the Winchester camp meeting, from the words, "In thy presence there is fullness of joy, and at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore." He dwelt with rapturous emphasis on the joy of the Christian in the presence of God, and the boundless pleasures of the heavenly world. In the course of his sermon he gave utterance to the conviction that his end was nigh. At the close of his sermon he requested that all who would promise to meet him in heaven should signify the same by a rising vote, upon which nearly the whole congregation arose and thus promised to meet him on high.

On the evening before his death the writer was called to see him coasting the heavenly world. He was asked how he felt in view of approaching dissolution. He responded, "All is calm and clear as crystal; there's not a cloud on my mind; all is bright."

To his brother Stephen he said, "I am ready to die; all is calm, calm and clear! The Gospel I have preached to others supports me now. Tell my brethren of the Conference that the Gospel they preach is a wonderful, a powerful Gospel." And then, as his last act and utterance, he raised his hand and said, "I am now ready to go."

He has gone, and left a father, mother, and all but one of his father's family who are living, following in the footsteps of the Savior, and hoping to meet Daniel in the kingdom of glory.

Brother Griffis was a young man of promise, of good intellect, fair education, a close student, a good preacher, of warm heart and zealous spirit. He was much loved by the people of his charges, and commanded the respect of his brethren in the ministry. May we all be faithful to our posts, and meet our dear brother in heaven! W. FITZGERALD.

MEMOIR OF REV. PETER SCHMUCKER.

REV. PETER SCHMUCKER was born August 24, 1784, in Michelstadt, Grand Duchy of Hesse Darmstadt. He was yet an infant when his parents came to this country. His father was a farmer, and settled in Woodstock, Shenandoah county, Va. There the deceased spent the morning of his life. He first worked on the farm, and then learned the carpenter's trade. In his eighteenth year he experienced a change of heart, at a camp meeting held by the United Brethren. His parents were Lutherans, and two of his older brothers, George and Nicholas, had devoted themselves early to the ministry, and the name of Rev. Dr. George Schmucker, of York, Penn., the father of Prof. S. Schmucker, is a revered one in the Lutheran Church.

Brother Peter Schmucker entered the ministry of the Lutheran Church in 1814. His labors were greatly blessed with awakenings and conversions, which at that time produced considerable persecution. He was denounced as a Methodist. We can not name the congregations he served. Suffice it to remark, that his name is found, in 1817, on the printed list of the members of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of North Carolina, and in 1820 he was one of the delegates of the North Carolina Synod to a clerical assembly held at Hagerstown, Md., for the purpose of forming the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the United States. He was one of those who signed the six articles of the Constitution of the General Synod. After that we find him recorded as a member of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Western Pennsylvania.

In 1822 brother Schmucker moved from Virginia to Newark, Ohio. He left what we would call the regular work of the ministry, and labored independently of formal connection with the Lutheran or any other Church, preaching on the Sabbath days wherever opportunity would offer, and attending to secular business on the week days. About ten years later he joined with his wife the Methodist Episcopal Church, and labored for several years with great acceptability among us as a local preacher. In the Fall of 1838 he was persuaded, notwithstanding his poor health and advanced age, to enter the Ohio Conference, in order to succeed the writer of this memoir in the German mission in Cincinnati. He labored with such zeal that his health suffered at times very much. Often he rose from the bed to go to the pulpit, and from there he returned to his couch. Whenever he was able to walk about, he was indefatigable in visiting the Germans from house to house, in the market-places, at the wharf, and on the steamboats. He never walked out without having a bundle of tracts for distribution. The little society of thirty members, with which he began his labors in this city, increased to eighty during the two years of his labor, and the work began to spread in different directions. In the Fall of 1840 he was appointed to Louisville, Ky., and formed there a flourishing society, that supported itself the first year after its formation Several of the young men, converted by the instrumentality of brother Schmucker, became successful missionaries. One of them describes, in a late communication for the Christian Apologist, the commencement of brother S.'s labors in Louisville, as follows:

"He placed himself in a convenient open space, and sang in his peculiar manner, in German, the hymn:

'Mid scenes of confusion,' etc.

His attractive voice drew quickly a large crowd of hearers around him, to whom he then preached Jesus the crucified. Under his spacious cloak he always held hid a large quantity of tracts, which he distributed to the best advantage, often without being observed, throwing a tract into a coffee-house, or similar places, and then watching the effect which it would produce. Fearlessly he attacked the strongholds of Satan, and thereby caused soon a great persecution against the "new sect." Stones flew freely into the old frame school-house in which he was preaching, and once a gun was even fired into it, without, however, doing any serious injury. The singing-school, which he established on a week evening for the young people, was especially attractive to young and old. Many a time did I miss my supper, so as not to be too late for the singing-school."

In the Spring of 1842 he was sent by Bishop Roberts as a pioneer to New Orleans, where he had also great and immediate success. After his return he was sent to Evansville, Ia., but his health failed, and he had to rest six months from labor. In the Fall of 1843 he was appointed Superintendent of German missions in the Ohio Conference; and a year afterward the work had so spread that it was necessary to make two districts, irrespective of Conference lines. He had the charge of Cincinnati district, embracing all the German missions from Columbus, O., to Evansville, Ia. On this district brother S. labored from 1844 to 1848, extending the work into Michigan, laying the foundation of a German Church in Detroit, and also visiting New Orleans a second time. But after his return from his last trip to the North, in the Spring of 1848, his health gave way, so that he could not take an appointment at the succeeding Conference.

The space allotted to this memoir is too short to permit such a description of the characteristics of this man of God and his labors as would be satisfactory to those who knew him personally, or could give to those who knew him not a proper idea of what brother S. was and did. Suffice it to say, we can not conceive how Methodism could have gained, in so short a time, so great access to the German population of this country, had not Providence furnished us in the beginning of our German mission work with the services of a man of such deep piety, long pastoral experience, general intelligence, sound Biblical theology, and pleasing and venerable address as brother S. possessed. He was a man of no ordinary intellect, had read much, and was "great in the Holy Scripture." His exposition of divine truth was clear, forcible, and full of unction. It may be truly said of him, as a minister, that he magnified his office. He was humble, yet dignified; mild and affable, yet quick to reprove sin. He was an excellent sermonizer, and the homiletical instructions which he gave as presiding elder to the young German preachers, who had not enjoyed a liberal education, were invaluable. With his theological erudition he combined a poetical genius. He wrote a great deal of sacred poetry, in English as well as German, of which he, however, published but little.

From the Fall of 1848 to his death he was confined to his room with but few intervals. Great were his sufferings, complicated the diseases to which he was subjected, but he suffered with unwavering fortitude and resignation. He had many attacks which seemed to end his sufferings. The last one came on December 4, 1860. It was extremely painful. The old veteran of the Cross expressed himself thankful that he was now nearing his eternal happy home. On Saturday, December 8th, Rev. A. Poe visited him. All the questions he asked him father Schmucker answered in the affirmative, and responded very heartily to his prayer. At two o'clock on Sabbath morning, December 9, 1860, he gently fell asleep in Jesus, his Redeemer. Tuesday, December 11th, Rev. J. F. Wright preached the funeral sermon, from Psalm xxxvii, 37, in Asbury Chapel. May we, after having done the will of God in active service, have the grace to suffer it as patiently as father Schmucker!

WM. NAST.

MEMOIR OF REV. CHARLES KESSINGER.

BROTHER CHARLES KESSINGER was born at Broggingen, Grand Duchy of Baden, Germany, February 3, 1830, and was brought up in the Evangelical Protestant Church. In 1848 he immigrated to this country, and was awakened to a sense of his lost condition at the close of the following year at Chillicothe, under the ministry of brothers Nippert and Gahn. In the month of January, 1850, he obtained a clear witness of the pardon of his sins, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, February, 1850. The same year he was married to sister Elizabeth Maul. Discovering the talents with which he was endowed, the successive preachers, Helwig, Vogel, Klein, and Wilkens, gave him opportunity to develop his talents, till he was admitted into the traveling connection. In 1851 he was appointed class-leader; in 1852 he received license to exhort; in 1854, license to preach; and in 1855 he was admitted on trial in the Cincinnati Annual Conference. His fields of labor were: Covington, two years; Dayton, one year; and Hamilton, two years. At each of these places, as also at Chillicothe, his former place of residence, he is held in blessed memory among Germans and English, in the Church as well as out of it. Wherever he labored, the Lord gave him seals to his ministry. And though his sermons sometimes lacked system, yet they came always from a heart full of love and faith, and were accompanied with the Holy Ghost, and consequently made deep impressions on all his hearers.

Brother K. was very amiable and prepossessing in his conduct and conversation. He loved much, and was loved much in return. He was grave and yet cheerful. He had the gift, in a special degree, which is so desirable for every preacher of the Gospel, to make himself acquainted with every body in a short time, and to gain their confidence. After staying in a society a short time, it seemed as if he had taken possession of all hearts. In the discharge of his official duties he was faithful and active. He studied diligently, prayed and visited much, and was untiring in his efforts to save sinners. Being peculiarly qualified to form new missions, he was appointed in 1860 to Zanesville, but for certain reasons his appointment had afterward to be changed to Race-Street, Cincinnati. But the Lord had a better place for him.

A short time before the last session of the Cincinnati Conference he took sick with typhoid fever. One of his children had been attacked by it before; and the great loss of rest during his child's sickness seemed to have enfeebled him to such a degree, that the strength failed him to withstand the attack of this dreadful disease. Though he already felt very sick, he preached a missionary sermon on Isaiah lii, 1, which was his last one. During the last session of our Conference, the fourth quarterly meeting was held at Hamilton; he felt so much better that he wanted to go to church, but was, of course, persuaded not to do it. The following Wednesday he came to Oxford, the seat of our last Conference, but had to return the same day, being attacked with a severe chill. He got very sick again, but recovered, so that he could sit up, and thus it changed several times, till the disease demanded at last its victim. All the medical assistance and careful nursing were of no avail. The time of his departure had come, and the Lord took him unto himself. During his sickness he was patient, happy, and resigned. His last words were: "Jesus is with me; I have a living hope of eternal life." Thus he died, in the triumph of faith, ten minutes after eleven o'clock, P. M., September 28, 1860.

He leaves a mourning widow and three little children, as well as a large number of intimate friends, who feel deeply their loss. May the Lord pour his rich consolations into the hearts of the bereaved ones, and take the fatherless children under his especial care! Two children went before him to the abode of bliss to greet him with a happy welcome there.

His earthly remains are deposited in the cemetery at Chillicothe, Ross county, Ohio. A neat tombstone of white marble indicates his resting-place.

Short, but blessed was his career in the Lord. He rests now from his labors, and his works do follow him. WM. NAST.

MEMOIR OF REV. GEORGE DANKER.

REV. GEORGE DANKER was born in Germany, kingdom of Hanover, near the city of Bremen, in the year 1794.

In the year 1824, while visiting that city, he was awakened and converted, through the preaching of Rev. Fred. Mallet, a very spiritual minister of the Lutheran Church. Encouraged by that man of God, he returned home, and soon began to hold meetings in private houses for exhortation and prayer. This novel procedure subjected him to much opposition and even persecution. He was frequently brought before magistrates as a disorderly person, all of which he patiently endured for Christ's sake. So manifest was the blessing of God upon his efforts, that his friend and spiritual father, Rev. Mr. Mallet, soon employed him as a kind of city missionary, where his labors were greatly blessed to many, among whom were twelve Roman Catholics, brought to the knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus.

In 1836 he emigrated to America, and settled in Marietta, O. He had scarcely been two weeks there till he was called to preach for a Lutheran Church in the place. His first text was the appropriate language of Ezekiel xxxiv, 11, 12, on which he preached plainly, pointedly, and spiritually to his former countrymen, insisting upon the necessity of evangelical repentance and the knowledge of sins forgiven, as he did afterward among us. His zeal and success resulted in division among his people. Those who became awakened and converted were called Methodists, and brother Danker was gravely charged with preaching Methodist doctrines in a Lutheran Church.

Some three years after his settlement in Marietta he became deeply interested in the establishment of our German missions in that part of Ohio; and believing he could be more extensively useful, he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was followed by forty-two of his late flock. His pious devotion, gifts, and usefulness became known to Rev. C. C. Best, our missionary there, and Rev. N. Callender, then Superintendent of those missions. His way was soon opened as a preacher and a missionary among us. And thousands of his countrymen, we doubt not, will rise up to call him blessed.

In 1840 he was appointed to Monroe mission, where in two years he received more than one hundred members into our Church. During this period he graduated under our special rule to deacon's and elder's orders. In 1842 he was appointed to Wheeling, Va., where he was favored in his labors for two years. In 1844 he went to St. Louis, Mo.; in 1845 to Dayton, O.; 1846 to Race-Street, Cincinnati. His subsequent fields of labor were, Louisville, Ky.; Cincinnati again; Portsmouth, O.; Cincinnati again; Marietta; Wheeling, Va.; Dayton, O.; and Cincinnati again as his last appointment.

Much might be said of the character, ministrations, and success of this venerable man of God, but his record is on high.

In 1859 he was returned superannuated, and returned to Marietta, his first American home. There he preached when able; and but eight days before his death, which occurred March 4, 1861, he preached his last sermon. As death drew near he selected 1 Tim. i, 15, as his funeral text. Having already "set his house in order," with Christian resignation he slept in Jesus. He lived beloved and esteemed—he died honored and lamented.

CONSTITUTION OF THE PREACHERS' RELIEF SOCIETY,

Of the Cincinnati Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, as amended Sept. 10, 1860, at Oxford, Ohio.

ARTICLE 1. This Association shall be called the Preachers' Mutual Relief Society, for the benefit of infirm or worn-out itinerant ministers, and the widows and children of deceased preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

ART. 2. The officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and nine Trustees, who shall be elected annually by the Society.

ART. 3. It shall be the duty of the President, and in his absence the Vice-President, at each Annual Conference, to call a meeting of the Society, and to preside at said meeting and the meetings of the Board, and to perform such other duties as the Board may direct.

ART. 4. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a book and record all the doings of the Society.

ART. 5. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to keep a faithful account of all moneys, legacies, and property received and moneys distributed, and report the same to the Society annually. He shall not pay out any money without an order from the Trustees, signed by the President or Vice-President, and approved by a majority of the members of the Society.

ART. 6. Every preacher becoming a member of this Association shall pay one dollar annually, to be funded by the Trustees, as capital stock, and solicit donations to increase said capital; and all annual subscriptions, donations, and bequests shall be safely funded, and the interest only paid out for the relief of claimants.

ART. 7. All interest or funds arising from the funded capital of this Society shall extend to all the members of this Association, their wives, widows, and children, including the widows and children of deceased members of the Cincinnati Conference; but if at any time the applications for assistance can not all be relieved by such funds, the most pressing cases shall be met first.

ART. 8. In addition to the foregoing provisions, we, the members of this Association, do hereby mutually agree that, if any brother member or members of this Society shall be in circumstances of need, this Society shall have power to levy, at any annual meeting, a direct tax, not exceeding five ($5) dollars each, upon its members by a majority vote of the members of the Society, and collect and pay over the same to such claimant or claimants.

ART. 9. We, the members of this Society, for the protection of our wives and children, do hereby agree and bind ourselves that, on the death of any member of this Association, each survivor will pay to the widow of such deceased brother or his child or children, under eighteen (18) years of age, the sums severally annexed to our names, as contained in a scale ranging from one to twenty dollars, provided no one be required to pay more than the amount said deceased had subscribed, and others who subscribed less than the deceased being required to pay only the amount they subscribed. The amount of subscription of each member may by him be changed annually.

ART. 10. If any member at the close of each Conference year fails to pay all claims on him made by this Society, he shall not be released from his obligations, but shall be deprived of any and all claims upon this Society for himself and family till such arrearages are fully paid.

ART. 11. Any member of this Society shall not forfeit any of his rights or claims in consequence of a transfer to another Conference, provided he shall continue to comply with the require ments of this Constitution.

ART. 12. The payment of $10 by any member of Conference will constitute him a life member; and any member of our Church may become an honorary life member of this Association by paying ten dollars to the funds, and shall be entitled to a certificate.

ART. 13. This Constitution may be altered or amended at any annual meeting of the Society by a vote of a majority of all the members.

ART. 14. All persons, on application to the officers of this Society to borrow money, shall secure the payment of the same by two responsible names as security to each loan for any amount under one hundred dollars, and all sums over one hundred dollars shall be secured by mortgage on real estate, the cash value of which shall be double the amount borrowed, and the product of which exceeds the interest; or the funds may be invested in United States stock.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

THE Committee on Education respectfully submit the following report:

Although the state of the country has seriously affected the institutions of learning under our care, they have nevertheless accomplished a noble work in educating the rising generation, and fitting them for duty. These times are peculiarly trying to our Church educational interests, and demand increased attention and energy in their support. Preachers should impress upon our people that now, more than ever, a broad and thorough education is needed for the entire community.

The OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY is reported by the Committee of Visitation in a highly-prosperous condition. Its Faculty are learned, popular, and faithful, and its finances in a healthful state. A deep and earnest religious sentiment prevails among its students, giving promise of great usefulness to the Church.

The financial exhibit is as follows, namely:

ASSETS.

Grounds and buildings	$65,000 00
Library, cabinet, and apparatus	17,000 00
Permanent fund	115,756 58
Interest and notes collectable	6,428 68
Total	$204,185 26
Liabilities, total	16,136 20
Amount of assets above liabilities	$188,049 06

Resolved, That Rev. R. S. Rust and Rev. W. I. Fee be Visitors to the University for the ensuing year, and that the Conference request the presiding Bishop to appoint Rev. L. D. M'Cabe a professor in the University.

The WILBERFORCE UNIVERSITY has, to our deep regret, suspended operations for the present. Its success during the four past years has been truly gratifying to its friends. It has educated and sent forth many teachers and preachers devoted to the service of God and ardently desirous to elevate their race, and these are doing a work of which the University and those who have labored in it may well be proud. The last year has been one of great trial. Yet the Faculty have succeeded in bringing it nobly through, and its examinations reflected great honor upon both teachers and pupils. The rebellion and the consequent difficulty of obtaining funds from the South have increased the pecuniary embarrassments of the University to such a degree that the suspension was deemed necessary, and your Committee hope that in better times its benevolent work may be resumed, to become a lasting blessing to the African race.

The Standing Committee of Visitation for the WESLEYAN FEMALE COLLEGE report, that "they have experienced no common pleasure in witnessing the excellence of the examinations, notwithstanding all the peculiar embarrassments of the year. The classes generally exhibited a proficiency which reflected great credit on the skill and industry of the teachers. Perhaps in no former year, and in no other similar institution, have there been more praiseworthy evidences of intellectual discipline and progress." The College has continued to suffer under the accumulated load of debts contracted for its grounds and buildings, and also of scholarships sold for the payment of its current expenses in past years. It has been sold to satisfy the original mortgage, but there is ground of hope of reviving the institution, with some modifications of its Board of Trustees, and the Committee are happy to assure the Conference that the College which for years accomplished so much good in the education of young ladies still lives and yet has before it a future of great promise, and we commend the Faculty to the prayers and confidence of the Church.

Resolved, That the preachers stationed at Finley, Trinity, and Asbury Chapels be the Committee of Visitation, and that the presiding Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. R. Allyn as President of the College for the coming year.

The SPRINGFIELD FEMALE COLLEGE is more than usually flourishing under the charge of President Dial, his lady, and his popular assistant teachers. No report of its finances has been furnished.

Resolved, That Rev. W. I. Ellsworth and the preachers to be stationed at Springfield be the Committee of Visitation for the year.

The XENIA FEMALE COLLEGE is growing in influence under the superintendence of President Smith, who is a most diligent and successful manager of all its affairs, and he is assisted by a popular and competent corps of teachers. Its finances are in a healthful condition.

Resolved, That the presiding elder and preacher in charge of Xenia district and station be the Visiting Committee for the year.

The HILLSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE has enjoyed a fair degree of prosperity for the past year. The examinations afforded evidences of the efficiency of the Principal, Miss M. J. Warren, and her co-teachers, and of the proficiency of the pupils. The indebtedness is said to be provided for on the condition that the Conference comply with the resolution of last year, to collect the sum of $5,000. The attention of Conference is asked to this proposition.

Resolved, That the presiding elder and the preacher in charge of Hillsboro district and station be the Visiting Committee.

The LINDEN HILL ACADEMY has been open through the year with some success; but, in view of the resignation of Professor J. Braden, Principal of the school, and the difficulty of supplying the place, together with the distracted condition of the country, the Trustees have decided to close the institution for the present.

The Committee on the German Department in BALDWIN UNIVERSITY report that the number of students is not large, many having gone to fight the battles of their country. The examinations were excellent, and Professor Rothweiler is deserving of special commendation. The institution offers rare privileges for Germans to give their children a thorough religious education. This is its financial exhibit:

CAPITAL.

Notes bearing interest with good security	$3,538 75
Four shares in the Delaware Gas Company	100 00
Scholarship notes	6,011 06
Cash	80 19
Total	$9,730 00

NOTE.—The Agent collected, during the year, $2,931.75, on scholarship notes, and increased the capital about $400. In addition to the above, other scholarships have been sold, for which the purchasers have not yet given their notes, which, however, they are expected to do soon as honest men.

ACCOUNT OF INTERESTS.

J. Rothweiler, Dr.

Interest from scholarship notes	$175 43
Interest from capital	179 41
Total	$354 84

J. Rothweiler, Cr.

Expenses incurred in traveling, postage, etc	$27 97
Professor's salary	326 87
Total	$354 84

The German Department has accordingly the following endowment:

Capital and scholarship notes	$9,730 00
Building, with furniture, at the lowest estimate	6,000 00
Library of ninety volumes	50 00
Furniture and library of the Germania Society	75 00
Total	$15,855 00

Resolved, That Rev. Dr. Nast be the Committee of Visitation for the ensuing year.

The plan of affording pecuniary aid to our institutions, inaugurated at the last Conference, has only been partially carried into effect. Its success in the places where it was presented by the preachers, has shown the willingness of our people to respond cheerfully to the noble enterprise of education. It is recommended that it be continued for the next year; and it is urged that a more general attention be given this enterprise, since the educational work is only inferior in promise of usefulness to the missionary and pastoral work. Rev. J. F. Chalfant, Treasurer of the Committee, has about $100 in his hands, and asks direction as to its disposition. In conclusion, your Committee recommend that the preachers give, at this time of confusion, more than common labor and prayer to the interests of our educational work. Good morality demands this. Piety calls for it, and the leaders of the Church should not be remiss in regard to it.

Respectfully submitted by the Committee.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

Resolved, That, as a Conference, we feel increasing confidence in the prudence, sagacity, earnestness, and fearlessness of Dr. Kingsley in these times of great ecclesiastical and political trials, and would hereby fully indorse the course of this worthy patriot and guardian of the interests of Zion; and heartily recommend to the public the Western Christian Advocate as an unsurpassed religious journal.

Resolved, That, in the judgment of this Conference, Dr. D. W. Clark, as editor of the Ladies' Repository, still maintains his high character as scholar, writer, editor, and divine; and that the Repository still holds its high position as the best periodical dedicated to the ladies published in our country.

Resolved, That we have unbounded confidence in Dr. Nast, editor of the Christian Apologist, who, during the past year, has so discharged his duties as to render the Apologist a favorite visitor at the fireside of the Christian and patriot. We heartily approve his editorial course, and earnestly recommend his paper to the patronage of all who read in the German language.

J. M. GATCH,
E. WUNDERLICH.

REPORT ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

In our brief report we have not time to expatiate on the necessity, importance, and glorious results of the distribution of religious tracts. The organization of the great armies of the United States has created an increased necessity for an enlarged liberality, and a much more zealous and combined effort in this good work. The army presents a most interesting and promising field of usefulness to all who give their money to this cause, as well as to tract distributers. The soldiers generally receive with eagerness the tracts offered them, especially the wounded and sick in all our hospitals.

It gives us great pleasure to report, the Church is becoming fully awake to this important work, and her authorities are devising liberal things in providing and sending forth a supply of tracts and other excellent reading for our noble troops.

No agency has been devised and brought into use which equals that of the chaplains in the several regiments and all the military hospitals for the distribution of tracts to the troops, in every department of our army. We must, therefore, look to the chaplains for the economical, judicious, and profitable distribution of tracts and other reading matter sent them for the use of the soldiers.

We earnestly commend this great interest to the attention and liberality of the members and friends of our Church throughout our bounds, and submit the following resolutions for consideration and adoption:

1. Resolved, That each preacher in charge be requested to take a collection during the Conference year, in all his congregations, and forward the same to the Treasurer of the Parent Society.

2. Resolved, That we will encourage our people to make more liberal contributions for the purchase of tracts and other good reading-matter for the special benefit of the brave soldiers of our armies.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

Whereas, in prosecution of a scheme of infamy unsurpassed, a portion of our countrymen have begun and prosecuted a rebellion against the Government of our country; and,

Whereas, we can, by the most careful scrutiny, find no reason whatever for this outbreak of hostility, nor for the enmity and bitterness that have characterized this rebellion, and no cause for them but that of slavery, to extend and perpetuate which wicked men have taken up arms; and,

Whereas, it is always becoming that Christian patriots should evidence by word and deed their devotion to their country, especially in its hour of peril and need; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we hereby express the hearty sympathy we feel, as Christian citizens, for our Government in the struggle it is now carrying on against those who have raised traitorous hands to subvert our political institutions, and to dismember our once vigorous and prosperous Union. In this wicked effort we recognize the spirit of slavery, hostile to and irreconcilable with liberty—a spirit that would poison the fountains of our political welfare, would sap the foundations of our prosperity, and would deal a fatal blow at our very existence as a united people.

2. Resolved, That while we confess our sins as a people, and those corruptions that have drawn upon us the visitations of an offended God, and while we lament the calamities that have befallen us, we yet feel unbounded confidence in the justice of the cause of freedom and law, for which we are now contending, and we have faith in Almighty God that he will, in his own good time, vindicate that cause by the utter overthrow of this rebellion, together with that system of human slavery that has given it its birth and all of strength it has possessed.

3. Resolved, That we will continue to besiege a Throne of Grace in behalf of our cause, of liberty and good order, and will, as ever, continue our efforts, publicly and privately, as ministers and as citizens, in behalf of our Government; hereby declaring our willingness and determination to serve our country in any position to which that country may call us, ever holding ourselves as ready as our fathers were to consecrate to our country's interest and salvation "our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honors."

4. Resolved, That our brethren who are now in the National army, in any position, have our warmest sympathy, and shall have our earnest prayers for their health, success, and safe return to their homes, and we commend them to the care of that God who controls all things for his guidance and protection in the faithful and successful discharge of their duty.

On behalf of Committee.

W. G. W. Lewis, Chairman.

REPORT ON FINANCE.

1. We hold this truth as evident, that the Gospel must not only be published to all nations, but that an itinerant ministry, in some way, is necessary to such result. It harmonizes with the New Testament economy, carrying abroad into all the world the peaceful tidings of the Redeemer's kingdom.

2. This being true, the inquiry is natural, how shall the itinerancy be sustained and rendered still more efficient in the great work of saving souls? That minister who is indifferent to the great duties of the pulpit, should either immediately reform or retire.

3. Your Committee deeply regret having to express the belief that one of the principal impediments to the temporal and spiritual prosperity of the Church is pecuniary and unnecessary retrenchment at the altar of God. When hard times come, it is too frequently the case that retrenchment is made to begin at the Church. If we owe all blessings, earthly and spiritual, for time and eternity, to the Gospel of Christ, we should retrench elsewhere first, and continue sustaining the Gospel, our only hope, first, last, and forever. When ministers' salaries are far below their expenses, it is wrong to make said salaries still less. Like other men, they would turn to some other employment, but dare not sever the moral obligations of Heaven upon them. They feel that it is either do or die. They should not seek to lay up treasure from the Church, but their expenses must be paid, or the order and will of Heaven is violated. If a charge says, we are too poor to pay our Church expenses, this will not release them while the remedy is in their own power. Why petition Conference to be an independent charge, with a promise at the same time to pay all expenses? And on finding this could not be done, why did they not ask the next Conference to unite them with some other charge, with less ministerial service, till such inability was removed? The practice known to exist of some ministers for a series of years doing the work and paying on their expenses for the Church more per annum than any member they serve, ought to cease.

4. A prominent glory in our Church economy is its support by voluntary contributions; yet is this universally true? If a charge fails paying a minister's expenses by some one or two hundred dollars, which often occurs, is he not compelled to foot the bill, and is not this by compulsion? The apostle said, "Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel."

The expenses of the largest families in moving, traveling, and sacrifice in property per annum not refunded is large, and when deducted from a salary of one thousand dollars, will leave to each member of the family about one hundred dollars for one year's support. If the salary be five hundred dollars, each member will receive about fifty dollars; and if the salary be three hundred dollars, it will divide about twenty-three dollars among them.

Your Committee submit to the Conference the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we urge upon our people the great necessity of increased liberality, making ample provision for their preachers' support.

2. Resolved, That the report of last year on finance remain unchanged.

3. Resolved, That all charges in this Conference failing to pay, in full their preachers' expenses for the ensuing year be relieved of their embarrassment by recommending that they be, at the next Conference, united with other appointments, when unable to pay their Church claims.

4. Resolved, That an allowance dividing less than one hundred dollars per annum to each member of a minister's family is not sufficient, and in such cases the board of stewards shall open an additional subscription among the members and friends of the Church, for provisions, clothing, and fuel, at cash prices, till the deficiency is made up; and that the presiding elders, when necessary, call the attention of their quarterly meeting conferences to this subject.

5. Resolved, That those liberal charges and members of our Church who, in these times of trial, make every effort in sustaining, and nobly meeting all claims of the Church upon them, are entitled to encouragement, and have our highest commendation, our prayers, and the fond recollections of memory imperishable.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

THE temperance question is one of vital interest. Though it is likely we could not provoke any opposition to this statement, yet it is too true that, after Conference resolutions are duly passed, with here and there an exception, the subject receives the cold shoulder.

This might be permitted with more safety if it was a subject of less importance, and if the peril it seeks to overcome was not an increasing one.

While every heart is aroused and every hand reaches for means of defense when rumors reach us of the approach of armed foes, how can we be quiet in the presence of a foe hoary with years, and stained with the blood of our fellow-citizens—ay, of the members of our own families?

And with all the advantages employed by grog-sellers and distillers in this time of our country's trial, and the success with which their efforts have been crowned, is this any time to relax our efforts? The distillers of the land are active and earnest. Their howl over taxation imposed upon their unholy manufacture was heard by every ear—deadening the lament of suffering wives, the sorrow of suffering widows, and cries of orphaned children. And this was successful in deferring the imposition of the tax. We ask you, brethren of the Conference, and through you of the Methodists within the bounds of the Cincinnati Conference, shall we be less diligent and earnest in opposing than distillers have been, and still are, in promoting this corrupt and damnable traffic?

The clap-trap objection that temperance is a threadbare subject, and the people are not interested, has deceived us and closed our lips long enough. If threadbare, let us put a finish on it. If our people are not interested, let us at once go to work and seek to educate our people up to the point where they shall feel an interest in the work of saving men from the bonds of Bacchus and the devil. We recommend the following:

1. Resolved, That we regard the subject of temperance as a legitimate one for presentation from our pulpits.

2. Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to aid temperance men in our several fields of labor in every manner we can, in promoting the cause of temperance.

MEMOIR OF REV. WESLEY ROWE.

REV. WESLEY ROWE, of the Cincinnati Annual Conference, was born near Frankfort, Ross county, O., on the 4th of April, 1809, and departed this life, of typhoid fever, in Monroe, twenty-five miles north of Cincinnati, on the morning of the 8th of February, 1862, in the fifty-third year of his age.

His parents—Reuben and Lucy—emigrated from Virginia to Chillicothe, O., in 1806, and subsequently to the vicinity of Frankfort. Mr. Rowe had been a local preacher for many years previous to the birth of his son Wesley, and one of no ordinary ability and usefulness in the Church. He took a deep interest in the religious training of his children. In this new locality he immediately erected a dwelling-house, in which the Rev. John Collins was the first to preach and to introduce the itinerant ministry into this part of the country. Young Rowe was, by this veteran of the Cross, dedicated to God in holy baptism in his infancy, and as years developed was taught the saving principles of the Gospel. In early life he was the subject of strong religious influence, as may be gathered from the following note in his journal:

"I was early instructed in religion. From my earliest recollection to the present I have not spent a day without prayer to God, and the prayers which father and mother taught me I use to the present time. I believe I enjoyed religion when a child, and had the Church used the same industry then as now, I should not have lost the comforting influence of the Spirit on my heart."

He connected himself formally with the Church, and made his first public profession of religion, in the nineteenth year of his age, during a camp meeting held on his father's farm. In three months from that time he was licensed to exhort, and appointed leader of a class, some five miles from his home. For two years he never missed but two appointments. He now began to feel the call of God to the work of the ministry, but, like many others, excused himself on the ground of incapacity for such a momentous work; he, therefore, pushed off into the business of the world to seek his fortune, and enjoy the repose of private life. On the 18th of November, 1830, he was united in marriage with Miss Cynthia A. Kious, daughter of Captain Kious, of Fayette county, O., an amiable lady, of much assistance to him till death loosed the bands that bound them together, in the thirteenth year of their marriage.

In 1832 he was licensed to preach, by order of the quarterly conference of Deer Creek circuit, Rev. A. Eddy, presiding elder. In 1834 he was recommended by the quarterly conference of Washington circuit as a suitable person for admission, on trial, into the traveling connection, and was, accordingly, admitted by the Ohio Annual Conference during its session of the same year, held in the town of Circleville. The following is a list of appointments, which he filled with acceptance and much success:

Circuits—White Oak, 1834; Adelphi, 1835; French Grant, 1836; Deer Creek, 1837–38; Brush Creek, 1839; White Oak, 1840; New Richmond, 1841; Sabina, 1844; Mechanicsburg, 1845; Georgetown, 1846; White Oak, 1847; West White Oak, 1848; and to this he was returned as supernumerary in 1849; Miami, 1850.

Stations—Fulton, 1842; Portsmouth, 1843; York-Street, Cincinnati, 1851–52; Asbury, 1853–54; Ripley, 1855; M'Kendree, Cincinnati, 1856–57; York-Street, 1858–59; Troy, Miami county, O., 1860; and Monroe, 1861.

Such is the proverbial healthiness of Monroe, and such were the deep afflictions of brother Rowe during his year at Troy, and in view, also, of the belief of his adaptation to his last charge, the appointing power assigned to him this field of labor. As usual, he entered upon his work in the spirit of a true evangelist, as may be seen by the following note in his journal:

"I moved to Monroe, O., September 18, 1861, and commenced my labors as pastor of the Church. The folks at Monroe received us with great Christian kindness. May the good Lord grant this to be a good year to the Church and to us! O, Lord, revive thy work this year!"

Commencing in such a spirit, who could doubt of success, had he lived? But his years were numbered; the labors of life must soon close; and the servant, from the field of toil, must hasten home to receive his reward.

On the 28th of January he was taken violently by what was supposed to be inflammatory rheumatism. This was soon arrested. On the next evening he attended Church, having had a protracted meeting in progress, and exhorted the people with much effect. Upon his return home he was again violently seized with pain in various parts of his body. After a few days the disease resolved itself into typhoid fever, and on the morning of the 8th of February, about half-past three o'clock, he sweetly fell asleep in Jesus.

On Wednesday before his death, brother West, of Middletown, called to see him, and after prayer brother Rowe called on him to sing a few verses of the hymn, commencing,

"Jesus died on Calvary's mountain."

During the singing he shouted triumphantly, and was very happy. On being told, but a few hours before his death, that he was now in the midst of a terrific gale of affliction, but that he would reach the port securely, "Yes," said he, raising his hand, as though to bid defiance to the storm, "but I shall weather it—there is light ahead." Being again asked by one of his ministerial brethren, "What word shall I take to the Conference for you, if you should not recover from this sickness?" he replied, "I have fought the good fight! I have kept the faith!" Here his utterance failed; but the brightness of his eye, and the calmness of his countenance, revealed the vision of his faith and the glorious object of his hope in that sun-bright clime.

He has left an affectionate and faithful wife behind him, who was the partner of his lights and shadows for the last seventeen years—the daughter of Mr. John Hitch, of Clermont county, O.—and, also, eight children—four by his first wife, and the same number by his now bereaved widow. Two sons are now in the military service of their country—one in the army, and the other in the navy.

Brother Rowe was succeeding well in his last station. The better the people knew, the more they loved him. His funeral sermon was preached in the new church at Monroe, by brother Marlay, his presiding elder, to one of the largest congregations ever assembled in that town. His elder paid to his memory the following tribute of respect:

"I have known brother Rowe for twenty-one years in the ministry, and, though he has always been a man of delicate health, sometimes suffering much, yet he has always been faithful and successful in his work. Few men among us have been more successful in gathering persons into the Church, and his record is on high."

The truth of this tribute will be seen, when, as the result of the close research of the writer of this memoir into brother

Rowe's journal, faithfully kept from year to year, it is stated, that, in the course of his ministry, not less than 4,806 persons have been brought into the Church through his instrumentality, and thirteen persons introduced into the Gospel ministry, several of whom are still living, and faithful in their ministry. His mortal remains rest in Monroe cemetery, near Monroe, in a beautiful lot consecrated for the reception of any member of an itinerant's family who may die in that charge.

Brother Rowe was much respected in his various charges, among the masses—never arbitrary in his administration. Cheerfulness always sat smiling on his countenance, and if he occasionally indulged in pleasant humor, intermingled with sparklings of witticism, it was of the meek and gentle character that frequently administered grace to the hearer. He loved the fire of revivals. The tears of the penitent and shouts of the new-born soul constituted an element in which his heart delighted; and now that he is gone we can, by the eye of faith,

"Behold him first among the saints, as best Becomes the faithful minister of God.
See where he walks on yonder mount, that lifts
Its summit high, on the right hand of bliss,
Sublime in glory, talking with his peers
Of the incarnate Savior's love, and past Afflictions lost in present joy! See how
His face with heavenly ardor glows, and now
His hand, enraptured, strikes the golden lyre!"

Respectfully submitted. W. FITZGERALD.

MEMOIR OF REV. HENRY E. PURKISER.

REV. HENRY E. PURKISER was born in Clermont county, O., August 28, 1827.

Under religious culture his heart was early impressed with a sense of responsibility to God, and he connected himself with the Methodist Episcopal Church on his birthday, August 28, 1844. For some time he felt it was his duty to devote his life to the work of the ministry, and accordingly was licensed to preach June 7, 1851. But the local ranks did not meet the full measure of his convictions of duty—the sentiment was ever present to his mind,

"'T is all my business here below
To cry, 'Behold the Lamb!'"

Under the anointings of the Holy Ghost for the work to which he was called, his whole soul was absorbed in the one thought,

"Happy, if, with my latest breath,
I may but gasp his name—
Preach him to all, and cry in death,
'Behold, behold the Lamb!'"

Accordingly, in the year 1852 he entered his life-work by admission into the itinerancy of the Cincinnati Conference.

Brother Purkiser occupied the following fields of labor: Addison circuit, 1852; Concord, 1853; Winchester, 1854; Lewisburg, 1855; Fletcher, 1856–7; Wayne and Covington, supernumerary, 1858; New Carlisle, 1859; Piqua circuit, 1860; Aberdeen, 1861. In these various posts of duty he gave unmistakable proofs of his call to the work, and his fidelity in discharging the functions of his office. God owned his labors in the conversion of souls as seals to his ministry. In every sense of the word he was true to his calling. Not having enjoyed a classical education, yet he had a mind stored with useful knowledge, and, united with burning zeal and indefatigable labor, he made his mark, securing the esteem and confidence of the people, and contributing largely to the prosperity of Zion. He never shrank from duty, but with humble reliance upon God he gladly availed himself of every opportunity to proclaim the unsearchable riches of Christ.

His last appointment was one of trial, not because of any personal considerations, but on account of the extreme delicacy of the health of his family, which utterly precluded the possibility of a removal to his remote field of labor, and the necessity of his presence at home to minister to the companion of his life. But grace enabled him to make the sacrifice, and, tearing himself from the endearments of home, he hastened to his distant appointment with apparently new zeal and ardor.

A few weeks before his death, passing through Dayton, he preached at Sears-Street Chapel with unwonted unction and power, and seemed to have received a fresh baptism of the Spirit. On his return home, exhausted and somewhat unwell from his excessive labor, he was compelled to submit to medical treatment. His disease was inflammation of the bowels; but although checked, sinking chills supervened, and he gradually passed away. A few evenings before his death, after family prayer, he was exceedingly happy, and enjoyed a manifestation of Divine love beyond what he had ever experienced. His mental powers remained unclouded to the last, and the night preceding his departure—having arranged his worldly matters, and committing his wife and child to the mercy and protection of a covenant-keeping God—in conversation with his attending physician, he said, "I now see in a light as I never saw before the relation and bearing of the actions of my life to the eternal world, and I feel all is well, and I am prepared to go." To brother Webster he said, "I am coasting Jordan." To the question, "Do you feel that your confidence is in God?" he replied, "Yes, and growing stronger." After a little he said, "If I should not recover, tell the brethren of the Conference that I have fought like a soldier, and fall at my post." Speaking of his love for his ministerial brethren, he said, "We shall soon meet again." He then remarked, "I have had some very severe conflicts, but I shall conquer at last. Jesus reigns. Rejoice not over me, O mine enemy! though I fall I shall rise again." Thus, calm in the assurance of acceptance with God through the merits of the Redeemer, he passed from the scenes of toil and conflict to the realms of rest and immortal triumph, December 4, 1861.

He was buried near his residence in Tippecanoe, Miami county, a large concourse attending his funeral, evincing the high regard entertained for him by the community. He has left a wife and child to mourn their irreparable loss. May the God of all grace watch over them, comfort them in their hour of bereavement, and bring them to a happy reunion with the absent loved one on Canaan's peaceful shore! W. H.

MEMOIR OF REV. JOSEPH NEWSON.

Rev. Joseph Newson, of the Cincinnati Conference, died at the parsonage, in New Carlisle, May 20, 1862.

Brother Newson was born November 4, 1808, in Washington county, Maryland, and emigrated with his father's family to Morrow county, Ohio, in 1826. He was converted at a camp meeting, about a mile west of Mt. Gilead, Ohio, September 16, 1830. He was licensed to exhort July 23, 1831, and to preach, July 28, 1832. At a quarterly meeting conference, held in Mt. Gilead, July 6, 1833, he was recommended for the traveling connection.

His first appointment was Findlay mission, James Gilruth, presiding elder. He labored a number of years in Western Virginia. Among his other appointments are Newark station, Hebron, Thornville, Rehoboth, Addison, King's Creek, and Fletcher circuits, Piqua and Springfield stations, Union, Jamestown, and New Carlisle circuits. He was united happily in marriage with Miss Mary Grafton June 14, 1843.

Brother Newson's religious experience was clear. He has often been heard to say, "We know that we have passed from death unto life." And he preached a religion which he truly felt. His call to the ministry was clear and satisfactory. A few months before his death, when in company with some who doubted a special call to the ministry, being asked as to his call, he replied, most emphatically, "If I did not firmly believe that God had called me to the work of the ministry I would never preach another sermon." His preaching was evangelical. He never went away from the Gospel for the subjects of his ministrations. "Jesus and the resurrection" were the themes in which he delighted. These he presented with such power that his congregations felt that truly a man of God was ministering to them. His preaching was characterized by clearness, energy, and pathos. There are few, if any, places where he has labored that he has not left many who have been brought to Jesus through his instru-mentality. He labored for souls, and God gave him his hire. As a pastor he was faithful, encouraging the timid, dealing with the wayward kindly, but firmly. He labored earnestly to build up the membership in the faith, reclaim the backslidden, and to keep all in the fold of the Church he so dearly loved. His intercourse with the people of his charge was such as to commend him to their confidence as a Christian, and to their esteem as a gentleman, and their love as a friend.

Sunday, April 20th, he preached in great pain, and it was with difficulty he reached home after the service. This was his last sermon. His disease—prostration of the nutritive system—was such that no one thought him dangerous till it had somewhat affected his mind, causing a stupor, from which he could only be aroused for intervals of a few moments. When aroused he talked freely and intelligently. When it was first announced to him that his physician thought it highly probable that he could not recover, he said, "I know I am very sick; I know I may not recover. I would like to live longer with my dear family, if it is the will of God, but I am ready to go."

When asked if the religion which he had preached to others sustained him now, he replied with emphasis, "I have not followed a cunningly-devised fable. I have looked over the road, to the grave many a time, and now it is not dark—it's all light. Not a cloud hovers over my spiritual horizon. All is bright."

This is the character of the testimony he gave of his state of mind during his entire illness. During his sickness he had severe chills at irregular intervals, and on the morning of Tuesday, May 20th, he had a severe one, from which he sunk rapidly till about two o'clock, P. M., when he quietly closed his eyes in death.

In brother Newson's death many will feel that they have lost a faithful friend, the Conference one of its most honored members, and the Church an excellent pastor and a faithful minister. Brother Newson leaves a wife and three little children to the care, the sympathy, and the prayers of the Church.

WESLEYAN FEMALE COLLEGE,

CINCINNATI, OHIO.

REV. R. S. RUST, D. D.....President,
MISS SARAH L. MAGEE.....Preceptress,

Assisted by a Full Corps of Accomplished Teachers.

THE WESLEYAN FEMALE COLLEGE ENTERS UPON ITS TWENTY-SECOND Annual Session under the supervision of the new Board of Trustees, who are determined to make it equal to what it was in its palmiest days. It has been liberally endowed, and placed upon a permanent basis. Able, experienced, and accomplished teachers have been secured. The College has been refitted, and furnished with school furniture of the most approved style; and the Course of Study is thorough and extensive, embracing all that relates to moral, mental, and physical wellbeing. It has a commodious Boarding-House, with Baths and Gymnasium. The teachers reside in the house with the students, and together constitute one family, conducted upon Christian principles, in which parents may place their daughters with the assurance that they will be carefully guarded and properly trained.

Modern Languages taught by native teachers, and especial attention given to Music by distinguished teachers. The Collegiate Year consists of two Sessions, of twenty weeks each. The First Session opened September 14th, with a large number of boarding and day pupils, and the number is constantly increasing. The Second Session will commence January 30, 1864. Students received at any time; but it is very desirable that they enter at the commencement.

For further Particulars, inquire of the President, R. S. RUST, Cincinnati—Box 893.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONFERENCE.

Arrangement of the Work.

Resolved, That the presiding Bishop of this Conference be respectfully requested, in the arrangement of the work for the present year, to conform it, as far as possible, to the plan of the Minutes of 1861.

Reappointment of Presiding Elders.

Resolved, That we respectfully request the presiding Bishop to adhere to the usage of the Superintendents, and not appoint any one to the presiding eldership who has held that office for eight consecutive years preceding the present session of this Conference.

Special Transfers.

Resolved, That, as a Conference, we cordially approve the action of the late General Conference on the subject of special transfers.

Resolved, That, in view of the crowded state of our work, we respectfully request the presiding Bishop not to make any transfer to this Conference the present year.

Rev. Arza Brown.

Whereas, our brother, Rev. Arza Brown, has signified his intention to go South immediately after this Conference, to reside there temporarily; and, whereas, he proposes to labor, as his health may allow, among the freed population of the South-West; therefore,

Resolved, That we greatly rejoice in brother Brown's benevolent design, and most cordially commend him to all to whom he may desire to introduce himself, as a man and minister worthy of entire and universal confidence.

Mission for Soldiers.

Resolved, That the Cincinnati Conference establish a mission for soldiers, and that the presiding Bishop be requested to appoint a missionary to said field.

Additional Missionary Appropriation.

Resolved, That we respectfully request the General Mission Committee to make an additional appropriation to the German work in the Cincinnati Conference, of eight hundred dollars, being the amount deducted from the appropriation of last year.

Week of Prayer.

Resolved, That this Conference highly approve of the observance, throughout Christendom, of the annual concert of prayer for the conversion of the world; and that, as pastors, we will call the attention of our people to those services, and that we will make earnest effort to promote a general observance of the same within the bounds of the Cincinnati Conference.

Attendance of Children on Public Worship.

Resolved, That this Conference highly appreciates the very excellent treatise of Rev. J. M. Walden, on the "Attendance of Children on the Public Worship of God;" that we earnestly commend it to all denominations of Christians as a work promising great usefulness; that we will endeavor to introduce it into our congregations, and make all appropriate efforts for its broadcast circulation.

Trustees for Cincinnati Conference.

1. Resolved, That in order to secure legacies made to the Church by its deceased members for benevolent purposes, the Conference elect a Board of Trustees of seven persons, hereafter to be invested with corporate powers, to receive and hold in trust all moneys and property which may come into their hands in the manner and for the purposes above designated.

2. Resolved, That said Trustees proceed without delay to secure appropriate corporate powers, according to the provisions of the statutes of the State of Ohio.

Expenses of Delegates.

Resolved, That collections be taken in all our congregations to defray the expenses of our delegates to the next General Conference; and that if any balance remain, it be appropriated to the capital stock of the Preachers' Relief Society of the Cincinnati Conference.

Presiding Elders Elective.

Resolved, That our delegates to the next General Conference are hereby instructed to use their influence to so change the Discipline that in the appointment of presiding elders the Bishop shall make nominations, subject to the confirmation or rejection of the Annual Conference.

Extension of the Term.

Resolved, That our delegates to the next General Conference be and are hereby instructed to vote for an extension of the term of ministerial service to three years.

Conference Trustees.

Resolved, That our delegates to the next General Conference be and they are hereby instructed to use their influence to obtain the appointment or election of Trustees in behalf of the General Conference, to represent the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and, by virtue of their corporate powers, secure and hold all bequests made to the Church for benevolent purposes.

The President's Proclamation and Emancipation.

At its last annual session this Conference did, by resolution, respectfully petition the President of the United States to "fully and promptly carry out the act of Congress for the confiscation of the property and the emancipation of the slaves of all persons in rebellion against the Government of our country," and to "use all Constitutional means to secure universal emancipation." In the exercise of the war-power with which the Constitution invests the President, he issued, on January 1, 1863, the Proclamation of Emancipation. In this, as well as in the emancipation movement of the people of Missouri, and the rapidly-rising sentiment of the loyal people of the nation in favor of a practical and unconditional recognition of the cardinal principles of the Declaration of American Independence that "all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," we gratefully recognize an overruling Providence controlling all things, in harmony with the principles of the moral government revealed in the Bible, for the certain and speedy overthrow of slavery and all other National wrongs. In this crisis, as ever, it is the duty of the Church of Christ to cast her entire influence in favor of freedom—universal freedom; therefore, be it

1. Resolved, That the Proclamation of the President, and every other Constitutional means for the "extirpation of the evil of slavery," should have the unconditional support of the Church of Christ.

2. Resolved, That our delegates to the next General Conference be hereby instructed to use all their influence to give the indorsement of that body to every Constitutional measure of universal emancipation.

Votes of Thanks.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Conference are tendered to Hon. Judge JOHN FUDGE, Agent of the Pilcher Bequest, for his written report and opinion, and the ability and fidelity with which he has managed this matter.

Resolved, That the cordial thanks of this Conference be and they are hereby tendered to the citizens of Xenia for their generous and hospitable entertainment of the members of Conference and visitors during the present session; and as we retire from their hospitable homes we shall bear with us cherished memories of their kindness, and ever pray that Heaven's richest blessings may be theirs in time and eternity.

Resolved, That our thanks are hereby returned to the pastors and officers of the various Churches who have tendered us the use of their pulpits.

LAW QUESTIONS.

QUESTION. When notice is given to a minister that charges of gross immorality have been preferred against him for subsequent trial, should he not desist from performing all ministerial services till he is acquitted?

ANSWER. I think he should.

QUESTION. When charges of immoral conduct have been preferred against a member of Conference, and for want of proper evidence the case can not be tried during the session of Conference, but is referred to his presiding elder, is he at liberty to discharge the functions of his ministerial office till an investigation is had?

ANSWER. He is not.

QUESTION. When evidence by deposition has been taken for use on a trial of a minister before a committee during the session of Conference, and the case has been postponed, will such evidence be available valid testimony in the subsequent investigation of the case?

ANSWER. When a trial has been postponed at the request of the cused, on the ground that sufficient time was not allowed him to pre for his defense, and when the case has been referred to the presiding e of the district for examination according to Discipline, it is my opi that those depositions, which were legally taken to be used at the Con ence, and whose seal has not been broken, may be used in the invest tion of the case by the presiding elder.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

Ohio Wesleyan University.

Board of Visitors and Examination for this institution give a ıtisfactory account of it for the past year. The President and ıors are capable and efficient, and prosecute their work with fidelity ceptability, serving God and humanity by promoting a sanctified ion among the young men of the country.

unsettled condition of public affairs has greatly diminished the r of students in attendance, but it is an evidence of the spirit of ıorough and practical loyalty which is constantly maintained in stitution, for a large number of the adult students have heeded ountry's call to bear arms in its defense. We confidently expect ls of the University to be crowded again upon the return of peace country.

fiscal condition of the institution has not materially changed since ar, and hence your Committee think a repetition of the figures ssary.

account of greatly-reduced rates of interest, etc., it was deemed ıry by the Trustees, at their last annual meeting, to make some to increase the Endowment Fund.

r mature deliberation on the subject, we would recommend this ence to unite with the three other patronizing Conferences in a ial to the next Legislature of Ohio, requesting them so to amend arter of the Ohio Wesleyan University as to make the term for each trustee shall hold his office five years; the term of office of sent incumbents to be arranged—by lot or otherwise—so that one ach Conference shall go out of office at the end of one year after st annual session of the Board after the passage of the proposed nent by the Legislature; the vacancies thus made to be filled by ction of the several Annual Conferences—one to go out and the y to be filled in the same manner at the end of two years, and so rest—one going out annually, and each newly-elected trustee to is office for a term of five years; in case of vacancy, by death or ise, the vacancy so occurring to be filled in the same manner by nference at the session next following the occurrence of such y, but only for the unexpired balance of the term.

also recommend that the charter be so amended as to constitute sident of the institution a member of the Board of Trustees by of his office.

therefore suggest to this Conference the appointment of a commitonfer with the other patronizing Conferences upon this subject, and on behalf of this Conference unite with them in preparing and presenting to the next Legislature of the State a memorial asking for the enactment of these amendments.

We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we will welcome to our respective charges any agent of the University visiting us for the above-named purpose, and will render him all practicable assistance.

2. Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of Revs. A. T. Thompson and A. Lowrey as Visitors for the ensuing year, and that the presiding Bishop is hereby requested to appoint Rev. L. D. M'Cabe as Professor in the University.

Baldwin University—German Department.

Although the Baldwin University is not connected with the Cincinnati Conference, we deem it our duty to make a report concerning the interesting and promising German Department of this institution, because it has been built up by the German members of this Conference in connection with those of the North Ohio and South-Eastern Indiana Conferences. The friends of education and of the German work of our Church will be happy to learn that the endowment of the German Professorship is now fully secured, and in addition to two buildings, which were donated to the German Department by brother Baldwin, another building, called the Wallace Hall, has also been offered to our German brethren by the Board of the Baldwin University with the consent of the original donor, brother Wallace, on the condition that the Germans take steps to endow two more Professorships, so as to form a regular German College, which, though holding the most intimate relation to the Baldwin University, will have its own Faculty, and be independent in government and finances. The two institutions are designed to complete each other. Each teaches branches which are not taught in the other, and the students of each institution have free tuition in all the regular classes of the other.

The German Educational Convention which met at Berea the 3d of June, accepted the gift of the Baldwin University, and is now taking incipient steps for the election of a Board of Trustees. The property of the German Department in buildings has been estimated by a committee according to the laws of the State of Ohio at $11,000, but those buildings could not be erected for nearly double this sum. The endowment fund of the first professorship amounts to $10,000, and $1,400 are already promised on the second professorship. An able appeal has been made to the German Methodists to unite their strength in building up the Wallace German College of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The hope is indulged that the German Methodists will be willing and able to carry out this noble educational enterprise, to which they were led by a marked providential guidance, and which has as central a position as could probably be found any where. Its success thus far is, under God, chiefly due to the indefatigable zeal and self-denying labor of Rev. Jacob Rothweiler, who cheerfully served as Professor and Agent for several years, before the endowment fund yielded any thing like an adequate support.

The collegiate year commenced two weeks ago with a greater number of scholars, and under brighter prospects, than ever before. This instiıtion, in which a thorough German as well as English and classical ducation is offered, will be a great honor to German Methodism, and a reat blessing to the rising generation of the German population.

Wesleyan Female College.

Relative to the Wesleyan Female College, your Committee would eport that this institution, so long an efficient co-laborer in the great ork of diffusing knowledge and religion in our country, has been re-rganized under a charter granted by the general laws of the State of hio, and is now commencing under very flattering prospects. It pos-esses an endowment of about two acres of ground, within the bounds of ıe city of Cincinnati, donated by Trinity Church, Morris and Wesley hapels. This property, in good time, will be sold by the Trustees, and ıe avails of the sales will be wholly devoted to the interests of the ollege. Though in preparing this ground for the market some expense ill be incurred, eventually it will afford a noble contribution to the ıuse of education.

Rev. Dr. R. S. Rust, the recently-elected President, is an able scholar, ı experienced teacher, and a successful educator. He is a gentleman ossessing piety, prudence, common-sense, and energy of character. He ill take great pains in selecting his Board of Instruction, that perfect ıtisfaction may be afforded to the patrons of the institution. We would, ıerefore, earnestly commend the Wesleyan Female College to our people ıd the public generally. We would also respectfully call upon its umerous and influential Alumnæ to rally around it as newly organized, ıd fill its halls with earnest and promising pupils.

1. Resolved, That the Wesleyan Female College has a strong claim pon the patronage, the prayers, and the affections of the Cincinnati onference.

2. Resolved, That President Allyn, in retiring from the Presidency of ıis institution, and entering upon that of M'Kendree College, carries ith him our respect for his abilities and attainments, our confidence in is goodness and excellence of character, and our best wishes for his sefulness in his new and enlarged field of labor.

3. Resolved, That the presiding Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. . S. Rust, D. D., as President of said institution, and that the pastors f Wesley, Park-Street, and Christie Chapels be a Visiting Committee.

Hillsboro Female College.

The Hillsboro Female College is reported by its Visiting Committee) have sustained its long-merited reputation as a first-class literary ıstitution during the past year. Your Committee approve of the rrangement entered into by the Trustees for the ensuing year. Rev. lenry Turner has been appointed Superintendent of the Financial and oarding Departments; while Miss Mary Jane Warren, with an able rps of teachers, is continued in charge of its literary interests, and by er past success warrants us in expecting thorough scholarship in those ıtrusted to her care. And we bespeak for this institution and its resent plan of operations the earnest co-operation of the preachers and iends of education within its patronizing bounds.

The Rev. H. Turner having accepted his position only for the year, as a favor to the Trustees, your Committee would also bespeak the interest of the Conference in selecting a suitable man for the position of permanent President.

As to the financial condition of this institution, your Committee learn, through the report submitted by the President of the Board of Trustees, Jas. H. Thompson, Esq.—1. That no relief has been afforded this institution by the educational plan adopted by this Conference in 1861. 2. In consequence of this the creditors have pressed their claims, and the Trustees have sacrificed their property in the liquidation of the debt by them assumed, as well as the $5,000 expected from this Conference.

Now, in order to relieve these suffering brethren by the payment of the $5,000 expected from us, we offer the following resolutions, which, in the opinion of the Trustees as well as ourselves, embodies the only feasible plan for its accomplishment; namely:

1. Resolved, That the presiding elder of the Hillsboro district be appointed agent for the College.

2. Resolved, That the preachers of the Hillsboro district be earnestly requested to co-operate with the presiding elder in the plans he may adopt for the financial relief of the College.

3. Resolved, That the agent shall have full liberty to operate throughout the bounds of this Conference.

And, further, your Committee would submit, that,

Whereas, the plan for raising educational funds, adopted at the Conference of 1861, provides that the first money raised be paid toward the liquidation of the debt upon the Hillsboro Female College, provided unmistakable guarantees be furnished by the Trustees of said College that the balance of the indebtedness over and above the $5,000 be paid; and, whereas, such guarantees have been furnished by said Trustees; therefore,

Resolved, That Rev. James F. Chalfant, the Treasurer appointed by Conference for the Educational Fund, be and is hereby instructed to pay over what money he may have received to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Hillsboro Female College; and,

Whereas, the educational plan adopted in 1861 provides that a collection be taken up during the year in every congregation for educational purposes; and, whereas, the first $5,000 thus to be raised is now claimed by the Hillsboro Female College, they having complied with the provision made in the educational plan as printed in the Minutes of 1861; therefore,

Resolved, That the various pastors are hereby instructed to take up a collection in their various charges during the month of October next, and that moneys thus collected be forwarded immediately to Rev. James F. Chalfant, and by him to the Treasurer of the Trustees of Hillsboro Female College.

Resolved, That the following-named persons be appointed Trustees of the Hillsboro Female College, on behalf of the Conference, for the ensuing year: Jas. H. Thompson, Jacob Saylor, J. M. Boyd, William M. Meek, Jas. Ruce, John C. Gregg, Henry Turner, and John L. Hughes.

Resolved, That the presiding elder of Hillsboro district and the sta-

REPORT ON ITINERANCY.

In these few latter years there has been much discussion in regard to the rights of the laity as separate from those of the ministry. No branch of the Church of Christ has more promptly called its ministry to account for any failure in official duty than our own. And our organization is peculiarly fitted to enforce the penalty for any such failure in ministerial fidelity. But our laity can not be so easily reached if they fail in their duty to the ministry. Our ministry are required to sacrifice all claims to select their several fields of labor; and if trial or deprivation meet them in their appointed fields, they can only suffer or locate. Even consultation between a charge and minister offers no substantial remedy to the latter; for he has promised to obey an authority which may arbitrarily dispose of him in another direction. Nor does he object. He has voluntarily entered the itinerancy with the knowledge of these conditions; and he must be content if he may only publish the glad tidings to a dying race. And therefore he goes readily, obediently, trustfully.

The minister being thus bound by law, by duty, by faith, is there not, therefore, a corresponding obligation on the part of the laity of the Church to which he may be sent, as readily, as obediently, as trustfully to receive, co-operate with, and sustain him? Do not the rights and obligations of the ministry and the laity stand or fall together? And we hazard the assertion, as ministers, that we have indisputable claims upon our congregations, which we can not resign without the sacrifice of self-respect, to say nothing of our divine commission to call men to repentance. If Methodist societies can refuse to receive or support the ministers sent to them by the proper authorities of the Church, it can only be upon the condition of regularly preferring charges against those ministers, and bringing them to trial before their peers. Any society so refusing to receive or support their appointed minister, and declining to prefer charges, becomes thereby disloyal, and the authorities of the Church can not supply to them a regular ministry.

If we, as ministers, fail to insist upon these our self-evident claims upon the laity, then presiding elders may be rejected, wholly or in part, by societies on their districts, and thus, so far, be left without support, or a heavier burden be thrown upon other charges. Preachers in stations, or upon circuits, may be rejected or refused that maintenance to which, under our Church polity, they are justly entitled. But this involves the derangement of the machinery of our itinerancy, while it leaves the ministry without any remedy whatever.

We submit the following:

Resolved, 1. That the ministry have a right to reception, and support, and co-operation in any charges to which they may be appointed by the constitutional authorities of the Church.

2. That it is a mistaken policy to multiply charges which do not and can not furnish a sufficient support for the ministers who may be sent to them.

3. That all proposed amendments of our Church polity, which seek to enlarge the privileges of the laity, should be accompanied by corresponding safeguards to the ministry.

Whereas, the practice of appointing the same preachers successively to different stations, and others all the time to circuits, has a tendency to sever the union that would otherwise exist; therefore,

Resolved, That a more frequent change of the preachers from stations to circuits, and vice versa, would go far to strengthen the brotherhood of ministers.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

MINISTERS of the Gospel in the United States, who are true to God, are loyal to the Government, and ever ready to give all their influence for the preservation of the Union, the maintenance of the Constitution, and the perpetuation of our free institutions. The Church of Christ must ever have a deep interest in all that concerns our National welfare, for her ministers and members have contributed largely by their influence and their labors to the public peace and prosperity, and they are under the highest obligation to uphold good government, it being ordained of God. Hence, assembled in our Annual Conference, at a time when our beloved country is imperiled by a gigantic rebellion, we would be guilty before God and man did we not unhesitatingly express the lively and abiding interest we feel in this struggle, and record our convictions, our desires, and our faith. We therefore set forth the following declarations:

1. Resolved, That the present rebellion against the Government of the United States, is a desperate attempt of a minority of the States and people to overthrow the Government and lay waste our God-given heritage, for no other cause than a fear that the rapidly-increasing number, population, and power of the free States would prevent the perpetuation, extension, and nationalization of American slavery.

2. Resolved, That the cause of our Government is just and right, and, there being no security in a compromise with wrong, the authority of the United States should be maintained at all hazards, over every foot of the territory; that, to this end, it is the duty of all Christian men and Christian ministers to sustain the Administration, by which the Government only can be carried on, till it shall put down the rebellion, and crush out treason; that it is resisting the ordinance of God to oppose those measures by which success only can be attained, wherefore it is morally wrong, as well as disloyal, to embarrass and oppose the Government in its efforts to raise the men and money necessary to a vigorous prosecution of the war.

3. Resolved, That the gratitude of the nation is due to those noble men, the heroes of this second struggle for American liberty, who have given themselves to the defense of our country; that we tender our heart-felt sympathy to all persons and families who are called to mourn the heroic dead, and pledge our assistance to those whose health has been broken in the service, or who have been maimed and crippled on the battle-field; that our brethren who are now in the National army, in whatever position, have our warmest sympathies, and shall have our earnest prayers that God may protect and preserve them, and guide them in the faithful discharge of their duty.

4. Resolved, That while we confess that our sins as a people have merited the righteous visitations of an offended God, and lament the calamities which have fallen so heavily upon us, yet have we faith in Almighty God, that he will, in his own good time and way, vindicate the cause of Freedom and Law by the utter overthrow of the rebellion; that we render devout thanks to God for the victories he has given to the loyal army and navy during the past year; that we will with strong faith besiege the Throne of Grace for the cause and rulers of our country, and will zealously prosecute our efforts in public and private, as citizens and ministers, in behalf of the Government.

5. Resolved, That in the course of events we recognize indications that the power of American slavery, the chief cause of the rebellion, will be broken; that we hope this prolific source of National evil will, under God, be entirely and forever overthrown in the present struggle; that the negro soldiers, by the vindication of their manhood on hard-fought battle-fields, have refuted the slanders by which the degradation of their race to the condition of chattels has been defended; that they have demonstrated a readiness to aid the Union cause—if need be, to lay their lives upon the altar of our country—a devotion to freedom which we trust will secure its blessings to them and to their race.

6. Resolved, That the Proclamation of Emancipation, issued January 1, 1863, made by the President in the exercise of the war-power with which the Constitution invests him, should have the unconditional approval of the Church of Christ; that we heartily indorse this measure, and would deplore any event which would defeat its operation; and that we respectfully request the President and urge the Government to continue to use all Constitutional means to secure universal emancipation.

REPORT ON THE GERMAN WORK.

YOUR Committee, to whom this subject was referred, have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to present the following as their report:

The work of grace among this portion of our European immigration has been to us, and still remains, a source of great denominational gratification and a cause of devout gratitude to God.

Nor is its reflex influence upon the German Churches and people of Europe less interesting and hopeful. An effete ecclesiasticism, with strong rationalistic tendencies, needs the vitalizing influences of a spiritual Christianity, and we believe that God, in his providence, has designed Methodism for the accomplishment of this work.

We have been intensely interested in the inception, and carefully guarded the early development, of this German revival in this vigorous young Republic, and now, as it approaches its majority, we feel very much as the affectionate parent does when the dew of his youth is departing from a fondly-nurtured son, and he begins to feel the pressure of manly responsibilities and a burning desire to carve out a destiny of his own. It is not because he ceases to love the paternal domicile and cherish the hallowed endearments of home, nor that he is impatient of proper restraint, but a sense of personal responsibility to God and the world, urges him on at the expense of every necessary sacrifice, and he can not stay. Deep is the parental solicitude which follows his steps, but the intelligent parent would not reproach him for his course or recall him from it. Restraint at such a time would but paralyze his energies and leave him in the arms of his doting mother a monster baby.

Methodism has been from the beginning the birth and ward of special and unfolding providence, and it will be well if it continues in the future, as in the past, to follow the leadings thereof. As Mr. Wesley did not see whereunto his class meetings were leading, little more could the future of German Methodism be seen from the first successes of Dr. Nast and his coadjutors. While we renew the exclamation, "What hath God wrought!" and feel impressed with the importance of this work, we should carefully study its wants and use our best endeavors promptly to supply them.

To the minds of those best acquainted with it, separate Conference organizations appear to be a necessity for the further successful prosecution of the work. It is candidly admitted that some difficulties will attend such a change, but they are by no means insuperable. We will submit a few reasons why this measure should in our judgment be adopted.

Let us survey the field which is now ripe for the harvest, and is inviting our German reapers to gather it. The German immigration to this country has scarcely slackened at all, and there are now indications that a very large increase will soon set in; and for the benefit and salvation of those, Methodism needs the most efficient organization, and should put forth her most vigorous efforts. Surely this is no time for us to diminish our missionary appropriations to it, and so contract the work and force many of our missionaries to abandon it altogether. The face of German Methodism has also been turned to the East, and the conversion of every German soul in this country produces responsive throbs of religious emotion in the hearts of relatives and friends in the father-land. Its fruits have been seen there, and we have as a consequence in Germany an Annual Conference, with its pastoral charges, literary institute, and publishing house. And even the densely-populated region of Southern Russia, where our brother Flocken is now laboring, is open to our German missionaries. What a vast and interesting field is this, and what tremendous responsibilities press upon us! The homogeneousness of this work would seem to require, in this country as well as in Germany, Conferences entirely German, which, instead of embarrassing our work, would, in our opinion, relieve it of many of its present embarrassments, which we see no other way to remove.

Although in most places the children of German Methodists rapidly become familiar with our language and identify themselves with us, the continued immigration from the mother country will supply their places, and fresh fields be continually opening to our German ministers. To secure this harvest we should release our German work from its leading-strings, admitting that Germans understand their countrymen better than we, and let it go forth in the vigor of the manhood it has attained, to accomplish its glorious mission, and preserving the unity of Methodism in whatever language it is preached. For we can not understand the idiosyncrasies of a foreign people as they themselves do, and hence we can not determine the qualifications of pastors and evangelists for them with any considerable accuracy.

For a considerable period the German immigrants to this country have been of more refined and educated classes than they were formerly. They have now their ecclesiastical and educational institutions in their own language, and not unfrequently disparage our brethren by invidious comparisons, and more than insinuate their incapacity to manage for themselves, and imagine that it is sufficiently demonstrated by a reference to the pupilage in which their English-speaking brethren persist in holding them. It is impossible that this should not be a very serious embarrassment, and in many instances prevent us from gaining access to these more educated and controlling classes of emigrants.

We sometimes hear it objected to the proposition to organize German Conferences, that it would tend to estrangement, and ultimately to division. But in our opinion the opposite result would follow. Certainly the granting of much-needed privilege, where no sacrifice is made by the party granting it, could not lead to estrangement, but, on the other hand, to increased affection on the part of the favored party. Then, our experience from the opposite practice, as in the instances last year of enforcing English-speaking presiding elders over some of the German charges in the Cincinnati and South-Eastern Indiana Conferences, does not exhibit to us strengthened bonds of union, but, on the contrary, a very rapid development of the very estrangement we fear.

The same thing is more fully illustrated by a reference to the history of the "Evangelical Association" in this country, founded by Mr. Albright. He was originally a Methodist, and besought Bishop Asbury to grant the very privilege for which our German brethren, after a pupilage of twenty-five years, are now asking. Upon being refused this favor, he and his German colleagues felt that there was no alternative left for them but to collect their scattered flocks and form a distinct ecclesiastical organization. They have toiled on patiently, and God has graciously blessed their labors, till this body now numbers eight Annual Conferences, above three hundred itinerant ministers, and forty-six thousand members. It supports sixty-five missions, two literary institutions, a publishing house, periodicals, etc. All this might have been saved to Methodism, and doubtless, with our united strength, much more would have been accomplished had the request of Mr. Albright and his colaborers been granted. And who can doubt that in the event the feeling of Christian fraternity would have been far stronger than it is at present?

Again, there are some who say that it is one of the great trusts of Methodism to Americanize the Germans. If it is meant by this that it is its duty to teach them the use of the English language, we can not indorse the sentiment at all. We esteem it the duty of the Church to adopt the most effectual means to lead the greatest possible number to Christ; and we feel assured that in its very best sense the truly-converted Germans are already Americanized, whether they speak the English language or not. They have recently demonstrated this, in the most unquestionable manner, on many a bloody battle-field.

The absolute necessity for a German Conference would be very sensibly felt by us if we could for a short season take the places of the German members of our own Conference. Most of them understand but little of the Conference business, and speak our language too imperfectly to participate in it at all, thus obliging them to feel as if they were ciphers, and helpless for any active enterprise in the Conference. Intricate and important matters appertaining to their work, and the proper character and qualifications of their ministers, elicit but little interest in the Conference, and are hurriedly passed over to their no small grievance and embarrassment. Brethren may plead in palliation a lack of time, but that does not remove the difficulty or relieve the embarrassment under which our German brethren are thus forced to labor. This unpleasant state of affairs does not diminish, but increases from year to year, till our German work is in a very critical condition. Then, the parceling out of the German charges into each of several Annual Conferences frequently interferes with that necessary exchange of ministers, which forces upon them the unpleasant remedy secured by frequent transfers. In this way but little interest is awakened in educational and other Conference enterprises; and if there was, it would be next to impossible to prosecute them successfully. And it is undoubtedly true that a sense of Conference responsibility will give additional vigor and infuse new life and interest in the breasts of our German ministers, and in all parts of our German work, instead of feeling themselves either an incubus or an intangible attachment to the several Conferences with which they are connected.

Let the General Conference, therefore, divide them into about three Annual Conferences in the West and one in the East, if they so desire, and let them hold their sessions at convenient seasons, and go forth infused with new spirit to accomplish their sublime mission and work out a noble ecclesiastical destiny.

Should it be found necessary, as a means of preserving our unity and identity between the German Conferences and the English work, let there be, in addition to our episcopal general superintendency, book and periodical-publishing interests, and our general missionary system, a German assistant corresponding missionary secretary, who could attend to the duties of this, in addition to those of some other position.

These are a few of the many reasons why we propose the organization of German Conferences, and we recommend, as expressive of these views, the following resolutions for adoption:

1. Resolved, That in our opinion the interests and proper development of German Methodism will be most successfully promoted by organizing, as far as practicable, the German missions and pastoral charges under our care into separate Annual Conferences.

2. Resolved, That we instruct our delegates to use their influence in the next General Conference to effect this arrangement.

3. Resolved, That the Western Christian Advocate and the Christian Apologist be requested to publish this report at their earliest convenience.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

1. Resolved, That we highly approve of the course pursued by Dr. Kingsley, Editor of the Western Christian Advocate, on all questions relating to the interests of the Church and our common country in this her time of trial, and will continue to use our best efforts to increase its circulation during the ensuing Conference year.

2. Resolved, That the high literary and moral character of the Ladies' Repository is eminently entitled to our cordial approbation, and it will afford us great pleasure to commend it to the people of our respective charges for their generous support.

3. Resolved, That we rejoice in the increasing prosperity and circulation of the Christian Apologist; that we heartily approve its editorial management, and most earnestly recommend it to the patronage of all who speak the German language.

REPORT ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

THE American Bible Society is universally conceded to be one of the most benevolent institutions, not only of our own country, but of the world, comprehending in its beneficence the Bible wants of the whole family of man. It seeks not only to scatter the Word of Life at home, but also abroad, till the earth is full of the knowledge of the Lord. It claims to have originated in a spirit of charity and love to the whole race of man, and in its broad catholicity it embraces all who truly love our Lord Jesus Christ, and feel interested in the elevation and purification of fallen humanity. In the circulation of the Word of God it visits alike the cottage of the poor and the mansion of the rich; labors to make the whole family of man one common brotherhood, and unite all the redeemed of earth in sympathy and love with the God and Father of us all. Surely, then, a society so comprehensive in the objects of its charity, so void of sectarianism, and so pure and Godlike in its aims, can not but command the confidence and liberal support of all who love the world's Redeemer, and long and pray for the coming of the kingdom of God.

It is gratifying to know that this noble institution has been favored with unusual prosperity during the past year. A slight glance at a few facts will show this. During the year ending March 31, 1863, the total receipts of the Society were $422,588, an advance on the preceding year of $44,455.22. The past two years the total of volumes issued was 2,352,959, valued at $497,701.30, and making a grand total of volumes issued by the Society since its organization in 1816, of 17,353,718. The official circular of the Society recently issued, contains the following facts:

The gratuitous work of the Society during its last fiscal year amounted, in books and grants of money for foreign lands, to $138,683.96.

The Army and Navy have been supplied to the full extent of every demand. Probably not less than 1,500,000 volumes, chiefly Testaments, have been donated by the Society and its auxiliaries for these purposes. Prisoners of war have been fully furnished with Testaments, and have gladly received them. Sick and wounded soldiers, on the battle-fields and in hospitals, have been the special objects of liberal grants.

The United States Christian Commission alone has distributed 400,000 Testaments and Bibles, granted them by the Society for the armies in the field.

This work will not soon cease; as the losses of Bibles and Testaments by marches, retreats, fording streams, battles, and other causes, are great and frequent. The new troops now being drafted must also be supplied.

The people of color have been carefully and liberally supplied.

The Southern States have not been neglected. Nearly 30,000 volumes have been given to the Virginia Bible Society and others in that State. 20,000 Bibles and Testaments were donated by the Managers, in July, to the Confederate army of the Mississippi Valley; and at their last meeting, in August, 25,000 Testaments were granted to the Southern Baptist Sunday School Board, for Sunday schools of that large denomination in all the seceded States.

The foreign work of the Society is daily growing in importance and interest. The appropriations for this year for translating, printing, and circulating the Scriptures in foreign lands, are nearly double those of the preceding year. $54,000 were applied to this use at one meeting of the Board.

The Society publishes the Scriptures in thirty-eight different languages, and aids the Missionary Boards of nearly every Christian denomination in their Bible work in China, India, Syria, Turkey, and other lands.

To carry on and advance this great work funds are always needed. Will you give your kind and generous aid to this truly-national, and catholic, and world-wide institution?

The General Agent for South-Western Ohio, in his circular just published, furnishes the following gratifying facts:

Bible Operations in Ohio.

The success of the cause in this State during the past Bible year has been truly gratifying. The total receipts were $51,763.54, and, as compared with the year preceding, showing an excess of $23,345.24.

South-Western Ohio.

We have now in this field one hundred and twenty-two Branch Societies, and nearly one thousand local agents, whose services are cheerfully and gratuitously rendered to the Bible Society. During the year 7,574 families have been visited, among which 438 were found destitute of the Scriptures. Three hundred and eleven were supplied by donation, and nearly all the rest by sale.

During the year, also, 33,318 soldiers have been supplied in the field with the Scriptures. The auxiliaries most active in this work are those of Logan, Clarke, Champaign, Pickaway, Montgomery, Highland, Shelby, Butler, Warren, Ross, Brown, Greene, Piqua Female, Troy Female, Tippecanoe Female, the Young Men's Bible Society of Cincinnati, while some others have done something in this way.

The whole amount raised in my field from all sources, for Bible purposes, was $19,101.28, nearly double the amount of the year preceding, and one-half more than was raised in the entire State during the year previous.

Sabbath School Branch Societies.

The plan recently introduced in my field, of constituting Sabbath School Branch Bible Societies, meets with the hearty commendation of pastors and superintendents, and since last February more than forty branches have been formed, some of which have already taken collections for the Bible cause. As a sample of what is doing in this way, let me state that one school in Dayton raised $20.46, another $21.54, another $56.46, and others proportionate sums. Let it be observed that this plan is not intended to substitute the congregational collection, but is designed to bring the rising generation in harmony and co-operation with the Bible cause, as is the case with the missionary cause. God grant that this work may go on, and that old and young may unite every-where in effort to fill our world with the light of Divine truth!

REPORT ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

impossible, in our brief report, to justly describe the importance rious results of the distribution of religious tracts. Suffice it to at hundreds and thousands of souls have been converted through trumentality of tracts.

le it gives us great pleasure to report that the Church is becoming wake to the importance of distributing tracts and other religious matter among our noble troops, it gives us also pain to report is important Christian enterprise is almost entirely overlooked in lected portions of our larger cities, towns, and frontier parts of ntry.

We therefore earnestly commend this great Christian enterprise to the attention of both the ministers and members of our Church throughout our bounds, and submit the following resolutions for consideration and adoption:

1. Resolved, That each preacher in charge be requested to preach a sermon on the importance of the tract cause, during the Conference year, and urge our people to make more liberal contributions for this cause than heretofore.

2. Resolved, That each preacher in charge be earnestly requested to take a collection, during the Conference year, in all his congregations, and forward the same to the Treasurer of the Parent Society.

3. Resolved, That each preacher in charge be requested to appoint suitable persons to distribute tracts within the bounds of his charge, and thus carry out a systematic plan of circulating religious reading matter among the neglected portion of the population of our country.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON THE BETHEL CAUSE.

THE Committee to whom was referred the interests and condition of the Bethel Cause, beg leave to report that, from the best data before them, the following facts have appeared; namely:

That, since the organization of the American Seamen's Friend Society on the Atlantic shore, thirty-four years ago, such has been its onward course as to bless these United States, as well as foreign ports, with similar success to that of the Missionary and Sabbath school causes.

Fifteen years ago, the Western branch of said Society organized the well-known institution called the "Cincinnati Union Bethel," which is still deepening and widening in its excellent work, under the control of a very efficient board of officers and directors, assisted by a competent organization called the "Ladies' Bethel Aid Society," which gives new life to the whole concern. The Secretary of the Sabbath school of this Union has registered the names of more than two thousand children within the last year, with the prospect of a more rapid increase than ever, as the war progresses and our noble Boatmen and Navy-men fall in our defense. The attendance upon said school is from seven hundred to one thousand, according to the weather.

The school is manned by a competent corps of volunteer teachers, who well understand their business and are seldom absent; while the whole is conducted by one of the most energetic, pious missionaries, who possesses the rare talent of commanding and teaching a thousand at once. Visitors from New York and other cities express great satisfaction with the progress of this branch of the mighty work, which is destined to rank with the most effective agents in planting the standard of the Cross.

The perpetual demand by the Government upon our river men leaves its diminishing mark upon our Bethel congregations; yet, what few do spend a Sabbath on our wharf still find their Gospel rights secured with open doors, between the Stripes and Stars which first declared a nation's right to freedom!

Upon the whole, this "Cincinnati Union Bethel" is becoming one of the most interesting fields of missionary labor within the bounds of this Conference. The beneficiaries thereof are, to all intents and purposes, the Lord's poor, to whom the Savior has willed a "preached Gospel."

Your Committee would, therefore, ask a hearty support to this excellent cause, by the cordial encouragement of its soliciting agents, and your fervent prayers for its endless success.

We submit for adoption the following resolution:

Resolved, That we recommend J. J. Hill as Agent of the Western Seamen's Friend Society.

WM. E. HINES,
E. F. HILL,
GEORGE PARROTT.

REPORT ON PARSONAGES.

IN 1862 there were, in the bounds of the Cincinnati Conference, fifty-six parsonages, including the whole German work. In 1863 there were reported eighty-four parsonages, valued at $86,475.

Your Committee believe that the interests of the Church will be promoted, and the cause of Christ honored, by a generous provision for the comfort of the minister and his family. They also think that, by such provision as the Discipline contemplates shall be made by the officiary of the various charges, in building and furnishing houses for the preachers, much of the labor and expense of the frequent removals of preachers and their families, necessary in our itinerancy, may be avoided. Your Committee would, therefore, respectfully call attention to the following recommendation of the Discipline: "It is recommended by the General Conference that the preachers advise our friends in general to purchase a lot of ground in each circuit or station, and to build a preacher's house thereon, and to furnish it with at least heavy furniture." It is also the duty of presiding elders and preachers to use their influence to carry out this recommendation by aiding and advising the committee appointed for this purpose by each quarterly conference.

From the progress which has been made in building parsonages in this Conference, your Committee believe that if this subject be presented to our people according to the judicious plan of the Discipline, it will not be long till every charge will be provided with a parsonage, furnished with at least heavy furniture.

REPORT ON FINANCE.

We deem the proposition that an itinerant ministry, in some form, is essential to the world's salvation so self-evident as to require no argument. The time has come when the prosperity of our own people justifies the expectation that every charge will furnish a sufficient and ample support to their several pastors. God has greatly blessed the nation, and none more than our own membership; and hence the duty of devising liberal things for those who have sacrificed secular emoluments to preach the Gospel. The time has come when the honor of the Church and the success of our ministry can no longer be maintained while deficiencies in ministerial support are allowed to occur in the several charges. The country teems with wealth, increasing wealth; the returns of both capital and labor are greater than ever before; while the expenses of family support are correspondingly increased: hence the duty of the Church to increase her support to her ministry.

We recommend the following plan:

1. The preacher in charge of circuits and stations shall call together the stewards and leaders as soon after Conference as practicable, to whom the Estimating Committee shall present their estimate for the pastor's support. The meeting shall then distribute the amount to the several classes, according to numbers and financial ability.

2. The several charges within our bounds are earnestly advised to lay aside the old practice of securing what they can on the eve of quarterly meeting, and instead, where funds are not raised by pew-rents, secure the preacher's salary by subscription from our own membership, and persons attending upon our ministry.

3. We earnestly urge our congregations, through their officiaries, to employ such diligence that no arrearages shall be carried from one quarter to another, thereby burdening the close of the year with embarrassing deficiencies. As sons of Wesley we should do this, as every thing else, "at the time."

4. Whenever the deficiencies of a charge are such as indicates its inability or indisposition to meet its obligations in supporting a full ministerial supply, the presiding elder shall recommend the presiding Bishop of the ensuing Annual Conference to unite said charge to another, or so supply the charge as that deficiency shall not again occur.

5. In the judgment of this Conference the obligation to pay in full the preacher's salary is as binding upon the congregation and individual members thereof as the payment of promissory notes in bank, and should be met as promptly.

6. The presiding elders of this Conference shall present this report and plan at the first quarterly conferences of the several charges of their districts, and shall cause it to be read in the congregation at the first quarterly meeting; and on circuits the stewards shall cause it to be read in every appointment as soon thereafter as possible.

REPORT ON CIRCULATION OF PERIODICALS IN THE ARMY.

YOUR Committee appointed on the circulation of our religious literature in the army would make the following report:

Whereas, our soldiers, our fathers and brothers, now heroically fighting our country's battles, who have not only given up friends and home and home comforts—sacrificed every thing, for the time, that the heart values—but have laid their very lives upon their country's altar, and in this fearful conflict are deprived not only of the society of Christian friends and Church associations, but also, to a very great extent, religious literature; and, whereas, a large proportion of our citizen soldiery now in the field are either members of the Methodist Episcopal Church or have been reared Methodistically;

1. Resolved, That it is the duty of the Church to furnish them with such religious reading as will both interest and profit them in their hours of privation, endurance, and loneliness in the camp and hospital.

2. Resolved, That this is a most successful way to keep up the animus of the army, and make it invincible to the enemy.

3. Resolved, That the Cincinnati Annual Conference recommend the pastors of the various English Churches in its bounds to take up collections, as early as October, to purchase religious literature for our brave soldiers; and, whereas, the United States Christian Commission is the speediest way of communication with our soldiers, and has received the approval and sanction of the President and Government officials;

4. Resolved, That the funds so collected be forwarded to W. T. Perkins, Cincinnati, Treasurer of the Western Branch of the Christian Commission.

5. Resolved, That this Conference heartily approve the proposal of the Book Agents at Cincinnati and New York to sell at one-half the published prices Methodist books and periodicals, for circulation among our soldiers in the army and navy.

REPORT OF THE FREEDMEN'S AID COMMITTEE.

THE Freedmen's Aid Committee submit the following report:

At the beginning of the present National struggle we supposed that the abolition of American slavery would be one of the legitimate results of the war. It was soon discovered, however, that the enemies of our country were using the negro element as a powerful engine of war against the Government. It behooved the Government, therefore, to avail itself of this element and turn it against the foe. At first, then, slaves that came within our lines were not returned to their masters; afterward they were employed as servants about our military camps and to labor on our fortifications and intrenchments; and then came the Emancipation Proclamation, severing the chain and letting the oppressed go free. Now, over one million of slaves are legally free; over fifty thousand freedmen are now enlisted soldiers in the army of the United States; and it is a remarkable fact that the march of freedom in this country is with the march of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

As one of our bishops has said, "Her battle for freedom was fought in California;" and there was no agency more potent in preventing the establishment of slavery on that golden shore than the Methodist Episcopal Church in her ministry and membership. When our brethren were persecuted in Missouri they fled to Kansas, and there God had use for them. There they were in the front of the battle for freedom, and second to none among those who won it. In Missouri the loyal line of the early struggle was the line of our work. So in Western Virginia. The line along which the Stars and Stripes float in triumph is almost identical with the line of our Conferences. These facts are significant.

For a time these thousands of freed men, women, and children herded like cattle around our military posts, in homeless and destitute condition. But during the past year, by the action of the Government and the Freedmen's Commission, and the benevolence of the people, aid has been furnished and communities organized on Island No. 10 and President's Island, in the Mississippi River; at Corinth, Mississippi; at Jackson, La Grange, and Memphis, Tennessee; at Helena, Arkansas, and at other places. At all these places in the South-Western field shelter, food, raiment, medicine and medical attendance for the sick, and farming implements and mechanics' tools for labor have been furnished. Schools, also, have been established and furnished with books and teachers. Under such organization, and with such provisions, the freedmen are doing well, in cultivating the soil, and will soon not only be self-supporting, but add to the general wealth. Thus they are being settled on Southern soil, and are laying the foundation for the reconstruction of Southern society upon the basis of universal freedom; and, whereas, it is the great work of the present age to take this crude mass of humanity, destitute as it is, and feed the hungry, clothe the naked, instruct the ignorant, and elevate them to the privileges of Christian freemen; therefore,

1. Resolved, That it is our duty, as ministers of the Lord Jesus, to aid the Government, in all suitable ways, in carrying out the whole emancipation policy to its utmost result; namely, universal freedom.

2. Resolved, That we heartily concur in the plan proposed by the Government for the organization of the contraband field of labor, and for the method of furnishing relief, instruction, and elevation to the emancipated.

3. Resolved, That, in addition to the temporal relief afforded, we are thankful to God that they have the Gospel preached to them, and that many have repented and obtained salvation through faith in Jesus Christ.

Missionaries to the Army.

IE subject of the appointment of missionaries to the army was also ed to the Freedmen's Aid Committee. The following resolutions ecommended for adoption by the Conference:

Resolved, That a mission be established, to be called the Soldiers' e Mission; and that we recommend the appointment of one German wo English missionaries.

Resolved, That the missionaries to the army appointed at this Conce be instructed to labor under the general direction of the United s Christian Commission.

Resolved, That our various charges are earnestly requested to grant of absence to their pastors, continuing their salaries during their ice, when the United States Christian Commission shall invite them sit our soldiers.

REPORT ON MEMOIRS.

Memoir of Rev. A. P. Dunlap.

Rev. A. P. Dunlap, of the Cincinnati Conference, was born in the town of Dunkirk, New York, on the 18th of August, 1828. At seven years of age he removed with his father to Ross county, Ohio, where he grew up to manhood. Through his own efforts he acquired a liberal English education. At the age of twenty-two he commenced the study of law, and two years afterward was admitted to the bar of Highland county. In the twenty-third year of his age he was converted to God, and gave his name to the Church under the ministry of Rev. Samuel Brown. His promise of usefulness in the Church soon attracted the attention of his brethren, and he was licensed as a local preacher, and, in April, 1853, commenced his itinerant work as a supply on the Augusta circuit, Kentucky Conference. In the following year he was admitted on trial in the Cincinnati Conference, held at Hillsboro, and appointed to Clarksville circuit. During this year he consummated a previous matrimonial engagement, and was united in marriage with Miss Lydia Williams, his now bereaved widow.

The following is a list of appointments which he filled with acceptance and much success:

Clarksville, 1853; Aberdeen, 1854; West Union, in charge, 1855; Batavia, 1856. In 1857–58 he was sent to West White Oak circuit, in charge. In 1859–60 he was in charge of Laurel circuit. In 1861 he was sent in charge to Georgetown circuit; and, in 1862, to Felicity station, where he was performing faithfully the duties of his high calling when he was arrested by pneumonia, lasting twelve days. During his illness he often expressed his unbounded faith in Christ. His last utterances were, "Peace, peace! all his peace!" He died on the 14th of February, 1863.

The characteristics of brother Dunlap's character were candor, earnestness, simplicity, and firmness. This latter was by some construed into haughtiness; but it was because they knew not the man. He had a high regard for truth and honor, and was incapable of a low or unworthy act. It was the writer's good fortune to be long and intimately acquainted with brother Dunlap, having labored together two years. I always found him a true friend—a pure, high-minded Christian gentleman. As a preacher he was evangelical; he never went away from the Bible for subjects of his ministrations. "Jesus and the resurrection" were the themes in which he delighted. His sermons were close to the text; and usually were enforced by tenderness and tears. As an administrator, brother Dunlap was rather a model. He attended to every part of a Methodist preacher's duty with promptness, judgment, and fidelity; but his record is on high, and in the hearts of many whom he served. God bless the lonely widow and orphan children! James Armstrong.

Memoir of Rev. George B. Owens.

GEORGE B. OWENS was born in Brunswick county, Virginia, July 14, 1809. When in his third year, his parents and grandparents removed from Virginia, and, in 1814, settled near Xenia, in Greene county, Ohio. In August, 1821, at a camp meeting near his father's house, George was clearly and powerfully converted, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Being very young—only twelve years—and naturally of a lively turn and volatile disposition in youth, he seemed to lose his first love; and for some years, it is thought, he realized but little of the life of godliness.

His marriage, in 1829, to Miss Eleanor Brewington, who proved to be a helpmeet indeed, was of much advantage to him spiritually. In the Winter of 1839 a glorious revival took place on Union circuit, under the labors of Rev. Joseph Newson, of precious memory, where George was graciously reclaimed from his wanderings, and fully restored to the Divine favor, and became a zealous laborer in the cause of Christ. Soon after this period he received a clear conviction that the necessity was laid upon him that he preach the Gospel; and with much trembling and fear, he hesitated in view of his want of ability for this great work. He however yielded to the overwhelming influence of the Holy Spirit and received license to exhort from brother Newson. In the Fall of 1842 he was licensed to preach as a local preacher; and in due time he was ordained deacon and elder.

In the Fall of 1850 he was employed as a supply on Concord circuit by Dr. Elliott, presiding elder. In 1851 he was employed on Franklin circuit by the presiding elder; in 1852 on Camden circuit. In 1853 he was admitted into the Cincinnati Conference, and filled the following appointments: Venice circuit, two years; 1855, Cumminsville; 1856–57, Monroe; 1858–59, Laurel circuit; 1860, Enon; 1861, Raysville; and 1862, Bethany circuit.

Brother Owens was modest and diffident—forming a low estimate of his abilities; yet he was a man of more than medium talent. He was a sweet singer, earnest and powerful in prayer, and by close application he became a very acceptable and successful preacher, and often witnessed gracious revivals of religion among the people with whom he labored.

Soon after he became settled in his last circuit, he and his wife left Bethany to pay a visit to their son, living on the old homestead—the oldest and the youngest being in the army. On his way he was seized with violent sickness. His wife desired him to return to their home on the circuit; but he said, "No; I am going home to die!" For nearly seven weeks he suffered with typhoid fever—much of the time delirious; but even in this condition he was most of the time preaching, praying, exhorting, or shouting—constantly in the most happy frame of mind, urging all who came to see him to meet him in heaven. A few hours before his death he suffered extremely; but as he neared the brink of Jordan his sufferings seemed to subside, and calmly and triumphantly he passed the valley of the shadow of death, exclaiming as with his last breath, "Grace sustains me when I die!"

Memoir of Rev. C. W. Sears.

Rev. Clinton W. Sears was born on the 27th of April, 1819, in Chatauque county, Western New York. He was converted to God at eleven years of age. From his early childhood his character for probity was very remarkable. His father died when he was but a lad. Having but a pittance from his father's estate, not sufficient to defray the expenses of a collegiate education, yet he was inflexibly determined to obtain it. After preparing himself as best he could, he entered Yale College, and afterward the Middletown Wesleyan University, where he graduated; and after having served the Church faithfully in most important stations, over one year ago he was appointed Chaplain of the 95th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and went with it into the State of Kentucky, and subsequently into the State of Mississippi, and was with the regiment in the glorious campaign that resulted in the capture of Jackson, the siege and surrender of Vicksburg, and the opening of the Mississippi. At the latter place he was taken with camp diarrhea, which prostrated him so far as to cause him to resign his office. He returned home July 15th, greatly prostrated, and gradually sank till the 29th of August, when he fell asleep in Jesus. Brother Sears, while in college, obtained the blessing of perfect love, and retained it during the greatest part of his ministry—the evidence that "the blood of Jesus cleanses from all sin." He loved to preach the doctrine of holiness and all kindred themes, and adorned the doctrine which he preached by a holy life and a godly conversation.

Brother Sears was a good scholar, an able preacher, a faithful pastor. His last days on earth were full of triumph. Expressions of praise to God continually fell from his lips. One of his last expressions was, "Praise to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost!" and as he went down into the waters of death he sent back the cheering words, "All is well!" and as a loving child seeks his father's arms, went home to heaven.

Brother Sears was a patriot. He gave not only himself, but also his oldest son, a youth of nineteen years, is still in the Army of the Mississippi. His funeral was preached by Bishop Morris in Urbana, to a large and deeply-sympathizing congregation, and from thence the remains were accompanied by sorrowing friends to Cincinnati for interment, there to await the resurrection of the just.

Memoir of Rev. G. W. Harris.

Rev. G. W. Harris departed this life at the residence of his widowed mother, near Springfield, Clark county, O., November 5th, in his thirty-ninth year.

He was born in Frederick county, Va., November 14, 1823. When he was nine years old his parents emigrated to Ohio, and settled in Clark county, near the place of his death. He embraced religion when he was about fifteen years of age, and from that period to the day of his death he lived the life of a consistent Christian. After suitable preparation he entered the Ohio Wesleyan University, and passed through a regular collegiate course. During his connection with the University he was one of the active young men in all the religious movements among the students—always ready to labor when and where his seniors thought his services would be most useful.

About the time he graduated he was licensed to preach, and in the Fall of 1850 he was admitted on trial into the Ohio Conference. When the Conference was divided in 1852, he fell in the Cincinnati Conference, of which he continued a member till the time of his death. During his itinerant ministry he filled the following appointments: Camden, King's Creek, North Lewisburg, and Tremont circuits. He then filled the South Charleston, Yellow Springs, Oxford, and Lebanon stations. In all he spent twelve years in these charges.

In 1852 he was united in marriage to Miss Lydia Kenaga; and perhaps two more congenial spirits were never united as man and wife. They seemed to be one in all their interests, whether in relation to this world or the world to come. During a large period of his itinerant labors I was his fellow-laborer as his presiding elder, and, consequently, had a good opportunity to become acquainted with his true character. I am therefore prepared to say that in all his appointments while thus associated with him, he was acceptable and useful. Brother Harris was an ardent admirer of the Church of his choice, and had made himself acquainted with her economy; and though trusted with the administration of Discipline when quite young in the ministry, he was always safe and correct. I am free to say that a more trustworthy young man I have never been associated with in any department of labor. In all my intercourse with him I never saw any thing in him that in the least degree was calculated to shake my confidence in his genuine integrity of character.

Brother Harris was a good student, and had made himself quite well acquainted with our standard works. This was manifest in his sermons. He was sound in doctrine, and clear in his experience, and generally made out what he took in hand. He was not one of those men who have a reputation away from home more than at home, whose reputation goes before them and causes them to be sought after, but when they have served their term out their reputation is still gone in advance of them, and but little of the savory influence left behind in the old charge. His reputation as a minister was always greater behind than before him. He had not cultivated the style of oratory in the pulpit which gives a man popular fame. In order to be properly appreciated he must settle down in his charge, and work in the midst of the people in the pastoral work, and among the sick and poor of his flock. In this way he would soon shine out, and get a firm hold on the affections of his people, and this would work like the leaven in the meal, even when he had left them for another field. His last appointment in the West Cincinnati district was Oxford, where he labored two years, and during that time he did more for that charge than any man had done for many years. He had the church remodeled and a fine parsonage bought, and had all paid for before he left; and here in this seat of learning brother Harris was universally beloved, and, so far as I know, by all denominations of Christians, and by the citizens generally. His last two years were spent in the town of Lebanon, in respect to which I am not particularly posted.

During this Summer Mrs. Harris was greatly afflicted, being confined for many weeks, and her husband became worn down by care and solicitude so as to be quite feeble. About the time that sister Harris began to recover he was taken down with typhoid fever, and was reduced very low, so that his recovery was despaired of. This affliction caused him to be absent from the last session of our Conference. He was appointed to the Vienna circuit, where his friends reside, with the hope that he might recover and go and live among them in that healthy region, and by this means be restored to perfect soundness. But Providence ordered otherwise.

Some time after the session of our Conference he so far recovered as to be removed from Lebanon to his mother's, and seemed to have hope that in a few weeks he might commence his labor on the circuit; but in this he was mistaken. In a few days after he was removed he suffered a relapse, and in a short time it became apparent to all that his end was nigh. During his last hours he gave his friends all the evidence they could ask that he was ready for the change; and after talking with his friends, and giving all the directions in relation to his funeral and burial that he deemed necessary, just at the last he had an instrument of writing prepared, and though nearly gone when it was ready for his signature, like a true soldier of the Cross, he seemed to have strength to hold the King of Terrors at arm's-length till he put his signature to the paper, thus finishing his work in this world, after which he reclined on his pillow and breathed his last without a struggle or a groan.

"How blest the righteous when he dies!
When sinks the weary soul to rest!
How mildly beam the closing eyes!
How gently heaves the expiring breast!

So fades a Summer cloud away;
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;
So gently shuts the eye of day;
So dies a wave along the shore.

A holy quiet reigns around—
A calm which life nor death destroys;
And naught disturbs that peace profound
Which his unfettered soul enjoys."

REV. WM. H. FYFFE, of the Cincinnati Annual Conference, was born in Urbana, Champaign county, O., on the 26th of January, 1814.

During February, 1832, after a long and earnest struggle, he was enabled to lay hold on the hope set before him in the Gospel. In the Fall of 1836, constrained by the unmistakable heavenly call, he applied for work in the Ohio Conference, and was assigned to Troy circuit. The following year his name was called for Union circuit. He spent the next two years on New Haven circuit; then one year on New Richmond circuit; the next two on Milford circuit. His next appointment was to Xenia station. After two years in Xenia he was moved to Fulton; thence to Asbury Chapel, Cincinnati. At the expiration of his time in this charge, he applied for a certificate of location, which he held till the Conference of 1853. Then he again resumed the regular work, and was stationed at Park-Street, Cincinnati. Here his health failed him again, and after a rest of four years his name appears on the Minutes as pastor at Eaton. At the expiration of his second year in this charge he was transferred to the Kentucky Conference, and appointed to Greenup-Street station, Covington. Moody, at Morris Chapel, and was, at the last session of this Conference, appointed to Ripley station.

Applying the Gospel text, "By their fruits ye shall know them," Rev. Wm. H. Fyffe must be pronounced a successful preacher. He was blessed of God in winning souls. His journal shows that he received into the Church over three thousand persons, and witnessed between three and four thousand conversions. He labored in but two appointments without a revival. These facts are better than praise.

To refer to the habitual urbanity, the unselfish love of friends, and the strong home attachments that characterized brother Fyffe, would extend this article beyond its proper limits.

On the 10th of May, 1863, brother Fyffe was attacked with paralysis. Fortunately he was at his home in Cincinnati, where a devoted wife and affectionate daughters watched and administered to him. This attack was sudden but severe; and our brother expressed a conviction, from the commencement of it, that "the time of his departure was at hand." The beautiful expressions by which he evinced his faith in God and hope of heaven, during the days of his last illness, would be a rich legacy to the Church and his friends, if committed to print. These are some of them: Once, during a cessation from pain, his palsied tongue was unloosed, and he said, "God said, 'Let there be light!' and that was the highest manifestation of Deity to the outward world; but God in his book said 'God is love,' and that is the sublimest manifestation of Deity to my poor soul."

Then followed a description of heaven as he anticipated it, that ought not to be marred by an attempt to write it. His tongue began to grow stiff, however, and he said, "But I shall see the King in his beauty, and mine eyes shall behold the land that is very far off." On Tuesday, May 19th, he called his family, two married daughters, three single daughters, son, and wife, one by one, to his bedside, and gave them his parting blessing. Then he suffered much till toward the morning of Wednesday, the 20th of May, when God graciously relieved him, and he peacefully fell asleep in Jesus. Just a few moments before "he was not," his wife said, "Won't you soon be home?" In whispering accents he replied, "Yes, heaven!" then closed his eyes, to open them in heaven, above the reach of human praise or blame, where he does now indeed "behold the King in his beauty, and see the land that is very far off."

ALLEN T. THOMPSON.

Memoir of Rev. Charles R. Lovell.

CHARLES R. LOVELL was born in Dunstable, Massachusetts, August 11, 1808, whence he emigrated with his parents to Eastern Ohio in 1818. At that early day the means of a liberal education were very limited, and open only to the sons of the rich. Others had to depend for a very partial education on schools then common in that section of the State—often taught by very incompetent teachers. In these and under the tuition of private instructors, and by close application to study, he obtained a pretty thorough knowledge of the common English branches. Subsequently he obtained some knowledge of the Latin, and especially of the Greek, which he found a great help in the exposition of the Scriptures. He was a man of excellent talents, and a good preacher. His sermons were usually well arranged, and often gave evidence of a strong mind and much study. The work of the ministry was his delight; and the joy he found in it more than compensated its privations, toils, and sufferings. Rev. W. H. Lawder, who often visited him in his last illness, on the Monday before he died, took down from his lips the following statement:

"From the first of the year I have thought I should not survive; yet it has caused me no uneasiness. I have felt composed and cheerful under the impression. My present state is one of great confidence and faith in Christ. My prospects of a better world are perfectly clear. Heaven looks to me like a rich and beautiful home. I have great enjoyment—very."

Brother Lawder says the last words were uttered with great emotion. He saw him again that evening, and inquired into his state of mind. He replied, "All is calm; it is sweet to die!" The next day, when brother Lawder approached his bedside, he said, "I am still here; but I do not complain. My prospects are perfectly clear." He then gave directions in regard to his funeral services with the utmost composure; after which brother Lawder read to him the 8th chapter of Romans, at his request, and he exclaimed, "O, that is a precious portion of God's Word!" For a time his mind wandered; but never from things pure and lovely. He suffered but little. His last hours were lucid and tranquil; and in the end of the week he fell asleep in Jesus, as gentle and sweet as infants' slumber. Thus he closed the twenty-ninth year of his itinerant ministry. "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace." JOHN F. WRIGHT.

Memoir of Rev. John T. Mitchell.

JOHN THOMAS MITCHELL was born August 20, 1810, near the village of Salem, county of Botetourt, State of Virginia.

His father, Rev. Samuel Mitchell, a local preacher for more than half a century, was a man of great natural endowments, of prepossessing and dignified personal appearance, of most winning and affable manners, and a very able and useful preacher. His son enjoyed, in early life, such advantages of education as the common schools of that day afforded. In the year 1817 the family moved to the State of Illinois, and settled near Belleville, in the county of St. Clair. It should be mentioned here, in honor of the memory of Samuel Mitchell, that on leaving Virginia he manumitted his slaves, and selected a home in a free State, where his children might grow up free from the contaminating influences of slavery.

In the Fall of 1829 John, then a lad of nineteen years, attended what was denominated in those times a "Conference camp meeting," where he was awakened to a sense of his lost condition as a sinner, and formed a resolution to devote his life to the service of God. He accordingly united with the Church as a probationer; but his own diary, kept at that period, shows that he failed to obtain an evidence of conversion, and, as might be expected, he soon became careless and indifferent about his soul. This period of declension was, however, of short continuance; for later in the Autumn of the same year he attended another camp meeting, near the town of Carlisle, where he was powerfully impressed with the necessity of seeking, then and there, the witness of the Spirit that he was a child of God. At this meeting he wrestled long and hard for the blessing of pardon. Day after day, and night after night, he was found kneeling humbly at the altar of prayer, till, finally, on the very last morning of the meeting, he was enabled to rise and testify that his sins were forgiven, and that God was reconciled through the Son of his love.

In the Spring of 1830 he commenced teaching school in the neighborhood of his father, a business for which he had great aptitude, and in which he was quite successful. About the same time he was appointed assistant superintendent of a Sabbath school, and engaged in the work with characteristic zeal and devotedness. While thus engaged, the conviction that God had called him to the work of the ministry became so clear and overwhelming that, after much anxiety, prayer to God, and consultation with his honored and wise father, he fully made up his mind to devote all his ransomed powers to the cause of Christ. On the 13th of April, 1831, he preached his first sermon in the little town of Hillsboro, not far from his home, having previously exercised his talents as an exhorter on several occasions. In the Autumn of 1832 he set out, in company with several other ministers, for the seat of the Illinois Conference, Indianapolis, Indiana. It was a long, tedious, and difficult journey, performed wholly on horseback.

Having reached Indianapolis safely, the young candidate for admission became a deeply-interested observer of the proceedings of Conference, and an attentive listener to the discourses preached on that occasion. The venerable Bishop Roberts presided. John T. Mitchell, at the close of the session, received his first appointment, to Jacksonville circuit, for which he immediately started, in order to enter without delay upon the work assigned him.

It will, of course, be impossible, in this brief sketch, to go into any details of the results of brother Mitchell's ministry. An examination of the private journal kept by him during a period of four years, at the commencement of his itinerant labors, discloses the fact that during that time he was a close and severe student. Not only did he apply himself to the study of theology, but he found time and means likewise to gain considerable knowledge of philosophy, mathematics, general literature, and the Latin and Greek languages. In 1833 he was appointed to Galena mission, then considered a very difficult and unpromising field of labor. The next year he was ordained a deacon, by Bishop Soule, and returned to Galena. His next appointment was to Chicago, at that time (1835) a missionary station, embracing about twenty-five members. The next year he was ordained elder and returned to the same field of labor. In 1837 he was sent to Jacksonville station, where he remained two years. His next appointment was Springfield, two years. In 1840 he was transferred to the Rock River Conference, and appointed presiding elder of Chicago district, a position which he held for two years. He was then sent to Mt. Morris station, and appointed, at the same time, the financial agent of the Rock River Seminary. By the General Conference of 1844 he was elected Assistant Book Agent of the Western Book Concern; a position requiring a practical business knowledge, which very few ministers possess to a greater extent than did our lamented brother. For four years he performed the delicate and responsible duties of this post with marked ability. In 1848 he was transferred to the Ohio Conference, and stationed at Ninth-Street—now Trinity—Church, in this city, where he labored with zeal and success for two years. In 1850 he was stationed at Wesley Chapel, in Cincinnati, and remained two years. Afterward he was sent to Urbana, where, as pastor, presiding elder, and one year as supernumerary, he lived and labored for seven years. In 1859 he was reappointed to Wesley Chapel, where he remained till the Fall of 1861, when he was stationed at Park-Street Church, which congregation he served one year, being appointed in 1862 presiding elder of the Cincinnati district, the position he held at the time of his death. He was several times a delegate to the General Conference, first, as the representative of the Rock River, and afterward of the Cincinnati Conference. From the organization of the Cincinnati Conference, in 1851, to the time of his death, he was the Secretary of that body, chosen annually by common consent, on account of his peculiar fitness for the office. In the Conference to which he originally belonged, as well as in our own, he always took a deep interest in educational enterprises, and contributed very largely, by his sound judgment and wise counsel, to the success of all the benevolent agencies of the Church.

As a minister of the Gospel, brother Mitchell held a high and growing position to the close of his life. He possessed a combination of social, intellectual, and moral qualities which are rarely found in one individual. A heart overflowing with love for a perishing world; an understanding clear and discriminating; an imagination remarkably chaste; a social manner serious, affectionate, yet very winning and gentle—all combined to make him a minister of extraordinary influence and usefulness. No one who attended his ministry ever doubted that the love of Christ constrained him. His style was exceedingly neat, simple, and dignified, and yet very impressive. At times, when his soul kindled with the themes of the Gospel, he would speak with a tongue of fire, and stir every heart by the power of his earnest and eloquent utterances.

In the use of language he seemed to seize by intuition the words best adapted to convey to the understanding of his hearers the clear and forcible conceptions of his own mind. He was greatly skilled in the use of "pure English, undefiled." His sentences were often striking aphorisms—brief, comprehensive, suggestive. As a speaker he was, in many respects, a model. A graceful dignity of mien, a fervid, affectionate style, and a directness and pungency of appeal to the hearts of sinners, conspired to make his ministrations a great blessing wherever they were enjoyed. Few of his brethren in the ministry have excelled him as a doctrinal and, at the same time, practical preacher.

In his religious belief, brother Mitchell was "steadfast and unmovable." He embraced with his whole soul the theology of Wesley, and never wavered in the conviction that it was more nearly a transcript of the teachings of Christ than any other system of doctrines held among men. There was no appearance of fickleness or indecision in his religious life. He did not grow weary of opinions because they were old; nor did he ever manifest the slightest inclination to embrace new views of Church polity or doctrine from a mere morbid desire for novelties. No cunning of men or wind of doctrine could turn him aside from the deliberate convictions of his mind. His personal experience was so inwoven with the grand, fundamental doctrines of the Cross, that he could not be otherwise than firmly "rooted and grounded" in the faith delivered to the saints. He loved the Church of his fathers with a great and overmastering affection. He was exceedingly jealous of her honor, and seemed to covet life and strength only for her service. A more thoroughly-tried and true watchman has rarely fallen from the walls of our Zion. And yet he was in no sense a bigoted sectarian. Enthusiastically devoted as he was to Methodism, no narrow and exclusive spirit of party characterized at any time his private or public life. He was, on the contrary, a truly catholic-spirited Christian. It can not be forgotten how earnestly he co-operated with all the evangelical ministers of Cincinnati in the formation of a society for mutual improvement and the promotion of fraternal feeling.

While pastor at Jacksonville, in 1836–38, he became deeply anxious to promote the doctrine and experience of Christian purity, and for this purpose organized a "Select Society," in accordance with the plan of Mr. Wesley. Of his own inner life at this time a short extract from his journal will give the best view:

"My soul this evening was drawn out in prayer that the blessing might be given now. I confessed my unfaithfulness. I pleaded the merits of Christ, the infinite love of God, his delight in making his children like himself, his promise to cleanse from all unrighteousness, and, glory be to God! his Spirit broke into my heart—the darkness fled away—the glory of God was revealed in the face of Jesus Christ—my sin was all destroyed—the love of God filled and overflowed my heart, and all my soul was love."

This paragraph will serve as a key-note to all his after-life. It was a constant heart-struggle to maintain this high and rare experience. It was the theme of very much of his preaching. No congregation to whom he ever ministered can forget his frequent and powerful appeals to the Church to rise and put on her beautiful garments.

As an executive officer of the Church, charged with the administration of Discipline, he was proverbially firm. Very few men are endowed in this world with more practical wisdom than he possessed. On all questions of grave moment that arose in the Conference, no man's opinions had more weight. His brethren will never forget, I am sure, how often the clear, brief statements of the Secretary have unraveled the most perplexing difficulties. His cool judgment and evenly-balanced mind always comprehended the practicability as well as the desirableness of a thing. As a counselor in the Church his place can not easily be supplied.

On Tuesday, February 24th, the hand of God was laid heavily upon our brother, in the removal from earth of his beloved and pure-spirited wife, Catherine. In recording her triumphant death in his journal, he says: "My best earthly friend, the mother of my children, my guardian angel, my safest human counselor, my beloved Catherine, a most true-hearted and pure-minded Christian woman, entered her rest at 5 o'clock this afternoon."

From this blow he never recovered. On Saturday, the 21st of March, he was seized with a hemorrhage of the lungs. A second attack followed on the next morning. On Friday, April 3d, having been cordially invited to do so, he went to Mt. Auburn, as the guest of Adam N. Riddle, Esq., in whose kind and Christian family every possible attention was bestowed upon the dying servant of God. His physician, Dr. John Davis, was unwearied in his efforts and unremitting in his attentions, doing all that medical skill could do to arrest the disease, but the arrow had sped unerringly. Brother Mitchell soon became satisfied that his work was done, and with serene composure adjusted all his worldly affairs, and prepared for his departure. The chamber where this good man daily expected, for weeks, to meet his fate, "was privileged above the common walks of life."

To an official member of Trinity Church he said, "I am going home to rest—the port is in sight. You and I have often sung together here on earth, but we 'll sing up yonder! My peace flows as a river. I have a desire to depart and be with Christ."

To a ministerial brother he said, in reply to a question, "Yes, I am unspeakably happy. I am waiting in weakness and pain, but not impatient, for God to call me home. I am ready to go at any moment. I am a sinner saved by grace."

To another: "I am very weak, but very happy! My Savior is ever near me." His friend began to quote: "Though thou passest through the waters"—— when brother Mitchell interrupted him, his face beaming with joyous hope, "I have no fear, but peace, perfect peace. I am waiting for my change to come."

To another member of the Conference he said: "To all my brethren in the ministry give my heart-felt thanks and dying benediction for their kindness and sympathy. My only desire to live was for God, the Church, and my boys."

To a sister, whose gentle ministries had contributed very largely to the comfort of his last days, and for whose kindness he felt profoundly grateful, he said, "I am dying. You have been very kind and tender to me; I want to leave you a memento; what shall it be?" She replied: "Your life, your friendship, your example as a consistent Christian, are the most precious tokens you can leave me." "Ah," he answered, "these are poor tokens, indeed." He then presented a favorite volume, adding, "in remembrance of your sympathy for one who was altogether unworthy of it."

A brother minister said to him, "We shall greatly miss you in our Conference." His reply was: "I am glad you referred to the Conference. I want you to take this message to my brethren. My associations with the Conference have ever been of the most pleasant character. I have tried to serve the brethren as best I could. I love them all dearly. I go to my rest in full hope that I shall meet them all when their work is done. I am too young to leave words of counsel, but I hope the Cincinnati Conference will always be a burning and shining light. This message I send to my German as well as to the English brethren, for I feel a deep interest in our German work."

When brother Riddle inquired, one morning, how he felt, he answered, "Struggling into life—struggling into life. I can never express the obligations I am under to yourself and family, for your services and kindness to me in my sickness."

On Monday, the 25th of May, feeling greatly revived by a night's undisturbed rest, he announced his purpose to carry out the plan he had long entertained of visiting his sister, who resided in Red Wing, in the State of Minnesota. For a week prior to this time he had seemed sensibly better, and many of his friends were encouraged to hope that he might yet recover. Being fully persuaded in his own mind that nothing but a change of climate could permanently benefit him, he resolved to make the attempt. On Tuesday evening he was placed in a sleeping car, and made the journey to Chicago safely and comfortably. On Thursday evening he left that city for Dunleith, whence to travel by steamer to Red Wing. During Friday he coughed almost constantly, and seemed every way less comfortable. On Saturday morning he told his son, who was then watching by his bedside, that he could not last more than an hour or two. From that time he sunk away gradually till, at half-past seven o'clock, May 30th, on the bosom of the Father of Waters, his freed spirit soared away to the bosom of his Father and God.

J. F. MARLAY.

Rev. Alfred M. Lorrain.

REV. ALFRED M. LORRAIN, of the Cincinnati Annual Conference, was born in Chester Town, Kent county, Maryland, March 15, 1791. When quite young he moved, with his father's family, to Petersburg, Virginia. In 1804, at the age of thirteen, he became a sailor, in which capacity he served seven years. In 1813 or 1814 he joined the Petersburg company of twelve months' volunteers, and served in the North-West under General Harrison. He helped construct Fort Meigs, and when it was besieged by the British and Indians, bore a conspicuous part in its defense, participating in the bayonet charge made upon the enemy outside of the fort. In 1816, by invitation, he accompanied his pious mother and some Methodist ladies to a Methodist camp meeting. While attending the meeting he earnestly sought religion, and when returning from the meeting, while his sisters were singing one of the songs of Zion, converting grace fell upon the soul of young Alfred. Soon after his conversion he went to New Orleans, and was one of four composing the first Methodist class organized in that city. He had not been long in New Orleans when he was, by President Madison, appointed Receiver of Public Moneys for lands of the United States in the Eastern District of Louisiana.

He was licensed to preach by Bishop M'Kendree, in the city of New Orleans, in 1818. In 1821 or 1822, with his mother and three single sisters, he moved from Petersburg, Virginia, to Xenia, Ohio, and engaged in school teaching, and reading medicine under the direction of Dr. Joshua Martin. In 1823 Bishop M'Kendree visited Xenia, and formed the first Sabbath school organized in the place, appointing brother Lorrain superintendent. He was ordained deacon by Bishop M'Kendree, September 23, 1823. In the Fall of 1824 he was admitted on trial in the Ohio Conference, and subsequently received the following appointments: Columbus circuit, 1824; Brush Creek, 1825. October 16, 1825, he was ordained elder by Bishop George. Scioto circuit, 1826. During his year on Scioto circuit he was married to Miss Mary Mitchell, who still survives as his bereaved widow. Miami circuit, 1827; Mad River circuit, 1828 and 1829; Zanesville, 1830; Delaware, 1831 and 1832; Mt. Vernon, 1833 and 1834; Union, 1835; Madison, 1836 and 1837; West Union, 1838; Franklinton, 1839; Circleville, 1840 and 1841; Urbana station, 1842; Hamilton station, 1843; Monroe circuit, 1844; Miami circuit, 1845 and 1846; Putnam station, 1847 and 1848; Asbury circuit, 1849; Harmer station, 1850. During his year at Harmer station he published his volume of Sea Sermons. Fulton station, 1851. During his year in Fulton station he attended as a delegate the General Conference held at Boston, Mass. In 1852 and 1853 he was Chaplain of the Floating Bethel at Cincinnati, and editor of the Western Seaman's Pilot. In 1854 he was agent of the Oakland Female Seminary at Hillsboro. In 1855 he was on Milford circuit; Madison circuit, 1856 and 1857; Miami circuit, 1858; Batavia circuit, 1859 and 1860. In May, 1861, during his second year on Batavia circuit, from bodily infirmity, he was compelled, though reluctantly, to give up the itinerant work.

At the Conference held in Springfield, September, 1861, he was granted a superannuated relation, the Conference passing the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we hope brother Lorrain will be able and will be disposed to use his facile pen to enrich the columns of our periodical literature; and we most heartily commend him to our editors as eminently worthy of being employed as a regular contributor with a liberal compensation.

Resolved, That we respectfully request our highly-esteemed and greatly-beloved fellow-laborer, Rev. A. M. Lorrain, to prepare for publication his own biography.

He complied with the last resolution, and prepared what is known as "The Helm, the Sword, and the Cross."

Early in the Fall of 1862 it was very evident that his strength was failing. About the middle of the Winter he was attacked with dropsy in the chest, and at times endured intense physical suffering. In a conversation with the writer and Rev. S. S. Austin, he said he did not know why he should be spared longer, especially as his work was done; but that he was willing to live or die, and that the Gospel which he had preached for more than forty years now supported him while nearing the spirit-world. It was my privilege to visit him frequently, both by day and by night, during his severe physical suffering. He was never known to murmur. Once after I had kneeled in prayer at his request, he said, "O how much good that does me! Prayer to, and faith in Christ, is my only hope of salvation." To Rev. Geo. H. Dart he said, "I now see the headlands of glory." On Thursday evening, April 23d, in company with Revs. James Manning and S. S. Austin, I administered to him the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. I inquired what I should say for him to his brethren of the Conference. "Tell them," said he, "that they have been my best friends." As he drew near the river of death, I said, "Has this world any attractions now?" to which he replied, "None; it looks like a mere speck." At two o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 25th, at his own quiet home in Clarksville, Ohio, in his seventy-third year, the angel of death came. The labored breathing grew shorter and fainter; shorter and fainter still; no struggle—no groan. Then all was quiet; and as we stood around the bed we knew that the angels were opening wide the portals of the land of rest, and the weary toiler of earth, now the crowned victor of heaven, was, with exceeding joy, entering in. At the time when the soul was taking leave of its clay tenement,

> "A holy quiet reigned around—
> A calm which life nor death destroyed;
> And naught disturbed that peace profound,
> Which his unfettered soul enjoyed."

The loss to the Church and his companion is his eternal gain.

D. C. BENJAMIN.

Memoir of Rev. Leroy Swormstedt.

LEROY SWORMSTEDT was born in Maryland October 4, 1798. His parents were both members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and he was early instructed in the duties and rites of religion. These instructions were not lost upon him, for, at the age of eighteen, he was brought to an experimental knowledge of Christ in the forgiveness of his sins and the renewing of his heart.

In May, 1817, he removed from Baltimore to Cincinnati, where he obtained a situation as merchant's clerk. On the 14th of August he was licensed to exhort, and on the 2d of January, 1818, he was licensed as a local preacher. In the March of this year he was employed by the presiding elder on a circuit; and thus commenced his itinerant work. It is not too much to say he never looked back, but on and on he pressed—a man of one work, one purpose—to serve God and build up the Church of Jesus Christ.

At the session of the Ohio Conference which commenced in Steubenville August 7, 1818, he was admitted on trial as a traveling preacher. The Ohio Conference at that time included all the State of Ohio and portions of Kentucky, Western Virginia, and Indiana.

Brother Swormstedt was ordained deacon by Bishop Roberts in 1820, and elder by Bishop George in 1822. The appointments successively filled by him were as follows:

1818, Columbus circuit; 1819, Brush Creek; 1820, White Oak; 1821, Zanesville circuit; 1822, Cincinnati; 1823, Zanesville station; 1824, Columbus circuit again; 1825, Fairfield; 1826–27, Marietta station; 1828, Columbus—a third time; 1829, Chillicothe circuit; 1830–31, presiding elder, Lancaster district; 1832–34, presiding elder, Zanesville district; 1834–36, presiding elder, Cincinnati district; 1836–44, Assistant Agent of the Western Book Concern, with John F. Wright as his senior; 1844–60, Principal Agent; 1860–63, superannuated.

From the above outline of his labors it will appear he served the Church upon circuits and stations twelve years; in office of presiding elder nearly six years; and the Agency of the Western Book Concern as Assistant and Principal twenty-four years.

The most of the circuits were spread over a large extent of territory; the roads were often difficult to travel, the streams and rivers crossed only by fording and swimming. His rides were often very long, and scarcely a day passed without preaching at least one sermon and leading a class. In those days he shared largely of the blessing of health, and possessed strength equal to his great labor.

As a preacher he was energetic, methodical, and often powerful. His punctuality was proverbial; the people in the remotest sections of his circuit knew just when to expect him, and at what time the services would commence. He would go through storm, mud, snow, and flood—never missing a single appointment if it were possible to reach it. Scrupulously punctual himself, he could not excuse the lack of punctuality in others; and the people of his charge soon came to realize that under his administration rigid exactness was expected in all things.

He enforced with much fidelity the Discipline of the Church, which occasioned sometimes the removal of many dry and withered limbs from the tree; and yet there was almost invariably an aggregate increase in the charge before the end of the year.

Brother Swormstedt brought with him to the Western Book Concern large business qualifications, as well as appropriate business habits adapting him to the work of an Agent; and in that responsible and important relation he showed himself competent, faithful, and successful as an officer of the Church. And for the services he has rendered in promoting this great interest it is but justice to say he has deserved and received unmistakable commendation and honor from his brethren, who will long cherish his useful life and labors in fond remembrance.

Sometime in the year 1857 his health began to fail, and it is supposed he suffered a partial paralysis, affecting very considerably his vocal organs. His terrible paroxysms of asthma seemed to shock his whole system, and may have affected his spinal column. It soon became apparent to all his friends that he was gradually failing. After he left the Book Concern he declined more rapidly. Every thing was done that could be done to relieve his suffering and render him comfortable. His disease seemed, however, constantly, though slowly, to advance to its fatal termination. It resulted in the softening of the brain. His mental vision became greatly obscured and his physical system almost helpless.

On Thursday, August 27th, it became apparent that he must soon die, and on the following day, at 2, P. M., he was removed from suffering to his reward.

THE BIBLE.

BY REV. W. TRAILL, A. M.

Large 12mo, pp. 368.....Price, $1.25.

This is a republication, edited by Dr. Clark, from the Edinburgh edition. Fresh, clear, eloquent, and vigorous expositions; rich in devout feelings; and written in a style combining strength with simplicity.

OUTPOSTS OF ZION:

WITH LIMNINGS OF MISSION LIFE.

BY REV. WM. H. GOODE.

Large 12mo, pp. 464.....Price, $1.25.

This book is going finely. Frontier Methodism is rich in thrilling incident and historic lore. No one has had larger experience than W. H. Goode. The Northern Christian Advocate says of this work: "We always read, with a decided relish, the records of those incidents which went to make up so much of the life experience of our early preachers and missionaries on our Western frontier. This book before us is one made of the records of events and incidents occurring during a score of years or more, spent in labors in connection with our frontier Conferences. The writer has displayed most excellent descriptive powers, and has a wonderful skill in bringing events of the past up before the minds of his readers. It is decidedly a Good book, and can not fail to interest the reader and do good service to the cause of historical Methodism in the West."

ROSEDALE:

A STORY OF SELF-DENIAL.

BY MRS. H. C. GARDNER.

Large 12mo, pp. 410.....Price, $1.25.

An interesting book, and one that teaches a wholesome lesson of patience and self-denial. It will make a fine addition to our Sunday school libraries and fireside reading.

TEMPTATION AND TRIUMPH:

WITH OTHER STORIES.

BY VIRGINIA F. TOWNSEND.

Large 12mo, pp. 389.....Price, $1.25.

Miss Townsend is well known to the public as the writer of moral tales and sketches, and the present volume contains a selection from some of her best pieces.

Please send in your orders for the above works early. They are all good books, and will well repay perusal. They are models of typography and binding, and are put at low figures.

THE PRINCIPAL COMPANIES MAKING SEWING-MACHINES are Wheeler & Wilson, I. M. Singer & Co., and Grover & Baker. Of the Machines made there were sold during the year last reported:

By I. M. Singer & Co.	10,953
By Grover & Baker	10,280

We have personally examined the various Machines before the public, with an anxious desire to place before our readers reliable information. As the result of such examination, we unhesitatingly recommend Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing-Machine as the Machine for family use.— Western Christian Advocate.

The substitution of the rotary movement of the "hook" for the reciprocating motion of the shuttle is the latest grand improvement on the Sewing-Machine, and it is that which now gives Wheeler & Wilson's its decided advantage over all other Machines. Moreover, for economy of power, ease of management, variety of adaptation, and speed of execution, it no doubt surpasses all others for family use.—Ladies' Repository.

THE

Eclectic Educational Series,

PUBLISHED BY SARGENT, WILSON & HINKLE,

137 Walnut Street, Cincinnati.

THE design of the publishers of the ECLECTIC EDUCATIONAL SERIES has been, and is, to furnish to the West a complete series of elementary class-books, embodying every feature which has, by actual experience in the school-room, been found to be desirable, and embracing the various branches of elementary education; and to furnish these books in as good style, and as cheap, or cheaper, than books of like character can be had from the East. That they have been successful in their efforts, the following opinions, from sources entitled to the highest respect, go to prove:

From REV. D. W. CLARK, D. D., Editor of the Ladies' Repository, and of Books at the Methodist Book Concern.

I have had frequent occasion, during the past few years, to examine and re-examine the ECLECTIC EDUCATIONAL SERIES OF SCHOOL-BOOKS. Taken as a whole, they are unquestionably the best issued by any house in America.

MCGUFFEY'S NEW ECLECTIC READERS, ascending from easy lessons in spelling and reading to the highest forms of rhetorical delivery, making seven successive gradations in the art of reading and delivery, must satisfy every reasonable demand in this department. * * * I am satisfied that wherever McGuffey's Readers are introduced into our schools, and thoroughly tested, it will be very difficult to dislodge them.

PROFESSOR RAY was a mathematician of high order. His practical good sense, and his large and successful experience as an educator, as well as his enthusiastic devotion to the science of mathematics, eminently fitted him for the production of good text-books in this department. His ARITHMETICS and ALGEBRAS form a regular and complete series, beginning with the elements and ascending to the higher principles of the science. I regard Ray's as the best mathematical series.

In DR. PINNEO'S PRIMARY and ANALYTICAL GRAMMARS there is remarkable simplicity of arrangement and clearness of definition. The Primary Grammar is admirably adapted to the beginner; it will enable him to understand the science. The Analytical Grammar, designed for more advanced students, is unsurpassed in its complete adaptation to its design.

The popularity enjoyed by the Eclectic Series rests upon the substantial basis of merit.

D. W. CLARK.

From REV. B. F. CRARY, D. D., late President of Hamlin University, and Supt. of Pub. Instruction, Minnesota.

I have examined the ECLECTIC EDUCATIONAL SERIES of school-books, and have no hesitation in saying they are Superior to any similar text-books that have come under my observation. I rejoice that a Western House has been able to meet the increasing wants of the West in this great field.

B. F. CRARY.

☞ Teachers and school officers desirous of introducing the Eclectic School-Books are respectfully invited to correspond with the Publishers,

ESTEY'S

COTTAGE ORGAN

AND

PERFECT MELODEON

ARE BY FAR THE MOST COMPLETE INSTRUMENTS OF THE KIND EVER MADE, AND ARE THE ONLY ONES THAT HAVE THE PATENT BASE DAMPER, PATENT HARMONIC ATTACHMENT, AND PATENT MANUAL SUB BASE.

THE HARMONIC ATTACHMENT

Is an arrangement by which the power of the instrument is doubled, without increasing its size or the number of the reeds, and being controlled by a stop, may be used or not, at the option of the player.

THE MANUAL SUB BASE

Consists of a set of Sub-Base Reeds—entirely independent of the other reeds in the instrument—is attached and played with the ordinary keys, and as it takes up no extra room, may be applied to an instrument of the smallest size; and when combined with the Harmonic Attachment and Swell, a portable style of instrument of almost incredible power and variety is produced.

The Cottage Organ, with Harmonic Attachment and Manual Sub Base, is pronounced by the finest Musicians who have examined it to be the best instrument of the kind in the world. Its size, compactness, power and beauty of tone, neatness and simplicity of construction, and ease of management will recommend it to every one as being all that is claimed for it, both for Parlor and Church use.

Every Instrument Fully Warranted.

A NEW AND BEAUTIFUL STYLE

PIANO,

With an unsurpassed quality of tone, exceedingly pure and sweet; has an action equal to the costliest square Pianos, and is of moderate price. Thus in four important particulars—

SIZE, TONE, ACTION, AND PRICE,

It is calculated to meet the wants of a large class of purchasers. By many good judges it has been pronounced

"The Best Piano they ever Heard."

Salary of Preachers.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to prepare an address to the Churches within our bounds, upon the necessity, as a matter of sheer justice, of increasing the allowance of the preachers at least from fifty to one hundred per cent. more than it was three years ago.

Resolved, That two hundred and fifty copies of it be printed, one copy of which shall be sent to each Estimating Committee, and one to each presiding elder, to be read by him to his first quarterly conference, and, if deemed necessary, to the congregation the following Sabbath morning.

Anniversary of the Missionary Society.

Resolved, That we request the Board of Managers of the Parent Missionary Society to hold their next anniversary in the city of Cincinnati.

Conference Claimants.

Resolved, That the presiding elders are hereby requested to apportion the sum of $10,000—the amount required to meet the claims of the necessitous superannuated preachers, and the widows and orphans of preachers—to their several districts and charges, at the same time and in the same manner as the missionary funds are distributed.

Transfer of Rev. J. L. Grover.

Resolved, That Bishop Ames be respectfully requested to transfer the Rev. J. L. Grover from the Ohio to the Cincinnati Annual Conference, if he, in his godly judgment, should deem such transfer consistent with the interests of the work.

Fifth Collection.

Resolved, That each preacher shall hereafter be requested to report before the Conference the amount of his Fifth Collection at the same time he reports his Missionary Collection.

Central German Conference.

Resolved, That brother Wunderlich, present from the Central German Conference, is requested to convey in return the greetings of this Conference to the Conference of which he is now a member.

Collections for Hillsboro Female College.

Resolved, That the Agent of the Hillsboro Female College report the receipts of his collections to J. F. Chalfant, Treasurer of the Educational Fund of Cincinnati Annual Conference.

Published Reports.

Resolved, That the Cincinnati Annual Conference hereby authorizes its printed reports, duly certified by the Secretary, in the published Minutes of this Conference, as an authentic and genuine version of our Conference Reports.

Wine Drinking.

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the members of this Conference to report any fellow-member who is guilty of drinking wine.

Conference Minutes.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Cincinnati Conference Missionary Society be directed to pay to the Secretaries of our Conference a sum sufficient to pay for the printing, in our Minutes, of the Detailed Missionary Report of this year, and also to liquidate the deficit in that respect of last year.

Resolved, That each member of our Conference who has already subscribed for our forthcoming Minutes, hereby agrees to increase his subscription by five copies, so that the cost per copy may be proportionally reduced, and the number distributed increased.

Vote of Thanks.

Resolved, That we return a vote of thanks to the citizens of Greenfield for their very cordial, hospitable, and Christian entertainment of the Cincinnati Conference.

LAW QUESTIONS.

QUESTION. When a quarterly conference, to which an appeal has been made, fails to finish the trial of the appeal, or neglects to refer it to a subsequent quarterly conference, is this proper administration?

ANSWER. It is not correct administration. It is the duty of the quarterly conference either to finish the appeal or postpone it.

QUESTION. When an appeal has been made to a quarterly conference, can a subsequent quarterly conference try the appeal, or any part of it, unless the appeal has been properly referred to the subsequent quarterly conference?

ANSWER. There is no provision in the Discipline on the subject. The constitutional right of an appeal, however, seems to require action when it has been neglected; but the appellant, I think, should have the privilege of choosing either the hearing of a subsequent quarterly conference, or of complaining to the Annual Conference against the administration.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

GREENFIELD, OHIO, SEPTEMBER 15, 1864.

I HEREBY certify that the following Reports were adopted by the Cincinnati Annual Conference at its session of 1864.

WILLIAM H. SUTHERLAND,
Secretary of Cincinnati Annual Conference.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

Ohio Wesleyan University.

YOUR Committee beg leave to submit the following financial exhibit of this institution:

ASSETS.—University grounds and buildings	$65,000	00
Library, cabinets, and apparatus	17,000	00
Permanent fund	114,100	81
Interest due, notes collectable, and moneys	5,607	85
Total	$201,708	66
LIABILITIES	9,052	97
Excess of assets over liabilities	$192,655	69

In reference to an increased endowment of this institution, your Committee recommend for your adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we heartily concur in the plan of the Trustees of the Ohio Wesleyan University, and will endeavor, in our respective charges, to take up annually an educational collection that shall equal at least ten cents for every member and probationer.

2. The sums thus raised shall be reported annually, at the session of the Conference, to the Committee on Education, which Committee shall designate one of their number as Treasurer. Said Treasurer shall receive the funds reported, and pay one-half of the same to the Treasurer of the Ohio Wesleyan University, and the remaining half to the Treasurer of Hillsboro Female College.

3. The collection shall be taken annually on the Sabbath following the last Thursday of February, as far as practicable.

4. As the last Thursday in February is quite generally observed in our country as a day of prayer for colleges, therefore we recommend its general observance by our people; that they assemble in their accustomed places, and beseech the Great Head of the Church to pour out the Holy Ghost in an especial manner upon the institutions under our patronage.

5. That we earnestly request our wealthy laymen to consider prayerfully the duty of contributing large and liberal sums to the endowment of the University.

In this connection your Committee report with pleasure the liberal donation of one hundred and sixty acres of land, valued at $1,600, to the University from Rev. Nehemiah Green, of the Cincinnati Conference.

Your Committee recommend the appointment of Dr. John Davis, of Cincinnati, as Trustee, to fill a vacancy in the Board; and also that Revs. W. L. Hypes and A. Meharry be the Visiting Committee for the ensuing year.

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to continue Rev. L. D. M'Cabe, D. D., as Professor of Philosophy in the University.

Wesleyan Female College.

From the Visiting Committee we have a gratifying report of the condition of this institution. Under the able supervision of Rev. Dr. Rust, a most efficient and experienced educator, assisted by a competent corps of instructors, it has enjoyed a growing prosperity. The present Conference year has opened with an increased number of pupils, indicating an augmented interest on the part of the public.

The institution is finely endowed, and when the plans of the Trustees shall have been fully consummated, we believe we shall have an institution unsurpassed by any of similar character in the West.

The Committee recommend the appointment of the pastors of Wesley, Christie, and Park-Street Chapels, and the presiding elders of the East and West Cincinnati districts, Visitors for the ensuing year.

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. R. S. Rust, D. D., to the Presidency of the institution.

Springfield Female College.

This institution of learning, formerly under the supervision of Prof. E. G. Dial, has been in a very prosperous condition during the past year. Its patronage from abroad has been so large that every room in the college buildings has been occupied, and it has given entire satisfaction to its patrons. The examination of the collegiate year which closed June 23d was, so far as the Visiting Committee witnessed, highly satisfactory, and gave evidence of thoroughness in the several branches of study on which they were examined.

Professor Dial having resigned the principalship, is succeeded by Rev. W. I. Ellsworth and Rev. J. H. Herron, who have been elected to the joint principalship.

Its financial condition does not differ materially from what it was last year; the debt reported on it being something over $4,000.

As this beautiful institution is situated in one of the most healthful locations in Ohio, and has already opened under very favorable circumstances, your Committee cordially recommend it to the patronage of parents who desire to have their daughters thoroughly educated and placed under good moral training.

We also recommend that the pastors of High-Street and Central charges, and the presiding elder of Springfield district, be a Visiting Committee.

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. W. I. Ellsworth and Rev. J. H. Herron to the joint principalship of this institution.

Xenia Female College.

Your Committee learn with pleasure that this institution has prospered greatly during the past year; and that President Smith, assisted by an efficient corps of teachers, is laboring to make it all that the Church can desire.

Your Committee recommend the appointment of the pastors of the Xenia stations and Union circuit as Visitors for the ensuing year.

Hillsboro Female College.

Hillsboro Female College, last year under the control of Rev. Henry Turner, is reported, by its Visiting Committee and Board of Trustees, to have sustained its long-merited reputation as a first-class literary institution. At this early period of the Academic Year we are gratified in being able to report the institution more promising than in any period in its past history. The present term commenced August 25th, and has a larger number of pupils from local and also from foreign patronage than has been in attendance for some years past. Rev. Allen T. Thompson, A. M., has been elected to the Presidency of the institution, and has taken hold of its interests with energy, and infused a very hopeful spirit into the affairs of the College. Its patrons have taken fresh courage, and, with more energy than in the past, are rallying to its support with a determination that the institution shall live. We are glad to learn that Miss Mary J. Warren, at the head of an able corps of lady teachers, is retained for the present year. Miss Warren is a finished scholar, an experienced governess, a tried and successful teacher, well and favorably known, and has been sought after by four other leading institutions. To her care is committed, as governess, all the young ladies of the institution. Rev. H. Turner is in charge of the boarding department, and no better accommodation need be furnished than is daily prepared in this department.

The College is financially embarrassed, and all aid promised from this Conference has failed, except $1,000 paid by Hillsboro station and $264 received from other points. This failure, on the part of the Conference, to provide for the payment of $5,000, as the friends of the institution were led to infer the Cincinnati Conference would do, from resolutions adopted by that body in 1861–63, has somewhat embarrassed the Trustees. But with the plan suggested by the Ohio Wesleyan University and the one proposed by the Trustees—namely, that Rev. A. T. Thompson be authorized to solicit funds for this institution within the patronizing bounds of the College—there are reasons to believe that the amount will be raised.

Your Committee would recommend the passage, therefore, of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of Rev. Allen T. Thompson, A. M., to the Presidency of Hillsboro Female College.

2. That the preachers in the bounds of the patronizing territory of the College be requested to afford the President, Rev. A. T. Thompson, an opportunity of presenting the claims of the College before their several congregations.

3. That the presiding elder of the district, the pastor of Hillsboro station, Rev. A. T. Thompson, brother D. H. Sargent, Jacob Saylor, W. M. Meek, Rev. H. Turner, and Rev. Samuel Anderson be appointed Trustees for the ensuing year, on the part of the Conference.

4. That Rev. L. D. M'Cabe and the pastor of Greenfield station be a Visiting and Examining Committee for the present year.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

A report has been presented by the Faculty of this institution, from which we learn that it has been in successful operation since 1856. The whole number of students since then has been 267. Of these 58 have graduated, and more than 100 have entered Annual Conferences, including 6 who have gone out as missionaries.

Since the commencement of the war the number of students has diminished, some having entered the army as chaplains, others as soldiers, and others have been prevented from attendance by the pressure of the times. The income of the institution has been materially lessened, requiring rigid economy and considerable retrenchment. As this state of things can not be wholly remedied for many years to come, the Trustees have felt compelled to ask the Church at large to aid them in the erection of permanent outbuildings adapted to the present and prospective necessities of the students.

The Faculty and friends of the institution feel that the time has come when a more intimate relation should be secured between it and the several Annual Conferences within its patronizing district.

As the object and plans of the institution have been officially sanctioned by three successive General Conferences, and as the times very properly demand, for our rising ministry, not only an ardent piety, but also careful mental training and thorough Biblical scholarship,

1. Resolved, That we heartily approve the object of the Garrett Biblical Institute, and will place it in the list of institutions under our patronage.

2. That we earnestly recommend our young men, who expect to enter the ministry, to avail themselves, so far as practicable, of the facilities offered by our colleges and Biblical Institute, as a most important and desirable preparation for their great work.

3. That we appoint Revs. M. Smith and A. Lowrey as Visitors to the Institute for the ensuing year.

Linden Hill Academy, New Carlisle, Ohio.

This institution, under the labors of Rev. Thomas K. Taylor and lady, has enjoyed a good measure of prosperity during the past year.

The present term, under the care of Mr. Charles Wesley Sexton as Principal, has opened with encouraging prospects.

The Committee recommend the appointment of brother Jos. C. Wallace as Trustee in place of brother Samuel Sturrett, resigned, and the pastors of Carlisle and Fairfield charges as a Visiting Committee.

Wilberforce University.

Professor Mitchell, a member of the Faculty of this University, has made highly favorable and encouraging representations to us of the work and prospects of this institution, and has also solicited in its behalf our continued interest and sympathy.

Although the University has now no official connection with the Conference, yet we, retaining a lively interest in its success, therefore,

Resolved, That the Wilberforce University, in view of its aims and the auspices under which it is at present prosecuting its work, is entitled to the confidence and sympathy of the Christian public, and that any assistance afforded it in its straitened financial condition will be most worthily bestowed.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

THE importance of sustaining and increasing the circulation of our religious journals will be admitted by all. They have been, in the hands of God, the means of diffusing religious knowledge, and, in brief, of advancing the best interests of the Church. They are now exerting a good moral influence wherever their circulation is extended. But while we rejoice that they have met with favor from the Church in general, and are now meeting with favor from it, we regret that a small portion of our membership are hostile to them.

What is more deplorable, we have official members who utterly refuse to support our Church papers on account of their opposition to slavery, and the hearty support they give to the Government in its efforts to suppress the present rebellion. At the same time these men subscribe for and read with approval papers which are not friendly to the ministry or the Church, because they advocate such principles as those to which we have referred. While such combined efforts are being made to crush our religious publications, does it not behoove us as ministers, into whose hands are submitted the great interests of the Church, to meet such opposition, whether it comes from those who are not members, or from "false brethren," regardless of the sacrifice that such a course demands? therefore,

1. Resolved, That, since his connection with the Western Christian Advocate, Dr. Reid has evinced intellectual ability, piety, and patriotism, elements necessary to the success of a religious journal, in this age of treason against Divine and human Government; and we hereby pledge him our influence in extending its circulation.

2. Resolved, That the clear diction and classical style of Dr. Wiley, displayed in the Ladies' Repository, give promise that it will retain the eminent character as a literary and religious periodical, secured for it by the great and good men who have preceded him in its editorial management, and with confidence we will commend it to the people of our respective charges.

3. Resolved, That we recognize the Christian Apologist as an instrument, in the hands of God, of doing much good among the Germans, and, with Dr. Nast as its editor, we predict for it a still greater prosperity, and will assist in fulfilling this prediction.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

UR Committee have had the subject of temperance under careful con-ation, and are deeply impressed that it is not receiving from us that st, persevering attention that the crying evil of intemperance des of us at the present time. The painful fact that intemperance is e increase is apparent to all. The practice of drinking intoxicating rs prevails in fashionable society. Even some members of our ch keep it in their houses as a beverage. Some of our wealthy mem-treat with contempt all temperance movements, feeling that they are f the reach of the denunciations of temperance men. If the pulpit not bring the Word of God to bear upon them, their example and ine will be against the cause of temperance. Tippling leads to drunks in the Church, as well as out of it. Can we as ministers meet persons at the bar of God and there be acquitted unless we faithfully ersistently warn them of the sinfulness and danger of their course?
other cause of the spread of intemperance is the humiliating fact nany of our members are making money by supplying materials for raffic; furnishing grain to the distiller, thus scattering woe and throughout our fair country. Suppose an agent of the Southern should come along and offer double the market price for grain to hat army, and members of the Church should sell their grain to what an excitement would be raised! Every loyal man would be in against them. But is the rebel army doing more against the interests r Government than those who are engaged directly and indirectly e manufacture of intoxicating drinks are doing against the cause rist and humanity? Should we be more zealous for the interests r country than for the cause of God and humanity?

tive wine is another fruitful source of the spread of intemper-
Many acquire an appetite for stimulants from its use, persons th sexes sometimes drinking it till they become drunk. This l alarm us as Christian ministers, and arouse us to the most determopposition to its use, or any other intoxicating drink; nor should all such are a disgrace.

is Conference has said that "intemperance in all its various forms, specially in the use of intoxicating drinks, is at variance not only our holy Christianity, but with the best interests of mankind."
, we have unanimously voted that the recommending of beer and a medicine by physicians, is a growing evil. The result is that members of the Church are becoming drunkards. The idea that ugged ale and other liquors of the present day will heal diseases urd, and every man to whom it is offered should stop and debate, ttle the question, which he values most—his soul or his body.
that mere rhetoric, or do we as Methodist preachers believe the ent? It is high time that we should not only speak but act, and oo, in such a way that our power will be felt.

re are thousands who show their love (?) for the returned soldier ing him intoxicating drinks. Shall we stand by with closed lips, and see the men who have bared their bosoms to the storms of war—who have escaped the traitors' missiles of death—come back to their homes, only to be stripped of their well-deserved honors, sent to a dishonorable grave and a drunkard's hell? We sympathize with, and do all we can, to comfort those who have been bereaved by traitors' hands, and mourn over the death of those who have died in the defense of our country. But the death of the drunkard is more sad to contemplate. There is something of which to be proud in the death of those who die in battling for our liberties; but when Intemperance has killed his victim, there is no ray of hope to illuminate the darkness, no comfort to alleviate our sorrow, no honor connected with such a death to redeem it from the disgrace that is attached to it. It is from such a calamity as this that we would call upon you to deliver our young men.

The truth on this subject often offends, but by fearlessly proclaiming it we may save souls from death. We may have to sacrifice the friendship of some; but can not we make such a sacrifice for Christianity and humanity?

Brethren, we beg of you, in the name of God, lift up your voices against this growing evil, not once or occasionally, but give "line upon line, and precept upon precept." Therefore,

1. Resolved, That we condemn the practice of keeping liquors or wines, as a beverage, in the houses of our members.

2. Resolved, That we hold it to be an evil, that destroys our influence for good, to sell supplies to those engaged in the traffic in any way.

3. Resolved, That it is the deliberate judgment of this Conference, that the use of wines, beer, or ale, by our members is a clear violation of our General Rule, and that the person who drinks wine, beer, or ale as a beverage, should be dealt with as a violator of our rules.

4. Resolved, That it is the duty of our preachers to enforce our rules strictly, and let the world see that our temperance is not all in Conference resolutions.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

THE Committee on the State of the Country present the following as their report:

Whereas, we are in the midst of a great national crisis; and, whereas, the present contest for victory between the Southern and Northern sections has involved in it the life of the nation, and the highest forms of civil and religious liberty; and, whereas, the question of man's capacity for self-government, which has been in solution since the adoption of our national Constitution, is now being tested by the severest ordeal; and, whereas, there is a divided sentiment in the country as to the wisest and most efficient means to be used in saving the life of the nation and securing the liberties of the people; therefore,

Committee shall present their estimate for the pastor's support, which meeting shall be composed of the preacher or preachers of the station or circuit, the stewards, leaders, and Estimating Committee. The meeting shall then distribute the amount to the several classes, according to numbers and financial ability.

2. The several charges within our bounds are earnestly advised to lay aside the old practice of securing what they can on the eve of quarterly meeting, and instead, where funds are not raised by pew rent, secure the preacher's salary by subscription from the membership, apportioned according to the ability of each, and from persons attending upon our ministry.

3. We earnestly urge our congregations, through their officiaries, to employ such diligence that no arrearages shall be carried from one quarter to another, thereby burdening the close of the year with embarrassing deficiencies. As sons of Wesley we should do this, as every thing else, "at the time."

4. Whenever the deficiencies of a charge are such as indicates its inability or indisposition to meet its obligations in supporting a full ministerial supply, the presiding elder shall recommend the presiding Bishop of the ensuing Annual Conference to unite said charge to another, or so supply the charge as that deficiency shall not again occur.

5. In the judgment of this Conference the obligation to pay in full the preacher's salary is as binding upon the congregation and individual members thereof as the payment of promissory notes in bank, and should be met as promptly.

6. The presiding elders of this Conference shall present this report and plan at the first quarterly conferences of the several charges of their districts, and shall cause it to be read in the congregation at the first quarterly meeting; and on circuits the stewards shall cause it to be read in every appointment as soon thereafter as possible.

7. The Estimating Committee shall consult with the preacher as to the amount necessary for his support, and the presiding elder shall inquire, at the first quarterly conference before putting the estimate of the Committee on its passage, if such consultation has been had.

REPORT ON ITINERANCY.

THE more we study the theory and practical workings of our itinerant system the more fully are we convinced of its adaptation to its great object—the spreading of "Scripture holiness over these lands."

We are convinced that, if in any cases any of us fail, it can not be traced to a defect in our system, but may—in some cases, at least—be attributed to a failure on the part of those to whom the work is committed to faithfully carry it out.

If our branch of the great army of Christ succeeds in the future as as in time past, it must be by a strict adherence to, not simply the of our Discipline loosely construed, but to its letter; it must be by ng "every point therein, great and small."

therefore submit the following:

Resolved, That as ministers, charged with this great responsibility, ll endeavor more faithfully to discharge the obligations imposed us. 1. Our duty in regard to the attendance of our membership the various means of grace. 2. Our duty in regard to those who n official relations to the Church. 3. Our duty to the children of iarges.

Resolved, That it is a mistaken policy to enlarge the classes to four times the size specified in the Discipline, thus rendering impracthe proper performance of the duty of the leader.

Resolved, That the habit which is growing among our people of situring prayer should be discouraged by all of our ministers.

Resolved, That we receive with gratification the beautiful and imve additions to our Ritual, adopted by the late General Conference; iat its uniform use will be of decided advantage.

ORT ON CHRISTIAN AND SANITARY COMMISSIONS.

ESE two great organizations of Christian sympathy and benevolence ninently entitled to the most cordial support of all our people. The ary Commission first entered upon its work of mercy, and, by the immense contributions that have poured into its treasury, has b enabled to minister very largely and efficiently to the wants of our no soldiers.

The Christian Commission, by seeking to save both soul and body— its benefactions both temporal and spiritual, dispensed by Christian m isters and laymen who go as unpaid delegates to the field—has a p eminent claim upon the Christian Church. These delegates, in ma cases, supply a lack of chaplain service. The distribution of religi newspapers, books, and tracts, which forms so large a part of the w of this Commission, has been of incalculable advantage to the army; stores sent through its agency go directly to those who need them, a the testimony of army surgeons and others connected with the serv abundantly proves that thousands of lives have been saved to the coun though the labors of this noble organization.

We recommend for your adoption the following:

1. Resolved, That, as members of the Cincinnati Annual Conferen we cherish undiminished confidence in these noble philanthropic insti tions which have conferred such invaluable aid and blessing upon armies, and that we pledge to them our earnest support.

2. Resolved, That we recommend the reappointment of Rev. J. Loyd as Conference Missionary to the Army of the Cumberland.

3. Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of Rev. J. F. M lay as Secretary of the Cincinnati Branch of the United States Christ Commission.

REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S AID.

THE Committee on Freedmen's Aid submit the following report:

The great problem that deeply agitated the minds of the wise and g for years is now being solved amid war's commotion, and the chains the slave are being broken.

The great and increasing multitudes wonderfully made free in providence of God, while they sing their jubilee, are only on the thre old of the higher destiny awaiting them, and appeal to the Christian a the patriot for sympathy and help. The work of preparation for th new social, political, and religious condition is one of the greatest wo of Christian benevolence ever committed to any people, and we sh secure alike the blessing of God and the interest of present and fut generations by fidelity to this trust.

Our Government, while grappling with the gigantic rebellion, has d nobly in providing for many of the pressing wants of the freedmen.

There has also been a noble response to this call to duty on the part the people, and the various Commissions working in this cause have c tributed large amounts of clothing, implements of husbandry, and pro sions among the thousands thrown into the camps in great destituti Schools have been established at the different freedmen's camps and m tary posts throughout the Mississippi Valley, and thousands are th trained intellectually and morally, and are being gradually prepared to assume the responsibility of their new and higher life.

From the reports of the different associations in the West to a convention held at Indianapolis, last July, we find their contributions to be $127,700 in cash, and $140,500 in supplies, making a total of $268,200. This, together with what has been done by other parties, will furnish an idea of the amount contributed to this cause.

While all this is being done for their relief and civilization, the way is opening for the Church to carry to them the Gospel of Christ, without which there can be no true social, civil, or moral elevation, and by which they only can be fitted for the destiny dawning upon them.

We submit the following for adoption:

1. Resolved, That, while we are highly pleased with the interest Government has taken in providing for the freed people, we should co-operate in sending clothing to the naked, food to the hungry, and books and teachers to the destitute.

2. Resolved, That, while we heartily approve the plan and working of the various associations for the relief of these disinthralled sons and daughters of Africa, we feel a special interest in Western Freedmen's Aid Commission as operating within our bounds, and will give it our sympathy and support, and commend it and the cause it represents to all our people, as worthy of their special consideration and sympathy, and demanding their prompt and efficient co-operation.

3. Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of Rev. John M. Walden as Corresponding Secretary of the Western Freedmen's Aid Commission for the ensuing year.

REPORT ON MEMOIRS.

REV. HENRY BAKER, M. D., was born in the city of Baltimore, Maryland, March 25, 1797. He was the son of Rev. Henry Baker, of the Otterbein connection, in whose hospitable home Bishop Asbury found so oft a loved retreat. In the early childhood of Dr. Baker his father removed to Knoxville, Tennessee, and opened his house for preaching, and invited the Methodist preachers to labor there. In 1808 this eminently-good man died, and young Henry went to live with his uncle, in Fairfield county, Ohio, and was carefully catechised in the doctrines of the Presbyterian Church.

By occasional attendance on Methodist ministrations he became awakened, and gave his name as a probationer to Rev. James B. Finley. For some months he continued to seek the Lord—to use his own phrase—"as well as he knew how," till the 12th of March, 1812, when, while walking some four or five miles to class meeting, he felt his soul so oppressed by the burden of guilt that he could proceed no further, and he turned aside into the woods to pray; and there, alone with God, he was enabled to exercise saving faith in Christ, and suddenly light and joy broke into his sorrowing heart, and he received the Spirit's indubitable seal, assuring him of his sonship in the family of God.

The following August he received his first license to preach, from Rev. David Young, and went forth, in his fifteenth year, to preach Christ to ruined man, and was distinguished as "the clear-headed boy-preacher." In 1814 he was received on trial in the Ohio Conference; in 1816 was ordained deacon by Bishop Roberts; and in 1818 was ordained elder by Bishop M'Kendree.

During the earlier years of his ministry he labored on the large circuits, compassing four or five hundred miles—encountering difficulties and enduring privations known only to the early itinerants, who planted the Churches in this then Western wilderness, into whose labors we have entered.

In 1818 he was appointed to the Western Reserve, which at that time was embraced in one circuit, but is now divided up into seven presiding elders' districts, with over one hundred pastors in the several circuits and stations. In this large field his health received a shock from which he never fully recovered.

In 1820–21 he was appointed to Hamilton and Rossville, which he organized into a station. Finding that the most ample support the Church could or would give would not meet the necessary wants of himself and wife, he took charge of the Academy, and labored as a teacher through the week. This additional labor, added to his pastoral work, was too much for his shattered constitution, and before the close of his second year he was obliged to desist from his abundant labors, and at the ensuing Conference asked for a location, and assumed the study of medicine. In this new profession he acquired an enviable distinction as a physician of great skill and prudence, and was eminently favored with the confidence and affections of those who employed him.

During his professional life he preached regularly on the Sabbath, often protracting the meetings, which were marked with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and the conversion of hundreds of souls who were given to him for his hire, and as seals to his ministry.

In 1840 he relinquished a large and lucrative practice, and offered himself again to the Conference, and gave himself wholly to the work, and was appointed to Lancaster station, and from that time served with great fidelity and efficiency in the various charges to which he was sent till the Fall of 1861, when he received a superannuated relation to the Conference, and settled in Piqua, Ohio, where he was greatly beloved and honored by the Church of his choice, sister Churches, and community in general.

Last November he received an appointment from the Freedmen's Aid Society, and went on an important mission to Vicksburg, Mississippi. His quenchless zeal for God and humanity prompted him to this last and fatal effort, which proved too much for his energies. He fell on the moral battle-field with harness on, and died "in the front," just where the hero would prefer to die—eliciting the reflection:

"How beautiful it is for man to die
Upon the walls of Zion! to be called,
Like a watch-worn and weary sentinel,
To put his armor off, and rest in heaven!"

His last sickness and dying hours furnished a living sermon of the truths he taught so long and well. Some days before his death he requested his wife to tell him candidly what she thought about his getting home again, and cautioned her not to fear the effect of the utterance of her inmost thoughts. When fears were expressed that he would no more return to his home, he calmly said, "The will of the Lord be done." Speaking of his approaching death, he said, "I have been looking into that matter a long time, and a great deal more so of late than ever before, and I have a strong and abiding confidence in God that, through Christ, I shall be accepted at last, and all will be well."

At one time, when some of the precious promises of God were cited, his face lighted up with unwonted brilliancy, and he exclaimed, "O, the promises! last night I lay here putting them all together, and they were so many and so precious; and, O, they are all ours—every one of them ours—all ours; God has said it, and he is so wise, so perfect in all his ways. Yes, he hath said it, and he will do it. He hath spoken, and he will bring it to pass. Why, they are all ours."

At another time he became triumphant, and on hearing the Bible read he exclaimed, "How precious is every word in that blessed book of God—every word is so precious! Bless the Lord, my wife! O, bless the Lord, my soul!"

When his wife said, "O, husband, how can I live without you?" he replied: "The love of Jesus—the love of Jesus. Wife, that, that is all. He will always be with you, and he can do more for you than ten thousand times ten thousand of such poor, fallible mortals as I am. Bless the Lord, my dear wife, there will be so many blessings left to be thankful for." Again he said, "I try to bring myself, and the cross, and the Savior close together, and thus I find rest." Thus, with calm and peaceful assurance, he gradually declined, till about six o'clock, on last Christmas eve, when he sweetly fell asleep in Jesus, his last utterances being, "Peace! peace! sweet peace in Jesus!" This sentence being echoed by his faithful wife, he audibly responded, "Yes, peace in Jesus!" and his freed spirit soared to the bosom of his Father and his God.

It is remarkable that his death-utterance was also the subject of his last sermon. While on the steamboat, on the way to his new field of labor, the officers requested him to preach to them on the Sabbath. He complied, and with unusual vigor of mind and power of voice preached an able and impressive sermon from these precious words: "The work of righteousness shall be peace, and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance forever." Isaiah xxxii, 17. He described the character of the righteous; their well-grounded confidence; their holy tranquillity in life, in death, and in heaven.

This sermon is said to have been the happiest effort of his life; like the fabled swan's last song, the sweetest. Its effect was great, and he was at once importuned to preach again in the evening. But his work was done; he never preached again.

Dr. Baker was a clear thinker, a forcible writer, and an admirable speaker. He published a masterly work in 1856, entitled "Oligarchy and Hierarchy," in which he dealt skillful and stalwart blows on "Slavery and Romanism," which he considered as twin systems of human oppression, at utter variance with the Bible, the Church, and the God rights of every human being. In this noble work Dr. Baker 1856—"He who would suggest or aid in the work of dissolvi Union of these States, his name, though it may have been illus shall be gibbeted on every hill-top throughout the land, as a mon of his crime, and the means of his punishment; and he shall grief and shame of his conutry." "All who should attempt to sun sacred bonds that have bound us together in our childhood's we our youth, and our vigorous growth to our present gigantic p tions, should be accounted as the basest of traitors, and enemies t country."

Thus did the departed patriot speak, while he was yet with us, b Jehovah's signet seal upon his noble brow. But he has serv generation in his day, according to the will of God, and has asleep.

Memoir of Rev. Edward D. Roe, M. D.

REV. EDWARD D. ROE, M. D., was born in Fredericksburg, 1801. He was reared in Baltimore, and educated in Connecticut parents were strict Episcopalians, and he was trained up in the s tenets of that sect of our religion. A goodly formal saint he lo peared in sight, and so remained till the year after his marriage wit Olivia Davenport, his now disconsolate widow. During that ye sin-convincing spirit blew, and beneath the eye of God faded his vi show, and he was led to see the insufficiency of the form witho power. His spirit was alarmed and brought into distress, and he the atoning Lamb, and was freely saved by grace, and joined the odist Episcopal Church in Zanesville, under the successful labors o
William B. Christie, in 1828.

The next four years he lived in Norwich, Muskingum coun gaged in merchandising, and labored extensively and successfull local preacher till 1832, when he left a lucrative business and cons himself wholly to the work of the ministry of reconciliation, a received on trial in the old Ohio Conference, and was appointed t caster circuit; in 1833–'34 to Marietta; 1835, Rushville; 1836, C ton; 1837, Eastern charge, Cincinnati; 1838, New Richmond; Milford; 1840, Fulton; 1841, Somerset; 1842, Putnam; 1843, P burg. During the last year his health so failed that he was con to ask a superannuated relation to the Conference, and located in to practice medicine, for which he was eminently qualified; but that the labor and exposure of an extensive practice prevented his r tion to health, he moved to Delaware, Ohio, and commenced merc
ing. Here his health was restored, and, though his business w inently prosperous, he again abandoned it, and offered himself Conference, finding that "the Word of the Lord was as a fire bones, and he could not stay." In 1846 he was appointed to Ki in 1847 to Circleville; in 1848–'49 to Greenfield station; in 1

Putnam; in 1851 to Yellow Springs; in 1852 to Mount Washington. The next Fall he took a superannuated relation on account of ill health, and went into business in Cincinnati. After two years he again entered the Conference, to which its members always welcomed him, and was appointed to Maineville circuit two years. In 1858 he was appointed to King's Creek circuit. His last appointment was to Fletcher circuit. Here his enfeebled health rendered him unequal to the heavy duties of the charge, and being tendered an appointment in the Treasury Department of the Government, at Washington City, in the Controller's office, for which his eminent business babits fully qualified him, he accepted the appointment under Hon. Salmon P. Chase, Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and entered upon his duties last November, and discharged them with entire acceptability to the Department.

He preached in the different churches in Washington nearly every Sabbath, to the delight and edification of the people. He loved to preach the glorious Gospel of the blessed God. The Sabbath before he died he preached his last sermon, in Wesley Chapel, from this precious text: "Hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, which is given unto us." He had an appointment to preach the next Sabbath; but his work was done; that Sabbath his own funeral sermon was preached to a deeply-afflicted audience, who realized that "a prince and a great man had fallen in Israel."

His disease was bilious fever, with partial paralysis, which baffled the skill of his eminent physicians. Just before his death his wife said to him: "Husband, is Jesus precious? If so, just raise one finger in token thereof;" when, summoning all his energies for a last testimony, he raised both hands, and shortly passed away under a sweet smile which was impressed on his countenance.

"That was the soul's farewell;
The impression, O how fair!"

Dr. Roe possessed a mind of rare qualities, and a heart tenderly susceptible to all that is good. His manners were faultless. He was eminently a Christian gentleman—the very soul of honor. "He was a faithful man, and feared God above many." His sermons were models of neatness, order, accuracy, unity, directness, fervor, pathos, and evangelism. He was successful, too, as the glorious revivals under his ministrations abundantly attest. Hundreds of souls were added to the Lord and the Church by his labors, many of whom are still spared to the Church as the seals of his ministry.

REPORT ON BETHEL CAUSE.

YOUR Committee, to whom was referred the interests of the Bethel cause, respectfully beg leave to present the following as their report:

The Bethel cause throughout the world has for its object the temporal and spiritual interests of all persons under its charge. It embraces, as the field of its operations, an area of 6,000,000 square miles in the United States, and more than 12,000 miles of navigable water, on which floats a commerce of $10,000,000, managed by 300,000 men and boys. It contains under its charge some 20 missions and stations, in which 44 hired laborers, besides 973 voluntary laborers, are engaged in attending to the wants of the body, or the higher necessities of the soul, by the distribution of food and raiment, and the ministration of the Gospel of peace.

Its library contains 44,000 good books, with a liberal distribution of the Holy Scriptures and religious tracts. The hold it has gained on the affections of the people may be judged of when it is stated that not less than $122,489.53 have been contributed during the present year for its support.

It labors for the sanctification of American commerce, found on whatever sea or river; for the spiritual welfare of her gallant navy of 620 vessels, requiring 50,000 men, who are now boldly engaged in battling for our nation's right and freedom's glorious cause; and for the evangelization of the 300,000 hardy seamen from all the nations of the earth. While at the missions and stations of the Western Department the gifts of benevolence and labor of love are richly abounding, yet in none more so than in that more immediately within the bounds of the Cincinnati Annual Conference, located in the Queen City, the emporium of the West. The Cincinnati Union Bethel provides clothing and religious instruction for 2,500 children, among whom are 600 children of river men; 400 children of Union soldiers, 33 of which children were made fatherless by the terrible battle of Stone River. Yet, much as is the good accomplished by the Bethel cause, we believe it still labors under embarrassments, from the fact that at best it can only organize those under its religious influence into an association that is not ecclesiastical in any proper sense of the word, with articles of faith which are more negative and general than positive and specific. This, however, your Committee does not see how to avoid, as the Bethel cause is the cause of all in general, and of no orthodox branch of the Church in particular. On the whole, we heartily recommend this cause to the friends of humanity for their heart-felt sympathy and co-operation, and respectfully submit for adoption the following:

1. Resolved, That, as members of this Conference, we will use our influence in favor of the Western Seamen's Friend Society, and co-operate with any of its authorized agents, when in the bounds of our pastoral charges.

2. That we recommend the appointment of Rev. J. J. Hill as Agent for said Society for another year.

Respectfully,

D. REED,
W. FITZGERALD,
D. WHITMER, } Committee.

REPORT ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

WHILE we rejoice in what has been done in this important Christian enterprise—an enterprise we do not sufficiently estimate, in its practical importance to the Church of God, as a powerful agency in saving the souls of perishing men—and while we are pained that the heralds who proclaim reconciliation between God and sinner, peace and good-will to men, have not availed themselves of this mighty leverage in overthrowing the kingdom of darkness, and in ushering in of the kingdom of the Prince of Peace, we therefore earnestly recommend to the Conference for its action the following:

1. Resolved, That each presiding elder be instructed by this Conference to bring the Tract cause before the first quarterly meeting conference in each station and circuit in his district, and said conference shall appoint a committee whose duty it shall be to devise and execute plans for Tract distribution.

2. Resolved, That each preacher in charge shall take up an annual collection for the Tract cause.

3. Resolved, That each preacher in charge be requested to appoint proper persons to distribute Tracts within the bounds of his work.

Gratuitous Work at Home and in the Foreign Missiona Field.

Donations by the Society were made during the year, in money a books, amounting to $181,144.83, of which amount more than $60,0 were expended in the foreign department alone.

Army and Navy.

The total number of volumes distributed in the army and navy sin the war began, by the Parent Society and its auxiliaries, is probal 2,000,000, of which number 776,075 volumes were distributed by t Christian Commission alone.

Freedmen.

To the freedmen of the South, in schools and camps, some 20,0 volumes have been granted, with a continually-increasing demand, a thousands of colored troops have been supplied, with the armies which they belong.

Seceded States.

By flag of truce, with the full permission of the Government and m itary authorities, grants have been made of more than 200,000 volun for the supply of the rebel troops and others beyond the limits of c lines; and during the month of August 50,000 volumes were granted the Memphis and Shelby County Bible Society for the Trans-Mississi

Rebel Army and citizens. "If thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink; for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head."

Bible Cause in Ohio.

The receipts for the cause in this State during the year ending March 31, 1864, amounted to $68,527.95, showing an advance of $16,764.41.

Bible Operations in South-Western Ohio.

The past year of the Bible cause in this field has been one of unexampled prosperity, showing a grand total of receipts from all sources of $25,865.51, an advance on the preceding year of nearly $7,000.

In the prosecution of the work, I visited during the year sixty-one auxiliaries and branch societies, delivered 183 Bible sermons and addresses, traveled 4,838 miles, and sent out 646 letters and circulars pertaining to my agency. There are in the field some 500 Protestant Churches, some of which do not co-operate with the Society.

Seventeen auxiliaries have thoroughly canvassed their fields during the year; 19,875 families have been visited, and 941 of them, which were found destitute of the Scriptures, were supplied. This immense work has been accomplished chiefly through the instrumentality of the 140 branch societies and the noble band of voluntary, unpaid local agents, amounting in number to 1,410, the benefit of whose services, in scattering the Word of Life and leading souls to Christ, eternity alone can unfold.

Besides supplying the Bible wants of the destitute at home, the soldiers have not been neglected. Nearly 15,000 copies of the Scriptures have been given to the troops, the great majority of which were furnished by the Cincinnati Young Men's Bible Society. This work of distributing the Word of Life among all classes of men, supplying the destitute, troops, gun-boats, etc., has been prosecuted at an expense of nearly $10,000.

And yet it is most gratifying to know that, besides doing this work, the societies have kept on hand a good stock of books, paid off their indebtedness in most cases, and, with but few exceptions, have made larger donations to the Parent Society than ever before.

The plan of forming Sunday schools into branch Bible societies, inaugurated at the beginning of the year, has been prosecuted with success. During the year nearly 100 schools have been organized as Bible societies in my field. These are just beginning to bear fruit, indicating that they will be efficient co-laborers, and that the children will receive a training, in connection with the Bible work, that will tell happily on its interests in all coming time.

Well may we exclaim, "What hath God wrought?" In view of the constant drain upon the resources of the country for sanitary purposes, the United States Christian Commission, freedmen, the relief of refugees, and other objects, the brief statement above evinces a growing interest in the Bible cause in this field; and God is developing, to a wonderful extent, unparalleled in the history of the nation, the benevolent sentiment of the people, alike worthy of his grace and honorable to our Christian character. To his name be all the praise!

RESS TO THE CHURCH ON MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

R BRETHREN,—In compliance with the resolutions passed at the session of our Conference, we very respectfully address you the ng letter on ministerial support. In doing so we are persuaded we ffer no apology. The comfortable support of those who minister altar is so explicitly taught, both in the Scriptures and by our ı, that were it not for melancholy facts we would think it alto- unnecessary to address you at all. These facts, however, warrant aking this special appeal, however humiliating it may be both to d your pastors.

a fact that no class of men, with the same amount of capital em- , have been so poorly remunerated as those who have given them- ıp, in time, talents, and lives, to preach the Gospel of the grace of And of no class of ministers is this more emphatically true than of iisters of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

le the ministry is the most honorable and blessed work in this life, ıg the largest field for talents and usefulness, yet these considera- ın not support, furnish, and educate the families of the ministry. ɔntire consecration to this holy work it is indispensably necessary e mind of the minister feel perfectly easy on the subject of his sup- Whatever may be his devotion to, or talent for his responsible if indifference as to his necessities on the part of those whom he is manifested; if embarrassment and want stare him and his family in the face; if his people are full and abounding in every thing, while he lacks almost the necessaries of life, he is at once crippled, becomes the subject of fierce temptations, his influence for good is impaired, the Church he serves suffers loss, not for want of a faithful pastor, but from the neglect of those who are bound to provide for him and his family.

A large number of our ministers during the past year have suffered embarrassment. Some have been obliged to seek employment during the week in cultivating the soil, raising corn, etc., while others have come up to Conference, having expended from one to three hundred dollars more than their allowance, while others tell the sad story of debts incurred to the amount of from $100 to $200. Where this will stop it is not difficult to foretell, if the proper remedy is not applied. If the support of your minister has always been meager—and no well-informed man or woman in the Church can deny it—requiring the most rigid economy, what has it been during the past three years, and especially the last year?

Dear brethren, we need not tell you that every thing has advanced from 100 to 300 and some articles to 400 per cent. Compare the scale of prices before the war with that of the three years past, and especially with the last year, and you will not be surprised that your ministers make this appeal to you:

	Three Years Past.		The Present.
1 spool of thread	5 cents		20 cents.
1 pound of sugar	10@12	"	25@30 "
1 pound of coffee	12@15	"	60 "
1 pound of beef	8@10	"	15@20 "
1 yard of muslin	12@15	"	60@75 "
1 yard of calico	12	"	50@60 "
1 barrel of flour	$4 50		$10 00

Thus we might continue the list. But this increase in every article of living makes it imperatively necessary that there should be a large advance on the salaries of your preachers.

If we were persuaded that our people lack ability to meet this increased demand, we would be silent. But they are not embarrassed as a general thing. They have shared largely in the general prosperity of the country. Merchants, manufacturers, farmers, and mechanics, have at no time realized such profits. Their ability to give has increased with increased profits. They pay for merchandise, material, labor, current prices as freely and with the same ease they did when these articles were bought at one-third of their present rates. They live as comfortably, yea, many as luxuriously, and even more so than they ever did. It is, then, no want of ability. Another fact in proof of this is found in the enlarged contributions of the Church to the various benevolent causes that appeal to them. Take, for instance, the missionary cause. Never has the Church responded to this noble enterprise with such prompt and princely donations as during the past three years. While we have rejoiced in this increasing evidence of the consecration of the Church of Christ to the great interests of humanity, we have felt, with some sadness, the manifestation of a want of a correct sense of obligation to fully meet the demands of the noble, self-sacrificing men and women at home who preach to them the Word of Life. The ministry have no homes—they gave them up when they consecrated their lives to this holy work; they have few home comforts; they gave them up too; they have no incomes; they gave them up too. They could appreciate all these—their wives, their children have these wants, aptitudes, tastes, in common with the membership. The office of the lawyer, the doctor, the store-room of the merchant, the shop of the mechanic, the clerkships and posts of trust and honor, the palatial home, the vine-covered cottage, with its shrubs and flowers, the well-stored cellar, and the full larder, the full purse and ample means; all these the minister and his family could appreciate and enjoy, and might have had, but he laid them on the altar, gave them up to serve the Church, when he said:

"The love of Christ doth me constrain
To seek the wandering souls of men."

To their comfortable support, the Church is first pledged by the holiest obligations. It is her sacred duty, antecedent to all others, to do this, that she may have an efficient ministry. We were more than gratified to hear our worthy Missionary Secretary, Dr. Durbin, state this to the Conference. It is worthy of remark, too, that those Churches who make ample provisions for their pastors are most devoted to missions and every other good work.

Dear brethren, devise ways and means in your abundance, not only to meet all the present wants of your ministers, increasing their allowances over the past three years from 50 to 100 per cent., but enough to enable them to lay up each year a small amount for the future. How dark that future now is to these men of God! We see around us men, once giants in the Church, now worn-out, bending under the burden of years, with the bare pittance of $30 to $40 per year for a support from the Churches they once served with great acceptability, their angel wives pressed down with penury and want, and in some instances their children estranged and imbittered by the neglect of the Church. As this dark picture stares us in the face, we close our eyes, to shut out his discouragements and still labor on, in hope of a good time coming.

THE

PUBLISHED BY

SARGENT, WILSON & HINKLE,

137 Walnut-Street, Cincinnati.

THE design of the publishers of the EDUCATIONAL SERIES has been, and is, to furnish the West a complete series of elementary class-books, embodying every feature which has, by actual experience in the school-room, been found to be desirable, and embracing the various branches of elementary education; and to furnish these books in as good style and as cheap, or cheaper, than books of like character can be had from the East. That they have been successful in their efforts, the following opinions, from sources entitled to the highest respect, go to prove:

From Rev. D. W. Clark, D. D., Editor of the Ladies' Repository and of Books at the Methodist Book Concern.

I have had frequent occasion, during the past few years, to examine and re-examine the ECLECTIC EDUCATIONAL SERIES OF SCHOOL-BOOKS. Taken as a whole, they are unquestionably the best issued by any house in America.

M'GUFFEY'S NEW ECLECTIC READERS, ascending from easy lessons in spelling and reading to the highest forms of rhetorical delivery, making seven successive gradations in the art of reading and delivery, must satisfy every reasonable demand in this department. * * * I am satisfied that wherever M'Guffey's Readers are introduced into our schools, and thoroughly tested, it will be very difficult to dislodge them.

PROFESSOR RAY was a mathematician of high order. His practical good sense and his large and successful experience as an educator, as well as his enthusiastic devotion to the science of mathematics, eminently fitted him for the production of good text-books in this department. His ARITHMETICS and ALGEBRAS form a regular and complete series, beginning with the elements, and ascending to the higher principles of the science. I regard Ray's as the best mathematical series.

In DR. PINNEO'S PRIMARY and ANALYTICAL GRAMMARS there is remarkable simplicity of arrangement and clearness of definition. The Primary Grammar is admirably adapted to the beginner. It will enable him to understand the science. The Analytical Grammar, designed for more advanced students, is unsurpassed in its complete adaptation to its design.

The popularity enjoyed by the Eclectic Series rests upon the substantial basis of merit. D. W. CLARK.

From Rev. B. F. Crary, D. D., late President of Hamline University and Superintendent of Public Instruction, Minnesota.

I have examined the ECLECTIC EDUCATIONAL SERIES of school-books, and have no hesitation in saying they are superior to any similar text-books that have come under my observation. I rejoice that a Western House has been able to meet the increasing wants of the West in this great field. B. F. CRARY.

☞ Teachers and school officers desirous of introducing the Eclectic School-Books are respectfully invited to correspond with the Publishers,

THE HOME offers a perpetual loan to the assured of one-half the amount of all the annual premiums, so that the party need pay but one-half of his premiums in cash, and the interest on so much of the other half as is not paid by his share in the profits, while the Policy continues.

THE HOME makes its dividends of profits to the assured annually, and applies the same immediately toward the reduction of the amount due on the annual premiums.

THE HOME gives to its members the full value of all the assurance which they pay for, retaining nothing in its hands by way of forfeiture for non-payment of premiums. It also offers the most liberal accommodation in the arrangement of cash payments of premium, when the assured, from sickness, or other unavoidable cause, needs an extension of time.

THE HOME treats all its members with fraternal kindness and liberality. It will never profit by the misfortune of any member; but, on the contrary, will cheerfully extend all possible sympathy and aid.

CALENDAR FOR 1864–65.

The First Term commenced August 25, 1864, and will close December 21, 1864.

The Second Term will commence January 5, and will close March 25, 1865.

The Third Term will commence April 5, and will close June 30, 1865.

N. B. As this is the first term under a new administration, it is expected that many pupils will enter late in the term. A deduction will be made for lost time, as it is greatly preferable to have young ladies enter this term even now, rather than have them wait till the second term.

BOARDING.

The Boarding Department is under the management of Rev. Henry Turner, and is unsurpassed. The dormitory is being divided into small rooms, where two or four young ladies will constitute a family.

NOTICE TO MINISTERS.

Ministerial brethren within the patronizing bounds of this institution will please notify the undersigned by letter when it will be most convenient for them to open their respective pulpits for him to present the claims of the College.

WESTERN FREEDMEN'S AID COMMISSION,

CINCINNATI, OHIO.

Organized January, 1863.

REV. ADAM POE, D. D., President.
REV. J. M. WALDEN, Cor. Secretary.
J. F. LARKIN, Treasurer.
LEVI COFFIN, General Agent.

THIS Association, uniting in its Board of Officers and Directors, as well as members, representatives of almost every religious denomination, stands before the public without sectarian or partisan character or aims—a Commission organized to aid our Government in supplying the physical wants of the freed people, and to labor for their mental and moral elevation, by organizing schools and supporting teachers among them.

The able-bodied freedmen are enlisted as soldiers or employed as laborers in our armies. The aged and sick and the women and children are gathered into camps by thousands and furnished with rations; but for all other needful supplies they must depend upon the contributions of the humane and benevolent. To such this Commission appeals for clothing, money, and other means of relief for these needy multitudes.

Contributions Most Needed.

1. SUPPLIES. Second-hand clothing, chiefly for women and children, blankets and bedding, and materials from which these articles may be made, as linseys, jeans, sheetings, stocking yarn, etc.; cooking utensils, buckets, basins, tin plates and cups, knives, spoons, etc.; tea, farina, and other articles of food for the sick.

2. MONEY, in liberal sums, to furnish all articles needed not contributed in quantities equal to the demand; to purchase tools and books; to establish schools, and employ competent and efficient teachers; to pay freight on goods where freight is required; to defray the expenses of agents essential to the efficiency and completeness of our work; and to meet the outlays incidental to an extensive system of benevolence.

Directions for Shipment.

The place from which the contributions are forwarded should be marked upon each package, and a list of the articles contained should be sent to the GENERAL AGENT by mail.

All packages should be packed with care, in strong boxes, with a list of the articles contained inclosed, and forwarded to

LEVI COFFIN, General Agent,
Western Freedmen's Aid Commission, corner Ninth and Walnut-Streets, Cincinnati.

Money should be sent, by express or mail, to

J. F. LARKIN, Treasurer,

THE

OF

THE BIBLE.

BY REV. W. TRAIL, A. M.

Large 12mo, pp. 368.....Price, $1.75.

This is a republication, edited by Dr. Clark, from the Edinburgh edition. Fresh, clear, eloquent, and vigorous expositions; rich in devout feelings; and written in a style combining strength with simplicity.

OUTPOSTS OF ZION:

WITH LIMNINGS OF MISSION LIFE.

BY REV. WM. H. GOODE.

Large 12mo, pp. 464.....Price, $1.75.

This book is going finely. Frontier Methodism is rich in thrilling incident and historic lore. No one has had larger experience than W. H. Goode. The Northern Christian Advocate says of this work: "We always read, with a decided relish, the records of those incidents which went to make up so much of the life experience of our early preachers and missionaries on our Western frontier. This book before us is one made of the records of events and incidents occurring during a score of years or more, spent in labors in connection with our frontier Conferences. The writer has displayed most excellent descriptive powers, and has a wonderful skill in bringing events of the past up before the minds of his readers. It is decidedly a Goode book, and can not fail to interest the reader and do good service to the cause of historical Methodism in the West."

ROSEDALE:

A STORY OF SELF-DENIAL.

BY MRS. H. C. GARDNER.

Large 12mo, pp. 410.....Price, $1.75.

An interesting book, and one that teaches a wholesome lesson of patience and self-denial. It will make a fine addition to our Sunday school libraries and fireside reading.

TEMPTATION AND TRIUMPH:

WITH OTHER STORIES.

BY VIRGINIA F. TOWNSEND.

Large 12mo, pp. 389.....Price, $1.75.

Miss Townsend is well known to the public as the writer of moral tales and sketches, and the present volume contains a selection from some of her best pieces.

Please send in your orders for the above works early. They are all good books, and will well repay perusal. They are models of typography and binding, and are put at low figures.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONFERENCE.

Directions to Conference Stewards.

Resolved, That the Stewards of the Conference be directed to observe the following order in the transaction of their business.

1. That after obtaining all the information practicable for an equitable distribution of the funds, they shall proceed to make the estimate, and report the same to the Conference at as early a day as possible.

2. That on the first reading of the report aforesaid, no objection shall be made by any member of the Conference.

3. That the report shall remain in the hands of the Committee, who shall appoint another meeting, of which they shall give public notice in Conference, and any brother who objects to any portion of said report shall appear before the Committee to state his objections.

4. After hearing objections, and conforming the report to any new facts or information that may be elicited, the Committee shall make their final report, which shall be presented for final adoption or recommitment.

5. That the Stewards report to the Conference the amount of salary allowed, amount received, and house rent, from each charge.

6. That the Stewards be, and hereby are, instructed to make their estimates for Conference claimants strictly conform to the section in the Discipline on support of superannuated preachers, which contemplates the amount necessary to assist such claimant to a comfortable support.

Book Committee.

Resolved, That this Conference greatly regrets that no dividend has been made from the profits of the Book Concerns for the support of the Conference claimants.

Resolved, That this Conference respectfully advises the Book Committee to carefully consider their action in advancing the salaries of the General Conference officers, in view of the discriminating scale adopted, by which salaries of Methodist ministers are made to range from $500 to $4,000 per annum.

Bishop Clark.

Resolved, That we duly appreciate the distinguished ability with which Bishop Clark has discharged the duties of the episcopal office at this, his first visit to the Cincinnati Annual Conference. His urbanity, impartiality, skill, and promptitude as a presiding officer, have greatly enhanced the interest and efficiency of our Conference sessions, and we congratulate the Methodist Episcopal Church on his elevation to the Episcopacy.

Residences of Bishops.

Resolved, That the Cincinnati Conference appreciates and approves the determination of the Board of Bishops, to locate their residences at such points as, in their judgment, the best interests of the Church, in all her enterprises, would seem to require.

Resolved, That this Conference has heard with pleasure and gratitude that our Rev. Bishop Clark, in accordance with the above, has resolved to fix within our bounds his permanent residence; and that we do hereby extend to him and to his worthy family our most sincere and hearty welcome.

Resolved, That this Conference does hereby earnestly request our beloved Bishop Thomson, if it be consistent with his views of duty and the other claims of the Church, to continue his residence at Delaware, Ohio, the seat of our University, and that he incidentally lend to that great interest of Ohio Methodism the benefit of his distinguished talents, counsel, and position.

Church Periodicals and Editors.

Resolved, That we have full confidence in the ability of the editors of the Western Christian Advocate and Ladies' Repository, and believing that these periodicals are a power for good in our Church, we will give them, as heretofore, our cordial support.

Appropriation for Detailed Missionary Report.

Resolved, That the action of the Board of Managers of the Cincinnati Conference Missionary Society, appropriating an amount sufficient to pay for the publication of the Detailed Missionary Report in the Minutes, is hereby ratified.

Conference Minutes.

Resolved, That those brethren of our Conference who last year subscribed for our Annual Minutes and failed to get them, through no fault of the Secretaries, be directed to liquidate their indebtedness to the Secretaries, as the Secretaries are personally responsible to the Book Concern for the payment of the Minutes.

Votes of Thanks.

1. Resolved, That the thanks of the Cincinnati Conference are hereby returned to the officers of the following railroads, for the facilities offered the members and visitors in coming to and returning from the seat of the Conference, to wit: Cincinnati, Hamilton, and Dayton; and Dayton and Michigan; and Sandusky, Dayton, and Cincinnati; Columbus and Indiana Central; and Hamilton and Eaton.
2. Resolved, That for the cordial reception given by the citizens of Troy to the members of the Conference and visitors, and their generous and hospitable entertainment, they richly merit our grateful acknowledgments hereby expressed by a rising vote.
3. Resolved, That the foregoing be published in the papers.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. AFTER the usual opening religious exercises, the Secretary shall read the minutes of the previous session.
2. No motion shall be entertained by the Conference till such motion shall have been seconded.
3. All motions shall be reduced to writing, if desired by any member of the Conference.
4. Every member desiring to speak on any subject before the Conference, shall rise and address the President.
5. The member who first rises and addresses the President shall be entitled to the floor.
6. No member shall speak more than once on the same subject till all who may desire to speak shall have spoken; nor more than fifteen minutes at a time without leave of the Conference.

7. All questions of order shall be decided by the President, subject to an appeal to the Conference, without debate.

8. When any question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone, to commit, or to amend; but a motion to adjourn shall always be in order; and this, as well as a motion to lay on the table, shall be decided without debate.

9. If the question before the Conference be capable of division, upon the call of any member, such question shall be divided.

10. The business of the Conference shall be conducted with open doors, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

11. Any question may be reconsidered on the motion of any member who may have voted with the majority.

12. If any member call for the previous question, and such call be sanctioned by a two-thirds' vote of the Conference, the main question shall then be put.

13. Each Committee of the Conference shall choose its own chairman, unless the chairman be designated by the Conference or the President in the appointment of the committee.

14. The members of the Conference shall assemble in the Conference-room punctually at the hour to which the Conference adjourned, and no member shall absent himself from the place of Conference session, without leave of absence.

15. In all practicable cases, when charges are preferred against a member of Conference, notice shall be given to the President on the first day of the session, that, if it be judged proper, his name may be called, and the case referred to a committee.

PART II.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

TROY, OHIO, SEPTEMBER 5, 1865.

I HEREBY certify that the following Reports were adopted by the Cincinnati Annual Conference at its session of 1865.

WILLIAM H. SUTHERLAND,
Secretary of Cincinnati Annual Conference.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

YOUR Committee have had before them statements of Boards of Trustees and Committees of Visitation to the several institutions of learning under the patronage of the Cincinnati Conference, and now beg leave to report as follows:

Linden Hill Academy

Is located at New Carlisle, Clark county, Ohio. The Board of Trustees report the Academy free from debt. The property consists of a campus of five and five-eighths acres, on which is a substantial brick edifice forty-four by sixty-six feet. The grounds, building, school furniture, and apparatus are valued at $6,000, which is held by the Trustees in trust for this Conference.

The Trustees report the gratifying fact that the school, for the past year, has been eminently successful, and express great confidence for the future. They also announce that they have secured the services of James C. Foye, A. B., as Principal for the coming year. We recommend for your adoption,

1. Resolved, That we rejoice in the fact that this institution is free from debt and enjoys such cheering prospects, and heartily commend it to the patronage of the public.

2. Resolved, That the preacher of Troy, the preacher in charge of New Carlisle circuit, and the presiding elder of the district be appointed a Visiting Committee from this Conference.

Xenia Female College.

From the Visitors to this College, appointed by this Conference at its last session, we learn that it has enjoyed, during the past year, a very high degree of prosperity, graduating eighteen young ladies at the late Commencement. They also report valuable acquisitions to the Faculty, in Professor Patterson, of Delaware, and Miss Warren, of Hillsboro.

We submit for adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we have undiminished confidence in the management of this well-established institution.

2. Resolved, That the well-organized and efficient Board of Instruction, together with the beauty and healthfulness of its location, must commend this institution to all who have daughters to educate.

3. Resolved, That the increasing patronage of this school demands that the Trustees should devise liberal things on the enlargement of accommodations for pupils, and that we commend it to our people as a fitting object of Christian liberality.

4. Resolved, That the stationed preachers of Xenia and of South Charleston, and Rev. J. M. Walden, D. D., be appointed Visitors from this Conference.

Ohio Wesleyan University.

The patronizing Conferences were all represented by their Visiting Committees at the last Commencement. They report the examination as being very thorough and impartial, and pay a high compliment to both Professors and students.

Twenty-four young men have gone out from its halls, and with its honors, this year.

The attendance of the past year was four hundred and ten, an increase of fifty over the previous year. Now that war is past, and all other institutions of learning are preparing for larger prosperity, with just grounds of hopefulness we anticipate for this a prosperity second to no other.

The Faculty of the University are distinguished scholars, eminently successful educators, and able ministers of the Gospel of Christ, and need no further commendation at our hands.

The buildings are in good repair, but are not sufficient to meet the present wants of the institution, and greatly insufficient for the increase of patronage that may be reasonably expected.

Such is the want of Ohio Methodism that we can not now sit down satisfied in contemplating what has been already accomplished, but the Church should at once inaugurate plans, and proceed vigorously to their accomplishment, that will speedily place the University in condition to meet the growing demands of the denomination. The financial exhibit of the University is as follows:

ASSETS.—University grounds and buildings	$65,000	00
Library, cabinet, and apparatus	19,000	00
Permanent fund	129,586	30
Income in Treasury, interest due, notes collectible	5,333	66
Total	$218,919	96
LIABILITIES	5,466	92
Excess of assets	$213,453	04

We recommend for your adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we commend the University to the attention and patronage of all who have sons to educate.

2. Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to reappoint Rev. L. D. M'Cabe, D. D., as Professor of Philosophy in the University.

3. Resolved, That Rev. William Herr and Rev. L. F. Van Cleve be appointed a Visiting and Examining Committee to the University.

4. Resolved, That we recommend the calling of a State Educational Convention of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Ohio, at Delaware, and that we suggest to the various charges in our bounds to be represented by their pastor and one delegate from each.

Wesleyan Female College of Cincinnati.

From the Visiting Committee we have a very gratifying report from this pioneer institution.

Under the administration of Rev. Dr. Rust and his able and efficient corps of instructors, it has enjoyed a very great prosperity. The boarding department has been full throughout the year. The examination was very thorough, and evinced a high order of scholarship upon the part of the young ladies, and a high order of ability upon the part of the teachers as educators.

Fifteen young ladies were this year added to the already great number who have gone forth from this time-honored institution, with its honors and the benedictions of the Faculty.

1. Resolved, That this pioneer institution in female education is worthy not only of its present high prosperity, but even of more and more, and we commend it to the attention of all who are interested in female education.

2. Resolved, That we request the Bishop to reappoint Rev. R. S. Rust, D. D., to the Presidency of this institution.

3. Resolved, That the pastors of Trinity Church, Asbury, Christie, Finley, and York-Street Chapels, Cincinnati, be a Visiting Committee.

Springfield Female College.

This institution, which has been under the joint Presidency of Revs. W. I. Ellsworth and J. H. Herron, is reported as being in a flourishing condition. It will, doubtless, prove to be gratifying to the Conference, and all concerned, to learn that recent efforts have proved successful in practically relieving the College from debt, by which it has been so long burdened.

Its assets are as follows: Grounds and buildings, valued at $20,000; volumes in library, 300; good apparatus and small cabinet.

We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we commend the Springfield Female College to the friends of female education.

2. Resolved, That we request the Bishop to appoint Rev. J. H. Herron, A. M., to the Presidency of this institution.

3. Resolved, That the pastors of the city of Springfield and the pastors of Urbana be appointed a Visiting Committee.

4. Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference are hereby tendered to Rev. J. F. Chalfant for his very liberal donation of one hundred acres of land to the College, thus contributing to the final extinguishment of the debt so long standing against the institution.

Hillsboro Female College.

Your Committee report that, in looking into the condition of the Hillsboro Female College, we are satisfied that we have never sustained any legal relation to the College, from the fact that there never has been a legal organization of the Board of Trustees under the provisions of the charter; therefore,

1. Resolved, That the Conference send a commission of four to inquire into the condition of the College, and to ascertain what has been the action of the Conference concerning it.

2. Resolved, That as soon as the Trustees organize under the charter, the Commissioners are authorized to signify the willingness of the Conference to continue a patronizing relation to the College, and, as soon as the charter is changed so that Trustees elected, being members of the Cincinnati Conference, who are not stockholders, may serve, these Commissioners are instructed to act as Trustees till the next session of this Conference.

3. Resolved, That Revs. J. F. Chalfant, C. Ferguson, W. Simmons, A. Meharry, J. W. Weakley, W. Young, W. I. Fee, and L. F. Van Cleve be appointed Commissioners to Hillsboro Female College for the purposes before named.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

The Committee having duly considered the annual report of the Garrett Biblical Institute, and also the report of Dr. Lowrey as a Visiting Committee of our own body, submit to the Conference, as expressive of their views, the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we hail with gratitude those providential developments which promise increasing advantages for the thorough education and complete training of our rising ministry, regarding them as omens of the perpetuity and increasing influence of Methodism.

2. Resolved, That in view of the thoroughly Methodistic character of the Garrett Biblical Institute, and of the prospects of its usefulness to the Church at large, till the complete endowment of the Biblical Department of the Ohio Wesleyan University, we hereby declare ourselves a patronizing Conference in the sense of the charter.

3. Resolved, That we approve of the action of the General Centenary Committee in designating the said Institute as an object of connectional support.

4. Resolved, That we earnestly advise young men among us, who believe themselves called to preach the Gospel, to avail themselves diligently and to the fullest extent of the advantages offered them by the literary and theological institutions of the Church.

5. Resolved, That we appoint Dr. Geo. C. Crum and Dr. J. W. Weakley a Visiting Committee to attend the examinations of the Garrett Biblical Institute.

Report on the Garrett Biblical Institute.

ing been appointed by the Cincinnati Conference to visit the Gar- blical Institute at the time of its examination, I did so on the f July. My associate appointee of the Conference, brother Moses did not find it convenient to attend. Evanston, the seat of the Biblical Institute, lies about twelve miles north of Chicago, on it shore of Lake Michigan. It is, in my opinion, the most beau- id attractive spot for residences adjacent to the great city of the West. It is easy of access, being penetrated by the Milwaukee d. Soon, I have no doubt, the facilities of approach will be ed by both horse cars and water crafts. The horse railroad now about half-way from the city; and as the shore is being washed t Evanston, a breakwater and pier will become a necessity. When e built, one of the most delightful morning and evening excursion the lake will be from Chicago to Evanston. The town is located dge covered with a young and thrifty oak grove. The ground is undulating, and ascends gently to the west about a mile from the edge, giving a magnificent view of the lake, whose blue expanse es away to the eastward beyond the limits of vision. Professional id merchants are locating there. Three churches are now built, list, Baptist, and Episcopalian. Three literary institutions, all Methodist control, are located there and in successful operation. on, though a village of yesterday, is already made sacred to the list Church by the last works and grave of Dempster.

Garrett Biblical Institute is a cheap frame building, too small, not l to school purposes, without taste, and not remarkable for neat- The building, however, was only designed evidently to serve the e of beginning. It has well served that temporary purpose; and nts which have occurred in the country since its erection show ginal builders to have acted wisely in not attempting to raise a ostly edifice. But now the Institution having grown into favor nmended itself to the liberal, the Trustees are preparing to put up ificent structure next Spring, on a new and beautiful site. The itself is under the control and tuition of three co-ordinate Pro- Doctors Kidder, Bannister, and Raymond. It is, therefore, a living, moving, breathing thing without a head, except so far as these professors constitute a head under the form of a trinity in unity. These professors impressed me as admirably adapted to and qualified for the positions they occupy. It is but just to say they are men of learning, culture, intellectual power, and piety—men of large and liberal views, yet stable in evangelical doctrines and true to Methodism. If the point is settled that the theological school is a desideratum in our Church, these are men, I think, to whom the delicate work and the yet unsolved experiment with us of training men for the ministry may be safely comitted.

The students by the regular course of study are divided into three classes, the Junior, the Middle, and Senior classes. It is required of each scholar who expects to graduate in the Institute to acquire a knowledge of the classics, by proceeding through the sophomore year in some college or some equivalent school and course of study. Indeed, it is the desire and advice of the professors, I understood, that candidates for the Institute should first regularly graduate in the college course. Three years are required to graduate in the full course of the Biblical Institute. And yet to accommodate proper persons who may not have the opportunity to complete the curriculum of either college or institute, young men are allowed to take what they style an elective course, that is, studying such branches and for so long a time as they may choose. The examinations, so far as I was competent to judge, were very creditable both to the professors and the pupils. The Hebrew and Greek Scriptures were read and commented upon, Church history was recited, being divided into separate subjects, as doctrines, sects, persecutions, and general influences; Scripture doctrines were defined extemporaneously in the form of topics selected and given out by the professors; cavils, objections, and heresies were freely considered and refuted.

At night the Middle Class gave an exhibition, consisting of original addresses in prose and poetry. These were all good, and some I thought superior.

It seems now to be settled that the theological school is to be an attribute of Methodism. The General Conferences have placed upon it the seal of their approbation; the liberality of the Church has been invoked for its support; it has been ranked among proper objects to be promoted by the gifts of the Church, which are to remain as the testimonials of her gratitude for her existence and successes during the run of a hundred years. We have consecrated the lives and talents of some of our best men for its advancement, and now we are beginning to fill up our thinning ranks and the waste places which death has made in our ministry by young men who have been educated in its halls.

Whatever may have been the effect of such institutions in times past, as belonging to sister denominations; whatever prejudices may have existed among us to a school-made ministry; whatever may be the future tendency and final result of such institutions, it must be conceded our Church has fairly assumed the responsibility of undertaking the work—the work of training men for the ministry in theological schools. While there is and will continue to be a diversity of opinion respecting the expediency of such a mode of ministerial preparation, one thing appears self-evident—the theological school does not necessarily work injury to either the ministry or the Church. It can not be that the simple study of the original Scriptures, and of Church history, and of pure evangelical doctrines, will prove detrimental to the soul, or mind, or manners of any one. But while I make this concession, I am not so sure that the study of even religion, in the cold scholastic form, apart from its excitements, and hallowing influences, and saving virtues, may not have its evil fruits. I am not sure it will not have the effect to reduce religion somewhat to the level of the sciences, in the estimation both of professor and student, and to create a little incredulity respecting its Divine connections, its miraculous character, and its saving power. It must be recollected that the literal interpretations of Scripture and the rationalistic theories of religion, so akin to nude, out-spoken infidelity, have all taken their origin in the theological schools of the Old World. When we sit down and study a thing unmoved, it is natural for us to think it has no power to move. And so it is. Religion, considered as a mere proposition, or as the contents of a text-book, exerts no felt power over us; and, separated from its Divine connections, it has none to exert over us. Powder is powerless as the dust in the street, if you do not bring it into contact with fire. It is so with religion. And such is the weakness and vanity of human nature, and its repugnance to a spiritual religion, that, having traced a hundred things to their natural causes, it leaps to the conclusion that nothing divine or miraculous transpires. If these institutions shall ever be allowed to create to any extent a ministry among us, having the form but denying the power of godliness, their birth and baptism in the Church would be a cause of mourning; but I do not think such an event is necessary or probable. Our Church can run these institutions under a live evangelical administration, as we have our colleges with singular success, and thus make them both instructive and hallowing; both fountains of light and instruments of personal salvation; both charging the young men as they go out with truth, as the cannon is charged with its projectile, and also supplying them with the expansive, impelling power of love and zeal by the Holy Ghost. But this can only be done by watching over and praying for these institutions—putting our most tried and spiritual men in charge of them, and drawing them close to the warm and beating heart of the Church. Our Bishops and Conferences must watch over them with godly jealousy, and project into their very germ and growth our original repugnance to an unspiritual and powerless pulpit. As Hamilcar swore Hannibal, his son, to be and remain the irreconcilable enemy of his father's enemies, so our Bishops and Conferences should swear these institutions, and their professors, and their students to be the everlasting enemies of a cold, dry, unfeeling, and man-made ministry.

A. LOWREY, Chairman.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

THE Committee on the State of the Country beg leave respectfully to present the following report:

The past year will always be a marked period in our National history. The civil war, which so long had scourged our land, filling it with distress and mourning, was brought, through the blessing of God, to a successful close. A vast army has been quietly disbanded; and the gallant men who so nobly periled life in their country's cause, have for the most part separated to resume the occupations of peaceful life. No where do we now witness armed and defiant opposition to the Government. In fact, we have passed in the briefest interval from the excitement and horrors of war, to the calmness and security of profound peace. For this wonderful deliverance we should be devoutly thankful.

In the very dawning of peace, however, an event of unusual sadness filled with gloom the hearts of an exultant people. President Lincoln was stricken down by the hand of an assassin. This horrid crime filled the whole land with mourning. Every-where were displayed emblems of public sorrow; while Christian congregations gathered to pay honor to his memory, and to ponder prayerfully the lessons of this National bereavement. Divine Providence, however, in this sad event overruled the wrath of man, for it secured us the spontaneous and hearty sympathy of the civilized world, and bound into closer affinity the hearts of all loyal citizens at home.

In the successor of our late, lamented President we recognize a man of great abilities, unimpeachable honesty, and tried patriotism.

We are not without substantial, and we believe lasting, fruits of our triumph. While we rejoice and give thanks that certain mischievous political heresies, such as State sovereignty and the right of secession, have been effectually extinguished, and that the integrity of the Union has been maintained, we especially exult that the ancient and prolific cause of crime and misery, of alienation and strife, the iniquitous and monstrous system of negro slavery, has perished forever. It only remains for us to confer upon our emancipated countrymen, thousands of whom have nobly fought under our banner, the long-denied facilities for improvement and elevation, and the highest prerogatives of American citizenship.

Glorious as are these results, your Committee are impressed with the necessity of unceasing vigilance and unremitting prayer. If we abate these, our dearest interests may be again imperiled, however brilliant to our hope the future may now appear. The momentous questions of reconstruction and restoration are encompassed with difficulties, through which a Divine hand alone can guide us in safety. It is gratifying to know that this feeling of dependence upon God is extensively prevalent throughout the country, and is largely shared by those in high official stations. We should take advantage of this favorable disposition of the popular mind to impress clearly and earnestly the great truths that the Bible is the only foundation of rational liberty, and the Christian religion the efficient safeguard of our republican institutions.

We are also convinced that it is not only proper, but imperative, that we practice a keener scrutiny into the moral character of public men. While we would frown upon the introduction of religious tests, we should yield our suffrage and support to those only who possess private virtue as well as political soundness. How can we consistently and confidently invoke the Divine blessing upon profligate men who have no fear of God before their eyes, whose vices are notorious and fearfully contaminating, and whose elevation to office is a reproach to the Christian community?

Before concluding our report, we can not forbear referring to the enviable attitude our Church has maintained throughout these years of trial and conflict. She has given to the Government no tardy or equivocal support. In the darkest hours of military disaster and public despondency, her ministers and people have never despaired or faltered, and now in the triumphant issue our joy is full and unmingled. Methodism has made no record in this war for which she needs to blush. We transmit it to the future without a fear. It will go down embodied in the history of these eventful times, affording an impressive illustration of the fact that while the Christian religion awakens and satisfies the highest spiritual aspirations, it is likewise the conservator of all that is valuable and glorious "in the life that now is."

We respectfully submit the foregoing with the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we hail the return of peace and the successful issue of the late protracted and sanguinary war with the profoundest feeling of gratitude to Almighty God, recognizing him as our great benefactor and deliverer.

2. Resolved, That we will continue earnestly to pray the Father of mercies to vouchsafe to our Chief Magistrate, and to all in authority, that help and guidance so necessary to the successful discharge of their momentous duties.

3. Resolved, That to the brave men of the Army and Navy, who with almost matchless valor have gloriously vindicated the National cause, we owe a debt of gratitude we can never repay. To those who have survived the vicissitudes of war, we extend a most cordial and heart-felt welcome home, ever praying and laboring for their temporal and spiritual wellbeing; while we will cherish with tenderest affection the memory of the heroic dead.

4. Resolved, That, recognizing as we do our entire dependence upon the Divine benignity for National as well as personal prosperity, we regard it of permanent importance that those whom we intrust with the responsibilities of office, should be men of irreproachable moral character, who themselves feel the need of Divine help and guidance.

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTIONS

IN REFERENCE TO THE DEATH OF GOVERNOR BROUGH.

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to visit the State with bereavement and loss in the death of his Excellency, Governor JOHN BROUGH; therefore,

Resolved, That we unite with the people of the State of Ohio in bearing testimony to the unflinching patriotism of Governor Brough evinced in the time of our country's peril during the late rebellion, and especially in that most critical hour when he put into the field some 30,000 of Ohio's noble sons, by which the war was brought to a triumphant conclusion in favor of the Union; the talent, executive ability, and distinguished statesmanship which marked the career of the late Chief Magistrate of our State; and while we deplore his death, we trust that the loss sustained by this event will be overruled by Divine Providence for the good of the State and the nation at large.

Resolved, That, as ministers of Christ, it is grateful to our hearts to learn, through various channels of information, that Governor Brough in his sickness and on his death-bed yielded a cheerful tribute to the divinity of Christianity by avowing his faith in Jesus Christ as the only Savior of man.

All which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON FINANCE.

THE Committee on Finance, not being able to furnish any thing better, would recommend to the Conference, for adoption, the report of last year, and would request its publication in the Western Christian Advocate immediately after the adjournment of Conference:

Report of 1864.

We deem the proposition that an itinerant ministry, in some form, is essential to the world's salvation so self-evident as to require no argument. The time has come when the prosperity of our own people justifies the expectation that every charge will furnish a sufficient and ample support to their several pastors. God has greatly blessed the nation, and none more than our own membership; and hence the duty of devising liberal things for those who have sacrificed secular emoluments to preach the Gospel. The time has come when the honor of the Church and the success of our ministry can no longer be maintained while deficiencies in ministerial support are allowed to occur in the several charges. The country teems with wealth, increasing wealth; the returns of both capital and labor are greater than ever before; while the expenses of family support are correspondingly increased: hence the duty of the Church to increase her support to her ministry.

We recommend the following plan:

1. It shall be the duty of the last quarterly conference of each year to fix the time and place of holding the financial meeting, to which the Estimating Committee shall present their estimate for the pastor's support, which meeting shall be composed of the preacher or preachers of the station or circuit, the stewards, leaders, and Estimating Committee. The meeting shall then distribute the amount to the several classes, according to numbers and financial ability.

2. The several charges within our bounds are earnestly advised to lay aside the old practice of securing what they can on the eve of quarterly meeting, and instead, where funds are not raised by pew rent, secure the preacher's salary by subscription from the membership, apportioned according to the ability of each, and from persons attending upon our ministry.

3. We earnestly urge our congregations, through their officiaries, to employ such diligence that no arrearages shall be carried from one quarter to another, thereby burdening the close of the year with embarrassing deficiencies. As sons of Wesley we should do this, as every thing else, "at the time."

4. Whenever the deficiencies of a charge are such as indicates its inability or indisposition to meet its obligations in supporting a full ministerial supply, the presiding elder shall recommend the presiding Bishop of the ensuing Annual Conference to unite said charge to another, or so supply the charge as that deficiency shall not again occur.

5. In the judgment of this Conference the obligation to pay in full the preacher's salary is as binding upon the congregation and individual members thereof as the payment of promissory notes in bank, and should be met as promptly.

6. The presiding elders of this Conference shall present this report and plan at the first quarterly conferences of the several charges of their districts, and shall cause it to be read in the congregation at the first quarterly meeting; and on circuits the stewards shall cause it to be read in every appointment as soon thereafter as possible.

7. The Estimating Committee shall consult with the preacher as to the amount necessary for his support, and the presiding elder shall inquire, at the first quarterly conference before putting the estimate of the Committee on its passage, if such consultation has been had.

REPORT ON ITINERANCY.

YOUR Committee, having considered the subject, respectfully report as follows:

The itinerant system of preaching the Gospel—instituted by the Savior, practiced by the apostles, and revived by Wesley—has, by its practical working, demonstrated its superiority to every other system, by taking the diversified talents which it has pleased God to call to the work of the Christian ministry, and sending them "into all the world, to preach the Gospel to every creature;" and that they might more successfully meet the diversified tastes and mental perceptions of all the people, sending them out two by two, that the preachers might bring all the various talents of the ministry successfully into contact with all the people.

By this system the Gospel achieved its earliest triumphs in subduing the nations to the Cross of Christ, and its latest triumphs in "spreading Scriptural holiness over these" and other "lands;" and since it has been so signally owned and blessed of God, as a Divinely-approved and successful instrumentality, in converting the world to God, it is the manifest duty of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in all its departments, to cherish and maintain the system in all its integrity, and to suffer no innovation which would impair its vitality and efficiency.

Your Committee submit for adoption, as the sense of the Conference, the following Resolutions.

1. Resolved, That the efficiency of the system among us would be promoted by a return to the old plan of associating a sufficient number of appointments to form a circuit which would afford sufficient labor for two ministers, and be able to support them.

2. Resolved, That, in forming the circuits, regard should be had to the financial ability of the societies—associating the weaker with those which are more able—so that each circuit shall be able to support two preachers; and that, as a general rule, no circuit should be constituted, or continued, which can not support two men.

3. Resolved, That the charge of a circuit ought to be committed to a person of experience—affording the younger ministers an opportunity to prepare themselves, by study and observation, for the responsibilities of the office.

4. Resolved, That the various talents and ministerial gifts at the disposal of the appointing power ought to be distributed as equably as possible, and, by judicious and frequent changes, circulated throughout the bounds of the Conference.

5. Resolved, That we approve the action of the General Conference in extending the limit of the pastoral term to three years; while, at the same time, we think it well to observe great prudence in applying the rule, lest we drift toward congregationalism and impair our efficiency.

6. Resolved, That it is the duty of both preachers and people to leave the appointing power perfectly free to exercise their godly judgment in supplying the work—the preachers consenting to share, interchangeably, the privations, hardships, and labors, as well as the more desirable positions found among us—going cheerfully where the bishop directs, and the people receiving cordially, and sustaining liberally, the preachers sent to them from time to time.

7. Resolved, That it is highly proper that the work be so arranged that no preacher shall be required to preach more than twice on each Sabbath.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

YOUR Committee on Temperance offer the following report:

Having had the subject under consideration, we would reaffirm the moral ground that this Conference has taken on the subject of temperence, namely: The sinfulness of the traffic in alcoholic drinks, and furnishing supplies for their manufacture, or in any way giving countenance to intemperance, and consider our great danger is from our domestic wines. It is a lamentable truth that intemperance is on the increase; and your committee believe that there is moral power enough, and talent enough, in this Conference, to create a public sentiment and public conscience on this subject; therefore,

Resolved, That we will buckle on the armor, and preach and pray against this giant evil in our midst; and we will, with the help of God, never cease our efforts till the children of our flocks are safe from the destroyer, and our families are safe from this terrible scourge, and our land delivered from this pestilence.

REPORT ON SANITARY AND CHRISTIAN COMMISSIONS.

THE Committee on the Sanitary and Christian Commissions present the following report:

Whereas, the munificent donations of the loyal people of this country, for the benefit of our armies, called into existence the Sanitary and Christian Commissions, which have accomplished the work of conveying these gifts of patriotic men, women, and children to the soldiers engaged in the defense of our country; and, whereas, the Christian Commission, in addition to thus ministering to the physical wants of the soldier, furnished him with a moral and religious literature, and, by its system of unpaid delegates, with a living ministry; and, whereas, under the Divine blessing, our armies have crushed the late slaveholders' rebellion, and our brave soldiers are returning home—thus the necessity which called these noble institutions into being has ceased; therefore,

1. Resolved, That the faithfulness and efficiency with which the officers of the Sanitary and Christian Commissions have discharged their arduous and often difficult work, is worthy of the highest commendation, and in retiring from these positions they will carry with them our confidence in their integrity and approbation of their labors.

2. Resolved, That while the existence of these Commissions has been brief, their noble work will render their memories pleasant and enduring, and call for gratitude to God for the patriotism and liberality which called them into being.

3. Resolved, That the Christian Commission, by its delegates of every evangelical denomination, working harmoniously and earnestly in relieving the physical necessities of the soldiers, and ministering to their spiritual comfort, has given a practical demonstration to the world that Protestant Christianity has indeed but "one Lord, one faith, one baptism."

REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S AID.

THE Committee appointed by this Conference on "Freedmen's Aid," after carefully availing themselves of all the sources of information within their reach, beg leave to submit for the adoption of the Conference the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we recognize the hand of God in the fact that a war, inaugurated for the extension and perpetuation of human slavery, has been strangely overruled by his providence for its abolition.

2. Resolved, That we most highly approve of the appointment by our Government of the "Freedmen's Bureau," and other agencies, in providing for the wants of the millions of freedmen so providentially thrown upon our sympathies.

3. Resolved, That we are fully impressed with the claims which the intellectual and moral destitution of the freedmen impose upon us, and that we pledge ourselves to co-operate with the "Freedmen's Aid Commission" in the relief of those intellectual and moral wants.

4. Resolved, That we highly approve of the course of our Government in the recognition and protection of the marriage relation among the freedmen, convinced as we are that the formation of the family compact is essential to their moral improvement and elevation.

5. Resolved, That, recognizing the unity of humanity, and believing that God made of one blood all the nations to dwell upon the face of the earth, we discover a remarkable Providence in the emancipation of the colored race in our country, and that we will co-operate in the grand design of that Providence by seeking to promote their welfare.

6. Resolved, That we most cordially approve of the efforts of our Government in securing for the freedman the fruits of his labor, and thus preventing the evils arising from any modification of the slaveholding system, thereby encouraging the freedmen to become proprietors of the soil.

7. Resolved, That we recognize the valor of the colored American soldier, whereby he has vindicated his manhood, his loyalty to our Government, and his claim to citizenship.

8. Resolved, That we pledge ourselves, as a Conference, to the utmost of our ability, to provide men and means for the furtherance of the noble objects contemplated in the foregoing resolutions, and that the agents of the "Freedmen's Aid Commission" shall be welcomed to our pulpits in advocating those objects.

REPORT ON PARSONAGES.

YOUR Committee, to whom this subject was referred, have had the same under consideration, and, upon examination, find thirty-one charges in the Conference without parsonages; they further find a number of parsonages in bad repair, and some of them almost unfit for use.

They beg leave, therefore, to offer the following:

1. Resolved, That the preachers in charge of the stations or circuits for the coming year, where there is no parsonage, be earnestly requested to urge their members to purchase a lot of ground and build a parsonage thereon, according to the provision of the Discipline, and to furnish it with at least the heavy furniture necessary for the comfort of the preacher's family.

2. Resolved, That the preachers in charge, where the parsonages are out of repair, urge upon the Official Board the necessity of putting their parsonages in good inhabitable order, and to assist their pastor in the furtherance of this object.

REPORT ON MEMOIRS.

Memoir of David Sharp.

DAVID SHARP was a native of New Jersey, born September 5, 1787. His parents soon moved to Virginia, and in 1800 emigrated to the West, and settled in Logan county, Ohio. Here in 1807 he experienced pardon and regeneration under the ministry of the Methodists, and, as it was natural for him, he identified himself with the people who had been the means, under God, of bringing so much joy to his heart. This choice gave great offense, and deprived him of the pleasures of home for a time, and the society of his otherwise excellent Quaker parents. This opposition he bore meekly, and soon overcame, and for a long life was a great favorite in his large family circle. His venerable father often sat with tearful interest under his ministry, and many of his family became private and some official members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1810 he was licensed to preach, and soon after was employed by the presiding elder to supply a circuit. At the session of the Ohio Conference, at Steubenville, September 1, 1813, he was admitted on trial, and appointed to White Water circuit. He traveled five years in the Conference he entered, having been ordained in course deacon and elder. In 1819 he was appointed to Silver Creek circuit, in the Missouri Conference, and in that frontier region he served the Church five years longer as presiding elder. His district included all the then settled parts of Illinois. Rev. John Steward, now of the Ohio Conference, informs us that he traveled Mount Carmel circuit in his district, in 1821, when it embraced four county seats in it. If this was the extent of one circuit, what must have been the labor necessary to serve a district composed of many such circuits? The roads were bad, the streams unbridged, but few ferry boats, and the accommodations for the most part very poor. The deprivations and hardships he endured may be imagined, but not described. He, however, prosecuted his work with great moral courage and indomitable perseverance, as well as great decision and energy of character. The body containing a soul possessed of such excellent qualities, and capable of such effort and endurance, must have had a sound constitution and much strength.

In 1825 he was transferred to the Pittsburg Conference, then recently organized. Here he labored consecutively twenty-four years, four years as presiding elder of the Pittsburg district, and twenty on circuits and stations. In 1849 he was transferred to the Ohio Conference, where he commenced his itinerant career. When the Conference was divided in 1852, he fell into the Cincinnati Conference, where he completed his forty-seventh year as an effective laborer in the itinerancy. In the Fall of 1860, his health having failed, he consented to receive a superannuated relation, in which he continued to preach on funeral and some other occasions, as he was able; occasionally met classes, and encouraged by his presence and help the Sunday schools of his vicinity.

We have before us the testimony of brethren long associated with him in labor in the Illinois and Pittsburg Conferences, and from what we have received and know ourselves, we can say that in all the fields of labor assigned him he was esteemed, acceptable, efficient, and successful in his works. As a Christian, we believe no complaints were ever made against him. As a minister in the pulpit, his discourses were respectable, but not extraordinary. It may, however, be said in favor of his performances and himself, that he never made great pretensions and never wearied his hearers with long discourses. It has been often said his sermons were like trees, with more fruit than blossoms or foliage. He was punctual; it was a rare occurrence for him to be absent from, or too late at an appointment.. It is said his judgment of law and the order of business in quarterly conferences commanded uniform respect.

He was an unassuming, modest man, clothed with humility; was uniformly and deeply pious. Indeed, we think what was said of Barnabas might be in truth applied to him, "He was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith."

Brother Sharp was twice married. His first wife, a Miss Moore, of Illinois, lived only a few months; his second, who survives him, was the daughter of the late venerable Thornton Fleming, long an eminent minister of the Baltimore, and then of the Pittsburg Conference.

We close with a brief record of his last testimony. The religion he had so long and faithfully preached to others was his theme and solace in the chamber of sickness and upon the dying bed. While his vigorous constitution and retentive memory were yielding to the weight of years and power of disease, his inner man, unimpaired, not only retained but magnified the grace of God in Christ. The same cheerfulness of mind which had alleviated the burdens and sweetened the sorrows of life, now imparted its hallowing influences to the closing scene. He was enabled to leave the richest expressions of triumph to his surviving friends. Soon after his severe attack on the 11th of April, when it was proposed to move him from the lounge to the bed, he remarked, "It is as near heaven here as any where." "I never shall forget the night Wm. Walker's wife died—it seemed like both worlds were near together." The next day he said, "My suffering time will soon be over." "I want to leave as clean a sheet behind me as I can." "I think I shall get home; yes, going home. Bless the Lord!" The next day he left his bed to join his family and friends in prayer and thanksgiving, as he repeatedly did. He remarked, "If I have a correct view of things, as far as I know, all is well." He appeared to think his end was near; called his wife and inquired for his only son, saying, "The end will come. I see the shadow of death passing over me." "It will be right, all is well." "Not my will, thine be done." He then exclaimed, "Trying hour—trying moment! What have I to fear or dread; my Heavenly Father will do all things well." On the 18th, sitting on the side of the bed, lifting up his hands he said, "I commit my soul and body and family and Church into the hands of my Heavenly Father." In the evening he called for the Bible, that he might lead in family prayer. An attempt was made to dissuade him, but he was intent. He kneeled down and prayed audibly for his family, Church, and country. This was his last audible prayer with which he blessed his household.

His disease progressed; his mind wandered occasionally as to the things of earth, but was clear and fixed upon things above till five o'clock, A. M., on the 21st of April, 1865, when the weary wheels of life stood still, and he passed away to his rest in heaven.

Our brother Wesley Webster was with him much of the time during his severe illness of ten days, and preached a sermon on the occasion of his death, on the appropriate text, Psalm xxxvii, 37: "Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace."

Memoir of Enoch G. West.

Rev. Enoch G. West was born in Clermont county, Ohio, November 25, 1825. His parents, George and Nancy West, were identified with the pioneer Methodists of Ohio. They labored faithfully for the early conversion of their children. From his infancy Enoch was the object of their prayers, and in his childhood was the subject of deep religious impressions. At the age of fourteen years he was deeply convinced of his lost condition as a sinner, and, through the special instrumentality of his pious mother, was powerfully converted to God. He united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Williamsburg, O., under the ministry of Rev. John Miley. The evidence of his conversion was clear and indubitable. The love of Christ filled his heart, and the excellencies of religion shone out in his life. At the age of eighteen he was appointed to lead a class. In this important position he was eminently successful, commanding the respect of the aged, the affection of the young, and the confidence of all. About this time he was moved by the Holy Spirit to preach the Gospel. Conscious of his unfitness for the work, and the responsibilities of the sacred office, he for a time resisted this heavenly call. In consequence of this he passed through many painful conflicts. He at last disclosed to the writer the state of his mind, and was immediately licensed to exhort. He at once began his career of usefulness by the frequent exercise of his gift. He was licensed to preach by Rev. Dr. Marlay, in 1847.

In 1848 he was admitted into the Ohio Conference on trial, and appointed to Milford circuit, with Rev. Asa B. Stroud as his colleague. He entered upon his work with a burning zeal for the salvation of souls. A blessed revival of religion followed, and hundreds were converted to God and added to the Church. During this year he received a clear "witness of the blessing of perfect love." This he denominated his "Pentecost." After receiving this baptism of the Spirit a peculiar unction attended his ministry, and his hearers felt that he was a man of God. His next appointment was Goshen circuit, with Rev. J. B. Ellsworth as a colleague. More success attended his labors, and the cause of God prospered. At the close of this year he was received into full connection, and ordained deacon by Bishop Janes. In 1852 he was ordained elder by Bishop Simpson. This year he was happily united in marriage with Miss Angeline Rice. He was successively appointed to the following charges: New Richmond, East Cincinnati Mission, South Charleston, Yellow Springs, Lebanon, Wayne-Street, Piqua, Finley Chapel, Cin., and Middletown. In all of these charges he made full proof of his ministry, and hundreds, through his instrumentality, were brought into the fold of Christ.

Such was his zeal and devotion to his work, that his constitution was seriously impaired years before his death. He labored on, and suffered in silence, till the middle of his last year, in Middletown, when his health entirely failed. He then left his charge and removed to Urbana, to suffer and to die. This was the greatest trial of his life, but faith triumphed in this dark hour, and he cheerfully committed his temporal and spiritual interests to God. He was not idle, but "went about doing good." Wherever he was needed, there you might see his wasted form; at the bedside of the sick and dying, in the sanctuary, the social circle, on the street, ever ready to preach Jesus and him crucified.

He was a true patriot. It was his constant prayer that he might live to see the slave power crushed, and his stricken country restored to peace. God granted his request, and he rejoiced in the salvation of the country before he passed away. His next desire was that two of his children might be converted before his death. He was answered in this also. His last earthly care was for a little daughter who had long been his companion in suffering, but God took her to himself. He was now ready to "depart and be with Christ." He made preparation for his funeral with as much cheerfulness as he would prepare for a journey to the home of his childhood. His soul was filled with the love of God. He said, "My next conference will be with Mitchell, Walker, and others of my fellow-laborers who have gone before."

On the 6th of May last he suddenly grew worse, and said to his friends, "My time has come." When in the death struggle, he said, "It is very stormy on this side of the river, but all is calm and beautiful beyond." When asked by Rev. W. L. Hypes, "Do you still lean on Jesus?" he answered, "Yes; strongly." His last words were, "This is death. I can scarcely realize that I am so near heaven. Glory to God! Come, Lord Jesus, come quickly!" and then slept sweetly in Jesus, just as the morning light of the 8th of May was dawning on the world.

Brother West was a man of strong mind. Though not a classical scholar, he was an educated man. His attainments were above mediocrity. He was a laborious student. His sermons were doctrinal, practical, and experimental, abounding in Gospel truth. "A present and a full salvation" were his favorite themes. His piety was deep and uniform. Wherever he went a holy influence attended him. He was firm, but mild, in the discharge of duty. In person he was noble and dignified; in spirit, genial and loving. In his last sickness he was patient, trusting, and triumphant. Such was the piety and consistency of this man of God that we may safely affirm that the two years of suffering and trial in Urbana were the most successful of his ministerial life. His memory will long be cherished as a sacred legacy by that community. "He, being dead, yet speaketh."

REPORT ON THE BETHEL CAUSE.

We, your Committee, beg leave to represent that we have carefully considered the subject, and had also the advantage of a full and free consultation with its Secretary, Rev. R. H. Leonard, to whose efficiency the Western Seaman's Friend Society owes much, and to whose Christian courtesy we take pleasure in bearing our testimony.

This is an important part of the mission work which is intrusted to Protestant Christianity in this country, and the debt we owe to those "who go down into the sea in ships" is so great that we do not understand how the Church can excuse itself from affording them, in every practicable way, the benefits of the Gospel of our Divine Redeemer.

We, therefore, recommend to the confidence and support of the Church, the Western Seaman's Friend Society, and offer for adoption the following:

Resolved, That the presiding bishop be, and he is hereby requested, to appoint Rev. J. M. Gatch as agent of the Western Seaman's Friend Society for the ensuing year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

Your Committee on the Tract Cause respectfully beg leave to present the following report:

1. We rejoice that the Methodist Episcopal Church has given expression of the importance of the Tract cause in the organization of a Tract Society, "designed to aid in the diffusion of religious knowledge, by the circulation of evangelical publications."

2. It is a source of gratitude to God and encouragement to the Church that our Parent Tract Society is steadily progressing, and gradually enlarging its facilities for usefulness, which the following facts show: The income of the society during the year 1864 was $12,610.91; its expenditures during the same period were $12,017.41, of which $6,602.36 were appropriated to the United States Army. The total number of pages of tracts—including the "Good News"—printed during 1864, was 47,044,000. The day of eternity alone will reveal the amount of good accomplished by this vast amount of religious reading matter!

3. We lament to see our country overflooded with a certain kind of literature, the tendency of which is to undermine the morals, poison the minds, and destroy the faith in the Bible, of the rising generation. In view of these facts, we would, therefore, earnestly recommend to the preachers and people of our Church, the importance of the Tract cause as a powerful agency, not only to counteract the injurious influence of the above-named vile literature, but also in spreading Scriptural holiness over the land and in saving souls.

4. We would recommend to the Conference the following resolution:

Resolved, That we, as presiding elders and preachers, will endeavor, by the help of God, and as far as lies in our ability, to carry out the instructions of the General Conference relative to the Tract cause, as laid down in our Discipline, Part V, section 4, p. 235.

REPORT ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

Your Committee on the Tract Cause respectfully beg leave to present the following report:

1. We rejoice that the Methodist Episcopal Church has given expression of the importance of the Tract cause in the organization of a Tract Society, "designed to aid in the diffusion of religious knowledge, by the circulation of evangelical publications."

2. It is a source of gratitude to God and encouragement to the Church that our Parent Tract Society is steadily progressing, and gradually enlarging its facilities for usefulness, which the following facts show: The income of the society during the year 1864 was $12,610.91; its expenditures during the same period were $12,017.41, of which $6,602.36 were appropriated to the United States Army. The total number of pages of tracts—including the "Good News"—printed during 1864, was 47,044,000. The day of eternity alone will reveal the amount of good accomplished by this vast amount of religious reading matter!

3. We lament to see our country overflooded with a certain kind of literature, the tendency of which is to undermine the morals, poison the minds, and destroy the faith in the Bible, of the rising generation. In view of these facts, we would, therefore, earnestly recommend to the preachers and people of our Church, the importance of the Tract cause as a powerful agency, not only to counteract the injurious influence of the above-named vile literature, but also in spreading Scriptural holiness over the land and in saving souls.

4. We would recommend to the Conference the following resolution:

Resolved, That we, as presiding elders and preachers, will endeavor, by the help of God, and as far as lies in our ability, to carry out the instructions of the General Conference relative to the Tract cause, as laid down in our Discipline, Part V, section 4, p. 235.

Bible Operations in South-Western Ohio.

A summary of the work for the year ending March 31, 1865, will show that the cause is rising in the sympathy and benevolent regards of the people. The receipts from all sources amount to $30,159.89, an advance on last year of $4,294.38, and from the entire State of Ohio, $84,364.70.

During the year the Agent visited 132 Auxiliary and Branch Societies, held 149 Bible meetings, delivered 166 Bible sermons and addresses, traveled 5,450 miles, sent out 1,590 letters and circulars in behalf of the cause, aside from the number of letters and circulars forwarded by the county agents. In some instances the Societies donated the entire amount of their funds to the benevolent object of supplying with the Word of Life the home and foreign field. With the donations and from other sources, there have been made during the year in this district 3 Life Directors, 59 Life Members, and a large number of partially-completed Life Members of the American Bible Society.

The work of canvassing has been prosecuted more extensively and successfully in this district than at any former period. Of the 41 Auxiliary and 249 Branch Societies in the field, 22 auxiliaries, including their branches, have made thorough work; resulting in the visitation of 46,080 families, 2,479 of which were found destitute, and were supplied with the Scriptures—169 refusing to receive the Bible—996 children and destitute persons were supplied, 54 Sabbath and other schools were also furnished with the Word, and between twelve and fifteen thousand soldiers were supplied with the Oracles of Divine Truth, comprehending an aggregate of 19,226 volumes by sale, and 20,123 by donation, making the sales $8,031.97, and the donations $2,912.49.

This work, requiring a vast expenditure of labor and self-sacrifice, could not have been accomplished except through the 249 Branch Societies, the 1,974 voluntary local agents, the efficient and persevering efforts of Revs. S. Scott and S. Cochran, county agents, the 667 Protestant Churches in the district, and the hearty co-operation of pastors and friends of the Bible Cause.

It affords us pleasure to say that the Sabbath School Branch Bible Societies are increasing in number, and by acting in harmony with this noble work have rendered efficient material aid in promoting the circulation of the Scriptures at home and in the missionary field.

We might detail the commendable operations of the various Auxiliary Societies in this district, but space will not allow; and yet justice demands that we should make a passing notice of the fidelity and activity of the Young Men's Bible Society of Cincinnati. This Society has accomplished a noble work, considerably in advance of any former year of its history. Besides canvassing a large portion of the city, and contributing thousands of volumes to soldiers in transitu and in camps, it has liberally supplied Steamers, Hotels, Hospitals, Army Chaplains, Refugees, House of Refuge, Longview Lunatic Asylum, Protestant Orphan Asylum, Colored Orphan Asylum, Home of the Friendless, Station Houses, Sabbath schools, soldiers in barracks, and Soldiers' Home. These precious volumes, and the thousands distributed in various parts of the district, with God's blessing, will afford light and comfort to many a weary, fainting pilgrim heart, and conduct many, it is hoped, to the realms of eternal joy and rest in heaven. Thank God, that amid the clang of arms and the desolation of war in our country, the peaceful Sword of the Spirit, the Bible, has been furnished to men, wherewith bloodless victories are achieved over sin and death, and immortal crowns secured in the better land.

And now, that peace has dawned upon our land, with the restoration of our beloved Union, opening to the benevolent activities of the Society the immense work of supplying with the Bible the desolated, war-blasted region of the South, the millions of emancipated colored population, and the opening "regions beyond," let us address ourselves to this noble enterprise with new zeal and enlarged liberality, and with God's blessing labor in hastening the day when the light of Divine truth shall illumine every land, and the reign of peace universally prevail.

We recommend to the Conference the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we hail with pleasure and with thanksgiving to Almighty God the increasing prosperity of the American Bible Society; and with undiminished confidence we recognize the work of circulating the Holy Scriptures as an ordained instrumentality for the enlightenment, elevation, and purification of our race.

2. Resolved, That the benevolent and comprehensive plans of the Society to furnish the destitute Southern portions of our land, including the freedmen, with the Word of Life, command our warmest approval, and shall receive our cordial support.

3. Resolved, That inasmuch as a plan has been adopted by the Society to make this the jubilee year, a memorable era in its history, embracing in its scheme a wider diffusion of Divine truth, by the publication of a new translation of the Scriptures in the Arabic, which can be read by one hundred and twenty millions of men, we hereby pledge our hearty concurrence and co-operation in the accomplishment of so glorious a result.

4. Resolved, That the pecuniary prosperity of the Society in South-Western Ohio during the past four years, the receipts having advanced from about $12,000 to upward of $30,000, attest the adaptation and efficiency of the Agent, W. Herr; and, therefore, we most cordially recommend his reappointment, by the Bishop, as Agent of the American Bible Society for South-Western Ohio.

5. Resolved, That while we will greet the annual visitations of the accredited Agent, and aid in promoting the object of his visits, yet in the event of a failure to come, we will endeavor to advance the interests of the Bible Cause by taking collections ourselves in our respective charges.

6. Resolved, That the Assistant Agents are respectfully requested, after completing the canvass of a county, to furnish the pastors with a written statement of the amount contributed by the Churches for the Bible cause, in order that accurate returns may be made to the proper authority of the Churches to which they belong.

7. Resolved, That the Bishop is hereby respectfully requested to appoint Rev. John Shiner Assistant Bible Agent.

REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

DURING the past year the Sabbath school cause has advanced with rapid and majestic march in the accomplishment of its high and holy mission. In every department its interests have been happily promoted. The aggregate statistics of our Church are as follows:

	TOTAL 1864.	INCREASE.	DECREASE.
Schools	$13,218	125	.....
Officers and Teachers	149,577	995	.....
Scholars	861,484	19,778	.....
Volumes in Library	2,529,087	55,669	.....
Bible Classes	17,468	188	.....
Infant Scholars	131,075	9,479	.....
Expenses of Schools	216,466,045	47,771,022	.....
Number of Conversions	18,892	.....	1,341 and show a satisfactory increase under every head except that of conversions. Twenty-three volumes and valuable Sunday School Requisites have been added to our publications.

The promise of the early republication of the Sunday School Teachers' Journal in an improved form, is peculiarly gratifying, and we earnestly recommend that it be extensively subscribed for in all our schools. It is invaluable to every one of our teachers. Such has been the increase of the popularity and circulation of the Advocate, that, should it maintain its present growth, at the meeting of our next General Conference it will have a circulation of half a million. It is highly desirable that our facilities of usefulness should be commensurate with our rapidly-expanding field.

It is absolutely necessary to success that the improvements of our schools, in efficient organization, in methods of instruction, and in the talents and qualifications of teachers, shall keep pace with that awakening of thought and that spirit of inquiry by which the public mind is being characterized. While much has been done to secure these ends,

Much yet remains to be done. The improved modes of instruction which are now being introduced may soon be superseded by others as far superior to themselves as they are better than the unsystematized and crude efforts which preceded them. Public conventions are a popular agency for the development of plans and the diffusion of knowledge; hence such organization by men of different profession and sciences. That the Sunday school is availing itself of such an agency is a favorable indication of her growing enterprise.

We regard the organization of the "Ohio State Sunday School Convention of the Methodist Episcopal Church" during the past year, and the holding of district conventions and mass meetings as harbingers of great good to our own denomination in particular, and to the Sunday School cause in general.

Your Committee, therefore, respectfully recommend for your adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the action of the last General Conference in placing the Sabbath schools of different charges under the more complete supervision of the quarterly conferences thereof, and thus providing for their greater efficiency, is appreciative of the importance of the relation of the Sabbath school to the Church; and that we call the special attention of our pastors to the observance of these disciplinary provisions.

2. Resolved, That we earnestly recommend that all of our Sabbath schools send delegates to represent them at the State Sunday School Convention of the Methodist Episcopal Church to be held in Dayton in May next, and also at the Ohio State Sunday School Union to be held at Sandusky, on the first Tuesday of June, 1866.

3. Resolved, That we heartily approve of the organization of county and township Sunday School Unions as auxiliary to the State Union, and request our ministers and members to assist in their formation; and that we also recommend the holding district Sunday School Conventions in each presiding elder's district of the Conference.

4. Resolved, That we recommend to our larger schools to take into consideration the propriety of being graded into Infant, Intermediate, and Bible departments; and of using the graduated text-book provided by our Church.

REPORT ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

THE Committee on the Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church have had the subject under consideration, and beg leave to submit the following report:

The General Conference of 1864 resolved to organize a Church Extension Society, and presented a form of Constitution for its government. The design of the organization is to give more efficient aid and success to the efforts of the Church in extending assistance throughout the United States and territories to weak and destitute places.

The Society was duly incorporated by the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, in the month of March last, conferring on it such powers and privileges as the friends of the measure deemed necessary to its efficient operation. So that the existence of "the Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States of America" is a fixed fact, under the sanction of law.

To secure unity of effort and liberal co-operation on the part of the Church generally, the General Conference provided for the formation of auxiliary societies in the bounds of each Annual Conference, in which form the matter is presented for our present action.

The necessity of earnest and systematic effort on the part of the Church, in enlarging and sustaining our agencies in those districts of the country now partially occupied, and extending them to the "regions beyond," is a proposition that is unquestioned.

The Southern field itself is opening a large area that will require men and money to occupy. If the occasion is not improved, as Providence may open the way, a great opportunity will be lost to the Church.

The Committee are impressed with the belief that the Society may and will become an important agency in affording aid to needy and destitute societies, and in giving the best possible direction, and with the least expense, to the contributions of the Church for that purpose.

The By-Laws of the Parent Society provide for the appointment of "a Committee on Applications for Aid." This Committee will investigate the claims of the various applicants, judge of the probable results for good, and determine the amount of assistance needed.

It requires no argument to prove the superior advantages of this plan to the old method of extending aid to feeble and destitute Churches. Frequently a self-constituted agent, or one appointed under the authority of a board of stewards, goes forth to solicit aid for a point where, in the judgment of disinterested persons, no present or prospective good will result. The funds obtained, in many instances, are in part or in whole absorbed in defraying the expenses of the agent, or wasted in an unsuccessful experiment. As a general thing it must be conceded that the contributions for these purposes are usually graduated according to the zeal and tenacity of the applicant, rather than the real merits and wants of the case.

The adoption of the plan proposed would place the contributions of the Church, for the purposes contemplated, in the hands of an organization competent to give them such direction as will produce the greatest amount of good. It will thus, in many respects, be made to harmonize with our Missionary Society, to which it has close affinities. If our Missionary operations had been conducted in the same manner that we have made contributions to church extension, that is, by applications from local agents, every one pleading for his own favorite object, who does not know that this powerful organization for good would have fallen far short of the great mission it has accomplished in the world?

Again, this organization will ultimately, and it is hoped very soon, supersede the calls of local agents, and the frequent applications that are made for aid, especially in our city congregations, sometimes when they are inappropriate and out of season. Upon the plan proposed in this Society, the pastors will present the matter to their people at a convenient and suitable time.

Another advantage will be that all our congregations will be called on to contribute, and thus secure general co-operation in the good work.

The Committee, for these and other reasons, recommend the organization of a "Church Extension Society of the Cincinnati Annual Conference, auxiliary to the Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America," as in accordance with the wants of the times and the true policy of the Church, and recommend the adoption of the following Constitution:

Constitution.

ARTICLE 1. The title of this Society shall be the Church Extension Society of the Cincinnati Annual Conference, auxiliary to the Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, United States of America.

ART. 2. The object of this Society shall be to assist the Parent Society in "enabling the several Annual Conferences to extend and establish their Christian influence throughout the United States and Territories, by aiding, wherever necessary, to secure suitable houses of public worship, and such other Church property as may promote the general design."

ART. 3. The payment of the sum of seven dollars per annum shall constitute a member of this Society; the payment of $20 or more, at one time, a member for life; and the payment of $150 or more, an honorary manager for life.

ART. 4. The officers of this Society shall consist of President, Vice-President, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, and Recording Secretary.

ART. 5. The business of this Society shall be conducted by a Board of Managers, consisting of the aforesaid officers, with six lay and six clerical members of the Methodist Episcopal Church within the bounds of this Conference.

ART. 6. This Society, or the donors to it, "may designate the society or societies to which they desire any part, or the whole of the donation by them made to be appropriated, which special designation shall be publicly acknowledged by the Parent Board; but in the event that more funds shall be raised for any particular society or object than is necessary, or than have been appropriated by the General Committee of the Parent Board, the surplus shall be at the disposal of the Parent Society for its general purposes."

ART. 7. The Treasurer shall remit funds received by him as early as possible to the Treasurer of the Parent Society.

ART. 8. The annual meeting of the Society shall be held at the session of the Annual Conference, at which time the Corresponding Secretary shall submit his annual report, the Treasurer exhibit a certified statement of his accounts, and an election of officers and managers for the ensuing year be held. There shall also be an anniversary meeting of the Society at the same time and place.

ART. 9. This Constitution may be altered or amended in a way not inconsistent with the charter of the Parent Society, at any annual meeting, by a vote of a majority of the members present.

Resolved, That we will commend the claims of this Society to the people of our several charges, and at as early a day as practicable during the coming year will raise and forward a collection for the furtherance of the objects of the organization.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON TRANSFERS.

YOUR Committee on Transfers beg leave to offer the following report:

1. On the subject of general tranfers we would make a few remarks: while we disclaim any wish so to interfere with the Episcopal right to make transfers for the general good of the Church, yet we do think this power ought to be exercised with great caution. It has long been a custom in this Conference to consult and vote on transfers, before made, growing out of the reasonable presumption, that as a Conference of age, experience, and piety, we were as well, if not better, prepared to judge of the propriety and necessity of transfers as any other party. This custom, from long standing, has assumed almost the force of law; hence, after Conference has voted in any case against a transfer, to persist in making such transfers is hardly wise in itself, and certainly not respectful to the Conference, and can scarcely fail to be productive of evil by an unnecessary friction between the transferring power and the Conference, as well as embarrassing to the feelings of the brother transferred. Against such transfers we enter our solemn protests.

2. On special transfers we take our stand upon the platform of the General Conference action of 1860, which declares "that negotiations for special appointments, between individuals and societies, is contrary to our economy and injurious to our itinerant system, and should never be made solely at the personal solicitation of a preacher, nor yet to gratify the wishes of any one charge. It is both deeply painful and profoundly mortifying, after the highest authority has thus unequivocally and authoritatively uttered its voice, to find ministers and Churches among us exerting all their influence to make the Episcopacy the instrument of trampling upon the express and emphatic teachings of the General Conference. What makes this the more offensive and the less tolerable, is the fact, that some Churches, asking such accommodations, avow their wish to break down the itinerancy, while those who seek to be transferred thus, are generally systematic, professional position-seekers, passing from Conference to Conference after popular appointments. We are sure we do not speak too strongly, when we say as a Conference, we have no place for such men, and no disposition to hurry our Churches into Congregationalism, or to foster the spirit of disaffection and insubordination to authority. We have already, in our bounds as a Conference, one melancholy instance of what gratifying Churches with special transfers will lead to; let us, therefore, be warned from bringing like separation and ruin upon other Churches; therefore,

1. Resolved, That when our Conference has expressed its opposition to a transfer, its opinion is entitled to a respectful consideration on the part of the Episcopacy.

2. Resolved, Nevertheless, when consulted, we will cheerfully "give and take;" that is, we will receive as many transfers as we make, thus preserving an equilibrium, or an equation with our sister Conferences.

3. Resolved, That we reaffirm the action of the General Conference of 1860—page 398, Gen. Conf. Jour.—on the subject of special transfers, whether such transfers are attempted at Conference, or during the interim of its sessions, as the only true and safe policy to pursue.

4. Resolved, That the Secretary of Conference be instructed to send a copy of this action to persons seeking such transfers, and also to each of our bishops, and especially to such bishop or bishops as may have in charge the case of any special transfer, that all parties concerned may thus be advised of our settled convictions.

REPORT ON AMERICAN UNION COMMISSION.

THE Committee on the American Union Commission beg leave to report as follows:

The Agent of the Commission for the State of Ohio has met with us, and also placed in our hands several circulars, addresses, etc., from which we learn that "the American Union Commission is constituted for the purpose of aiding and co-operating with the people of those portions of the United States which have been desolated and impoverished by the war, in the restoration of their civil and social condition upon the basis of industry, education, freedom, and Christian morality. In the prosecution of this object it contemplates:

"1. The relief of immediate want and suffering by the distribution of food, clothing, and medicine.

"2. The restoration and encouragement of domestic industry, by assisting the people to obtain seed and implements.

"3. The encouragement of a healthy immigration.

"4. Assistance in the establishment of schools and permanent systems of education.

"5. The encouragement of a patriotic devotion to the Union and liberty, by assisting in the establishment of an intelligent and independent press, and by other practical means."

The condition of a large portion of the population of the South is undoubtedly most deplorable, and should awaken our lively sympathy. Unless speedy relief be afforded, thousands must perish from hunger and exposure. But, beyond the supply of the pressing physical wants, we should gladly seize the opportunity of promoting a healthy Union sentiment, by affording an evidence of our genuine good-will toward these misguided people, and our earnest solicitude for their restoration and happiness as truly-loyal citizens of our common country.

We recommend, for adoption, the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we highly approve the objects and work of the American Union Commission.

2. Resolved, That we cheerfully commend the Agent of the Commission, Rev. H. O. Sheldon, to our own people and to the public generally, trusting that the cause he represents will find a hearty and liberal support.

ARTICLE 1. Any effective member of the Cincinnati Annual Conference may be a member of the Cincinnati Conference Mutual by paying any sum, not less than $10, annually.

Benefits.

ART. 2. When a member of the Mutual ceases to be effective, he shall receive twenty-five per cent. annually on the amount of annuity paid, up to the time he became a supernumerary or a superannuate.

ART. 3. At the death of a member, his widow or heirs shall receive double the whole amount paid into the fund by him.

ART. 4. Five per cent. of all moneys received shall be set apart for an orphans' fund, to be used to aid in the maintenance and education of such orphan children of deceased members of this association as may need such aid.

ART. 5. All donations and legacies received by this association shall be held, invested, and used as a fund to be applied by a vote of a majority of the members at any annual meeting to the relief of any member of the Cincinnati Conference or his widow, who may be in need of special aid.

ART. 6. Any member failing to pay annually at least ten dollars shall lose his membership and forfeit all claim to benefits.

ART. 7. Members transferred to other Conferences may retain their interest in this association by regularly paying their annual dues; or they may receive the amount in full paid by them, without interest.

ART. 8. Any brother locating shall be entitled to benefits, as provided in Art. 2d; or he may withdraw the amount paid by him, without interest.

ART. 9. Any member withdrawing or being expelled from the Conference shall forfeit all his rights and privileges in this association.

Officers, Rules, Etc.

ART. 10. The officers of the Cincinnati Conference Mutual shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and five Trustees, whose duty it shall be to incorporate the association under the laws of Ohio, and perform all other duties the association may require of said officers.

ART. 11. No investment of funds shall be made without the approval of a majority of the members present at the annual meeting.

ART. 12. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question at the annual meeting till his annuity is paid.

ART. 13. For every ten dollars annuity paid each member shall be entitled to one vote in all meetings of the association for the year the annuity is paid.

ART. 14. The account of the Treasurer shall be audited annually, and he shall make a full report, at the annual meeting, of all receipts, investments, benefits paid out, and all other expenses; presenting a full and clear statement of the condition of the Treasury.

After the investigation which we have been able to give the subject presented in outline by this paper and its author, and, convinced of the necessity and importance of some safe and permanent organization by which to provide against the embarrassments of pecuniary want, so likely to fall upon our families, and upon ourselves as ministers, in time of bodily weakness, or when in the infirmities of age, we express the opinion that the members of this Conference ought at once to enter into the necessary measures for perfecting an association similar to that under consideration.

REPORT ON THE CENTENARY OF AMERICAN METHODISM.

THE one hundredth year since the introduction of Methodism into this country must be regarded as one of the grand providential events of this world, marking the incipiency of a series of instrumentalities bearing on the moral and religious destiny not only of this land, but of all lands. The immortal founder of Methodism was raised up by God, not only to revive a dead formalism, but to exhibit, under the influence of the Divine Spirit, the renewing and saving power of the truth as it is in Jesus, and so beautify man with holiness, that this earth might become as the "garden of the Lord." Has Methodism accomplished her mission? Has she been to our country especially a blessing to such an extent as to warrant the celebration of the Centennial year, with thanksgiving to God and the offering of gifts on the altar of benevolence? Let the unnumbered thousands of souls now in heaven, saved by the instrumentality of Methodism, and the million of others, now walking in the ways of the Lord, answer the question. Let the thousands of Churches reared in this and other lands; let the grand missionary movements of the present hour for the universal extension of the Redeemer's kingdom in this and foreign lands; let the numerous universities, colleges, and other institutions of learning which dot our country; let the inspiration of all which is dear to patriotism and philanthropy, answer the question. And if Methodism, now on the eve of the culmination of her centennial existence, has, under God, accomplished so much and contributed so vastly to the intellectual, moral, and religious culture of man; in a word, if she has, with the Divine blessing, given energy and life to a preached Gospel, made the seats of learning the fountains of vital, saving truth, and thrown her influence in favor of all that exalts and adorns humanity, surely we have abundant reason to celebrate the centenary of her existence with joyful hearts, and rear memorials of our gratitude, upon which shall be inscribed our thanksgivings for the everlasting admiration and example of all coming generations.

And so momentous do we regard the event which it is proposed to celebrate, and so great is the work to be accomplished as appropriate to the occasion, whereby it may be rendered acceptable to God, and honorable alike to religion and our fair fame, that your Committee deem it important that immediate steps should be taken for the achievement of the object contemplated. Sensible as many of our people may now be of their indebtedness, under God, to Methodism, and ready as some may be to rear some great memorial of their gratitude to God for the spiritual blessings received, still a vast work is to be done in quickening the heart and prompting the charity of many; that such monumental works may be embarked in as will impart increased activity and usefulness to the cause of religion, education, and benevolence. Aside from the claims of religion, no doubt there are thousands of patriotic hearts in this land now waiting to make an offering to God in some suitable way, as an expression of gratitude for the safe deliverance of our beloved country from the assaults of traitors. The hope is indulged that the Centenary of Methodism may prevent some object worthy of their regard, and thus the combined efforts of the Church and all the friends of learning and religion, ultimate in such deeds as shall be well pleasing unto God, and send forth with accumulated power the agencies of man's elevation and purification. "Prodigies of success have have been attained by the combination of numbers which would have baffled the might and confounded the hopes of noble men, who in former times toiled singly and alone."

With this conviction your Committee submit to the Cincinnati Conference for adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we heartily concur with the General Conference for an appropriate observance of the Centenary of Methodism.

2. Resolved, That the arrangements of such observance in the bounds of the Cincinnati Conference be confided to a Committee, consisting of one preacher of each district, and an equal number of laymen—similarly selected.

3. Resolved, That the presiding Bishop and his council be, and they are hereby, respectfully requested to nominate said Committee, to be submitted for the consideration and approval of the Conference.

4. Resolved, That said Committee prepare and issue without delay an address to the members and friends of the Church in the bounds of the Conference, together with an outline of the religious exercises it might be appropriate to hold within each charge.

5. Resolved, That, as designated by the General Conference, the local funds be appropriated to two objects. 1st. The cause of Education. 2d. Church Extension. The appropriation to be subject to the ensuing Conference.

6. Resolved, That the Conference appoint one of its members to preach a memorial sermon before this body at the session next preceding the Centennial celebration.

7. Resolved, That subscriptions to the Centennial Fund be taken throughout the bounds of the Conference the coming year.

8. Resolved, That each preacher be, and hereby is, directed to obtain a blank-book and cause to be entered therein, in a fair hand, the name of each member of the Church within the bounds of his charge, with the amount subscribed to both the Connectional and Local Funds—these books to be preserved among the records of the charge; a copy shall also be forwarded to the Conference, to be recorded by the Secretary in a book provided for the purpose, which shall be called the Centenary Record, and be preserved in the archives of the Conference.

9. Resolved, That a portion of the book to be provided according to the above resolution be appropriated to the recording of the name and contribution of each friend of the Church.

10. Resolved, That the presiding Bishop be, and hereby is, respectfully requested to appoint an agent, whose duty it shall be to travel at large through the Conference, lecturing upon the subject of the celebration, and aiding the pastors in taking subscriptions to the Centenary Funds—and we recommend Rev. A. Lowrey for said appointment.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON CASE OF G. MOODY.

THE Committee appointed to examine into certain conflicts in which Granville Moody has been involved during the year, as circulated through the press and by common report, have had before them three creditable witnesses who were present and saw the assault made upon him in Piqua, in April last, and they all agree in their testimony. In regard to the assault made upon him by a Southern man, on board a steamer on the Ohio, we have heard the full statement of G. Moody himself. And, after investigating all the evidence, as presented to us, we are clearly and unanimously of the opinion that there exists no grounds for charges against said G. Moody, he having, as we believe, acted in self-defense in both cases.

REPORT ON CASE OF J. J. HILL.

IN the case of the Rev. J. J. Hill, who for the last year has been serving as agent for the Seaman's Friend Society, and which case was referred to us, we beg leave to represent, that having made such investigation as the facts within our reach have enabled us to do in his absence, we are led to fear that his financial transactions for the last few years, and especially his present indebtedness to the Western Seaman's Friend Society, are such as to require the attention of this Conference.

We therefore recommend for adoption the following:

Resolved, That the case of Rev. J. J. Hill be, and is hereby, referred to his presiding elder for investigation, that he may have opportunity to explain his embarrassments.

SPRINGFIELD FEMALE COLLEGE.

THIS OLD-ESTABLISHED INSTITUTION HAVING BEEN ENTIRELY FREED FROM debt, refitted, and repainted, by the liberality of the citizens of Springfield and vicinity, is enjoying a high degree of prosperity, and offers superior advantages for a thorough and complete literary and musical education. Its situation for health and beauty is unsurpassed. The morals of the young ladies will be especially guarded, and none but those of good character will be admitted. In consequence of the limited number received, applications for rooms must be made in advance of the session.

Domestic Life in Palestine. By Mary ELIZA ROGERS. 12mo. Pp. 436. $1.75.

Of this work the Westminster Review says: We have not for many years read so excellent a book of its kind as Miss Rogers's "Domestic Life in Palestine." Her intimate knowledge of the Scriptures, and of Eastern life, often results in the most novel and happy recognitions of still persistent customs, which throw a great charm over her narrative, in addition to those claims which her powers of description and insight into character would give to any thing to which she put her hand.

The Infant Class Manual. By Pamelia BELDING. 18mo. Pp. 344. 75 cents.

Miss Belding's Manual has been used with great success in some of our city Sunday schools, and her system of infant class instruction is the only one really adapted to infant minds.

The following testimony is corroborative of the fact, now generally admitted by our most intelligent and successful teachers, that the Eclectic Series of School-Books, embracing McGUFFEY'S NEW READERS and SPELLER, RAY'S ARITHMETICS, ALGEBRAS, and GEOMETRY, and PINNEO'S GRAMMARS, are among the best and most popular ever issued.

These books are more extensively introduced than any other Series published in America, and have successfully stood the severest tests of the school-room, winning the warmest approval of thousands upon thousands of our best educators.

From BISHOP D. W. CLARK, D.D., late Editor of the Ladies' Repository, and of Books at the Western Book Concern.

I have had frequent occasion, during the past few years, to examine and re-examine the ECLECTIC EDUCATIONAL SERIES OF SCHOOL-BOOKS. Taken as a whole, it is unquestionably the best Series issued by any house in America.

Prof. Ray was a mathematician of high order. His practical good sense, and his large and successful experience as an educator, as well as his enthusiastic devotion to the science of mathematics, eminently fitted him for the production of text-books in this department; and his Arithmetics and Algebras form a regular and complete series, beginning with the elements, and ascending to the higher principles of the science. I regard this as the best mathematical series extant.

McGUFFEY'S NEW SERIES OF READERS, ascending from easy lessons in spelling and reading to the highest forms of rhetorical delivery, making seven successive gradations in the art of reading and delivery, must satisfy every reasonable demand in this department. In the range of the series, in the care of selection and adaptation, in the explanations and illustrations, as well as in the high moral and religious sentiment pervading the work, we have evidence of the fidelity and ability of the author.

In DR. PINNEO'S PRIMARY and ANALYTICAL GRAMMARS there is remarkable simplicity of arrangement and clearness of definition. The Primary is admirably adapted to the beginner. It will enable him to understand the science. Analytical, designed for more advanced students, is unsurpassed in its ce adaptation to its design. The popularity enjoyed by these works rests substantial basis of merit. D. W.

First Day—Wednesday, August 29, 1866.

THE CINCINNATI ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the Methodist Episcopal Church began its fifteenth annual session in Ripley, Ohio, this morning, at 9 o'clock; Bishop Edward Thomson presiding. In opening the session, the Bishop read the 14th chapter of the Gospel according to St. John, and the 707th Hymn, in the singing of which the Conference joined; and the Bishop led the devotions of the Conference in prayer. The Bishop then addressed the Conference, quoting from the Discipline with regard to our deportment at Conference, commenting thereon in a deeply impressive manner.

The Secretary of the last Conference called the roll, and one hundred members answered to their names.

William H. Sutherland was elected Secretary; G. H. Dart, D. J. Starr, and George Parrott, Assistant Secretaries; and J. F. Marlay and J. J. Thompson, Reporters for the Conference.

L. F. Van Cleve asked that a committee be appointed by the Chair to determine the relation of T. D. Crow to the Conference, and the reason why his name has been left off the Conference roll.

It was determined to meet at 8, A. M., and adjourn at 12, M.

The usual Standing Committees were appointed. (See page 23.)

On motion of A. Lowrey, it was resolved that the Committee on the Bethel Cause be instructed to inquire into the nature of the organization; its fruits; its relation to our Church; the amount of controlling influence, and the proportion of funds contributed to it by our Church.

The Bishop announced the transfer of W. S. Studley to the Cincinnati Conference by Bishop Simpson, and brother Studley was introduced to the Conference.

The Permanent Centenary Committee of last year was continued, with request to report to-morrow morning what measures are necessary to secure the success of the Centenary enterprise.

On motion, J. F. Larkin was appointed on said Committee, vice C. H. Wolff.

H. M. Keck was appointed reporter for the Ripley daily paper.

J. F. Conrey submitted the report of the Committee in the case of J. J. Hill.

On motion of T. Lee, a committee was ordered for the trial of J. J. Hill, and the Chair was requested to appoint said committee.

On motion of G. Moody, a Committee on Itinerancy was appointed, and instructed to consider, in their report, the subject of special transfers.

On motion, the middle gas posts were made the bar of the Conference.

Communications from the Book Concerns were referred, without reading, to the Committee on Periodicals; and the New York accounts were referred to the proper committee.

A paper from the Central Centenary Committee was read, and referred to the Centenary Committee.

A report from the Garrett Biblical Institute was referred, without reading, to the Educational Committee.

A report from the New York Book Committee was referred, in like manner, to the Committee on Periodicals.

A paper from the Mission Rooms was referred to a committee of three, consisting of brothers Marlay, Lawder, and Wright.

The report of the Sunday School Union was presented and referred.

Letters from J. W. Keely and W. J. Thurber were presented, and referred to the Stewards. One from E. H. Field was referred to his presiding elder.

A communication from B. Frankland in reference to the Bethel cause was properly referred.

A letter from John Seys was referred to his presiding elder.

On motion, W. N. Williams was elected Conference postmaster.

The Bishop announced the following as the Committee in the case of J. J. Hill: William Young, Chairman; W. Fitzgerald, J. Armstrong, A. B. Wombaugh, J. T. Bail, E. F. Hill, J. F. Wright, J. W. Cassatt, and J. J. Thompson. G. Parrott was designated as Secretary of the Committee.

After the publication of notices, the Conference was adjourned, with the benediction by A. Lowrey.

Second Day—Thursday, August 30th.

The opening religious services were conducted by Rev. Wm. Simmons. The roll was called, and the brethren present answered to their names.

The Journal of yesterday was read, amended, and approved.

Revs. Van Cleve, Lowrey, and Rust were announced by the Chair as the Committee on the case of T. D. Crow.

The Secretary having asked instructions in regard to the preparation of Minutes for the Conference, was directed to record only the final action of the Conference in each case.

On motion, N. C. Parrish was substituted for W. N. Williams on Sunday School Statistics.

The Second Question was taken up: "Who remain on trial?"

The characters of A. S. Lakin, Erwin House, Bernard Kelley, S. W. Carey, J. Pearson, Jas. Murray, A. Bowers, and N. C. Parrish were approved, and they were continued on trial.

The Fourth Question was taken up: "Who are the Deacons?"

The characters of M. A. Bryson, W. W. Ramsay, A. M. Griffith, Lucien Clark, J. S. Pumphrey, William Runyan, H. C. Middleton, C. M. Giffin, R. K. Deem, and W. T. M'Mullen were examined and approved.

G. W. Fee asked, and was granted, a supernumerary relation without appointment.

Letters were read from L. D. M'Cabe and John Seys, the one from the latter having reference to his work in the South, which was represented as highly prosperous.

T. J. Harris was substituted for F. Hypes on the Board of Stewards.

A communication from sister G. W. Harris, through M. Marlay, was received, relinquishing her claim on Conference funds.

J. F. Conrey requested to be released as Treasurer of the Church Extension Society, and W. L. Hypes was appointed in his stead.

A. Meharry presented the Report of the Centenary Committee, which was considered seriatim.

Article 4th of said report was laid upon the table.

A. Lowrey made a motion to reconsider the action, which motion was lost.

Article 6th of said report was laid upon the table, and by a substitute was made to read that the Centenary Agent be paid out of the undesignated funds.

Article 7th was amended by inserting the words "or the receipts therefor," immediately after the word "moneys," in the 7th item.

Article 8th was so altered by a substitute offered by L. F. Van Cleve as to read, "If any wish to make any large Centenary offerings, and desire time for payment thereof, that it be granted."

A resolution presented by brother Simmons was made the order of the day, to-morrow at 10 o'clock, reading as follows:

Resolved, That the members of this Conference be requested, whenever there is a willingness on the part of the members of our Church, to record their names in the Centennial Record, for preservation.

Brother J. M. Walden offered a resolution, which was laid on the table, to be considered in connection with the report at the same hour, as follows:

Resolved, That each preacher in reporting the Centenary collections of his charge to the General Treasury, shall report the amount donated to each general and local object.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONFERENCE.

Enlargement of Districts.

Resolved, That the presiding elders of this Conference be, and are hereby requested to submit the question of enlarging the districts to the fourth quarterly conferences of the several charges, and report their action at the ensuing session of this body.

Sale of Manchester Church Property.

Resolved, That the Cincinnati Conference hereby consents to the sale and conveyance of the property known as the old Methodist Episcopal Church in Manchester, Ohio, provided the proceeds of such sale shall be appropriated according to the provisions of the Discipline in such cases.

Sunday School Cause.

Resolved, That during the year the Permanent Sunday School Committee shall encourage the holding of district conventions, and promote the interest in Sunday schools by all other means it may deem practicable and expedient, and shall be the Standing Committee on Sunday Schools at the next session of our Conference, at which time it shall submit a report.

Transfer of Rev. W. S. Studley.

Whereas, the Rev. W. S. Studley has been lately transferred to the Cincinnati Annual Conference; therefore,

Resolved, That we, as a Conference, heartily welcome him as a brother minister and fellow-laborer among us.

THOMAS LEE,
J. M. WALDEN,
M. J. CRAMER.

Cincinnati Conference Annual Minutes.

Resolved, That at least fifteen copies, and more if ordered, of our Annual Minutes be taken this year by each preacher of the Conference, and that they be left at the Book-Room, at Cincinnati, subject to the order of the preachers.

WM. H. SUTHERLAND,
GEORGE PARROTT,
GEORGE H. DART.

Thanks to the Citizens of Ripley.

Resolved, That for the cordial reception given by the citizens of Ripley to the members of the Conference and visitors, and their generous and hospitable entertainment, they richly merit our grateful acknowledgments, and we tender these by a rising vote. J. M. WALDEN, WM. YOUNG.

Dr. Lowrey's Centenary Sermon.

Resolved, That Dr. Lowrey be requested to repeat as frequently as practicable, between now and the close of our Centenary collections, his admirable sermon on the Centenary of Methodism, and that he publish it at his own convenience. JAMES F. CHALFANT, J. W. WEAKLEY.

Transfer of Rev. George Parrott.

Whereas, our beloved brother, Rev. George Parrott, has deemed it his duty to take a transfer from the Cincinnati Annual Conference; therefore,

Resolved, That our best wishes and prayers shall attend our brother for his increasing usefulness and success in his new field of labor, and should he, at any future time, desire to return to this Conference, we will cheerfully and cordially welcome him among us.

J. M. WALDEN, JAMES F. CHALFANT.

Directions to Conference Stewards.

Resolved, That the Stewards of the Conference be directed to observe the following order in the transaction of their business:

1. That after obtaining all the information practicable for an equitable distribution of the funds, they shall proceed to make the estimate, and report the same to the Conference at as early a day as possible.
2. That on the first reading of the report aforesaid, no objection shall be made by any member of the Conference.
3. That the report shall remain in the hands of the Committee, who shall appoint another meeting, of which they shall give public notice in Conference, and any brother who objects to any portion of said report shall appear before the Committee to state his objections.
4. After hearing objections, and conforming the report to any new facts or information that may be elicited, the Committee shall make their final report, which shall be presented for final adoption or recommitment.
5. That the Stewards report to the Conference the amount of salary allowed, amount received, and house rent, from each charge.
6. That the Stewards be, and hereby are, instructed to make their estimates for Conference claimants strictly conform to the section in the Discipline on support of superannuated preachers, which contemplates the amount necessary to assist such claimant to a comfortable support.

Conference Stewards' Resolutions.

Whereas, God has said "the laborer is worthy of his hire;" and, whereas, our fathers in the ministry gave their all to the Church, too often to the neglect of personal pecuniary interest, trusting to the honor of the Church the welfare of themselves and their families, expecting nothing more than a bare support, and yet depending upon the good faith of the Church to perpetuate such support in the dark hours of age and feebleness in themselves, and the darker hours of the widowhood and orphanage of their wives and children; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we recognize their claims as righteous.

2. Resolved, That a sum equivalent to twelve per cent. of the salaries paid shall be the amount expected from each charge.

3. Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to present this claim to our people as early in the year as practicable, giving it that prominence its merits demand.

4. Resolved, That in the passage of character, each pastor shall be requested to report the amount of his collection, and in case of failure to meet the reasonable expectations of the Conference, shall be expected to give satisfactory reasons for such failure.

5. Resolved, That any pastor who may neglect to present this claim to his charge or shall lightly excuse therefrom, will thereby expose himself to just censure.

JAMES T. BAIL.
S. WEEKS, Sec'y.

J. J. Hill's Case.

Resolved, That in the matter of brother Hill, brother Dustin is appointed to take the deposition of persons whose testimony may be desired residing in the bounds of the Hillsboro district, and that the minister stationed at Middletown be appointed to attend to the same duty in the bounds of his work.

Decease of Rev. Levi White.

Whereas, God in his providence has suddenly called away our lamented and esteemed brother, Levi White, who has so faithfully served in the ministry for forty-four years, and who, in addition to his natural amiability, has blessed the Church with an unblemished character and rich Christian experience; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we highly appreciate his long-continued services and the benefit of his Christian life.

2. Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his much-bereaved wife and children, and commend them to God as the unfailing source of Christian comfort.

3. Resolved, That these testimonials of his ministerial and Christian character be published in the Western Christian Advocate, and a copy be forwarded to the family.

Action on the Death of Rev. Dr. Marlay.

Whereas, it has pleased the Chief Shepherd and Bishop of Souls to remove from among us suddenly, during the present session of this Conference, our dear fellow-laborer, Rev. Michael Marlay, D. D.; and, whereas, the distinguished talents, eminent Christian virtues, and the administrative abilities and ministerial services of the deceased, which have extended over a period of thirty-five years in the Ohio and Cincinnati Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, entitle the departed to the highest commendations of this body; and, whereas, the Christian and ministerial life of Dr. Marlay has been eminently distinguished by uniformity, consistency, and efficiency, so his death was marked with tranquillity, and his triumphant soul, among his last utterances, exclaimed, "I know whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed to him against that day. Yea, I have fought," etc.;

1. Resolved, That we devoutly recognize the hand of our Heavenly Father in the great loss which we have sustained.

2. Resolved, That we cherish in fond remembrance the remarkable symmetry of his character, the magnanimity of his spirit, the evangelical nature of his teachings, the bright example of his life, and the crowning glory of his departure.

3. Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the family of the deceased, praying that our Heavenly Father may sustain and comfort them in their bereavement.

4. Resolved, That we request that this tribute to departed worth may be published in all our Church papers.

14. The members of the Conference shall assemble in the Conference-room punctually at the hour to which the Conference adjourned, and no member shall absent himself from the place of Conference session, without leave of absence.

15. In all practicable cases, when charges are preferred against a member of Conference, notice shall be given to the President on the first day of the session, that, if it be judged proper, his name may be called, and the case referred to a committee.

PART II.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

RIPLEY, OHIO, SEPTEMBER 6, 1866.

I HEREBY certify that the following Reports were adopted by the Cincinnati Annual Conference at its session in 1866.

WILLIAM H. SUTHERLAND,
Secretary of Cincinnati Annual Conference.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

AFTER having heard the statements of Boards of Trustees and Committees of Visitation to the different institutions of learning under the patronage of this Conference, your Committee beg leave to present a report, as follows:

Ohio Wesleyan University.

This institution has grown into public favor so greatly, as shown by its very large number of students, that there is a pressing necessity for increased facilities, especially in regard to a suitable chapel and recitation-rooms. It is ardently hoped, and confidently expected, that the liberal thank-offerings of our people the present great Centenary of American Methodism, will fully supply and provide for this and all other similar demands of this noble enterprise.

Its financial exhibit does not vary in any material degree from last year's statement.

The best commendation for the eminent and deservedly popular Faculty of Ohio Wesleyan University, is found in the scholarship and usefulness of its numerous graduates given to the demands of the various walks of life from year to year.

We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to reappoint Rev. L. D. M'Cabe, D. D., as Professor of Philosophy in said University.

2. Resolved, That Revs. J. W. Weakley, D. D., and R. S. Rust, D. D., be appointed a Visiting and Examining Committee to the University.

3. Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed on the part of this Conference, to unite with similar committees which are to be appointed on the part of other Conferences patronizing the Ohio Wesleyan University, to secure an amendment to the charter of the University, at the next session of the Ohio Legislature, embracing the following features: 1. That the Board of Trustees consist of twenty-one members, including the President of the University, who shall be an ex-officio member of the Board. 2. That the Trustees be divided into four classes of five each, of which one class shall be assigned to each Conference now patronizing the University, with power to fill all vacancies occurring therein. 3. That each class be so arranged that one of the number go out of office each year, who shall, nevertheless, be eligible to re-election; and each Conference shall fill the vacancies occurring in the class assigned to it in the division. 4. That if the number of the Conferences patronizing the University be increased, the Board of Trustees shall be so enlarged as to give each additional Conference the right to appoint and perpetuate an equal representation in the Board, in the manner described above.

4. Resolved, That Revs. J. W. Weakley, L. F. Van Cleve, and A. B. Wombaugh be appointed a committee to act jointly with committees on the behalf of the other patronizing Conferences, for the purpose of procuring certain changes in the charter of the Ohio Wesleyan University as herein recommended.

Wesleyan Female College.

We submit the following resolution for your adoption:

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. A. Meharry Financial Agent for the Wesleyan Female College of Cincinnati.

Hillsboro Female College.

Under the skillful management of Rev. David Copeland, A. M., this institution is in a prosperous condition, so far as its literary reputation and interests are involved.

With regard to its financial condition, and the relation of this Conference thereto, the Committee appointed to visit Hillsboro Female College, by this Conference, at its last annual meeting, report that they did so, and found the financial condition of the institution embarrassed, but, after considerable effort, effected the release of a large amount of said debt upon it, on the condition that this Conference provide for, and pay the balance of the $5,000, which it pledged itself to do at its meeting in 1861. This your Commissioners accepted, and renewed the pledge of this Conference, by promising to pay said sum some time in October, 1866. In order to provide for the foregoing action, we offer for adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That this Conference appoint a Commission to go to Hillsboro and ascertain the exact amount, including interest, which, as a Conference, we are thus bound to pay, and that Revs. M. Dustin, A. Meharry, L. F. Van Cleve, and T. Collett constitute said Commission.

2. Resolved, That when the amount is so ascertained, the Commission is hereby instructed to apply to the Centenary Committee of this Conference to pay said amount out of the unspecified funds in their control to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Hillsboro Female College.

3. Resolved, That this Conference recommend the preachers to make a special application to our people for the benefit of this College, during the balance of the Centennial year.

4. Resolved, That the presiding elder of Hillsboro district, and the preachers in charge of Hillsboro and Greenfield stations, be appointed a Visiting Committee to said College.

5. Resolved, That we request the transfer of Rev. David Copeland to this Conference from Genesee Conference.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

Having unabated confidence in the character, importance, and efficiency of the Garrett Biblical Institute, at Evanston, Illinois, we recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we continue earnestly to advise our young men, who believe themselves called of God to preach the Gospel, to avail themselves to the fullest extent in their power of the benefits offered them in this Institute.

2. Resolved, That Revs. A. Brown and W. X. Ninde be appointed a Visiting Committee to Garrett Biblical Institute.

Linden Hill Academy.

For our Report with regard to the Linden Hill Academy we present the following from the Board of Trustees for that institution:

"A called meeting of the Board of Trustees of Linden Hill Academy was held in the basement of the Methodist Episcopal church, in New Carlisle, Clark county, Ohio, July 10, 1866. Present, I. Meranda, J. Johnston, C. Maguire, J. C. Wallace, and John Garver. The President stated the object of the meeting, which was to take into consideration the propriety of asking the Cincinnati Annual Conference to authorize the Trustees to sell said Linden Hill Academy.

"On motion, it was resolved:

"1. That the Trustees of Linden Hill Academy respectfully ask the Cincinnati Annual Conference to authorize them to sell the property of said Linden Hill Academy; and if the property be sold to the New Carlisle school-district, to be used for educational purposes, under the Akron School Law, that they—the Trustees—be instructed to refund to each of the original contributors, without interest, the amount he paid for the purchase of said property of Rev. Thomas Harrison.

"2. That the Conference instruct the Board of Trustees to apply a sum of money, accruing from such sale, not exceeding four hundred dollars, to liquidate the debts of said T. Harrison, contracted in the erection of said Academy.

"3. And that the Conference instruct said Board of Trustees to transfer the balance of the money arising from such sale to the Trustees of Xenia Female College, on condition that the Trustees of said Xenia Female College issue to the Trustees of said Academy a certificate of stock equal to the amount thus transferred.

"ISAAC MERANDA,
"President of the Board of Trustees.

"JOHN JOHNSTON, Secretary."

We offer for adoption the following resolution:

Resolved, That Revs. William Herr, William Young, and J. F. Conrey be appointed a Commission on behalf of this Conference, with full powers in the premises, to consent to and ratify the sale and transfer of said Linden Hill Academy and proceeds, if they should deem the foregoing request reasonable, and to the interest of all concerned.

Springfield Female College.

Your Committee are glad to report this old and favorite College in a flourishing condition in every regard. Its accommodations as to buildings are greatly too small; it was crowded to overflowing last year. We feel that we have a right to expect the wealth which abounds within its patronizing territory to provide at once for an enlargement of its present beautiful building.

We offer for adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we request the Bishop to reappoint Rev. J. H. Herron, A. M., to the Presidency of Springfield Female College.

2. Resolved, That the preachers stationed at the city of Springfield, Mechanicsburg, Urbana, and Piqua be appointed a Visiting Committee to said College.

Xenia Female College.

This popular institution is in full tide of success, with a good prospect of greatly increasing its usefulness and power. President William Smith, A. M., is every way worthy of the trust reposed in him.

We offer for your adoption the following resolution:

Resolved, That the ministers stationed in Xenia, together with the presiding elder of that district, and the ministers stationed at Dayton, be appointed a Visiting Committee to said College.

Jonesboro Female College, at Jonesboro, Tenn.

In reply to an appeal in behalf of said College, your Committee feel compelled to say, that, in view of the many and pressing demands upon our people at this time in favor of the colleges in our midst, and looking to us for help, we can not now recommend any special effort in favor of this, or kindred appeals; yet we most cheerfully commend this call for help to the favorable notice of our Churches and people.

DAVID REED, Chairman.

A. B. WOMBAUGH, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

THE Committee on the State of the Country beg leave respectfully to present the following report:

1. We rejoice, and feel profoundly grateful to Almighty God, that a general peace prevails throughout our beloved land. The vast army that so recently marched victoriously through a large portion of our country, crushing a most unjust and wicked rebellion, defending our free institutions, and vindicating the honor and supremacy of our General Government, has been disbanded, and most of its members have returned to their respective homes, engaging in the pursuits of peaceful life. These gallant men have our sincere thanks for their noble services; while the memory of our fallen heroes will ever be gratefully cherished by us, and their bereaved friends have our sympathies, prayers, and support.

2. We rejoice also that our country is on friendly and peaceable terms with foreign nations; and we pray to God that these friendly relations may still continue.

3. We rejoice and give thanks to God that, although our harvests this year have not been quite as abundant as in former years, yet he has still prospered us in our agricultural and other material resources, so as not only fully to satisfy all the wants of our own nation, but also to supply the foreign markets.

4. We rejoice evermore and feel profoundly grateful to Almighty God, that the iniquitous system of negro slavery—that prolific cause of crimes innumerable; of misery and woe the most poignant; of alienation and strife the most bitter; and of the most mischievous and heretical doctrines of State sovereignty and secession—has been forever abolished. But at the same time we can not but deprecate the systematic course of oppression practiced upon the freedmen by a large majority of the Southern people. And while these freedmen, many of whom have nobly fought under our glorious banner for the maintenance of the Union, are as yet to a great extent in a helpless and dependent condition, we can not but feel it our duty to watch with a friendly jealousy over their rights and interests, and extend to them all the facilities for self-improvement and elevation, and thus qualifying them for the discharge of the duties of citizenship.

5. Glorious as are the results achieved by the superior skill and bravery of our armies, your Committee is profoundly impressed with the truth of the sentiment that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." The momentous question of reconstruction is beset on every side with great difficulties, through which God alone can safely lead us. And we rejoice in the fact that there has been a profounder recognition of the Divine Providence in the affairs of our nation, during the last four or five years, than ever before. Nevertheless, we believe that our dearest interests are again imperiled by crafty and wicked men, who have self-interest rather than the good of the country at heart. Hence the necessity of sleepless vigilance and earnest prayer on our part, and on the part of the whole nation.

6. We highly deprecate the lawless violence of mobs in our country, committing many of our citizens to that worst of all tyrants—a usurping crowd of unprincipled men. Nor do we less deprecate any semi-official sanction that may be given to these mobs.

7. We highly deprecate the corrupting influence of the Government patronage bestowed for political purposes, and despair of its cure till that power is either limited or exercised "by and with the advice and consent of the Senate" of the United States.

8. We deprecate the practice of elevating to positions of honor and offices of trust, men whose moral character will not bear scrutiny, who possess neither private virtue nor political soundness, and who, by their notorious vices, are a burning disgrace to our country and to humanity.

9. We rejoice with pardonable pride at the decided and noble attitude our Church has assumed toward the great questions of to-day. During the darkest hours of the late war she has given to the Government a hearty and unequivocal support, both as to her sympathies and prayers, and as to her material resources. She has made for herself a record that will reflect credit and honor upon herself in generations to come. And even now, while the momentous question of reconstruction is upon us, she dares to advocate the doctrine that none but men of thorough loyalty and tried patriotism should hold the reins of our Government and receive its patronage.

In view of what has been said, your Committee would offer the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we have a stronger faith than ever in that God whom we are taught in the Bible to regard as "King of kings, and Lord of lords," and as the Governor of the nations.

2. Resolved, That we have increasing confidence, not only in the indestructible vitality, but also in the ultimate triumph of the right.

3. Resolved, That we have firm faith in the intelligence, public virtue, sagacity, and practical patriotism of the people of our land, who have at every hazard, and at the cost of vast treasures and of blood, vindicated our nationality against the enemies of our Government and our country.

4. Resolved, That we rejoice at all those measures adopted by our late National Legislature which tend to restore and maintain the integrity of the Union, and secure to all men their God-given rights.

5. Resolved, That it is the duty of Christian men to make their influence felt in our primary political meetings and at the polls, so as to secure the nomination and election of men of high moral character and of tried patriotism—men who "fear God and work righteousness."

6. Resolved, That it is our duty to guard with sleepless vigilance our great national interests, for which our heroic soldiers—both the living and the dead—have periled their all.

7. Resolved, That we remember with pride the unparalleled patriotism of our mothers, wives, sisters, and daughters, in organizing soldiers' aid societies throughout the loyal States, and contributing largely of their time, labor, and means, to relieve the wants and comfort the hearts of the soldiers in our camps and hospitals.

8. Resolved, That we will continue to pray for the President of the United States, and for all who are in authority, that they may fear God, and seek only his glory and the welfare, peace, and prosperity of our country.

REPORT ON FINANCE.

THE Committee on Finance, not being able to furnish any thing better, would recommend to the Conference for adoption the Report of last year, slightly amended, and would request its publication in the Western Christian Advocate, immediately after the adjournment of Conference. We, therefore, recommend the following plan:

1. It shall be the duty of the last quarterly conference of each year to fix the time and place of holding the financial meeting, to which the Estimating Committee shall present their estimate for the pastor's support, which meeting shall be composed of the preacher or preachers of the station or circuit, the stewards, leaders, and estimating committee. The meeting shall then distribute the amount to the several classes, according to numbers and financial ability.

2. The several charges within our bounds are earnestly advised, where funds are not raised by pew rents, to secure the preacher's salary by subscriptions from the membership and persons attending on our ministry.

3. We earnestly urge our officiaries to use such diligence that no arrearages shall be carried from one quarter to another, thereby burdening the close of the year with embarrassing deficiencies. As sons of Wesley we should do this, as every thing else, "at the time."

4. In the judgment of this Conference, the obligation to pay in full the preacher's salary is as binding on the congregations and the individual members thereof as the payment of promissory notes in bank, and should be met as promptly.

5. The presiding elders shall present this plan at their first quarterly conferences, and shall cause it to be read to the congregation of the first quarterly meetings; and on circuits the stewards shall cause them to be read as soon thereafter as possible.

6. The Estimating Committee shall consult with the preacher as to the amount necessary for his support, and the presiding elder shall inquire, at the first quarterly conference, before putting the estimate of the Committee on its passage, if such consultation has been had.

7. We earnestly recommend to ministers and members the taking up, at least some, of the Conference collections early in the year, and not to embarrass, needlessly, the charges by pressing all these collections at or near the close of the year.

REPORT ON ITINERANCY.

WHEREAS, our Bishops in their address to the General Conference in 1860, on the subject of special transfers affirm, that, "in stationing the preachers, we have been embarrassed in a few Conferences, where there are large cities, by a practice which has obtained to a limited extent, of Churches and preachers negotiating their appointments, both in and out of their Conferences, and doing this without any consultation with the appointing authorities, and without due regard to the state of their own Conferences, or to what may be the disadvantages of other Conferences, or Churches, or ministers.

"These negotiations are, in some instances, several months in advance. In those denominations where this practice is the authorized method of establishing pastoral relations, it is consistent; but in a Church whose ministry is itinerant, and whose economy provides a rule and authority by which pastoral interchanges are to be effected, we ask whether it is magnanimous or proper, either in Church or minister, to engage in such negotiations and prearrangements.

"If this practice is to prevail, we shall have all the disadvantages of a settled ministry without its advantages; the embarrassments of two systems and the full benefits of neither.

"No philosophic mind will pretend that the two systems can be blended. We must adhere to the one or adopt the other. We believe our ministers and people are ardently attached to the itinerancy, and that these local embarrassments will disappear as soon as their un-Methodistic character and unhappy consequences are perceived."

And, whereas, the General Conference of 1860, in their adoption of the Report on the Itinerancy, touching special transfers, declared by resolutions as follows:

"1. Resolved, That while we cheerfully accord to our excellent superintendents their constitutional right to supply the general work by transfers when necessary, we respectfully request that transfers may never be made solely at the personal solicitation of the preacher desiring to be transferred, nor yet to gratify the wishes of any one charge between whom and the proposed appointee negotiations may have been previously made.

"2. Resolved, That negotiations for special appointments in the pastoral work between individual ministers and societies, prior to the exercise of the regular appointing power in our Church, is contrary to our economy and injurious to our itinerant system.

"JOS. M. TRIMBLE, Chairman."

Therefore, Resolved, That we are as much as ever opposed to "special transfers," in view of the declarations in the address of our Bishops to the General Conference as to the disadvantages to Conferences, Churches, and ministers resulting therefrom.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

THE Committee on Temperance beg leave respectfully to report:

While it is a matter of devout thanksgiving to reflect that there has been a general awakening on the subject of temperance during the past year, largely owing to the labors of the pulpit and the Christian press, and while we "thank God and take courage," we greatly deplore the increase of intemperance as exhibited in the additions to the number of places for the sale of alcoholic drinks, the increased amounts of liquors kept in families professedly for remedial purposes, and the readiness with which physicians prescribe such stimulants in view of the great work to be accomplished; therefore,

1. Resolved, That with renewed diligence we will prosecute the struggle in favor of total abstinence; speaking, preaching, praying, as opportunity serves.

2. That we look upon the cultivation of the "wine plant" and the use as a beverage of its product as of very doubtful tendency, and both should be discouraged.

3. That the members of this Conference are hereby appointed delegates to the State Temperance Convention to be held in the city of Columbus, on the 20th day of November, 1866.

4. That the members of this Conference labor to secure the appointment of delegates in all localities of their work.

REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S AID.

YOUR Committee on "Freedmen's Aid" has had under consideration the duty of the Methodist Episcopal Church to aid in the relief and education of the freedmen, and the means for the prosecution of this twofold and very necessary work. Careful inquiries have been made in regard to the operations of the Freedmen's Aid Commissions which have received contributions from the Methodist Episcopal Church, and also in regard to the relation of the education of the freedmen to the missionary work of our Church in the South. The following facts have been ascertained; namely:

1. Every-where in the South the freedmen are eager to have schools among them for their children and for themselves; but coming forth from the house of their bondage in deep poverty, they are not able, as yet, to support the teachers they need and desire.

2. Among the freedmen is found the most inviting and promising field of missionary efforts; and every denomination in our country, imbued with the aggressive spirit of the Gospel, is turning with interest and hope toward them.

3. The efficiency of missions among the freedmen will be greatly increased by having schools connected with them; and several denominations have wisely adopted plans by which they are thus strengthening their missionary operations.

4. The Missionary and Church Extension Societies of the Methodist Episcopal Church, having before them specific work recognized by, and under direction of their Board of Managers, do not meet this special educational want of the freedmen.

5. The Freedmen's Aid Commissions, supported in large measure by contributions from the Methodist Episcopal Church, have, when applied to, declined to sustain teachers in connection with our missions.

6. A Freedmen's Aid Society has been organized to co-operate with the Missionary and Church Extension Societies of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

7. The membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, prompted by feelings of patriotism, a sense of gratitude, and convictions of duty, will contribute in behalf of the cause of education among the freedmen. These contributions, applied to schools in connection with our missions, would accomplish more for the freedmen than in any other way, and give to our Church an influence with that people that will greatly increase her usefulness among them.

In view of these facts, your Committee present the following resolutions for your consideration; namely:

1. Resolved, By the Cincinnati Annual Conference, that the time has come for the Methodist Episcopal Church to direct her contributions for the education of the freedmen so that they shall be applied to the support of schools in connection with her own mission work.

2. Resolved, That we hereby recognize and approve the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and pledge ourselves, to the utmost of our ability, to provide means for the furtherance of its objects, and to bring the cause for which it labors before our congregations, wherever practicable, during the Conference year.

3. Resolved, That a Conference Society, auxiliary to the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, be formed.

4. Resolved, That our delegates to the Board of Managers of the Parent Society shall be Rev. William Young and A. S. Butterfield.

W. S. STUDLEY, Chairman.

J. M. WALDEN, Secretary.

Ripley, September 1, 1866.

The Committee on Freedmen's Aid recommend that the Conference request the appointment of the following brethren, to work in the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church; namely: J. M. Walden, Corresponding Secretary; R. S. Rust, Field Superintendent; and J. R. Stillwell, Agent.

By order of the Committee. GEORGE PARROTT.

REPORT ON PARSONAGES.

YOUR Committee would respectfully report that within the bounds of the Cincinnati Annual Conference we have only sixty-four parsonages, leaving thirty-five circuits and stations destitute of even a place to shelter a minister and his family; and we furthermore report that of the above thirty-five parsonages nearly one-half are unfit residences for the families that are expected to occupy them. Hence, out of the whole number of charges in our Conference a large majority are left without a comfortable home for the preacher's family. Having these facts before us, your Committee would submit the following resolutions for your consideration:

1. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Conference that the preachers who shall be appointed to those circuits and stations that have no parsonages, should take immediate and energetic action to secure, by purchase or erection, suitable parsonages, and to supply them with heavy furniture.

2. Resolved, That we earnestly request and affectionately advise our people to co-operate with their ministers in this important enterprise.

3. Resolved, That the above direction be equally applicable to circuits and stations whose parsonages are not suitable residences.

4. Resolved, That we advise and kindly request the presiding elders of each district to introduce this subject and read this report, and urge its resolutions in his first quarterly conference where he may deem it necessary, and, if possible, secure the co-operation of its members.

REPORT ON MEMOIRS.

REV. WM. E. SPAHR.

REV. WM. E. SPAHR was born in Green county, Ohio, August 1, 1843. From early childhood he was accustomed to retire for secret prayer. His parents were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and he had the advantages of their Christian training. He was a regular attendant upon the Sabbath school, and had especially one faithful teacher to whom he often referred with great pleasure. At fourteen years of age he united with the Church, and about four years afterward was happily converted to God while at secret prayer. He was a man of deep piety, and seemed never to have lost the simplicity of childhood; for in the world he was as unsuspecting as a child. There was manifest the innocence of childhood in all his life and labors. His life was truly exemplary, and all could take knowledge of him that he had been with Jesus. He soon became impressed that it was his duty to preach, and the Church recognizing in him ability for usefulness, licensed him to preach in 1861. In 1861 and '62 he was employed on Bloomingsburg circuit, and in 1862 and '63 on Stanton circuit, Ohio Conference. In the Autumn of 1863 he was admitted on trial in the Cincinnati Conference, and appointed to Lewisburg circuit, where he labored successfully in winning souls to Christ, and was highly esteemed. In 1864 he was appointed to New Carlisle circuit. This was to him a year of great feebleness and suffering. Disease had marked him for an early prize; but during his suffering he enjoyed much of the grace of God in his soul. During the Winter at one of his meetings God gave him a powerful blessing, and he became very happy. God was thus preparing him for a better world. He remained on the circuit most of the year, and labored beyond his strength, was very much loved, and his name is still embalmed in the memory of that people.

He loved the work of the ministry, and clung to it. He desired to live to preach Jesus and save souls. At the Conference session of 1865 he passed a creditable examination with his class, was admitted into full connection, and ordained deacon. While taking the ordination vows his strength seemed to fail him, and he was compelled to sit down, which, as he afterward said, was not owing so much to physical weakness as to an overwhelming sense of the responsibility he was assuming. Fatal consumption had seized him, and from this Conference he went home to his parents to be nursed and to die. He failed rapidly, suffered patiently, was often very happy. On the 30th of November he sweetly fell asleep in Jesus, saying to his father, after he had entered into the valley, "If this is dying, 'tis sweet to die."

He was humble, modest, teachable, and kind, loving and loved. With talents far above mediocrity, and full of zeal, he wielded a power over an audience seldom witnessed. He was often flattered, but never vain. He promised much to the Church, but "nipped by the wind's untimely blast," he has faded away from earth to bloom in heaven.

J. S. PUMPHREY.

REV. DAVID WHITCOMB.

UNFORTUNATELY the memoir of this distinguished minister has not come to hand in time for the press. We will only state that he died of paralysis, on his farm near Rushville, Indiana, May 17, 1866, after an illness of only four hours. A full memoir will appear in the Western Christian Advocate, and in the Minutes for next year.

REV. LEVI WHITE.

LEVI WHITE was born in Hamilton county, Ohio, May 21, 1798. Like most of the great and good men of our race, he had a noble mother, who, in the providence of God, blest the world with eleven children—eight sons and three daughters. Through the instrumentality of our pioneer ministers, at an early period Methodism was introduced into the vicinity of where the town of Carthage now stands, and attracted the attention of Mr. White's family, and soon the excellent wife and mother and one daughter became members. In 1815 Levi, then in his seventeenth year, and some of his brothers, experienced religion and united with the Church. It was not long before the father and all the children who had come to years made choice of the same religion and the same Church, and their house became a preaching-place in the old Miami circuit. Levi, warm in his first love, received a clear conviction that it was his duty to warn sinners of their danger, and urge them to repent and come to Christ for salvation. The Church recognized his gifts as well as his grace, and encouraged him to exercise those gifts in exhortation. He was licensed as an exhorter by Alexander Cummins, one of the early pioneers, of precious memory. For several years he was an efficient and successful exhorter in the Church, and then received authority to preach. Having consecrated himself to God, he determined to devote his time and talents wholly to the work of the ministry. In the Fall of 1822 he was recommended by his district conference to the Ohio Conference, as a suitable person to be admitted into the traveling ministry of the Church. He was cordially received, and appointed to Oxford circuit; 1823–24 to Whitewater, Ind.; 1824–25, Bellefontaine; 1825–26, Mad River; 1826–27, White Oak; here he labored two years; in 1828–29, Milford; 1829–30, Mad River; 1830–31, Piqua; 1831-32, returned to Piqua; 1832–33, Lebanon; 1833–34, continued on Lebanon; 1834–35, Lancaster; 1835–36, continued; 1836–37, Xenia station; 1837–38, Piqua; 1838–39, New Richmond; 1839–40, returned to New Richmond; 1840–41, West Chester; 1841–42, Miami; 1842–43, North Bend; 1843–44, North Bend; 1844–45, Milford; 1845–46, reappointed to Milford; 1846–47, Madisonville; 1847–48, Franklin; 1848–49, continued on Franklin; 1850–51, at Eaton two years; 1852–53, two years on Camden; 1853–55, two years on Union; 1855–56, Jamestown; in 1857–58, two years on Miami; 1858–59 and 1859–60, Port Union; 1860–61, North Bend; and 1862–63 and 1863–64, Madisonville; in 1864–65 and 1865–66, Miami; and with the end of this Conference year he closed his mortal life and labors. It will be observed he received forty-four annual appointments from the authorities of the Church, and cheerfully accepted them all, and applied himself with untiring zeal, energy, and industry to promote the cause of his Divine Master. His great and constant aim seems to have been to rescue undying souls from sin and death, and have them embraced in the bright rolls of salvation. He sustained an effective relation to the Conference throughout his whole career, never suspending his itinerant labors for a single year. He was always acceptable to the people among whom he labored, and, judging from his abundant fruit, we must say he was a good preacher. Brother White had many excellent and attractive qualities of heart, mind, and character. The children of his congregations loved him, and received him into their Sunday schools and home-circles with a hearty welcome. His sermons were plain, practical, and useful; and often delivered in the demonstration of the Spirit and with great power. As an exhorter he certainly excelled. His exhortations were usually pathetic, eloquent, and powerful. His earnest and forcible appeals to the irreligious of his congregations, urging them to escape the wrath to come and be reconciled to God, will be long remembered. Many can now testify with what skill and pathos he would invite penitent sinners to approach the altar of prayer, that the assembled multitude might pray for them. His method of urging penitent souls to come out from the world and join the Church, and follow the meek, lamb-like Lord, and imitate his life and spirit, was most effective. It would be an interesting item if I could give the number he received into the Church during the forty-four years. The light of eternity can alone disclose that multitude. After receiving them, he was a good pastor to build them up in the faith and hope of the Gospel. In the administration of discipline, the tendencies of his sweet nature always inclined him to be lenient, and if he erred at all it was sure to be on the side of mercy and according to the judgment of charity. We think what was said of Barnabas may be fitly applied to our brother White: "For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith; and much people was added unto the Lord." He loved his family with most intense affection, and, next to his home-circle, he loved the society of Methodist preachers.

He felt a great interest in our annual meetings, and seemed to have rich and indescribable pleasure in associating with his brethren. His full heart flowed out in ardent affection to the membership of his Church, and toward all who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity of every denomination. The death of brother White was unexpected to himself and his friends till it was near at hand. Ten days before it occurred he filled his appointments on the Sabbath, preaching twice.

He kept about till Saturday, the 18th of August. Having had a tooth extracted some days previous, which proved to be perfectly sound, the pain, however, continued, inflammation set in, and soon the presence of erysipelas was manifest, producing indescribable suffering. On Monday morning his colleague, brother Shannon, called to see him, to whom he said, "For twenty-four hours I have suffered more than at any period of my life, but I am now much relieved." It was evident he supposed the disease had passed the crisis, and that he would soon be up again. Neither of them thought there was any immediate danger in the case. The interest of the circuit was the subject of conversation, contemplating soon to leave for Conference. During the night he became much worse, and at 4 o'clock, A. M., it was supposed a paralysis of the brain took place, and he passed into an unconscious state, and so remained, something like one asleep, till 2 o'clock, P. M., August 21, 1866, when he expired.

Though he was unable to report to his family and colleague a victorious triumph over death, yet we are assured, from a long and useful life devoted to God and his cause, that all was well with him in the last struggle.

"Servant of God, well done,
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

REV. MICHAEL MARLAY, D. D.

MICHAEL MARLAY was born in Berkley county, Va., June 21, 1797. His father, John Marlay—a native of Ireland—was a fine scholar, and himself superintended the education of the older children of the family. When Michael was three years old his father was drowned, and the whole family was left to the care of a widowed mother. In consequence of this calamity, the educational advantages of the younger children were very limited.

When about twelve years old the subject of this memoir was converted, and for a time lived in the enjoyment of religion; but having been brought up in the faith and usages of the Roman Catholic Church, his surroundings were not favorable to a life of piety, and he soon lost the comforting assurance of pardon, and remained in a very unhappy state of mind for several years. In 1818 he emigrated to the West, and settled near Dayton, Ohio. The following year he was married to Miss E. Clymer. Two years later, he and his wife attended a camp meeting in their vicinity, at which he was reclaimed and she was converted. These great blessings were realized under a sermon preached by Rev. John P. Finley. This happy couple soon identified themselves with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. Marlay almost immediately received a clear conviction that it was his duty to preach the Gospel to a perishing world, and the Church, recognizing his gifts as well as his graces, soon conferred on him the office of class-leader, exhorter, and finally licensed him as a local preacher. In the mean time he became a very close and diligent student in theology, and made good proficiency.

In the Fall of 1831 he was recommended by the quarterly conference of Union circuit, as a suitable person to be received into the traveling connection; he was cordially received and appointed to Darby circuit. We find he has in all received thirty-five appointments from the authorities of the Church, having labored on circuits eight years, in stations five years, and as presiding elder on districts twenty-two years; making the whole of his itinerant labors precisely thirty-five years.

In all the fields of labor assigned him he was very acceptable and eminently useful. Very few men have occupied the position of presiding elder, during a ministry of thirty-five years, as long as he did. As an administrator of the government and discipline of the Church, he had few equals.

As a preacher Dr. Marlay was thoroughly Wesleyan in his doctrine, and didactic and argumentative in style. His sermons usually abounded with arguments, and generally such as were very clear, consistent, and potent; his conclusions were legitimately reached and well sustained. He almost utterly discarded every kind of theological embellishment in his sermons, directing his appeals to the thought rather than the feelings of his hearers. He has left few ministers among us who are more skilled in doctrinal discourse, or who are better prepared to "contend earnestly for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." His manner was conversational rather than declamatory; but there were times when, becoming warm and animated with his theme, his exhortations were powerful and eloquent.

Dr. Marlay was a vigorous and close thinker, and held a high rank among the great minds of his day. He was eminently a man of quick perception, sound judgment, and retentive memory. These strong powers of mind enabled him after nearly forty years of almost incessant study, to rank among the best and soundest theologians in the Church.

Dr. Marlay labored mostly within the bounds of what is now the Cincinnati Conference; but before the division of the Ohio Conference he was four years presiding elder of the Chillicothe district. These were years of wonderful prosperity to the Church within that district, and indeed throughout the whole country. Every quarterly meeting of that quadrennial period at every charge was attended with a gracious revival, and more than eight thousand persons were received into the Church. We are assured there are many ministers and members now in both Conferences to whom he was greatly endeared.

Having closed his third year on the Springfield district, he left for Ripley, the place of our annual session. On the way, he spent Monday night with his son and family in Cincinnati. About noon, on Tuesday, he, and many of his brethren, embarked on board the steamer for Conference, where we arrived that evening. Dr. Marlay was received as the guest of Mr. Nathan Credit and family, where he was hospitably provided for and generously accommodated. He appeared in good health, and entered upon his duties in the Conference and in the Bishop's counsel with his usual energy and cheerfulness. On Friday evening the symptoms of cholera were developed, and Dr. Winters was soon in attendance; yet the disease seemed to defy all efforts to arrest it. By Saturday morning he was much reduced. Other consulting physicians were called, but he continued gradually to sink. He had the sympathy and earnest prayers of the members of the Conference, and, indeed, we may say the whole community felt a deep interest in the case, and sympathized with this suffering man of God. Many of his brethren did every thing in their power for his relief and comfort. We acknowledge, with many thanks, the kindness of the attending physicians, who exerted all their medical skill to arrest the disease, and prolong the life of our much-loved brother.

After Bishop Thomson had prayed with him, on Saturday evening, a brother, taking him by the hand, said, "I hope you do not suffer much." He replied, "I suffer but little; but I am going down." His friend said, "How do you feel with reference to your prospect of so soon leaving us?" He answered, "It is right; it is all clear." Another said to him, "We reach a point where it may be said, Vain is the help of man." He nodded assent. When it was added, "But OUR GOD can help us in the greatest extremity," he replied, "I am in his hands." And when asked by another, "Can you now say, 'For I know in whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day,'" he repeated most emphatically, "Yes—yes!" And when he was sweetly passing away several of his brother preachers were kneeling around his bed, and one leading in prayer. Then Jesus came and received him to himself.

Though not permitted to expire in his own home circle, yet he was surrounded with those he loved next to his family—Methodist ministers.

Thus, at about nine o'clock, on Sabbath morning, September 2, 1866, our esteemed brother Marlay made his triumphant exit from earth to heaven, full of years and full of honors.

The reader is referred to the Ladies' Repository, June, 1866, for a more extended sketch, accompanied with an excellent likeness of Dr. Marlay.

ACTION ON THE DEATH OF REV. ROBERT WALLACE.

THE Cincinnati Conference, at its session held in Ripley, Ohio, having been informed, by telegram from the office of the Western Christian Advocate, of the sudden death of our beloved and honored brother, the Rev. Robert Wallace, of Ireland, immediately appointed a committee consisting of Revs. John F. Wright, Granville Moody, Arza Brown, James L. Grover, and Mighil Dustin, to express the sense of this body in relation to the unexpected and distressing event. This committee presented the following report:

Whereas, the Irish Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, at its last session in Dublin, June, 1866, appointed Rev. Robert Wallace, a distinguished member of their body, as a representative to the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America, "to take part in the services of our Centennial celebration," and promote the benevolent designs of the Methodist Episcopal Church respecting aid to the work of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Ireland; and, whereas, Divine Providence spared his valued life and preserved his health and permitted him to reach Ripley, Brown county, Ohio, the seat of the present session of the Cincinnati Conference; and, whereas, our beloved brother during his free and frequent intercourse with us, at our Christian homes, and in our Conference, by his genial spirit, suavity of manners, gentlemanly deportment, high order of intellect, and masterly address before the Conference in behalf of Ireland, produced a profound impression in favor of the messenger and his mission; and, whereas, we had promised ourselves great advantages from the appointment, appearance, and expected labors of this gifted and favorite son of the Irish Conference, in the great Centennial efforts of the Methodist Episcopal Church in America, during the present year; and, whereas, he left our Conference room at Meridian, on last Saturday, the 1st instant, and embarked on a river steamer for Cincinnati and arrived there at eight o'clock, P. M., and by a sudden and violent attack of cholera, was laid low in death on the noon of the ensuing Sabbath, at the hospitable residence of J. M. Phillips, Esq., of the Methodist Book Concern;

1. Resolved, That in the death of the Rev. Robert Wallace, representative of the Wesleyan Irish Conference, we recognize a mysterious Divine providence.

2. Resolved, That in the death of this distinguished minister, we are deeply impressed with the magnitude of the loss sustained by his family, his Conference, and the interests of Methodism in both hemispheres.

3. Resolved, That the Secretary of this Conference be instructed to forward duplicate copies of the action of this Conference, duly certified, one to the President of the Irish Conference and the other to the bereaved family of the deceased, with our condolence.

4. Resolved, That the foregoing testimonial of regard be published in all our Church papers.

ARZA BROWN,

REPORT ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

YOUR Committee present the following as their report:

1. They learn, through the circular of the Corresponding Secretary of the Parent Society, that there have been printed during the last year, including the Good News, over 37,000,000 pages of Tracts, and that the receipts into the treasury were $13,566.61, and that with these comparatively small means, they have donated tracts to 665 appointments in 54 Annual Conferences, and Good News to 314 Churches in 28 Conferences, besides having supplied our Pacific work with three-quarters of a million pages of tracts, and sent these leaves, which are for the healing of the nations, to all our missionary stations in foreign and heathen lands. The press is a power for spreading Scripture knowledge over these and other lands which we can not dispense with in evangelizing the world. They are an agency which speak while we are silent, and reveal our presence, though absent.

2. Your Committee would recommend to the favorable consideration of the preachers and tract committees within our bounds, the proposition of the Parent Society in purchasing the Loan and Gift Library, which is as follows: that when fifteen dollars' worth of tract publications are purchased from the General Catalogue, they will add or donate five dollars' worth more of books, the whole of which shall be a circulating or loan library for the use of the people, the details of which plan may be found in their General Report, page 13, and which has been published in the Western Christian Advocate.

3. So far as your Committee have ascertained, the collections of our Conference will fall short of what they were last year.

4. We have no means of knowing the amount of tract distribution, or of publications sold within our bounds, but presume they are far too small.

Our tracts are profitable for doctrine, reproof, and correction in righteousness, convenient in form, cheap in production, adapted to all states and conditions in life, and we believe these silent messengers of truth should be sent out on their errands of mercy, to aid the minister in spreading Scripture holiness over these lands. In conclusion, your Committee would recommend the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That as ministers of the Cincinnati Annual Conference, we will renew our efforts to obtain means to assist the Parent Society in extending their field of usefulness at home and abroad.

2. Resolved, That we will recommend to our several charges the purchase and circulation of our tract publications, and of a more systematic distribution of our tracts among the people.

REPORT ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

YOUR Committee on the Bible Cause, acknowledging with profound gratitude to Almighty God the great success which has attended the operations of the Bible Society during the past year, beg leave to present the following report:

Whereas, the American Bible Society, at its Jubilee meeting in May last, determined to inaugurate the second half century of the Society by a general exploration of the whole country, to ascertain and supply the Bible wants of all the people; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we cordially approve of the above measure, and shall use our best efforts to enlist the hearty co-operation of all the friends of the cause in the accomplishment of that grand benevolent undertaking.

2. Resolved, That while we contemplate with pleasure the efforts of the Society to supply the general destitutions of our own country and foreign lands, we especially rejoice in view of the agencies employed to supply the millions of freedmen with the Word of Life.

3. Resolved, That we shall always welcome the visits of the agents of the Society, and in the event of their failure to come, we will labor to advance the interests of the Bible cause by taking collections in our respective charges.

4. Resolved, That we recommend to the Bishop the reappointment of W. Herr as Agent of the American Bible Society in South-Western Ohio.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

Resolved, That we rejoice that the Church is more fully realizing the importance of the Sunday school in the religious training of the children and youth of our land, and that the energies of the Church are being more actively employed in making every appliance of the Sunday school efficient in interesting and instructing the children and youth under our care, in bringing them into the Church, and leading them to the Savior.

Resolved, That we heartily commend our Sunday school literature to our people in the purchase of Sunday school libraries, and urge the more extensive circulation of our model Sunday school papers, the Sunday School Advocate and Sunday School Journal.

Resolved, That we recommend the formation of District Sunday School Conferences auxiliary to the State Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for the purpose of diffusing intelligence among our people on the best method of conducting our schools, of securing intelligent and pious teachers, and of retaining our older scholars and enlisting our membership more fully in the Sunday school work.

REPORT OF CENTENARY COMMITTEE.

OUR Centenary work is as yet incomplete. A handsome sum for various objects has been pledged, and yet vastly more ought to be contributed. Many charges have done but little—some nothing.

That we may know precisely the financial results and redeem our deficiencies, we make the following recommendations:

1. That the roll be called, that each preacher in charge may report the amount obtained.
2. That Friday afternoon and night be devoted to Centenary services.
3. That the Centenary sermon appointed to be preached by A. Lowrey, be delivered at 2, P. M., on Friday, and that Bishop Thomson be requested to deliver a Centenary address at night; after which a contribution by the preachers and citizens to the Centenary cause be taken, the amounts contributed by the preachers to be credited to the charge where they have been or may be sent.
4. That religious services be continued through the month of October, and that collections be taken in all our congregations.
5. That the salary of the Agent and all other expenses be paid pro rata out of all the contributions.
6. That all the funds collected, specified or otherwise, be sent to the Treasurers of the Conference Centenary Committee.
7. That when any one wishes to make a large Centenary offering and desires time for payment, it shall be granted.
8. That the thanks of this Conference be given to A. Lowrey for his faithful labors as our Centenary Agent.
9. That each preacher in reporting the Centenary collections of his charge to the General Treasury, shall report the amounts donated to each general and local object.

Dear brethren, after two short months the world must know what estimate we place on Methodism by the character of our testimonials. Let us raise a monument, that the generations of the future may bless us.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PERIODICALS.

THE influence of the printing-press upon the public mind and heart is almost incalculable—every-where acknowledged and universally felt. Never was it a more important agency than at the present time, or its influence more felt.

If for the purposes of profit, or for the objects of ambition, which are mutable and evanescent, this mighty instrument is esteemed so valuable and employed so efficiently, shall not the Church consecrate it and develop its utmost capabilities to glorify God and secure to man glorious and immortal results?

It is a gratifying fact that the Methodist Episcopal Church has established and maintained, at so early a period in its history, so extensive a book and periodical literature and of so high religious character. Not the least important cause of this gratifying result is the fact that the enterprise is not that of a private individual, but connectional and for the benefit and in the interest of the whole Church. May not our publishing interest be so imbued with the progressive spirit of the Church, that the coming century may more than ten-fold increase in our books and periodicals in both circulation and intrinsic excellence? It is no time for us to neglect the worthy example given us by our fathers, in the circulation of our books and periodicals, nor should we be satisfied till our books and papers are placed in every Methodist family.

We would earnestly recommend to all our members the Ladies' Repository and the Western Christian Advocate, which are published within our Conference bounds, as furnishing religious and denominational news, with which every member of our Church should be acquainted, and as affording an elevated, chaste, and sanctified literature, adapted to the Christian household, and which will glorify God by leading the readers, silently but certainly, to the cross of Christ and the throne of grace.

If our books and papers have imperfections and do not fully satisfy the many and various wants of all, the same is and must be true of all human productions, but suggestive hints, kindly given to editors or publishers, will be kindly received, and doubtless be heeded, as far as practicable. Many complain on account of the increase of the subscription price of our periodicals; and while it is earnestly desired that the publishers may soon find it practicable to materially reduce it, we must not forget that the advance is not disproportionate to the increased price of other commodities, especially in the material used; nor are ours higher than those of other denominations, if as high, while the material and workmanship may safely challenge comparison from any quarter.

If practicable, we would rejoice to see the obituary notices of departed friends chronicled in fuller detail, that we may learn how saintly they lived, and how well they died. And we hope that the best talent in the Church will be employed to enrich our periodicals, and render them still more attractive and useful.

REPORT ON DANCING.

To the Honorable Bishop and Reverend Brethren of the Cincinnati Conference, now assembled in Ripley, greeting:

WE, the undersigned, would like to know the views of your honorable body in regard to the practice of dancing, which has become fashionable in some of our societies. If it tends to promote the honor and glory of God, we may as well employ a fiddler as a parson to instruct us.

G. W. FORMAN,

HARVEY PALMER,
J. P. CROZIER,
F. H. SMETSON,
M. T. HIGH,
F. M. GREEN,
J. H. ANDERSON.

Your Committee, to which the above communication on dancing was referred, respectfully report:

We are pleased to record that the membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, within the bounds of our Conference, are almost a unit in the opinion that dancing is an amusement not to be encouraged or participated in by Christians; but from the paper before us it is evident that the opinion of our Conference should be expressed upon the subject, and your Committee recommend that it be in the following resolutions; namely:

Resolved, That the Cincinnati Annual Conference regard dancing as one of the diversions which can not be used in the name of the Lord Jesus, and as such is interdicted by our General Rules.

Resolved, That we affectionately admonish the membership of our Church to abstain from all participation in this amusement, and earnestly entreat them to use all their social influence to discourage it.

It is the duty of every man, whether rich or poor, to insure his life while in health, for the benefit of those he loves, or of his estate.

HOME LIFE INSURANCE COMP'Y,

16 COURT-ST., Brooklyn, and 258 BROADWAY, cor. Warren-St., N. Y.

THE HOME was organized May 1, 1860, under the auspices of Stockholders and Directors selected from the very first class of the capitalists and business men of the cities of Brooklyn and New York; they determined to lay its foundation deep and strong, that with the blessing of Heaven it may stand for ages as the shield and protection of the Widow and the Orphan.

The HOME had, May 1, 1866, more than ONE MILLION DOLLARS most securely invested.

The HOME has 7,500 members, insured from $1,000 to $10,000, in most cases for the benefit of their families.

The HOME is a Mutual Company in the best sense of that term.

The HOME offers a permanent Loan to the assured of one-half of all the annual premiums, which Loan is not at any time subject to assessment, but is payable only by the annual dividends or deducted from the amount due under the Policy, and this privilege is not confined to parties whose annual premium exceeds $40 or $50, but is extended alike to all its members.

The HOME gives to its members the full value of all the assurance which they pay for, retaining nothing in its hands by way of forfeiture for non-payment of premiums.

The HOME treats all its members with fraternal kindness and liberality.

The HOME takes every kind of risk connected with the duration of Life, but can never transact any other kind of business than Life Insurance.

FOURTH ANNUAL DIVIDEND MAY 1, 1866, Forty Per Cent. Applied directly, which is more than equivalent to 50 per cent. applied several years hence.

The HOME refers to Rev. THOMAS CARLTON, D. D., and Bishops JANES, SIMPSON, and KINGSLEY, all of whom, and hundreds more of prominence in the Church, are insured in the HOME.

DR. B. K. WHITE'S

PULMONIC LOZENGES

WILL IMMEDIATELY RELIEVE

BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, COUGHS, COLDS, SORE THROAT, HOOPING-COUGH, HOARSENESS,

AND ALL OTHER COMPLAINTS OF THE THROAT OR LUNGS.

PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find in them an INVALUABLE ARTICLE.

THESE remarkable and justly-celebrated Lozenges have been in use for many years in private practice, and have achieved for themselves such a reputation for efficiency, that the many persons who have obtained relief through them, have insisted upon having them introduced to the public for the relief of those who may be suffering from diseases of the throat or lungs. The reputation of these Lozenges is based entirely upon real merit, and not upon a grand and extensive display, accompanied by fictitious certificates from parties who reside a great distance off, or who have never existed at all. They have been used with the most wonderful and astonishing effect by parties who are well known throughout the entire community, and who would not, under any circumstances, allow their names to be used for any thing which would screen deception. The following are a few of the many certificates. They will speak for themselves.

CERTIFICATES.

FROM REV. BISHOP KINGSLEY.—I have used B. K. White's Pulmonic Lozenges in my family, and experienced great relief in the use of them. I very cheerfully recommend them to the public.

FROM E. G. MEGRUE, (Chief Engineer Cincinnati Fire Department.)—This is the first time that I have given my name as a recommendation to any medicine, but I will cheerfully recommend your Pulmonic Lozenges to all who are afflicted with a cough, as they have cured me of a severe cough and pain in my lungs.

FROM REV. M. DUSTIN.—I was suffering from a very severe and stubborn cough. I was solicited to try White's Pulmonic Lozenges, and, contrary to my expectations, was immediately relieved. A few weeks after, I was very much exposed to bad weather, and received another severe cold, and I again used the Lozenges, and received immediate relief. I can most cordially recommend them to all who are affected with coughs and colds.

Prepared and sold by B. WHITE & CO., Cincinnati, O.

For sale by Druggists generally, and at the Methodist Book Concern.

PIERCEVILLE, RIPLEY COUNTY, IND., May 26, 1865.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO.:

GENTLEMEN—I feel it a duty to inform you of the benefit my wife has received from the use of your DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA. After having tried a number of physicians, who failed to do her any good, she took your Pain Panacea for a very severe Ulcerated Sore Throat and Swelling of the TONSILS, with which she had been afflicted for ten years, without finding relief till she took DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA, which has entirely cured her, and she is now well. I consider this one of the best medicines known, and would not be without it in my house at all times, as a family medicine.

HERMAN MONSLER.

HOLMESBURG, PENN., April 12, 1865.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO.:

GENTLEMEN—Please send me a bottle of DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA; I gave the last I brought with me from the Pacific coast to my mother, aged 70 years, who had a violent attack of the Colic. It gave her instant relief. I believe it to be the best medicine ever prepared for diseases for which it is recommended.

I cut my thumb nearly off with a sharp ax, tied it up, and by the free use of the PANACEA it healed perfectly, without even the loss of the nail. No person, after using it, will ever try any similar remedy if this can be had. Yours,

MAJ. GEO. W. HALL.

THE GREAT AMERICAN CONSUMPTIVE REMEDY.

DR. WILLIAM HALL'S

WILL CURE

Consumption, Decline, Asthma, Bronchitis, Wasting of Flesh, Night-Sweats Spitting of Blood, Hooping-Cough, Difficulty of Breathing, Cough, Croup, Influenza, Phthisic, Pain in the Side, and all Diseases of the Lungs.

10,000 Dollars Reward

IS OFFERED FOR A BETTER RECIPE.

IT CONTAINS NO OPIUM, CALOMEL, OR MINERAL POISON,

AND CAN BE SAFELY TAKEN BY THE MOST DELICATE CHILD.

It is estimated that 150,000 die annually in the United States with Consumption, and Professor Eberle says that a vast number of these could be saved by the timely use of some proper remedy.

DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS strikes at the root of the DISEASE AT ONCE, and such is its speedy effect that any one using it freely, according to directions, for twenty-four or forty-eight hours, and not being entirely satisfied with its merits, may return it and receive back his money. The most distressing cough is frequently relieved by a single dose, and broken up in a few hours' time. The afflicted do not have to take bottle after bottle before they find whether this remedy will afford relief or not.

The public have been imposed upon by remedies recommended by certificates which have always originated from some unknown source. We believe that a MEDICINE POSSESSING REAL MERITS will effect cures wherever it is used, at home as well as abroad. SO GREAT HAS been the success of this medicine, that few CITIES, TOWNS, or VILLAGES can be named where some LIVES have not been saved by the use of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. Its success has induced some, who care only for making money, without regard to the health or life of those who purchase, to get up Lung Balsams, thinking they can sell it on the REPUTATION of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS; and some, in recommending their "Lung Balsams," have even dared to use certificates for cures that have been effected by the use of DR. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, hoping thereby to DECEIVE THE AFFLICTED, for their individual BENEFIT. We therefore caution all to BEWARE of such UNPRINCIPLED DECEPTIONS. PHYSICIANS and other INTELLIGENT persons, in all parts of the country, have given their UNQUALIFIED APPROVAL and RECOMMENDATION of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS.

Would it not be the part of WISDOM to buy that which is KNOWN and APPROVED, in preference to new and uncertain preparations?

We therefore repeat, buy only Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. It is the best.

THIS IS NO PAREGORIC preparation, but one which, if used in season, will save the lives of thousands. It has effected cures in numerous cases, where the most skillful physicians in this country and in Europe have been employed, and have exercised their skill in vain. Cases which they have PRONOUNCED INCURABLE, and SURRENDERED AS HOPELESS BEYOND A DOUBT, LEAVING THE PATIENTS WITHOUT A SINGLE RAY TO ENLIVEN THEM in their gloom, have been cured by Dr. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and the "VICTIMS OF CONSUMPTION" are now as vigorous and strong as the most robust among us. And these cases are not isolated ones; they are numerous, and can be pointedout in every community where this most unrivaled remedy has been tested.

Be slow, then, to believe the oft-repeated story about the lungs being gone; or, rather, let no such apprehension induce you to give up. Act upon the principle that while there is life there is hope. You can never be so low that you can not trust, humanly speaking, in Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. More than one, nay hundreds, have been brought by it almost from death to life, when all else have failed. Give, then, this powerful but harmless remedy a trial.

Accompanying each bottle of DR. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS is a treatise, in pamphlet form, on Consumption, with special directions for using, modes, treatment, etc., for which we bespeak your perusal.

It can be found for sale at all the principal Druggists and Dealers in Family Medicines in the United States.

COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA AND STILLINGIA, OR

BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP

SUCH AS

Pimples, Boils, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, also many Diseases peculiar to Females, such as Leucorrhea, or Whites, Suppression, Irregularity, Sterility, or any other Disease arising from Impurity of the Blood.

READ THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT OF WILLIAM S. MERRELL,

THE OLDEST CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST IN CINCINNATI.

We hereby certify that we have been made acquainted with the formula of Scovill's Compound Sirup of Sarsaparilla and Stillingia, or Blood and Liver Sirup. The ingredients are ENTIRELY OF VEGETABLE ORIGIN, and of PRIME QUALITY, and the virtues extracted by an alcoholic process. No MINERAL SUBSTANCE ENTERS INTO THE COMPOSITION.

READ WHAT THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITY SAYS ABOUT STILLINGIA, USED AS ONE OF THE COMPOUND PARTS OF THIS MEDICINE, AS AN ALTERATIVE.

The following are names of physicians, all of high standing and extensively known, and who laud it as an alterative of unequaled efficacy; namely, THOMAS Y. SIMONS, M. D., American Medical Recorder, vol. xiii, page 312; A. LOPEZ, M. D., New Orleans Medical and Surgical Journal, vol. iii, page 40; and H. R. FROST, M. D., Southern Journal of Medicine and Pharmacy, November, 1846. These gentlemen report STILLINGIA to be undoubtedly a most valuable remedy in Scrofula, Cutaneous Diseases, Chronic Hepatic Affections, as well as in many other complaints benefited by the use of mercury, and their statements are corroborated by all physicians who have tested it.

COOPER'S PLAINS, Steuben County, N. Y., March 1, 1860.

It is with pleasure that I write to you in regard to Scovill's Blood and Liver Sirup. I think it one of the best purifiers of the day. It has met with perfect success in every case where I have used it. My first case was that of a young child, about eighteen months old, troubled with Erysipelas and Scrofula very badly. By the use of the BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP it has entirely recovered. The other case was a lady who had been afflicted with Scrofula for the last twenty-five years. She had tried the prescriptions of the most skillful physicians in this part of the country with no beneficial effect. She commenced using the BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP in November, and at that time was in the most deplorable condition, having been unable to do any work for the past twenty years. She is now entirely well, and able to attend to her work. S. W. EVERETT, M. D.

In the Medical Journal, May, 1859, we published the formula for the preparation of SCOVILL & CO.'S EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA AND STILLINGIA, OR BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP, recommending it to physicians as an alterative. Soon after we received communications from a number of eminent and successful practitioners, informing us of the satisfactory results which had almost invariably followed its use.

In the August number, 1860, we republished this formula, with communications from physicians and persons of respectability, giving instances of its efficacy in relieving obstinate chronic diseases, since which time we have heard of hundreds of physicians who have used this medicine in their practice, and it is conceded by all to be the best alterative in use Messrs. SCOVILL & CO., of this city, are largely engaged in the manufacture of this compound, and have great facilities for purchasing ingredients—are reliable men, and sell nothing but the pure, unadulterated article. R. S. NEWTON, Ed. West. Med. News.

One of the strongest evidences of the wonderful curative power of SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP is, that it has become a regular officinal preparation, and is used by physicians in their practice in every part of the country. This fact is enough to convince the most skeptical of its merits, as they know that physicians are the last to use or indorse any thing into their practice that has not real merit. Hundreds of physicians, and professors in medical colleges, have adopted this medicine as the best remedy in treating the most desperate diseases, such as Scrofula, etc.

This Medicine can be depended on as all that it is recommended to be. No family should be without it. It is for sale by Druggists and Dealers in Family Medicines in all parts of the United States.

DR. MOTT'S

VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS.

The Best Cathartic Pill Ever Offered to the Public.

Dr. Mott's Vegetable Liver Pills are composed entirely of chemical vegetable extracts, mostly from plants growing in our own country. Some of these plants have a direct action on the liver, others upon the skin, others upon the kidneys, and others upon the bowels and lungs. It is by a peculiar chemical combination of all these extracts that these Pills are made, possessing the most extraordinary efficacy for curing the above-named diseases.

In chronic diseases, or diseases of long standing, such as LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION OF THE BOWELS, ERYSIPELAS, SCROFULA, GOITER, SCALD-HEAD, BARBER'S ITCH, SORE EYES, PIMPLES ON THE SKIN, and OLD SORES, the treatment with the Pills should be continued for a longer time than with less stubborn diseases.

☞ Remember that it will require perseverance in the use of the Pills in chronic diseases. It will be but little use to commence for a short time only. The poisonous humors must be carried, in small particles, through the blood, and removed from the system through the secretion of the bowels, kidneys, and skin, till all those morbid functions of the body and the health of the system are restored to their proper tone.

In order to break up immediately attacks of acute diseases, such as BILIOUSNESS, FEVER OF ALL KINDS, and all violent attacks of COLDS, JAUNDICE, INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM, INFLAMMATION OF THE BRAIN AND KIDNEYS, BRUISES, PAINS IN THE BOWELS, BACK, SIDE, BREAST, and HEAD, PLEURISY, COLIC, and CRAMPS, the treatment must be followed up with a rigid course, and the disease will be cut short just in proportion as the system is diseased, and is brought under the influence of the medicine. It will prove literally that "a stitch in time saves nine."

In the first place, get the body into perspiration, and, at the same time, produce an action on the liver, bowels, and kidneys. In sweating the body, the feet must be put into a tub of hot water, with a handful of wood-ashes, for ten or fifteen minutes, some hot tea or lemonade drank freely, till the body is thrown into perspiration.

When disease has taken such hold on the system that nature can not remove it, then it must be assisted by the use of nature's remedies, as, for instance, the Forest Plant, (DR. MOTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS,) which acts mildly but surely upon the liver and bowels; also, upon the secretions of skin and kidneys; which carries off the accumulated humors through the blood, and restores the system to health. The use of CALOMEL or MERCURY to assist nature has done a great deal of injury—partially, it is true, by the injudicious use of it. But there are few constitutions only that will stand the use of mercury in any form. If the injurious effect is not felt immediately, it may lie concealed in the system for years, and afterward be felt in the bones, or in the form of RHEUMATISM or MERCURIAL DISEASE. A great many cases are recorded in the standard works which advocate its use, showing that Calomel has produced most dreadful salivation, causing the tongue to protrude from the mouth, so that it was with great difficulty the sufferer could swallow. In other cases it has been found necessary to take out the jaw-bone; and, in yet others, death has been the result. Who, then, will venture to use such a medicine as Calomel or Mercury, when he can safely use one composed solely of VEGETABLE, effecting a cure without running any such risk?

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO.:

GENTS—I have found DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS one of the best medicines for DYSPEPSIA that I ever used. I had been afflicted with the disease for more than six months, and my victuals disturbed my stomach, often to such a degree as to cause vomiting. I was most of the time costive. I found that the Pills kept my bowels open, without griping or pain. I have actually gained, since using them, in weight, being ten pounds heavier than when I commenced. I owe my cure solely to the use of the Pills.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO.:

GENTS—I have been troubled with a torpid action of the bowels for six or seven years, which has been the cause of a great deal of suffering to me, and I had to deprive myself of many kinds of food, and used much oatmeal, etc., till I got DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS, and find that they keep my bowels regular, and I now eat any thing that my family does. I most confidently recommend these Pills to those who are troubled with constipation of the bowels.

Truly yours, JOHN FLEMING.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO.:

GENTS—This is to certify that I have used DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS in BILIOUS ATTACKS, and found them to be the best Pills that I ever used for that purpose; and I have also used them as a cathartic medicine, and have found but little use for a physician since I had them in my family.

Yours truly, ASA FRENCH.

DR. WARREN'S

TONIC CORDIAL.

THIS CORDIAL is the best invigorator ever discovered. Having long felt the necessity of affording the public an EFFICIENT and AGREEABLE TONIC, as a substitute for those bitter "stomachics" that are so repulsive to the taste and against which the delicate stomach too often revolts, we have, after LONG EXPERIMENT and PATIENT RESEARCH, adopted the above remedy as one that has stood the test of experience, and has always been attended with the most gratifying results in its administration. It is composed of the most efficacious tonics and alteratives known to the materia medica, which have been so combined with grateful aromatics as to render it as pleasant to the palate as the most delicious beverage. It is unrivaled as an Anti-Dyspeptic and Antiperiodic,

And if taken freely as a preventive, will fortify the system against attacks of Fever and Ague, and all the diseases incident to a malarious climate. It will CURE

FLATULENCE, ACIDITY of the STOMACH, DIARRHEA.

AND INDIGESTION IN ALL ITS FORMS.

It excites the appetite, and promotes good digestion, and stimulates a healthy action of the Liver and the various glands of the alimentary canal. It is superior to all other remedies as a roborant in recuperating broken-down constitutions, and convalescents will find it especially valuable in restoring the vital energy of the system exhausted by previous disease. Delicate females will find it a PLEASANT and DECIDEDLY-EFFICACIOUS REMEDY for

NERVOUSNESS, LANGUOR, AND DEBILITY,

And those PECULIAR AFFECTIONS under whose baleful influence the whole system becomes enervated, the nervous energy is exhausted, the strength declines, the form is attenuated, and the skin becomes sallow and the blood impoverished. The free use of it in such cases will drive away lassitude and ennui by an increased flow of animal spirits, impart cheerfulness and buoyancy to the feelings, awaken new life and energy in the whole body, and by strengthening the nutritive functions and enriching the blood will beautify the form and suffuse the complexion with the delicate bloom of youth and health. From its peculiar alterative effect upon the skin it will prove superior to any mere cosmetic in removing those disagreeable and unsightly pimples and blotches that mar the beauty of the skin in so many persons.

On account of its delightful taste it may be given to YOUNG CHILDREN, in small doses, with the happiest effect in Colic and Diarrhea, and all those diseases of the Stomach and Bowels attended with debility which prove so fatal to the young. We feel confident that when this "Tonic Cordial" is fairly introduced to the notice of the public, they will be so thoroughly convinced of its great virtues that it will speedily take the place of all other remedies in this class of CURATIVE AGENTS.

For sale by Druggists and Dealers in Family Medicines generally.

CIRCASSIAN

HAIR RESTORATIVE,

FOR

RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR.

IT IS NOT A DYE.

It restores the color of the hair by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance, impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of mineral caustic, which destroys the vitality of the hair.

The Circassian Hair Restorative not only restores the hair to its natural color, but its use for a short time renders it soft, luxuriant, and beautiful.

It also promotes its growth, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health to the head, and cures disease or eruptions of the scalp.

When the hair has become gray, it shows that the scalp, nerve, and bloodvessels have partially lost their vitality, and cease to secrete the coloring matter, which supplies the internal pith of the hair. To restore the hair to its original color, the scalp, nerve, and blood must be invigorated to action, by supplying the nutriment which nature has failed to do, and restore life to the roots, and cause them to secrete coloring matter and nourishment to the hair.

This Restorative is purely a scientific preparation, the result of long research and study, and is universally considered to be the best ever offered to the public, combining, as it does, all the latest improvements and discoveries of the age. All who have tried it attest to its great virtues. It is perfectly harmless, and will not stain the finest cambric.

If the use of this preparation is persevered in according to the directions—which will be found in full on each bottle—there will be no necessity of any one having gray hair, no matter to what age the person may live.

The Circassian Hair Restorative has been in use so long, and always with such uniform success, that there is now no longer any room for doubt with regard to its superiority over all other preparations, for the purpose of strengthening the growth of the hair and restoring gray hair to its original color, as well as in the essential particulars of convenience and cleanliness.

In proof of its unrivaled excellence, we subjoin the following testimonials that we select from a large number that have been voluntarily sent us by those who have experienced its benefits:

COLUMBIA, OHIO.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO.:

GENTS—I wish to tell you that the Circassian Hair Restorative I purchased of you has restored my hair. My hair came out so that I was bald all over my head. I saw a notice of the virtues of your CIRCASSIAN HAIR RESTORATIVE, and thought I would try it. I did so. To my great joy, my hair returned, very thick, soft, and glossy; in fact, I have a much more beautiful head of hair than ever before. I am surprised at the wonderful effect it has had in producing such a growth of beautiful hair. All my friends and neighbors who have witnessed the wonderful effect of the RESTORATIVE are as much astonished as myself. I purchased the RESTORATIVE at your store, while passing through Cincinnati, on a furlough of thirty days. When I returned to the army, my comrades were perfectly astonished at the change, from a bald head to a beautiful head of hair.

E. R. STEWART,

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO.:

GENTS—I take great pleasure in stating that, owing to the use of your Circassian Hair Restorative, my hair has been restored to its original color. Before using it I had become quite gray. I have no hesitancy in recommending it to the public as being all it is recommended to be. Yours, respectfully, DAVID FOWLER.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO.:

GENTS—I consider the Circassian Hair Restorative the most valuable preparation known for invigorating the roots of the hair, and causing them to secrete coloring matter, when nature has failed to do so, thereby causing the hair to turn gray.

I have used it in my family with entire success, in restoring the gray hair back to its original color, and rendering it soft and glossy. PHILIP MEREDITH, LOSS BY THE PORTLAND FIRE, JULY 4th.

The total amount covered by the Ætna Policies on property destroyed or damaged is $206,854, on which salvage will be about five per cent. Our total loss will not vary much from $200,000, and was promptly adjusted and paid. This sum is five per cent. upon the Company's assets, a figure but slightly exceeding our Government and State taxes paid last year, or a proportion equal to a $5,000 loss for a company of $100,000 assets.

The necessity for insurance and the value of wealthy, strong corporations, is forcibly illustrated by this fire. Several weak Insurance Companies are destroyed. Portland has a population of thirty-five thousand, was handsomely built, mostly fine brick or stone structures, protected and screened with upward of three thousand shade-trees, bounded on three sides by water—indeed, literally, almost rising from the ocean—and with a steam fire department; yet it has $10,000,000 of property consumed in a few hours—upon a holiday when its people are least occupied—from the very insignificant cause of a contemptible fire-cracker.

Remember the trifling origin of fires that sweep away in a few hours the earnings of years. Consider your best interest, and give the Ætna Agent a call if you need proper insurance security. Pay a fair rate of premium for a good and genuine article, and with these lights and experiences before you, procure your insurance with shrewd judgment.

THE

Eclectic Educational Series,

PUBLISHED BY SARGENT, WILSON & HINKLE,

137 Walnut Street, Cincinnati.

The following testimony is corroborative of the fact, now generally admitted by our most intelligent and successful teachers that the Eclectic Series of School-Books, embracing McGUFFEY'S NEW READERS and SPELLER, RAY'S ARITHMETICS, ALGEBRAS, and GEOMETRY, and PINNEO'S GRAMMARS, are among the best and most popular ever issued.

These books are more extensively introduced than any other Series published in America, and have successfully stood the severest tests of the school-room, winning the warmest approval of thousands upon thousands of our best educators.

I have had frequent occasion, during the past few years, to examine and re-examine the ECLECTIC EDUCATIONAL SERIES OF SCHOOL-BOOKS. Taken as a whole, it is unquestionably the best Series issued by any house in America.

Prof. Ray was a mathematician of high order. His practical good [illegible] and his large and successful experience as an educator, as well as his enthusiastic devotion to the science of mathematics, eminently fitted him for the production of text-books in this department; and his Arithmetics and Algebra [illegible] a regular and complete series, beginning with the elements, and ascending to the higher principles of the science. I regard this as the best mathematical series extant.

McGUFFEY'S NEW SERIES OF READERS, ascending from easy lessons in spelling and reading to the highest forms of rhetorical delivery, making seven successive gradations in the art of reading and delivery, must satisfy every reasonable demand in this department. In the range of the series, in the care of selection and adaptation, in the explanations and illustrations, as well as in the high moral and religious sentiment pervading the work, we have evidence of the fidelity and ability of the author.

In DR. PINNEO'S PRIMARY and ANALYTICAL GRAMMARS there is remarkable simplicity of arrangement and clearness of definition. The Primary is admirably adapted to the beginner. It will enable him to understand the science. The Analytical, designed for more advanced students, is unsurpassed in its complete adaptation to its design. The popularity enjoyed by these works rests upon the substantial basis of merit.

D. W. CLARK.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONFERENCE.

Periodicals for Superannuates, etc.

WHEREAS, one of the original designs of the establishment of the Book Concern was the realization of a fund for the relief of superannuated preachers, the widows and orphans of such as might die in the work; and, whereas, owing to uncontrollable circumstances, dividends from the Book Concern for the relief of that class of claimants have been for many years, and are still intermitted; therefore,

1. Resolved, That the next General Conference be and hereby is respectfully requested to authorize the Agents of the Book Concern, as an act of simple justice, to furnish gratuitously all superannuated preachers, and the widows of ministers having died in the work, claimants on the funds of their respective Conferences, one copy of such Church paper as they may prefer, and that the rule continue in force so long as the Book Concern fails to make any dividends, or is revoked by the General Conference.

2. Resolved, That the delegates of this Conference are hereby instructed to use their utmost diligence to induce the General Conference to secure the foregoing benefit in behalf of superannuates, and widows of deceased itinerant ministers.

Amenability of Accused Ministers.

Resolved, That the next General Conference be and is hereby requested to order by disciplinary provision, that all ministers be held amenable for their moral conduct to the Annual Conference to which they belonged, at the time any immorality is alleged to have been committed.

Daily Religious Paper.

Resolved, That we earnestly recommend the next session of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church to take into consideration the practicability of establishing one or more religious daily papers; and if the effort should be made, we will urge our members to give it their earnest support.

Appointment of Presiding Elders.

Resolved, That we hereby instruct our delegates to the General Conference to endeavor to secure a provision in our Discipline, by which presiding elders shall be appointed by the joint action of the Bishop and the Conference; at least securing consultation with the preachers of each district, before the appointment of presiding elder to their several fields of labor.

Committee on Programme of Anniversaries.

Resolved, That a committee, consisting of one member from each presiding elder's district, be appointed to prepare, in the interval of the Conference, a programme of the anniversaries of Conference Societies, designating the time, place, and speakers, etc., of each anniversary; also a minister to preach the Conference Sermon, and publish the same at least four weeks before the session of the next Conference, in order that the reports of the preachers may be ready to hand to the proper officers of the respective societies in due time.

Pastor's Duties in Relation to Sabbath Schools, etc.

1. Resolved, That it is the duty of all pastors to identify themselves, as far as possible, with our Sabbath schools, by teaching a "Pastor's Bible Class," or by their presence and influence in the school.

2. That it is the duty of our pastors to catechise our children once a week—say on Saturday afternoon, or whenever practicable.

3. That we advise that the first Sabbath of each month be appropriated to the study of the catechism exclusively, and that the pastor—whenever practicable—shall question the school on the lesson of the day, and urge the importance of correct doctrinal views.

Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church, Washington City.

Resolved, That the Cincinnati Conference take a memorial window in said church, to be dedicated to Hon. Judge M'Lean, at an expense of five hundred dollars: that if the lawyers of Ohio do not raise this amount within ninety days, it be raised by the members of Conference: that Judge I. Corwin, of Urbana, be Treasurer of such funds; and that a committee of three be appointed on the details of raising the funds, and of the designs for said window.

Admission of Ministers and Societies from the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

Whereas, the Rev. S. B. Smith, a traveling elder in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, of fair moral and religious character, of good standing in the Miami Conference of said Church, has made application to unite with the Cincinnati Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church; therefore, be it Resolved, by the Cincinnati Conference, that the Rev. S. B. Smith be received as a traveling preacher among us.

Resolved, That Rev. Richard Brandriff and Rev. Pharaoh A. Ogden be readmitted into the traveling connection in the Cincinnati Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Resolved, That we sincerely rejoice in the overture and action of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Troy, Ohio, by which they have become one with us in ecclesiastical fellowship.

Thanks to Rev. J. L. Grover.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference are due and are hereby tendered to Rev. J. L. Grover for the faithful discharge of the duties assigned to him by this Conference at its last session in the case of the Church against Rev. J. J. Hill.

Transfers.

Resolved, That this Conference request the transfer of the Rev. J. S. Peregrine from the Minnesota to the Cincinnati Conference, should our Bishop regard such transfer proper and necessary.

Whereas, our beloved brother, Rev. John Braden, has deemed it his duty to take a transfer from the Cincinnati Conference, that he may enter the broad field which God has opened before our Church in the South; therefore,

Resolved, That our best wishes and prayers shall attend our brother for his increasing usefulness and success in his new and arduous field of labor; and should he, at any future time, desire to return to our Conference, we will cheerfully and cordially welcome him among us.

Conference Stewards' Resolutions.

Whereas, God has said "the laborer is worthy of his hire;" and, whereas, our fathers in the ministry gave their all to the Church, too often to the neglect of personal pecuniary interest, trusting to the honor of the Church the welfare of themselves and their families, expecting nothing more than a bare support, and yet depending upon the good faith of the Church to perpetuate such support in the dark hours of age and feebleness in themselves, and the darker hours of the widowhood and orphanage of their wives and children; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we recognize their claims as righteous.

2. Resolved, That a sum equivalent to twelve per cent. of the salaries paid in each presiding elder's district shall be the amount expected from the same, and the District Stewards are hereby requested to distribute the same to the respective charges, according to the ability of each.

2. Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to present this claim to our people as early in the year as practicable, giving it that prominence its merits demand.

4. Resolved, That in the passage of character, each pastor shall be requested to report the amount of his collection, and in case of failure to meet the reasonable expectations of the Conference, shall be expected to give satisfactory reasons for such failure.

5. Resolved, That any pastor who may neglect to present this claim to his charge, or shall lightly excuse himself therefrom, will thereby expose himself to just censure.

T. J. HARRIS.
S. WEEKS, Sec'y.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. AFTER the usual opening religious exercises, the Secretary shall read the minutes of the previous session.

2. No motion shall be entertained by the Conference till such motion shall have been seconded.

3. All motions shall be reduced to writing, if desired by any member of the Conference.

4. Every member desiring to speak on any subject before the Conference, shall rise and address the President.

5. The member who first rises and addresses the President shall be entitled to the floor.

6. No member shall speak more than once on the same subject till all who may desire to speak shall have spoken; nor more than fifteen minutes at a time without leave of the Conference.

7. All questions of order shall be decided by the President, subject to an appeal to the Conference, without debate.

8. When any question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone, to commit, or to amend; but a motion to adjourn shall always be in order; and this, as well as a motion to lay on the table, shall be decided without debate.

9. If the question before the Conference be capable of division, upon the call of any member, such question shall be divided.

10. The business of the Conference shall be conducted with open doors, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

11. Any question may be reconsidered on the motion of any member who may have voted with the majority.

12. If any member call for the previous question, and such call be sanctioned by a two-thirds' vote of the Conference, the main question shall then be put.

13. Each Committee of the Conference shall choose its own chairman, unless the chairman be designated by the Conference or the President in the appointment of the committee.

14. The members of the Conference shall assemble in the Conference-room punctually at the hour to which the Conference adjourned, and no member shall absent himself from the place of Conference session, without leave of absence.

15. In all practicable cases, when charges are preferred against a member of Conference, notice shall be given to the President on the first day of the session, that, if it be judged proper, his name may be called, and the case referred to a committee.

PART II.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

URBANA, OHIO, SEPTEMBER 3, 1867.

I HEREBY certify that the following Reports were adopted by the Cincinnati Annual Conference at its session in 1867.

WILLIAM H. SUTHERLAND,
Secretary of Cincinnati Annual Conference.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

YOUR Committee on Education has heard and considered the statements of Boards of Trustees of the several institutions of learning under the patronage of your body, and the reports of your Visiting and Examining Committees.

From the facts presented, we are able to report that the cause of Education, under the auspices of our Conference, is being steadily promoted. Our people are manifesting a growing interest in this great and good work, by an enlarged liberality in its behalf. In order, however, to secure to it the strength that its commanding importance requires, it is necessary to foster this commendable spirit, till the entire membership of the Church, within our bounds, shall have a part in its support. To hasten this result, and, also, to secure means, of which our institutions are still in want, this cause should be presented to all our congregations, and all the contributions of our people should be reported to the Conference.

Resolved, That we recommend that the preachers preach on the subject of Education before all our congregations during the Conference year.

Ohio Wesleyan University.

We mention with great satisfaction the following facts, which clearly indicate the character and standing of the Ohio Wesleyan University:

1. It has a Faculty composed of eminent and deservedly-popular educators.

2. It is attended by more than three hundred students, and from its halls a large class of well-trained young men are annually sent forth into the various fields of useful labor.

3. Its financial matters are in a gratifying condition, as will appear from the following statement, made June 20, 1867:

University Grounds and Buildings		$75,000 00
Library, Cabinet, and Apparatus		17,000 00
Permanent Fund:
Moneys invested	$133,200 00
Notes and Subscriptions	46,700 00
In hand of Treasurer	4,262 78
Real Estate	1,000 00
		$185,162 78
General Fund:
Notes and Subscriptions	$6,561 33
In hand of Treasurer	1,087 72
		$7,659 05
Total		$287,321 83

This institution received a considerable benefaction from the Centenary subscriptions; but its highest usefulness still requires an increase of its fund, and it should be kept before our people in the patronizing Conferences till its departments are all amply endowed.

The proposition approved by our Conference, to petition the Legislature to so amend the charter as to give the patronizing Conferences an equal representation in the Board of Trustees, has not yet succeeded, but it is believed that the cause of this delay need not defeat the measure.

We offer for your adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we request the reappointment of L. D. M'Cabe, D. D., as Professor of Philosophy in said University.

Resolved, That G. C. Crum, D. D., and Rev. M. Dustin, be the Visiting and Examining Committee.

Resolved, That we hereby commend the University to the liberality of our people, and that we will welcome its Agent, Rev. C. C. M'Cabe, to our pastoral charges.

Resolved, That we believe that the interests of the University would be promoted by such a modification of its charter as would secure an equitable representation of all patronizing Conferences in its Board of Trustees.

Wesleyan Female College.

With a just pride we record the energetic movements of those who have undertaken to provide Methodism in the West with a Female College that will compare favorably with any institution of the kind in our country. A large contribution of funds has already been made, and the appeals in behalf of the movement are still meeting with favorable responses. The location selected for the proposed edifice is in an eligible part of Cincinnati; its foundations are now laid; it is projected on a large scale, and the style of its architecture will make it a beautiful and enduring monument of a praiseworthy enterprise and liberality.

We offer the following resolution for adoption:

Resolved, That we request the reappointment of Rev. A. Meharry as Financial Agent of said College.

Hillsboro Female College.

The literary reputation of the Hillsboro Female College has been fully maintained during the past year, under the efficient management of its worthy President, Rev. David Copeland, A. M. This institution now offers all the advantages that were anticipated in its establishment, and merits a large patronage.

The Commission appointed by this Conference at its session in 1866, to ascertain the sum due on the pledge of $5,000 made in 1861, and reindorsed in 1863, report the following payments, namely:

Nov. 4, 1865, to J. H. Thompson		$1,274 80
Oct. 6, 1866, " " "		102 66
Nov. 11, " " " "		150 00
" " " " "	(his subscription)	310 00
	Total	$1,837 46

There remains due on the amount pledged, $3,162.54, on which sum the Commission recommend the payment of 6 per cent. interest from September 25, 1865, making the total liability of the Conference to September 25, 1867, $3,553.43.

The interest thus accrued amounts to $390, and will be above $600 by our next session. In view of this rapidly-accruing indebtedness, and the prejudicial results of its continuance to all the Educational enterprises of our Conference, a determined effort should be made for its early liquidation.

The following resolutions are presented for your adoption:

Resolved, That the amount due on the pledge of $5,000 to the Hillsboro Female College be apportioned to the several charges in the Conference, on the basis of 5 per centum on the preachers' salaries for 1866.

Resolved, That we will lift this as a part of the annual Educational collection, between this and January 1, 1868, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and forward the same to the Treasurer of the Educational Fund, Rev. J. F. Chalfant, and that he is hereby authorized and instructed to pay the proportion raised on the above indebtedness to the Treasurer of the College at the close of each month.

Resolved, That the presiding elder of Hillsboro district and preachers in charge of Hillsboro and Greenfield stations be the Visiting Committee to said College.

Resolved, That we request the appointment of Rev. David Copeland to the Presidency of said College.

Xenia Female College.

We rejoice that this institution is still in a prosperous condition, and that under the management of its President, Prof. William Smith, its power for good is steadily increasing. We believe it to be worthy of a higher commendation, and entitled to the continued patronage of the public.

We offer for your adoption the following:

Resolved, That the presiding elder of the Xenia district and the preachers stationed in Xenia and Dayton be the Visiting Committee to said College.

Springfield Female College.

This institution, during the past year, has maintained its well-deserved popularity under the supervision of its worthy and careful President, Rev. J. H. Herron, A. M. It is a matter to deplore that the capacity of the building does not admit of accommodations for a larger number of pupils, as boarders in the family of the President, where there are thrown around them the influences of a cultivated and Christian home.

We offer the following resolutions for adoption:

Resolved, That we request the appointment of Rev. J. H. Herron to the Presidency of said College.

Resolved, That the preachers stationed in Springfield, Mechanicsburg, Urbana, and Piqua be the Visiting Committee.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

The Committee, to whom was referred the papers from the Garrett Biblical Institute, respectfully submit the following Report:

1. Resolved, That the speedy organization of a Ministerial Education Society, to aid needy young men whom God shall call to the office and work of the ministry, is highly important and necessary.

2. Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to examine the whole subject, and prepare a constitution, and report to our next Conference.

3. Resolved, That said Committee be a depository to receive and hold any moneys that may be given for this object, till this Society shall be organized.

4. Resolved, That L. F. Van Cleve and James F. Chalfant be and hereby are appointed as a Visiting Committee to attend the examinations of said institution, in October next.

A. LOWREY,
G. C. CRUM,
L. D. M'CABE.

Report of the "Commission on behalf of the Cincinnati Conference" in relation to the sale of Linden Hill Academy.

The undersigned would respectfully report that at the last session of this Conference the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That Revs. W. Herr, W. Young, and J. F. Conrey be appointed a commission on behalf of this Conference, with full powers in the premises, to consent to and ratify the sale and transfer of said Linden Hill Academy and proceeds, if they should deem the foregoing request reasonable and to the interest of all concerned.

Pursuant to a called meeting in New Carlisle, a joint conference or consultation of the Commission and Trustees was had, whereupon the former submitted to the latter the following paper:

"The undersigned, a commission on behalf of the Cincinnati Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, appointed to empower the Trustees of Linden Hill Academy to sell said property, beg leave to submit for the consideration of said Trustees the following propositions:

"1. That we consent to the sale of the property, provided it be disposed of so as to secure to the Conference the sum of $2,500, in cash.

"2. That of said amount—$2,500—five hundred dollars be appropriated to the said Trustees to enable them to satisfy the creditors of Rev. T. Harrison, so far as his pecuniary responsibilities may be involved in his late connections with said institution, thus leaving the sum of $2,000 to be reinvested in stock by the Trustees in the Xenia Female Seminary, under the auspices of the Cincinnati Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

"3. That the Commission further agree that the Trustees of Linden Hill Academy be authorized to carry out the intention expressed in the first resolution of their proceedings in regard to the New Carlisle School District; to wit, 'to refund to each of the original contributors, without interest, the amount paid for the purchase of said property of Rev. Thomas Harrison,' or such a per cent. as the remaining funds may allow."

J. FORD CONREY,
W. HERR,
W. YOUNG,
Commission on behalf of the Cincinnati Conference.

We would further report that the question of the purchase of the property by the School District was submitted to a vote, and the vote was unfavorable to the purchase, and consequently the matter remains in "statu quo."

Respectfully submitted.

W. HERR,
W. YOUNG,
J. FORD CONREY.

New Carlisle, O., Jan. 14, 1867.

Linden Hill Academy.

The sale of this Academy, located at New Carlisle, proposed a year ago, not having been consummated, it is still under your patronage. The Trustees are making some needed and desirable repairs that will place the building in good condition for the reception of pupils. Prof. L. H. Durling, formerly Professor in the South-Western Normal School, has been appointed Principal. He brings to his work a valuable experience in teaching.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

FROM the facts in possession of the Committee, we believe there is a healthy advancement of the Sunday School interest in the bounds of our Conference. The Committee have not been able, from various causes, to secure district Sunday school organizations or conventions, as suggested in the resolution of Conference last year. But from present indications, through the hearty co-operation of the District Ministerial Associations in this work, and the Committee of Conference, as well as the aid of the Committee in each district appointed by the Ohio State Sunday School Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, your Committee anticipate a thorough organization of each district during the next Conference year.

While we have reason to rejoice in the increasing interest with which the Church regards the Sunday school work, and the increasing activity of the ministry and members in advancing the Sunday school cause, yet there is much lethargy still among our people, and much need of increased effort to bring all our membership to that standard of interest in this work where we may secure their hearty co-operation in every practicable manner in advancing this important work.

There is also an increasing disposition among our Sunday school teachers to secure a more thorough preparation for their responsible duties. This is manifest in the demand for books on teaching, and aids in preparation for the work, for Sunday School Conventions, Teachers' Institutes, and Normal classes. This demand we believe is being met in a measure, and with the happiest effect. Your Committee believe that these efforts to secure a better intellectual preparation for the work of teaching is also impressing the teachers with the truth, that their work is to point their pupils to the Lamb of God, and urge on them the duty of securing a personal interest in Jesus, early in life.

To aid in this work of preparing teachers, the Church ought to avail herself of all the instrumentalities practicable, such as Conventions, Institutes, Normal classes, Bible classes for teachers and others; to furnish books and periodicals calculated to aid the teacher in his work, and the ministry should labor especially to scatter this class of literature among the workers in our Sunday schools.

We rejoice to say that our Book Concern furnishes excellent works on this subject, such as "Our Sunday School," by Inglis; "The Art of Securing Attention," "Helpful Hints to Sunday School Teachers," "Our Sunday School Scrap-Book," "What is a Child?" etc.; with maps of Bible Lands, which should be in every Sunday school. The Sunday School Teachers' Journal, published by the Book Concern, so ably conducted, and so well calculated to aid the teacher in his work, we regret to say had last year in our Conference a circulation of only 1,711 copies, of which nearly 1,200 was taken in one district, the West Cincinnati, and only 12 copies in the Dayton district; 20 in the Hillsboro, and 50 in the Springfield district. This paper ought to be in the hands of every teacher; and we know that the preparation of teachers and the elevation of the standard of our Sunday school teaching mainly depend upon the ministry; and we are glad to say that, in general, their labors in this respect deserve commendation; yet we believe a better acquaintance with the Sunday school publications of our Book Concern, and an earnest effort to place them in the hands of teachers, as well as scholars, would greatly benefit the Sunday school cause. The conversion of over 2,000 Sunday school scholars last year is a matter of deepest gratitude to God.

The Committee present the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we highly appreciate the Sunday school publications of our Book Concern and books on sale, unsurpassed as they are for their extent, durability, beauty of mechanical execution, cheapness, adaptation to the wants of our teachers and scholars, and for their moral and religious influence.

2. Resolved, That we recommend an effort to place a copy of the Sunday School Journal in the hands of every teacher in our Sunday schools.

3. Resolved, That we heartily approve the formation of District Sunday School Institutes, auxiliary to the Ohio Sunday School Conference and Institute of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and will labor to secure them in each district, and to make them efficient in aiding our Sunday school teachers in the discharge of their responsible duties.

4. Resolved, That the children and youth of our Sunday schools should be specially urged to attend all public Church services.

5. Resolved, That we recommend the continuance of all our Sunday schools through the Winter.

6. Resolved, That the Sunday school is not designed to take the religious training of children out of the hands of parents, but to aid them in this work.

7. Resolved, That we urge the organization of Methodist Sunday schools in destitute places, whenever practicable.

8. Resolved, That we specially urge upon every Sunday school the importance of having a weekly teachers' meeting for the purpose of studying the Scriptures and for general improvement in their work.

Whereas, the Sunday School Union of our Church is an agency of great power for good, and as its operations are now greatly hindered by the failure of the Church to meet the increasing demands made for help from the South and West, and it is now in debt to the amount of some thousands of dollars; and whereas, last year, but forty out of the one hundred and three appointments in our Conference reported any collection for this cause; therefore,

Resolved, That we take up a collection for the Sunday School Union of the Methodist Episcopal Church in all our charges, and forward the same to the Treasurer in Cincinnati as early in the Conference year as practicable.

9. Resolved, That, while we approve of co-operation in union meetings of various kinds for the advancement of the general interests of the Sunday school cause, we urge our people to have no part in organizing and sustaining Union Sunday schools wherever it is practicable to have schools of a denominational character.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FREEDMEN.

YOUR Committee on the Freedmen respectfully report that the collections in the bounds of our Conference, for the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, returned for the past year, amount to $3,162.83. A number of collections forwarded to the Book Room, by the pastors, have not been reported to us. The Freedmen's Aid Society, which received its first recognition by our Conference one year ago, has since then established schools in the South, in which fifty teachers have been employed, and more than four thousand pupils enrolled, most of whom have been taught to read and write. Above three thousand children have been gathered into the Sunday schools, in which these teachers have labored.

This movement is supplementing and strengthening the operations of our Missionary Society in the South, by thus co-operating with our missionaries, and directly promoting the elevation of the freedmen. God, by his providence, has opened the way for the work, which is thus being accomplished, and its prosecution by some agency under Methodistic control is essential to the complete success of the efforts of our Church to reoccupy the field from which she was excluded by the intolerant spirit and proscriptive power of slavery.

The Freedmen's Aid Society is such an agency, and the only one, at present, by which the work it has undertaken can be done. It is, therefore, all-important that it be promptly supplied with means by which it may meet the urgent and growing demands of its mission, and respond to the plea for schools and teachers that comes up from every point in the South, where our missionaries have lifted up the standard of a pure and loyal Methodism. Every providence, by which our Church has been signalized, declares that she should be second to no other in any movement for the benefit of the freedmen.

We offer for your adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we hereby approve the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and pledge ourselves, to the utmost of our ability, to provide means for the furtherance of its objects, and to bring the cause for which it labors before our congregations, wherever practicable, during the Conference year.

Resolved, That our delegates to the Board of Managers of the Parent Society shall be Rev. J. M. Walden, D. D., and A. S. Butterfield.

Resolved, That we request the reappointment of Rev. J. R. Stillwell as Agent of said Society.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

YOUR Committee on Church Extension respectfully submit the following report:

The General Conference has assigned a work to the Church Extension Society, for which there is no other provision, and the efficient prosecution of which is essential to the growth of our Church in most all of her mission fields in this country. It is to be deplored that the treasury of this Society has become embarrassed, thereby diminishing its present usefulness.

Its ultimate success is of so great importance to the mission of Methodism that it is the duty and interest of the Church every-where to rally to its support, and place it in a position to achieve the purpose of its organization.

Because of the embarrassed condition of the Society, agents have, during the past year, lifted collections within our bounds for special churches. Your Committee believe that a report of the funds thus collected should be reported to the Conference Auxiliary Society, that the whole amount contributed by our people for Church Extension may be known to us, and if practicable recognized by the Parent Society as contributed to its funds.

We offer the following resolutions for your adoption:

Resolved, That we respectfully request all those who may have received contributions within the bounds of this Conference, in aid of needy churches, to report the same to our Corresponding Secretary, Dr. J. M. Walden.

Resolved, That hereafter all collections for this cause taken within our bounds be in accordance with the rules of the Church Extension Society.

Resolved, That the amount for which the Parent Church Extension Society may call upon this Conference shall be distributed under the direction of the Board of Managers of the Aid Society, for collection among the several districts and pastoral charges, and that we will earnestly endeavor to collect the same, and will report the result at our next session in open Conference.

Resolved, That we approve of the plan of the Parent Society for the creation of a Loan Fund for Church Extension, and commend it to the consideration and liberality of our people.

2. Add to Article 5, the following:

"Seven of whom shall constitute a quorum."

3. Add to Article 6, the following:

"The President or Corresponding Secretary shall have authority to call special meetings of the Board, as occasion may require."

REPORT ON FINANCE.

THE Committee on Finance recommend to the Conference for its adoption the report of last year, slightly amended, and recommend its publication in the Western Christian Advocate, immediately after the adjournment of Conference.

1. It shall be the duty of the last quarterly conference of each year to fix the time and place of holding the financial meeting for the ensuing year, to which the Estimating Committee shall present their estimate for the pastor's support. The meeting shall be composed of the preacher or preachers of the charge, the stewards, leaders, and Estimating Committee. The meeting shall then distribute the amount to the several classes, according to numbers and financial ability.

2. The several charges within our bounds are earnestly advised, where funds are not raised by pew-rents, to secure the preacher's salary by assessing the members, or by subscriptions from them and others who attend our congregations.

3. We earnestly urge our stewards to use such diligence that no arrearages shall be carried from one quarter to another, thereby burdening the close of the year with embarrassing deficiencies. As sons of Wesley, we should do this, as every thing else, "at the time."

4. In the judgment of the Conference, the obligation to pay the preacher's salary in full is as binding on the congregation and its individual members as the payment of promissory notes in banks, and should be met as promptly.

5. The presiding elders shall present this plan at their first quarterly conferences, and shall cause it to be read to the congregations of the first quarterly meetings; and on circuits, the stewards shall cause it to be read as soon thereafter as possible, in every congregation.

6. The Estimating Committee shall consult with the preachers as to the amount necessary for their support, and the presiding elder shall inquire, at the first quarterly conference, before putting the estimate of the Committee on its passage, if such consultation has been had.

7. We earnestly recommend to ministers and members to take up the Conference collections as early in the year as possible, distributing them at proper intervals, so that they will not be crowded together or embarrass the close of the year.

REPORT ON POPULAR AMUSEMENTS.

YOUR Committee, to which the subject of Popular Amusements was referred, having carefully considered the matter, make the following report to the Conference:

Whereas, there is a growing tendency among the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church to attend improper places of amusement, and to engage in games sinful in themselves, or rendered so by evils ingrafted upon them; and

Whereas, many of the amusements introduced into the social gatherings of our members are of doubtful propriety; and

Whereas, God has declared that "His people are not of this world, but are chosen out of the world," and are a "peculiar people;" therefore, resolved,

1. That the Cincinnati Annual Conference regard dancing, theatrical entertainments, and similar amusements of a sinful character, all exhibitions lacking refinement and elevated moral tone; also, games of chance, and all other recreations, the influence of which is detrimental to vital piety, as diversions which can not be used in the name of the Lord Jesus, and, as such, interdicted by our General Rules.

2. That we believe that Christians can not, without sin, engage in those amusements which are innocent in themselves, whenever they lead to evil associations, and have connected with them the drinking of spirituous liquors, betting, or other sinful practices.

3. That we earnestly recommend to parents carefully to restrain their children from attending improper exhibitions, and from engaging in amusements of exceptionable character; and, in order the better to do this, we advise that sufficient recreations of a harmless nature be provided for the children and youth at home.

4. That we, as ministers of Christ, will do all in our power to render our Church social gatherings more refined, intellectual, and religious, by appropriate literary and religious exercises; and that we will give our united influence to elevate the standard of public opinion on this subject, and to preserve our Churches from the blighting effects of sinful recreations; and will endeavor to maintain the well-defined line of demarkation, which lies between the Church of the Redeemer and the world.

5. That this Report be published in the Conference Minutes and in the Western Christian Advocate.

6. That the pastors be requested to read this Report to their respective charges.

REPORT OF THE CENTENARY COMMITTEE.

YOUR Committee would respectfully report, that, during this session, several calls have been made in open Conference, for reports from the charges within our limits, and the state of the case stands thus:

Number of charges in Conference	105
Number of reports handed in	51
Number of charges not reported	54
	— 105

From these partial returns, not comprehending one half of the charges in the Conference, your Committee find that the Centenary contributions for various objects amount to the grand total of $382,451.56. Now, if we assume that the fifty-four charges not yet heard from will report contributions equal to one-third of the fifty charges from which we have reports, the Centenary offerings of the Cincinnati Conference will reach the magnificent sum of $510,768.74. We regard it, therefore, as due to the honor of Methodism, and the glory of God's grace, which moved the hearts of our people to lay the munificent gift upon the altar of humanity, education, and religion, that every charge in the Conference should be fully represented in this grand movement, thereby securing to the Conference a place and a record in the General Centenary Committee Report that will be alike honorable to the intelligence, benevolence, and religion of the people and Churches committed, under God, to our care. And as reports from the yet unrepresented charges can not be obtained during the session of this Conference, we would respectfully submit for your consideration the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the Centenary Committee be continued, in order to receive further reports from charges in this Conference, and in due time prepare a full report of Centenary contributions, to be forwarded to the General Centenary Committee, at New York.

2. Resolved, That it be and is hereby made the imperative duty of the pastors of those charges not yet heard from, to use their utmost diligence to forward a Centenary report to W. Herr, Secretary of the Centenary Committee, and funds be sent to Larkin & Co., Bankers, Cincinnati, Ohio, within a period not later than December 1st, it being distinctly understood, that any reports coming in after the above designated time shall not be noticed, and that any pastor failing to observe the foregoing direction shall be regarded as negligent of an important duty.

In view of what has been accomplished, the princely donations during the Centenary year, made in behalf of the various agencies of Methodism, calculated, with the blessing of God, to enlighten, elevate, and purify humanity; the wonderful culmination of the grandest events that mark the world's history, the abolition of slavery, the triumph of the Union over the assaults of treason and rebellion, the inauguration of enlightened views of the dignity and equal rights of man in all the relations of life, the increased facilities for the propagation of Divine truth, we have abundant reason for thankfulness to God, and with the eye of faith may look forward to the speedy dawn of the day when the glorious achievements of Divine grace will inspire the hearts of a saved world to unite in the loud acclaim, "Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth."

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

YOUR Committee on Temperance would respectfully report that they believe intemperance has been on the increase. While in some of our societies our people are fully alive to the great importance of the temperance question, and are co-operating with temperance organizations for the destruction of the liquor traffic, and for the reformation of those who have become the wretched victims of intemperance, yet many of our members manifest an indifference concerning this subject which we can not harmonize with the true spirit of Christianity. We deeply deplore the increase of intemperance and the absence of that determination to destroy the liquor traffic which in other days generally characterized our people. Therefore,

1. Resolved, That we will put on all the armor which God has given us, and continue with renewed energy the battle against intemperance and in favor of total abstinence.

2. Resolved, That, as ministers of Jesus Christ, we will in our pulpits, and in our pastoral visitations, urge upon our people to avoid every thing that might have the appearance of encouraging this great evil.

3. Resolved, That as far as possible we will co-operate with all temperance societies, of whatever name, and all conventions within our reach, for the bringing in of that glorious era when intoxicating liquors shall neither hurt nor destroy in all God's holy mountain.

A. W. TIBBITS.

JAMES STEPHENSON, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

YOUR Committee ascertain the following facts through the circular of the Corresponding Secretary of the Tract Society:

1. The number of pages of Tracts printed last year was 3,838,000. The average circulation of the Good News was 50,500. Counting each number of the Good News equal to 30 pages of tracts, it appears that the equivalent of 22,018,000 pages of tracts were printed at the Book Concern. Add 2,507,256 pages of tracts circulated by the press in Germany and Switzerland, and we find that 24,525,256 pages of tracts were circulated by our Church in 1866, with the small income of $14,574.24. These have gone out to bless and elevate humanity and bring glory to God.

2. The plans for tract circulation are such that each pastor by taking a collection can obtain all the tracts needed for his work by making application. The Tract Society is preparing to co-operate with preachers and teachers in the South, by furnishing them with such cards, primers, and easy reading books as they may need in giving elementary school instruction to the freedmen and their children, and will need additional funds.

3. The collections of our Conference are meager; amounting to only about $172.52.

In many of the charges in the bounds of the Conference, no collection for this cause has been taken and no tracts distributed, and thus this power for good has not been brought to bear upon the people.

In view of these facts, we present the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we will endeavor to take collections in all our charges, and thus aid at once the Parent Society, and secure alike the tracts needed for our own work.

2. Resolved, That we will recommend to, and seek to carry out in our various charges, the faithful and systematic distribution of these tracts among the people, as a means of accomplishing great good.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

1. Resolved, That we heartily approve the reconstruction acts of our National Congress, especially those measures which aim to make all men equal before the law.

2. Resolved, That we deprecate the apparent determination of the President of the United States to misinterpret and refuse to execute, according to their true meaning and intent, the laws of Congress respecting reconstruction, and his removal of certain executive officers who have sought to accomplish faithfully the will of Congress and of the loyal people of the land.

3. Resolved, That we reject the political heresy of "State Rights," and that we indorse fully the wholesome and patriotic declaration of Chief Justice Marshall, that "America is my country, and Congress is my government."

4. Resolved, That we lament the endeavors of a partisan press and the itinerating advocates of leniency to traitors, stimulated by the policy and suggestions of our President, to injure the public credit by their persistent clamors for a repudiation of our National liabilities.

5. Resolved, That we will never consent to a relinquishment of those high objects which were gained at such a sacrifice of blood and treasure through the conflict of loyal with rebel forces in the field.

6. Resolved, That, in our prayerful judgment, "treason should be made odious," and "traitors" of high degree should henceforth be made to occupy "back seats" in the conduct of public affairs till the spirit of loyalty takes the place within them of hatred to the principles of republican equality.

7. Resolved, That we extend our sincere sympathy to those officers of the Government whose honest endeavors to do right have subjected them to the maledictions of a perverse executive; and we call upon Congress and the General of our armies to continue to stand firm in their attitude of opposition to traitors and to "heady" wickedness in high places.

8. Resolved, That the protracted disturbance of our public affairs demands a rigid inquiry into the prime causes of that protracted disturbance and a prompt enforcement of the constitutional provision for impeachment against any officer of the Government to whom it may justly be applied.

9. Resolved, That, recognizing the efficiency of Christian prayer and effort in time past, when our National unity and even existence were in imminent peril, we will henceforth labor and pray that treason and strife may come to an end in all our borders through the submission of the factious and the disloyal to the equitable demands of an enlightened Christian patriotism.

10. Resolved, That the great Christian Commonwealth of Ohio ought to purge itself at once and forever of all unrighteous discriminations between the men of high and low degree among its loyal citizens, and that we therefore approve heartily the pending amendment which proposes to strike out the word "white" from the Constitution of the State.

REPORT ON APPOINTMENT OF TRUSTEE.

THE Committee to whom was referred the appointing of a successor in the place of Leroy Swormstedt, deceased, trustee in trust in a certain deed made by John Mears and wife for the use of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, would report and recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That John Milton Phillips be, and he is hereby, appointed trustee in the stead of Leroy Swormstedt, deceased, under and in pursuance of the provisions of the deed of John Mears and wife to Joseph M. Trimble and Leroy Swormstedt, trustees in trust, for the use of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America, recorded in Book No. 114, on page 126, etc., of Deed Records of Hamilton County, and State of Ohio.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PARSONAGES.

YOUR Committee beg leave to report that within the bounds of the Cincinnati Conference there are only forty-five parsonages, about one-third of the number necessary to accommodate the ministers and their families; placing two-thirds of them under the painful embarrassment of going to charges where no provision has been made for their residence among their people.

This often greatly diminishes the usefulness of the minister, as well as imposes on him great inconvenience; for, in many cases, months of the best time in the year are almost wasted in waiting for a home.

We also find that the increase in the number of parsonages is exceedingly slow, being only about one each year in the Conference. Your Committee would therefore submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Conference request the presiding elders and preachers in charge to introduce this subject at the first quarterly conference of each charge, and secure, if possible, some action concerning it.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

WE behold with increasing interest and admiration, and with devout thanks to the Author of inspired truth, the successful workings of the great American Bible Society, stretching out like a vast net-work all over our country from State to State, from county to county, from township to township; its agents canvassing every nook and corner of our great country, and then away to foreign lands and to the islands of the sea, she reaches her munificent hand, being like unto the Divine Master, no respecter of persons, condition, sex, or color, but offering alike to all the famishing sons and daughters of Adam's lost race the bread of eternal life. From the annual report of this Society we gather the following facts: Receipts from all sources, $734,089.14; books printed at the Bible House during the year, 935,768 volumes, and in foreign countries, 313,550; making a total of 1,249,318. Books issued from the Bible House, 1,016,354; namely, 324,215 Bibles, 640,625

Testaments, 51,073 portions of Scripture, 424 volumes for the blind, and seventeen volumes of annual reports. Total issue and circulation, domestic and foreign, 1,257,960. The books printed and circulated abroad were in about forty languages and dialects; and now for the third time she is resupplying the United States of America with the precious Word of God. Therefore, in view of her magnificent mission to the world, and the grand results that are being realized,

1. Resolved, That we continue to commend her interests to the sympathies and liberalities of our people, and welcome her accredited agents to our charges and congregations.

2. Resolved, That we recommend to the bishop the reappointment of William Herr as Agent for this Society for South-Western Ohio.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTER OF THE OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

To the members of the Cincinnati Annual Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN,—Your Committee, to whom was assigned the duty, at the session at Ripley, of procuring certain legislation effecting a change in the charter of the Ohio Wesleyan University, have had the subject under consideration, and on account of a lack in the necessary co-operative action on the part of the Ohio and North Ohio Conferences, were unable to effect the change last year. We have assurances, however, that these Conferences will take the necessary action, and we recommend the continuance of a committee from this Conference for the purpose of completing this work.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

WE regard it as a self-evident truth that the press is either a mighty agency for good or evil.

Who of us does not both see and regret the wide-spread evil influences exerted by the unsanctified press of our land?

How important, then, that the Church should meet, and combat, and conquer its enemies on their own ground, and by a skillful employment of similar weapons!

It is a matter of congratulation with us that we have so well succeeded in this great enterprise. But while this may be true, it is to be regretted that the present high prices of our religious publications do greatly limit the extent of their circulation, thereby restraining their influence for good; therefore,

Resolved, That we heartily concur in the suggestion of the Western Book Committee, addressed to our Book Agents; namely, to reduce the price of our periodicals.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CASE OF REV. S. SALISBURY.

To the members of the Cincinnati Annual Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN,—We attended faithfully to the duty you assigned us; and though we were met with much that was unpleasant and embarrassing, owing to the nature of the case, and the conflicting opinions as to the rules which should govern us in the management of it, yet we persevered in the work assigned us, and procured and presented to the North Indiana Conference some one hundred and seventy-five depositions in connection with the bill of charges. Although this necessitated a heavy tax upon the time of the Committee, etc., we succeeded in presenting the case before his Conference, and he was thereupon expelled from the Church. In conclusion, we respectfully suggest that some arrangement be made hereafter to reimburse the necessary pecuniary outlay of Committees performing like service.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON JAMES MANNING'S CASE.

YOUR Committee, after hearing a full and frank statement from brother Manning in reference to his financial operations since he left the regular work of the ministry, are satisfied that he did not intend to be dishonest or to defraud his creditors. It is true we found him insolvent to the amount of between $1,200 and $1,300 without any means to make payment. But this insolvency appears to have been the result of injudicious financiering and not of dishonesty.

REPORT OF JUDICIARY COMMITTEE ON REV. J. J. HILL'S CASE.

Whereas, the case of Rev. J. J. Hill has been referred to this Court, and after hearing the testimony in the case, we find that the charges and specifications are not sustained, yet, from the testimony, we are persuaded that the looseness of the business transactions of brother Hill meets with our decided disapprobation—and yet from his general Christian character in the past, and his actions in settling all the debts on which the charges and specifications were based, and the parties concerned having been satisfied; therefore,

Resolved, That the Chairman of this Court be requested to convey this opinion to brother Hill, and admonish him in reference to the past, and advise him to use more caution in his business transactions in the future. [Signed,]

REPORT ON ENLARGEMENT OF PRESIDING ELDERS' DISTRICTS.

THE presiding elders beg leave to report the result of the action of the several quarterly conferences of their respective districts, on the question of the enlargement of the districts, for twelve, sixteen, twenty-four, thirty, thirty-six appointments respectively.

	Twelve.	Sixteen.	Twenty-four.	Thirty.	Thirty-six.	Enlargement.
East Cincinnati district	81	51	84	9	7	...
West Cincinnati district	8	10	92	0	5	3
Dayton district	49	3	95	12	...	...
Xenia district	76	9	88	...	...	...

	466	78	340	12	12	3

Springfield—for enlargement, 31; against, 176—the First Church in Urbana declining any action.

In the East Cincinnati, West Cincinnati, and Dayton districts, where there are already in each district more than sixteen appointments, the votes given for that number must evidently be taken as in favor of a reduction, and will be so counted in the general summary which we now present: for enlargement, 412 votes; against enlargement, 706 votes.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON MEMOIRS.

DAVID WHITCOMB.

DAVID WHITCOMB was born and was converted in West Virginia. His conversion was so clear, and his life so devoted to Christ, that his unconverted friends soon confessed that he was a changed man; and such was his zeal for the salvation of souls, that the Church soon recognized in him one called of God to preach the unsearchable riches of Christ; and such was his fidelity to his Divine Master, and success in winning souls to Christ, that the Church was assured that she had not laid her hands suddenly or improperly on him when she authorized him to proclaim the Gospel of the grace of God. David Whitcomb was received into the Ohio Conference on trial, at its session in Hillsboro, September, 1826. His ministry was attended with marked success in all the circuits, stations, and districts where he labored. Many souls were converted, and much people were added to the Lord through his instrumentality, who will shine as stars in his crown of rejoicing in the day of the Lord Jesus.

David Whitcomb was one of the Lord's noblemen; none knew him but to love him. Last Fall, while on a visit to his friends in Butler county, Ohio, he preached frequently in Monroe station, and in the vicinity, showing that the same holy fire and love of souls burned in his heart. He frequently remarked, "I am very conscious that my bodily health and strength is failing, but I feel that my hope of eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord is as firm as ever." He suddenly and sweetly fell asleep in Christ, at his home in Shelbyville, Indiana, leaving to his family and friends the glorious comfort, that their loss was his eternal gain. May we his brethren in the ministry follow him as he followed Christ! Amen.

REV. DAVID REED.

DAVID REED was born near Frankfort, Ohio, December 11, 1810. The Bible attaches great importance to the piety and fidelity of parents. In this respect David was eminently blessed. He remarked in a speaking meeting, a few days before his death, that there was nothing connected with his early training that was calculated to make any other than a favorable impression on his mind in regard to the Christian religion. But all his religious culture and Scriptural instruction received from his devout parents did not supersede the necessity of a change of heart—"the washing of regeneration."

The more David observed the instructions and holy example of his parents, the more he felt his need of personal salvation. Especially did he realize his great spiritual want when the other members of the family would retire, as was their custom, for secret prayer. On one of these occasions he was so overwhelmed with a sense of his lost condition that he cried out, "Lord Jesus, what will become of me?" On another occasion, when his brother Alexander was leading in prayer, an arrow from the Almighty so pierced his heart and conscience as to enable him to see and feel his guilt and danger as a sinner. Under this awakening grace he became an earnest seeker of salvation. One evening he, his brother, and three other youths attended a prayer meeting at the neighborhood school-house. On their way home this band of five young men called a halt in the woods and held a prayer meeting. There it was, near "midnight's lonely hour," the noble youth, David Reed, was gloriously converted and born into the kingdom of God.

It was not long till he received a clear conviction that he was called of God to labor in his vineyard; and, with a humble reliance on Christ for help, he soon entered upon the holy work. He was authorized as an exhorter in the Church, November 18, 1831, and to preach August 13, 1832. And by the same large quarterly conference of Deer Creek circuit he was recommended to the Ohio Conference as a suitable person to be admitted into the traveling connection. In the Fall of that year he was cordially admitted and appointed to Guyandotte circuit. He labored his first four years in West Virginia, crossing the mountains, traversing the valleys, and preaching salvation through Christ to the inhabitants of that rough and sparsely-settled region, "bearing hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ."

In the Fall of 1834 he was ordained deacon, and two years later he graduated to the full order of the Christian ministry, and was appointed to Franklin circuit. During this Conference year, February 28, 1837, he was happily married to Miss Hannah Finley, who yet lives to mourn the loss of a most affectionate and kind husband.

In the Autumn of 1837 he was returned to Franklin; 1838, stationed at Hamilton; 1839, Frankfort circuit; 1840, the same; 1841, Greenfield station; 1842, Deer Creek circuit; 1843, Asbury station, Cincinnati; 1844, Main-Street, Chillicothe; 1845, Bainbridge; 1846, Kanawha district—presiding elder four consecutive years; 1850, Parkersburg station; 1851, Point Pleasant, which completed his tenth year in that hard and laborious field, West Virginia; 1852 he was appointed to Union circuit; 1853, Red Lion; 1854, Troy station; 1855, West Cincinnati district four years; 1859, Xenia district. At this session of the Cincinnati Conference he was elected a delegate to the General Conference of 1860. He was continued a second year on Xenia district; 1861, two years presiding elder of Dayton district; 1863, Union circuit—here he served three years; 1866, New Burlington circuit, where he fell at his post covered with glory.

Brother Reed had a superior mind, and his acquired knowledge and experience thoroughly qualified him for the great work of an itinerant minister. His noble body and great physical strength, as well as his usually uninterrupted health, showed that he was eminently adapted to his trying and laborious toil. He was well received by the people in all the fields of labor assigned him, and his usefulness was manifested in every place, and many souls were brought to Christ through his instrumentality, and the Church greatly edified. As a minister he was attractive, and possessed great power. His appearance in the pulpit was commanding, his voice was clear and melodious, and his delivery easy. His discourses were always profitable, and were often truly eloquent, pathetic, and powerful. He was extremely happy in his quotations, both of Scripture and poetry, and enlivening and illustrating his sermons by appropriate and interesting incidents.

This excellent minister prosecuted his favorite work almost to life's last hour. He filled his two appointments on the Sabbath preceding his death. On Tuesday evening he attended a protracted meeting in Waynesville, and delivered his last exhortation. He had not been well for some months, and on the following Saturday evening he was taken with a chill. On Sabbath morning another chill seized him, and by ten o'clock all hope of his recovery had to be relinquished. He sank rapidly, and at 2.50, P. M., Sabbath, March 24, 1867, his body ceased to suffer, and his soul took its flight to the home of the good in heaven.

When informed that he must die, he replied, "It has been a lifetime work with me to prepare for this hour." To his presiding elder, J. F. Conrey, who had just arrived, he said, "All is bright, no clouds." To his brother he said, "I am pretty near home, it is pretty rapid work." To his agonized wife he said, "Hannah, do the best you can; I shall be no stranger in heaven." To brother S. F. Conrey he remarked on his coming in, "I feel pretty comfortable." Allusion being made to that Savior he had so long preached to dying sinners, he replied with great emphasis, "Yes, I have preached Christ sincerely." A short time before he expired he asked his friends to sing "Rock of Ages," etc., and to offer up prayer to God. His breathing then became easier, but grew shorter till it entirely ceased, and without a struggle or a groan he fell asleep in Jesus.

May it be the purpose of his brethren of this Conference to follow him as he followed Christ, that they may die as safe and happy as he died!

SCOVILL'S

COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA AND STILLINGIA, OR

BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP,

Scrofula or King's Evil, White Swelling, Ulcers, Goiter or Swelled Neck, Chronic Rheumatism, Scrofulous Inflammations and Indolent Tumors, Mercurial Affections, Erysipelas, Dyspepsia, Epileptic Fits, Liver Complaint, Old Sores, etc.

THIS preparation belongs to that class of remedies known in the materia medica as alteratives. An alterative is a medicinal agent possessing the power of changing certain disordered actions in the system, chiefly of the chronic character, to a healthy condition, without any sensible evacuation or other appreciable disturbance of the system. It operates primarily upon the blood itself, rendering it pure and healthy, or intermediately upon the organs of digestion and assimilation, thereby amending the state of the blood, and clearing it from impurities; and also upon that ultimate process in the organism by which new material is deposited from the minute capillary blood-vessels, and the effete and worn-out particles are taken up and thrown out of the system by the various excretory organs, such as the liver, skin, kidneys, etc. It is obvious, therefore, that a remedy that possesses these peculiar powers to the fullest extent is of incalculable benefit to humanity, owing to the large number of diseases over which it can exert a salutary influence. We here confidently assert that Scovill's Blood and Liver Sirup possesses these important virtues in an unrivaled degree, being composed of the most powerful alteratives that the vegetable kingdom has yet furnished to the scientific discoveries and researches of the healing art. The various ingredients that enter into its composition are carefully selected under our own supervision, with special reference to their freshness and purity, and each one in its appropriate season, when it possesses its greatest medicinal powers. Their virtues are extracted in our own Laboratory by the latest improved pharmaceutical processes, by which the active principles alone are eliminated, freed from the insoluble and inert matters, thereby obtaining a compound of uniform strength and in its most concentrated form, without injury from an undue application of heat. As each ingredient has its own specific determining action either upon the skin, kidneys, liver, or blood, we have so combined them as to greatly enhance the general alterative effect by bringing to its aid these special curative powers. While we do not doubt the great efficacy of Sarsaparilla as an alterative, yet we have given the Stillingia an equal prominence in this compound, believing that it possesses far superior powers in some diseases, such as scrofulous and mercurial affections. It should not be forgotten that the diseases for which our Blood and Liver Sirup is recommended, belong to that class called chronic, and have been in many instances fastening themselves on the system through many months and even years, and that it will require time to effect that change from a morbid to a healthy condition, which is essential to a radical cure. The patient, therefore, should not be too easily discouraged, but should persevere in the use of it till its efficacy has been fairly tested. Our formula is no secret, but has been furnished by circular to physicians all over the country, and has been published in some of the medical journals for the advantage of the profession.

Read the following statement of WILLIAM S. MERRILL, the oldest Chemist and Druggist in Cincinnati:

We hereby certify that we have been made acquainted with the formula of Scovill's Compound Sirup of Sarsaparilla and Stillingia, or Blood and Liver Sirup. The ingredients are ENTIRELY OF VEGETABLE ORIGIN and of PRIME QUALITY, and the virtues extracted by an alcoholic process. NO MINERAL SUBSTANCE ENTERS INTO THE COMPOSITION.

WILLIAM S. MERRILL & CO., one door west of the Burnet House.

Also read the statement of Dr. S. W. EVERETT, who used the Blood and Liver Sirup in his practice, with success in every case:

COOPER'S PLAINS, Steuben County, New York, March, 1860.

It is with pleasure that I write to you in regard to Scovill's Blood and Liver Sirup. I think it one of the best purifiers of the day. It has met with perfect success in every case where I have used it. My first case was that of a young child, about eighteen months old, troubled with Erysipelas and Scrofula very badly. By the use of the BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP it has entirely recovered. The other case was a lady who had been afflicted with Scrofula for the last twenty-five years. She had tried the prescriptions of the most skillful physicians in this part of the country with no beneficial effect. She commenced using the BLOOD AND LIVER SIRUP in November, and at that time was in the most deplorable condition, having been unable to do any work for the past twenty years. She is now entirely well, and able to attend to her work.

DR. WARREN'S

TONIC CORDIAL.

The Greatest Invigorator ever offered to the Public for Exciting the Appetite and promoting good Digestion, and for the cure of Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Heartburn, Chronic Diarrhea, Flatulence, Acid Eructations, and all the manifold Diseases arising from a deranged and debilitated Stomach.

HAVING long felt the necessity of affording the public an efficient and agreeable Tonic and Invigorator, as a substitute for those Bitter Stomachics with which the country is flooded, and that are so repulsive to the taste, and against which the weakened and debilitated stomach so frequently revolts, we have, after long experiments and great research, adopted the above valuable preparation as a remedy that has stood the test of experience, and has always been attended with the most gratifying results in its administration. It is composed of the most efficacious tonics and alteratives known to the materia medica, one of which being extremely difficult to obtain on account of its rarity, is peculiar to this remedy alone, and distinguishes it from all others. These are so combined with grateful aromatic tonics as to make it surpassingly agreeable to the taste, excelling, in this respect, the most delicious beverage. It has no superior as a preventive of Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Bilious Remittent Fevers, and the various diseases incident to a malarious climate. Those who live in low, marshy districts will find the use of it invaluable in fortifying and strengthening the system against the deleterious influence of those poisonous exhalations which are the potent cause of these widely-prevalent periodical diseases. It is unrivaled as an anti-dyspeptic, and will cure flatulence, acidity of the stomach, diarrhea, and every form of indigestion. It excites the appetite, and promotes a healthy assimilation of the food, thereby increasing the flesh, and by stimulating the secretions of the liver and kidneys, and the various glands of the alimentary canal, is a great purifier of the blood. It is superior to all other remedies as a roborant, in recuperating broken-down constitutions, and convalescents should not fail to use it for the purpose of rapidly strengthening the vital energy of the system, exhausted by previous disease, and imparting mental and bodily vigor during the day, and procuring uninterrupted and refreshing sleep during the night. Delicate females will find it a pleasant and decidedly efficacious remedy for nervousness, languor, and debility, and those peculiar affections under whose baleful influence the whole system becomes enervated, the nervous energy is exhausted, the strength declines, the form is attenuated, and the skin becomes sallow and the blood impoverished. The free use of it in such cases will drive away lassitude and ennui, by an increased flow of animal spirits, impart cheerfulness and buoyancy to the feelings, awaken new life and energy in the whole body, and by strengthening the nutritive functions and enriching the blood, will beautify the form and suffuse the complexion with the delicate bloom of youth and health. From its peculiar alterative effect upon the skin, it will prove superior to any mere cosmetic in removing those disagreeable and unsightly pimples and blotches that mar the beauty of the skin in so many persons. On account of its delightful taste it may be given to young children, in small doses, with the happiest effect, in colic and diarrhea, and all those diseases of the stomach and bowels, attended with debility, which prove so fatal to the young.

Mr. E. CARR, West Lancaster, Fayette county, O., sends us, March 7, 1867, the following strong testimony to the great curative powers of Dr. Warren's Tonic Cordial in dyspepsia:

"I have had dyspepsia or indigestion for a long time, and as bad as any man ever had it. I first tried our country physicians, but got worse. I next tried every thing that my neighbors recommended to me and every thing I saw advertised, but without any benefit. Finally, I was induced by a friend to get one bottle of Dr. Warren's Tonic Cordial, and it gave me such relief that I continued to take it, and by the time I had used the fourth bottle was completely cured. I cheerfully recommend Warren's Tonic Cordial to every dyspeptic in the land, for it will cure indigestion just as sure as the sun rises and sets.

THE

CIRCASSIAN HAIR OIL:

One of the Finest Articles in the World for the Toilet, producing a Luxuriant Growth of the Hair, and rendering it Soft, Silken, and Lustrous.

THIS preparation is not a mere perfumed Oil, but an ELEGANT MEDICINAL COMPOUND AND DRESSING, possessing superior tonic qualities, which serve to counteract that strong tendency to baldness and premature grayness of the hair so prevalent in this country. It is cooling to the scalp, allays itching, removes dandruff, eradicates all eruptions and humors, and causes the young hair to grow by invigorating the skin, nerves, and blood-vessels, which supply the roots of the hair with nutriment and life.

No personal duty is more neglected than that which pertains to the caring for the growth and appearance of the hair, and, as a consequence, dandruff collects upon the scalp, closing up the pores, thereby retarding the growth, and checking the natural oily secretion, by which the hair is rendered soft, glossy, and luxuriant. The use of the Circassian Hair Oil will prevent all these evil consequences, and will promote the growth of a fine head of hair, at the same time imparting to it the richest luster.

Since we first prepared this HAIR OIL, we have so improved it, by the addition of active tonic ingredients, that it is now unequaled by any HAIR-DRESSING ever offered to the community, and is superior to any oil or pomatum, being entirely free from rancid animal or vegetable oils or from the parching and deleterious effects of alcohol. Its acknowledged excellence depends upon its highly-invigorating qualities, and its healthy, stimulating effects upon the tissues of the scalp, thereby promoting that natural, oily secretion of the sebaceous follicles which imparts a far richer luster to the hair than can be obtained by the use of "pomades," at the same time maintaining the life and growth of this beautiful adornment of the person.

MRS. ASA COLLINS, Front-street, between Broadway and Sycamore, Cincinnati, says:

"I will state, for the benefit of others, that my head became partially bald, and the hair was fast coming out. I was induced to try the Circassian Hair Oil, which had the effect of stopping it from falling off almost immediately; and I kept on using it, when new hair commenced to make its appearance, which induced me to persevere in its use till my hair was entirely restored, and now my hair is as good as ever."

Mr. ISAAC JONES, Columbus, O., writes:

"My hair was falling out so fast that I became fearful that it would all leave my head. I tried many preparations without benefit, till by the solicitation of a friend, I was induced to use your Circassian Hair Oil, which has done for me all you recommend it to do. My hair has stopped coming out, and the scalp is healthy, with new hair making its appearance all over my head."

CAPT. S. F. GARRETT, U. S. A., 123 Spring-street, Cincinnati, O., says:

"Having used your Circassian Hair Oil, I have found it superior to any Hair Oil I have ever used. It prevents the hair from falling out, is pleasant to use, renders the hair glossy and soft, and promotes its growth. Many of my friends have tried it, and all pronounce it the best Hair Oil they have ever used."

Read the following statement of the almost miraculous efficacy of the Circassian Hair Oil in promoting a luxuriant growth of the hair.

MESSRS. J. J. COVER & Co., our agents at Johnsville, Morrow co., O., write us, April 24, 1867, and among other things say:

"We would remark that there is an instance of the efficacy of the CIRCASSIAN HAIR OIL, within a few miles of this place, that approximates to a miracle. An old gentleman, upward of sixty years of age, bought four bottles of the HAIR OIL of us, two years ago, and was at this time nearly bald, and what hair remained was fast coming out, and the HAIR OIL prevented his hair from farther falling off, and caused a luxuriant growth of fine soft black hair, which hangs in clusters (as he lets it grow long) over his snow-white side whiskers and beard, presenting a singular if not novel appearance. The writer saw and conversed with him, and it is on account of this instance that we order so largely of the HAIR OIL."

THE GREAT AMERICAN CONSUMPTIVE REMEDY.

10,000 DOLLARS REWARD IS OFFERED FOR A BETTER RECIPE.

It contains no Opium, Calomel, or Mineral Poison, and can be safely taken by the most delicate child. It is estimated that 150,000 die annually in the United States with Consumption, and Professor Eberle says that a vast number of these could be saved by the timely use of some proper remedy.

DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS strikes at the root of the disease at once, and such is its speedy effect that any one using it freely, according to directions, for twenty-four or forty-eight hours, and not being entirely satisfied with its merits, may return it and receive back his money. The most distressing cough is frequently relieved by a single dose, and broken up in a few hours' time. The afflicted do not have to take bottle after bottle before they find whether this remedy will afford relief or not. Searching analysis has enabled fraudulent imitators to gain an imperfect knowledge of some of its ingredients, but has failed to give them that happy combination which is its peculiar excellence, and the source of its great healing powers in all Lung diseases. No higher proof of its intrinsic value as a medicinal agent can be given than the fact that others attempt to deceive the public with their Balsams by false and wicked representations that they are similar in composition to Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs.

The public have been imposed upon by remedies recommended by certificates which have always originated from some unknown source. We believe that a medicine possessing real merits will effect cures wherever it is used, at home as well as abroad. So great has been the success of this medicine that few cities, towns, or villages can be named where some lives have not been saved by the use of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. So unexampled has been its triumph over pulmonary complaints through many years of trial, that the magic words, "Balsam for the Lungs," have become, in the minds of the people, a certain guarantee for the cure of all Lung diseases, and unprincipled men knowing this and caring only for making money, without regard to the health or life of those who purchase, have adopted names similar in sound for their worthless compounds, thinking thereby to throw a charm around them, and sell them on the reputation of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs; and some, in recommending their "Lung Balsams," recently brought to the notice of the public, have even dared to use certificates for cures that have been effected many years since by the use of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, hoping thereby to deceive the afflicted, and gain a paltry sum at the risk of the health and even life of their victims. We therefore caution all to beware of such unprincipled deceptions. Physicians and other intelligent persons, in all parts of the country, have given their unqualified approval and recommendation of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. Would it not be the part of wisdom to buy that which is known and approved, in preference to new and uncertain preparations?

We therefore repeat, buy only Dr. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. It is the best.

This is no paregoric preparation, but one which, if used in season, will save the lives of thousands. Cases which the most skillful physicians in this country and in Europe have pronounced incurable, and surrendered as hopeless beyond a doubt, leaving the patients without a single ray to enliven them in their gloom, have been cured by Dr. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and the "victims of Consumption" are now as vigorous and strong as the most robust among us. And these cases are not isolated ones; they are numerous, and can be pointed out in every community, where this most unrivaled remedy has been tested, as our testimonials prove.

Be slow, then, to believe the oft-repeated story about the lungs being gone; or rather let no such apprehension induce you to give up. Act upon the principle that while there is life there is hope. You can never be so low that you can not trust, humanly speaking, in Dr. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. More than one, nay hundreds, have been brought by it almost from death to life, when all else have failed. Give, then, this powerful but harmless remedy a trial.

Accompanying each bottle of DR. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS is a treatise, in pamphlet form, on Consumption and Lung diseases generally, with special directions for using, modes of treatment, etc., for which we bespeak your perusal.
